THE KICKOFF

A NEW OPPONENT

- Tonight's matchup will be the first ever meeting between Virginia and ETSU
- The Buccaneers have faced off with ACC competition on one occasion this year when they hosted North Carolina (Sept. 1) falling by a score of 2-1 to the Tar Heels.
- This will be the second time Virginia takes on a brand-new opponent this season after downing Iona by a score of 1-0 (Aug.24) and falling to Loyola Marymount by a score of 3-1 (Aug. 27).

LAST TIME OUT

- Virginia suffered its second ACC loss of the season away to No. 15 Notre Dame (9/22)
- The Cavaliers dominated 58 percent possession creating plenty of chances while putting five shots on frame and taking six corners.

ANNOR FINDING FORM

- Virginia's Stephen Annor engineered a breakout week for the Cavaliers on his way to ACC Player of the Week honors.
- Annor scored three times in the span of two games helping UVA to a 1-1 draw on the road with No. 9 JMU (Sept. 12) and a 3-1 victory over NC State at home (Sept. 16).

VIRGINIA CAPTAINS

Leo Afonso returns to captain the team for the third season. He will be joined by goalkeeper, Holden Brown and center back, Will Citron.

STRONG AT THE BACK

Will Citron found it a challenge to break into Virginia's starting eleven in 2022 as coach Gelnovatch often opted for Andreas Ueland, Moritz Kappelsberger and Aidan O'Connor anchoring a back three—leaving Citron as the odd man out.

As the season wore on he played important, but sporadic minutes, appearing in 12 games and making nine starts. He made the most of his appearances, playing the full 90 minutes in three crucial games against top-25 opposition as UVA went 2-0-1 in those matches.

After being named captain ahead of the season, Citron is a natural fit to lead the Virginia back line following the departure of Ueland who was selected in the 2023 MLS Draft.

SLOAN FINDING HIS WAY

Parker Sloan turned in a spectacular performance against Maryland to help Virginia see out a 2-1 win.

The FC Richmond product was recruited to Virginia as a forward, but did not see the field in his freshman season. Early in 2023, Sloan broke into the team at the left back position.

Against Maryland, Sloan's pace caused Coach Gelnovatch to move the converted fullback to the opposite side of the field in order to deal with the speedy Kimani Stewart-Baynes on the wing of an athletic Maryland attack.

Sloan was crucial to the Cavalier defensive effort as he made things increasingly difficult on Stewart-Baynes—He was rewarded with his first career start in Virginia's following match at Duke (9/8/23).

Sloan served a one-game suspension against NC State after picking up a second yellow at JMU.

IMPACT NEWCOMERS

Virginia's 2023 recruiting class ranks in the nation's top-five according to TopDrawerSoccer. With it, comes a wealth of college soccer experience including five transfers. Among those is Mouhameth Thiam, a first team All-Pac-12 selection for Oregon State last season who led the Beavers in goals (5) and assists (4). Thiam has 20 collegiate goals to his name.

The Virginia youngsters are just as exciting. The freshman class includes players who have seen competition at the highest levels such as: Stephen Annor Gyamfi (SIMA Gold), Cesar Cordova (Houston Dynamo), Brendan Lambe (Atlanta United) and Nacho Alem (DC United).

A LOOK AT 2022

Virginia placed itself back amongst college soccer's elite in 2022 earning a top-four national seed for the 10th time in program history — The Cavaliers failed to make the tournament during the height of the COVID-19 pandemic (2020, 2021).

The Cavaliers went 10-4-5 while playing the nation's toughest-rated schedule while ending the season fourth in the RPI—Virginia logged wins over NCAA Champions Syracuse, No. 18 Clemson, No. 25 Wake Forest, and a pair of victories over College Cup semifinalists, Pitt — the Cavaliers also earned a pair of draws with No. 2, Duke and No. 3 Syracuse. Virginia went undefeated on the road in ACC play (3-0-1).

