NOTES CONTINUED

HOOS BACK FOR VIRGINIA

The Cavaliers return a strong contingent of 22 players from last season's squad.

Among those returning are forwards Leo Afonso and Kome Ubogu who combined for 13 goals and a total of 30 points a season ago.

Paul Wiese and Reese Miller return to the outside back positions while a trio of creative midfielders in Axel Ahlander, Daniel Mangarov and Albin Gashi return to command the center of the pitch.

VIRGINIA CAPTAINS

Leo Afonso returns to captain the team for the third season. He will be joined by goalkeeper, Holden Brown and center back, Will Citron.

FAMILIAR OPPOSITION

Virginia's match with George Mason will feature the return of two players from the 2022 squad in Asparuh Slavov and Erick Kilosho.

Slavov made 33 appearances during his two seasons at UVA. He earned All-ACC freshman honors in 2021.

Kilosho made 18 appearances for Virginia. He logged one assist against VCU in 2021.

STRONG AT THE BACK

Will Citron found it a challenge to break into Virginia's starting eleven in 2022 as coach Gelnovatch often opted for Andreas Ueland, Moritz Kappelsberger and Aidan O'Connor anchoring a back three—leaving Citron as the odd man out.

As the season wore on he played important, but sporadic minutes, appearing in 12 games and making nine starts. He made the most of his appearances, playing the full 90 minutes in three crucial games against top-25 opposition as UVA went 2-0-1 in those matches.

After being named captain ahead of the season, Citron is a natural fit to lead the Virginia back line following the departure of Ueland for the MLS Draft.

IMPACT NEWCOMERS

Virginia's 2023 recruiting class ranks in the nation's top-five according to TopDrawerSoccer. With it, comes a wealth of college soccer experience including five transfers. Among those is Mouhameth Thiam, a first team All-Pac-12 selection for Oregon State last season who led the Beavers in goals (5) and assists (4).

The Virginia youngsters are just as exciting. The freshman class includes players who have seen competition at the highest levels such as: Stephen Annor Gyamfi (SIMA Gold),

Cesar Cordova (Houston Dynamo), Brendan Lambe (Atlanta United) and Nacho Alem (DC United).

A LOOK AT 2022

Virginia placed itself back amongst college soccer's elite in 2022 earning a top-four national seed for the 10th time in program history — The Cavaliers failed to make the tournament during the height of the COVID-19 pandemic (2020, 2021).

The Cavaliers went 10-4-5 while playing the nation's toughest-rated schedule while ending the season fourth in the RPI—Virginia logged wins over NCAA Champions Syracuse, No. 18 Clemson, No. 25 Wake Forest, and a pair of victories over College Cup semifinalists, Pitt — the Cavaliers also earned a pair of draws with No. 2, Duke and No. 3 Syracuse. Virginia went undefeated on the road in ACC play (3-0-1).

ANNOR PLEASE

Cavalier freshman Stephen Annor Gyamfi provides an electrifying presence at the top of Virginia's attack. The Ghanaian forward scored five goals in three games, punctuating each with his trademarked backflip celebration during the preseason. He has yet to score his first regular-season goal as a Cavalier.

When referring to Stephen on broadcast, stick to "Stephen Annor" instead of "Stephen Annor Gyamfi".

A KNACK FOR PENALTY SAVES

Goalkeeper, Joey Batrouni, brings with him a number of impressive qualities, but the junior has proven he has a knack for saving penalty kicks early on.

The Coastal Carolina transfer denied a penalty attempt late against LMU. This was a theme carrying over from the spring of 2023 in which Batrouni saved a penalty against Georgetown in the Spring Soccer Cup—that game finished in a shootout where Batrouni made back-to-back stops as the Hoos came out on top.

COACHING ELEVATIONS

George Gelnovatch announced on July 17 the elevation of Adam Perron from assistant coach to associate head coach. Jermaine Birriel was promoted to an assistant coaching position after serving as an operations director for two seasons.

INSIDE THE ACC

GELNOVATCH'S 100TH ACC WIN

Entering his 28th season in Charlottesville, Virginia head coach, George Gelnovatch currently sits at 99 ACC wins.

With his first ACC victory of the 2023 campaign, Gelnovatch will become just the second ACC coach to accomplish the feat—and the first to reach the milestone at a single school (Jay Vidovich compiled 100+ combined wins at Wake Forest and Pitt)

NOTE: Only regular-season contests against ACC opponents count as conference wins.

ACC PRESEASON WATCH LIST

Virginia's senior captain Leo Afonso has been named to the ACC Preseason Watch List, the league announced August 16.

Afonso returns as Virginia's top scorer for the second-consecutive season, tallying 18 points in each of the past two seasons.

HEAD COACH GEORGE GELNOVATCH

George Gelnovatch enters his 28th season as the head coach of the Virginia men's soccer program. The longest tenured head coach in program history, Gelnovatch has led the Cavaliers to a pair of national championships in 2009 and 2014 as well as six NCAA College Cup appearances and 24-consecutive berths in the NCAA tournament (1996-2019).

Gelnovatch became the program's all-time leader in wins on August 25, 2017 with a 3-2 double-overtime victory over Villanova, surpassing his UVA mentor Bruce Arena for the program record in wins with 296. He reached the 300-win plateau on Sept. 15, 2017 with a 2-1 triumph at Virginia Tech, becoming just the fourth coach in Atlantic Coast Conference history to win 300 career matches.

A former Cavalier soccer All-American and assistant coach, Gelnovatch has guided Virginia to five ACC tournament titles, three regular-season ACC championships and a record of 362-153-67 (.680) during his tenure as UVA head coach. Over the course of his tenure as an assistant and head coach at Virginia, he has been a part of all seven of the Cavaliers' national championships.

Gelnovatch is the first coach in NCAA Division I men's soccer history to lead 20-straight teams to the NCAA tournament. He is one of just eight coaches in the Division I men's soccer annals to take 20 teams to the tournament and one of only four active coaches to do so.

Among active coaches, Gelnovatch enters the 2023 campaign ranked seventh in career wins (361) and 13th in career win percentage (.680). Among Division I coaches all-time, he ranked 33rd in career wins and 43rd in career winning percentage. These figures are even more striking when considering Gelnovatch's teams play one of the nation's toughest schedules on a yearly basis.

Virginia has won at least 15 games in a season 10 times under Gelnovatch, including 2019 when it won 21 games the second most in the history of the program en route to an ACC Coastal Division Championship, an ACC Tournament crown and a Runner-Up finish in the NCAA College Cup.

Gelnovatch has developed a number of Major League Soccer players during his UVA tenure, with 31 players going in MLS drafts and 13 in the MLS Supplemental Draft, while nine signed Project-40/Generation Adidas contracts and Jordan Allen (2014), Derrick Etienne (2015), Scott Thomsen (2015) and Aboubacar Keita (2018) each signed MLS Homegrown contracts. Jason Moore (1999) and Alecko Eskandarian (2003) were selected No. 1 in the MLS Draft, as 13 Cavaliers have been picked in the first round of the various MLS drafts.

Gelnovatch was named the 10th coach of the Virginia program on Jan. 3, 1996, after Bruce Arena announced he would end his 18-year career at the helm of UVA soccer to become head coach and assistant general manager of Major League Soccer's D.C. United.
