NOTES CONTINUED

FALL NOTES

- The Cavaliers went 3-4-1 in fall competition and made it to the semifinals of the ACC Tournament before falling to eventual champion Clemson.
- Eight different players accounted for the 10 Virginia goals in the fall, all will return to the roster in the spring.
- As the No. 4th seed in the ACC North Region, Virginia upset top-seeded Wake Forest in Winston-Salem in the ACC Quarterfinals, 2-0. Cabrel Happi Kamseu scored two goals and the Cavaliers recorded their second shutout of the fall.
- Center back Andreas Ueland was one of two Cavaliers listed on the ACC All-Tournament team. Ueland also played every minute of action in the fall.

WHAT'S AT STAKE

- ACC teams will return to their respective Atlantic and Coastal divisions in the spring.
- The Atlantic Division champion will play the Coastal Division champion at the higher seed on April 13.
- The winner of the divisional champion match will play at Clemson (which won the ACC Championship in the fall) on April 17 to determine the ACC's automatic qualifier for the NCAA Tournament.
- If Clemson is the Atlantic Division champion, the April 13 match against the Coastal Division champion will be played to determine the league's automatic qualifier.

ROSTER MAKEUP

- The Cavaliers will be without goalkeeper Colin Shutler who was drafted 45th overall by Toronto FC in the 2021 MLS SuperDraft. Shutler had started 45 games in goal for the Cavaliers over the last four seasons and was listed on the Mac Hermann Award watch list earlier this spring.
- Virginia will also be missing Bret Halsey who was the seventh overall pick of Real Salt Lake in this year's SuperDraft. Halsey started 31 matches for the Cavaliers and was a two-time ACC All-Tournament selection.
- Returning to the spring roster will be Irakoze Donasiyano and Nathaniel Crofts who were both selected in the SuperDraft but will return to their respective MLS teams in May.
- Virginia added defender Will Citron in January who has 15 collegiate games under his belt after spending his freshman season at Cornell. Midyear transfer Scott Williams will add depth to the Cavalier goalkeeping corps

HAPPI POSTSEASON

- It took just one minute and 18 seconds for Cabrel Happi Kamseu to make an impact in the quarterfinal victory over Wake Forest. Shortly after checking in, Happi Kamseu scored his first goal of the season and what would eventually be the game-winner on Sunday in the 31st minute.
- He went on to score his second goal of the match in the 52nd minute intercepting a pass deep in the Demon Deacon zone before chipping it over the goalkeeper's head. He vaulted himself into the team lead in goals (2) and points (4)
- Happi Kamseu became the Cavaliers' first multiple goal scorer since Daryl Dike's brace against the same Wake Forest program in the semifinals of the 2019 College Cup.
- The appearance was Happi Kamseu's second of the season, his only other action coming in a start at Virginia Tech on Oct. 14. He logged 50 minutes of action.
- The two goals were his second and third ACC Tournament goals of his career. He scored the game-winner in the 2019 ACC Championship match against Clemson and earned a spot on the ACC All-Tournament Team
- Happi Kamseu now has nine career goals, second most on the team to Nathaniel Crofts' 11.

- The 1-0 loss in the regular season finale against in-state foe Virginia Tech snapped a 16-game unbeaten streak against the Hokies.
- George Gelnovatch became the fastest coach to 90 ACC wins and only the third coach ever to reach the 90-win plateau with a 2-1 overtime win over Syracuse on Oct. 30.

HEAD COACH GEORGE GELNOVATCH

George Gelnovatch enters his 25th season as the head coach of the Virginia men's soccer program. The longest tenured head coach in program history, Gelnovatch has led the Cavaliers to a pair of national championships in 2009 and 2014 as well as six NCAA College Cup appearances and 24-consecutive berths in the NCAA tournament.

Gelnovatch became the program's all-time leader in wins on August 25, 2017 with a 3-2 double-overtime victory over Villanova, surpassing his UVA mentor Bruce Arena for the program record in wins with 296. He reached the 300-win plateau on Sept. 15, 2017 with a 2-1 triumph at Virginia Tech, becoming just the fourth coach in Atlantic Coast Conference history to win 300 career matches.

A former Cavalier soccer All-American and assistant coach, Gelnovatch has guided Virginia to five ACC tournament titles, three regular-season ACC championships and a record of 341-134-59 (.694) during his tenure as UVA head coach. Over the course of his 30 years as an assistant and head coach at Virginia, he has been a part of all seven of the Cavaliers' national championships.

Gelnovatch is the first coach in NCAA Division I men's soccer history to lead 20-straight teams to the NCAA tournament. He is one of just eight coaches in the Division I men's soccer annals to take 20 teams to the tournament and one of only four active coaches to do so.

Going into 2020, Gelnovatch ranked as the seventh-winningest active head coach in Division I college soccer, with a .697 career winning percentage. He stood 13th in career wins among current head coaches. Among Division I coaches all-time, he ranked 34th in career wins and 37th in career winning percentage. These figures are even more striking when considering Gelnovatch's teams play one of the nation's toughest schedules on a yearly basis.

Virginia has won at least 15 games in a season 10 times under Gelnovatch, including 2019 when it won 21 games the second most in the history of the program en route to an ACC Coastal Division Championship, an ACC Tournament crown and a Runner-Up finish in the NCAA College Cup.

Gelnovatch has developed a number of Major League Soccer players during his UVA tenure, with 30 players going in MLS drafts and 12 in the MLS Supplemental Draft, while eight signed Project-40/Generation Adidas contracts and Jordan Allen (2014), Derrick Etienne (2015), Scott Thomsen (2015) and Aboubacar Keita (2018) each signed MLS Homegrown contracts. Jason Moore (1999) and Alecko Eskandarian (2003) were selected No. 1 in the MLS Draft, as 13 Cavaliers have been picked in the first round of the various MLS drafts.

Gelnovatch was named the 10th coach of the Virginia program on Jan. 3, 1996, after Bruce Arena announced he would end his 18-year career at the helm of UVA soccer to become head coach and assistant general manager of Major League Soccer's D.C. United.
