THE KICKOFF

AGAINST THE EAGLES

- This will mark the 17th meeting between Virginia and Boston College. UVA has the edge with a record of 8-5-3 in the series
- Eight of the last nine meetings between the two teams have been decided by a single goal or less
- The Cavaliers last visited Boston College in 2019 when the teams battled to a 1-1 draw (10/11/19)
- Virginia is 1-2-3 on the road against the Eagles on the road
- The last time the squads met, a Leo Afonso brace powered the Cavaliers to a 2-1 victory at home (10/8/21).

LAST TIME OUT

- The Cavaliers battled No. 16 Hofstra to a 1-1 draw at home (Oct. 3)
- Virginia went down by a score of 1-0 before Danny Mangarov was shown a straight red card
- A Mouhameth Thiam goal leveled the score to help Virginia escape with a draw.

ANNOR ON FIRE

- Virginia's Stephen Annor has looked every bit as advertised as he leads the Hoos in scoring with six to his tally
- Annor scored three times in the span of two games helping UVA to a 1-1 draw on the road with No. 9 JMU (Sept. 12) and a 3-1 victory over NC State at home (Sept. 16) on his way to his first ACC weekly honors.
- After failing to score at Notre Dame, he returned to Klöckner to net a pair of back-to-back game-winners against ETSU and Louisville. He has scored in four of his last six appearances.

BREAKING THE ICE

The Cavaliers have found the back of the net in all but one of their matches this season, but scoring first has proven to be key and they have found a way to do that in seven of 10 matches this season.

When scoring the first goal, UVA is unbeaten with a record of 6-0-1. On the other end, Virginia is 0-3-1 when conceding first in games.

ANNOR PLEASE

Cavalier freshman Stephen Annor provides an electrifying presence at the top of Virginia's attack. The Ghanaian forward leads the Virginia attack with six goals on the season with three game-winners to his tally.

When referring to Stephen on broadcast, stick to "Stephen Annor" instead of "Stephen Annor Gyamfi".

BATROUNI NAMED ACC DPOW

Virginia goalkeeper, Joey Batrouni, after serving as a backup for six consecutive matches, has been called upon in Virginia's last three games. The junior kept two consecutive clean sheets in wins over ETSU and Louisville.

The ACC announced Tuesday (Oct. 3) that Batrouni had been selected as the defensive player of the week. That evening he helped Virginia to a draw with Hofstra while making four saves.

SLOAN BREAKS THROUGH VS MARYLAND

Parker Sloan turned in a spectacular performance against Maryland to help Virginia see out a 2-1 win.

The FC Richmond product was recruited to Virginia as a forward, but did not see the field in his freshman season. Early in 2023, Sloan broke into the team at the left back position.

Against Maryland, Sloan's pace caused Coach Gelnovatch to move the converted fullback to the opposite side of the field in order to deal with the speedy Kimani Stewart-Baynes on the wing of an athletic Maryland attack.

Sloan was crucial to the Cavalier defensive effort as he made things increasingly difficult on Stewart-Baynes—He was rewarded with his first career start in Virginia's following match at Duke (9/8/23).

IMPACT NEWCOMERS

Virginia's 2023 recruiting class ranks in the nation's top-five according to TopDrawerSoccer. With it, comes a wealth of college soccer experience including five transfers. Among those is Mouhameth Thiam, a first team All-Pac-12 selection for Oregon State last season who led the Beavers in goals (5) and assists (4). Thiam has 20 collegiate goals to his name.

The Virginia youngsters are just as exciting. The freshman class includes players who have seen competition at the highest levels such as: Stephen Annor Gyamfi (SIMA Gold), Cesar Cordova (Houston Dynamo), Brendan Lambe (Atlantta United) and Nacho Alem (DC United)

COMING HOME TO BEANTOWN

The Cavaliers feature a strong New England contingent including a pair of New England Revolution products:

Michael Tsicouliais: Newton, Mass.
Triton Beauvois: Boston, Mass. (Will not travel)
Adam Perron: Ludlow, Mass. (Associate Head Coach)

This will mark Tsicouliais' first time returning home to face the Eagles in a Virginia uniform. He started and played 38 minutes against BC when the Eagles visited Charlottesville in 2021.