ANNOR PLEASE

Cavalier freshman Stephen Annor provides an electrifying presence at the top of Virginia's attack. The Ghanaian forward scored five goals in three preseason games and is now off the mark in the regular season with a game-winner over George Mason, capping each with his trademarked backflip celebration.

When referring to Stephen on broadcast, stick to "Stephen Annor" instead of "Stephen Annor Gyamfi".

PENALTY SAVES

Virginia's opponents have been awarded two penalty kicks in 2023, but Virginia goalkeepers Holden Brown and Joey Batrouni have stopped each.

Batrouni made the stop at the penalty spot against LMU in his debut as a Cavalier after showing of a knack for spot saves in the spring season.

Brown provided a game-saving stop against Maryland to protect a 2-1 Cavalier lead.

CHEMISTRY BUILDING UP TOP

Virginia has scored three goals from open play this season. Two were the result of impressive link-up play between Leo Afonso and Mouhameth Thiam. The pairing were awarded assists on each of Virginia's goals after an impressive showing of awareness inside the opposing penalty area.

HIGH PRESSING STYLE

An clear pillar of the 2023 Cavaliers can be seen in the tendencies of their attacking players at the top. Leo Afonso, Mouhameth Thiam and Stephen Annor are all relentless in their pursuit of the ball.

This style was on full display against Maryland when Mouhameth Thiam's game winning goal came courtesy of a strong challenge of the center back before going to goal.

NOTES CONTINUED

EARLY STRUGGLES

Virginia sat at 3-2-1 after its first six matches after starting 3-2 a season ago.

The slow start did not deter the 2022 squad from achieving great things. The Cavaliers were 2-2 after a 6-1 loss to Maryland at Audi Field and proceeded to lose just three of its next 13 games en route to an appearance in the ACC Semifinal game and a top-four seed in the NCAA tournament.

GELNOVATCH HITS 100 ACC WINS

Head coach George Gelnovatch recorded his 100th ACC victory in a 3-1 win over NC State (Sept. 16). Gelnovatch becomes just the second coach to achieve the feat and the first to do so at a single school. Jay Vidovich hit the milestone in 2022 with combined victories at Wake Forest and Pitt.

NOTE: Only regular-season contests count towards this total.

COACHING ELEVATIONS

George Gelnovatch announced on July 17 the elevation of Adam Perron from assistant coach to associate head coach. Jermaine Birriel was promoted to an assistant coaching position after serving as an operations director for two seasons.

INACTIVES

Sophomore forward Triton Beauvois suffered a torn ACL in a road match at Duke and will miss the remainder of the season.

NUMBERS TO KNOW

51

Virginia has dominated possession this season commanding at least 51 percent of possession in six out of its eight matches so far this season.

6

Head Coach George Gelnovatch has gone deep into his bench this season utilizing a minimum of six substitutes in each game so far—a break from his norm. Gelnovatch deployed a high of 10 substitutes on two occasions (vs GMU, at Duke)

12

Newcomers Stephen Annor and Mouhameth Thiam have proven to be essential to the UVA team in 2023.

The two have combined for a total of 12 points in seven games.

CAVALIER SPOTLIGHTS

MOUHAMETH THIAM
MEANT FOR VIRGINIA

Hailing from Dakar, Senegal, Mouhameth Thiam began his college soccer journey at Radford, just over two hours from Virginia's Klöckner Stadium. After a freshman season in which he led the Highlanders in goals, he transferred to Oregon State to play under former UVA associate head coach (2014-2017), Terry Boss.

Under Boss, Thiam flourished. In his first two seasons, he recorded 10 goals and nine assists for 29 points while leading the Beavers to an Elite 8 appearance in 2021. Thiam garnered All-PAC-12 honors while leading his team in scoring in 2022.

Boss left for Austin FC in 2023 and Thiam entered the transfer portal with one season of remaining eligibility, as well as the attention of top programs around the NCAA. Virginia was already on his mind.