PENALTY SAVES

Virginia's opponents have been awarded two penalty kicks in 2023, but Virginia goalkeepers Holden Brown and Joey Batrouni have stopped each.

Batrouni made the stop at the penalty spot against LMU in his debut as a Cavalier after showing of a knack for spot saves in the spring season.

Brown provided a game-saving stop against Maryland to protect a 2-1 Cavalier lead.

HIGH PRESSING STYLE

An clear pillar of the 2023 Cavaliers can be seen in the tendencies of their attacking players at the top. Leo Afonso, Mouhameth Thiam and Stephen Annor are all relentless in their pursuit of the ball.

This style was on full display against Maryland when Mouhameth Thiam's game winning goal came courtesy of a strong challenge of the center back before going to goal.

NOTES CONTINUED

VIRGINIA CAPTAINS

Leo Afonso returns to captain the team for the third season. He will be joined by goalkeeper, Holden Brown and center back, Will Citron.

SLOW START PARALLELS

In 2022, Virginia went 3-2 in its first five games.

The slow start did not deter the 2022 squad from achieving great things. The Cavaliers were 2-2 after a 6-1 loss to Maryland at Audi Field and proceeded to lose just three of its next 13 games en route to an appearance in the ACC Semifinal game and a top-four seed in the NCAA tournament.

Now in 2023, Virginia has found itself in a similar position after another 3-2 start. The Cavaliers rattled off three wins and a draw out of its last five games and are now sitting at No. 18 in the RPI with a record of 6-3-1.

MANGAROV SUSPENDED

Virginia's Danny Mangarov will be inactive while serving a red card suspension.

BEAUVOIS OUT FOR 2023

Sophomore forward Triton Beauvois suffered a torn ACL in a road match at Duke and will miss the remainder of the season.

GELNOVATCH HITS 100 ACC WINS

Head coach George Gelnovatch recorded his 100th ACC victory in a 3-1 win over NC State (Sept. 16). Gelnovatch becomes just the second coach to achieve the feat and the first to do so at a single school. Jay Vidovich hit the milestone in 2022 with combined victories at Wake Forest and Pitt.

NOTE: Only regular-season contests count towards this total.

COACHING ELEVATIONS

George Gelnovatch announced on July 17 the elevation of Adam Perron from assistant coach to associate head coach. Jermaine Birriel was promoted to an assistant coaching position after serving as an operations director for two seasons.

NUMBERS TO KNOW

Stephen Annor has found impressive form midway through the season.

The UVA freshman has totaled five goals in his last six matches..

Head Coach George Gelnovatch has gone deep into his bench this season utilizing a minimum of six substitutes in each game so far—a break from his norm. Gelnovatch deployed a high of 10 substitutes on two occasions (vs GMU, at Duke)

Virginia is unbeaten in it's last three matches—its longest streak of the season.

UVA is hitting form on a similar trend with 2022 when the team was unbeaten in 3 for the first time on Sept. 30

CAVALIER SPOTLIGHTS

MOUHAMETH THIAM

MEANT FOR VIRGINIA

Hailing from Dakar, Senegal, Mouhameth Thiam began his college soccer journey at Radford, just over two hours from Virginia's Klöckner Stadium. After a freshman season in which he led the Highlanders in goals, he transferred to Oregon State to play under former UVA associate head coach (2014-2017), Terry Boss.

Under Boss, Thiam flourished. In his first two seasons, he recorded 10 goals and nine assists for 29 points while leading the Beavers to an Elite 8 appearance in 2021. Thiam garnered All-PAC-12 honors while leading his team in scoring in 2022.