Thiam cites the similarity of coaching styles between George Gelnovatch and Terry Boss, specifically the high standards each demands of their players, as a big reason why he joined the Cavaliers.

He recalled having great respect for the Virginia program while playing against Virginia at Klöckner Stadium with Radford in 2019. Now with Klöckner as his home stadium, Thiam is an impact player for Virginia with a goal and two assists while playing a number of positions in midfield.

STEPHEN ANNOR
INSTANT IMPACT

Ghanaian international, Stephen Annor's electrifying presence at the top of the Virginia attack took nobody by surprise—especially not head coach George Gelnovatch.

A highly sought-after recruit out of Montverde's SIMA Gold, Annor had used up all of his official visits before having the chance to visit Virginia's Grounds.

That didn't stop the Virginia coaches from traveling to Florida to watch him perform. A virtual tour of Grounds would have to suffice, and in the end, Annor chose Virginia.

He has quickly become a fan-favorite in Charlottesville with his highlight-reel goals and electric backflip celebration.

Annor had a breakout week (Sept. 12-16) scoring three goals in two games. The Cavaliers took four points from two matches while Annor garnered ACC Player of the Week honors.

HEAD COACH GEORGE GELNOVATCH

George Gelnovatch enters his 28th season as the head coach of the Virginia men's soccer program. The longest tenured head coach in program history, Gelnovatch has led the Cavaliers to a pair of national championships in 2009 and 2014 as well as six NCAA College Cup appearances and 24-consecutive berths in the NCAA tournament (1996-2019).

Gelnovatch became the program's all-time leader in wins on August 25, 2017 with a 3-2 double-overtime victory over Villanova, surpassing his UVA mentor Bruce Arena for the program record in wins with 296. He reached the 300-win plateau on Sept. 15, 2017 with a 2-1 triumph at Virginia Tech, becoming just the fourth coach in Atlantic Coast Conference history to win 300 career matches.

A former Cavalier soccer All-American and assistant coach, Gelnovatch has guided Virginia to five ACC tournament titles, three regular-season ACC championships and a record of 365-155-68 (.679) during his tenure as UVA head coach. Over the course of his tenure as an assistant and head coach at Virginia, he has been a part of all seven of the Cavaliers' national championships.

Gelnovatch is the first coach in NCAA Division I men's soccer history to lead 20-straight teams to the NCAA tournament. He is one of just eight coaches in the Division I men's soccer annals to take 20 teams to the tournament and one of only four active coaches to do so.

Among active coaches, Gelnovatch enters the 2023 campaign ranked seventh in career wins (361) and 13th in career win percentage (.680). Among Division I coaches all-time, he ranked 33rd in career wins and 43rd in career winning percentage. These figures are even more striking when considering Gelnovatch's teams play one of the nation's toughest schedules on a yearly basis.

Virginia has won at least 15 games in a season 10 times under Gelnovatch, including 2019 when it won 21 games the second most in the history of the program en route to an ACC Coastal Division Championship, an ACC Tournament crown and a Runner-Up finish in the NCAA College Cup.

Gelnovatch has developed a number of Major League Soccer players during his UVA tenure, with 31 players going in MLS drafts and 13 in the MLS Supplemental Draft, while nine signed Project-40/Generation Adidas contracts and Jordan Allen (2014), Derrick Etienne (2015), Scott Thomsen (2015) and Aboubacar Keita (2018) each signed MLS Homegrown contracts. Jason Moore (1999) and Alecko Eskandarian (2003) were selected No. 1 in the MLS Draft, as 13 Cavaliers have been picked in the first round of the various MLS drafts.

Gelnovatch was named the 10th coach of the Virginia program on Jan. 3, 1996, after Bruce Arena announced he would end his 18-year career at the helm of UVA soccer to become head coach and assistant general manager of Major League Soccer's D.C. United.