Boss left for Austin FC in 2023 and Thiam entered the transfer portal with one season of remaining eligibility, as well as the attention of top programs around the NCAA. Virginia was already on his mind.

Thiam cites the similarity of coaching styles between George Gelnovatch and Terry Boss, specifically the high standards each demands of their players, as a big reason why he joined the Cavaliers.

He recalled having great respect for the Virginia program while playing against Virginia at Klöckner Stadium with Radford in 2019. Now with Klöckner as his home stadium, Thiam is an impact player for Virginia with a goal and two assists while playing a number of positions in midfield.

STEPHEN ANNOR

INSTANT IMPACT

Ghanaian international, Stephen Annor's electrifying presence at the top of the Virginia attack took nobody by surprise—especially not head coach George Gelnovatch.

A highly sought-after recruit out of Montverde's SIMA Gold, Annor had used up all of his official visits before having the chance to visit Virginia's Grounds.

That didn't stop the Virginia coaches from traveling to Florida to watch him perform. A virtual tour of Grounds would have to suffice, and in the end, Annor chose Virginia.

He has quickly become a fan-favorite in Charlottesville with his highlight-reel goals and electric backflip celebration.

Annor had a breakout week (Sept. 12-16) scoring three goals in two games. The Cavaliers took four points from two matches while Annor garnered ACC Player of the Week honors.

HEAD COACH GEORGE GELNOVATCH

George Gelnovatch enters his 28th season as the head coach of the Virginia men's soccer program. The longest tenured head coach in program history, Gelnovatch has led the Cavaliers to a pair of national championships in 2009 and 2014 as well as six NCAA College Cup appearances and 24-consecutive berths in the NCAA tournament (1996-2019).

Gelnovatch became the program's all-time leader in wins on August 25, 2017 with a 3-2 double-overtime victory over Villanova, surpassing his UVA mentor Bruce Arena for the program record in wins with 296. He reached the 300-win plateau on Sept. 15, 2017 with a 2-1 triumph at Virginia Tech, becoming just the fourth coach in Atlantic Coast Conference history to win 300 career matches.

A former Cavalier soccer All-American and assistant coach, Gelnovatch has guided Virginia to five ACC tournament titles, three regular-season ACC championships and a record of 367-156-68 (.678) during his tenure as UVA head coach. Over the course of his tenure as an assistant and head coach at Virginia, he has been a part of all seven of the Cavaliers' national championships.

Gelnovatch is the first coach in NCAA Division I men's soccer history to lead 20-straight teams to the NCAA tournament. He is one of just eight coaches in the Division I men's soccer annals to take 20 teams to the tournament and one of only four active coaches to do so.

Among active coaches, Gelnovatch enters the 2023 campaign ranked seventh in career wins (361) and 13th in career win percentage (.680). Among Division I coaches all-time, he ranked 33rd in career wins and 43rd in career winning percentage. These figures are even more striking when considering Gelnovatch's teams play one of the nation's toughest schedules on a yearly basis.

Virginia has won at least 15 games in a season 10 times under Gelnovatch, including 2019 when it won 21 games the second most in the history of the program en route to an ACC Coastal Division Championship, an ACC Tournament crown and a Runner-Up finish in the NCAA College Cup.

Gelnovatch has developed a number of Major League Soccer players during his UVA tenure, with 31 players going in MLS drafts and 13 in the MLS Supplemental Draft, while nine signed Project-40/Generation Adidas contracts and Jordan Allen (2014), Derrick Etienne (2015), Scott Thomsen (2015) and Aboubacar Keita (2018) each signed MLS Homegrown contracts. Jason Moore (1999) and Alecko Eskandarian (2003) were selected No. 1 in the MLS Draft, as 13 Cavaliers have been picked in the first round of the various MLS drafts.

Gelnovatch was named the 10th coach of the Virginia program on Jan. 3, 1996, after Bruce Arena announced he would end his 18-year career at the helm of UVA soccer to become head coach and assistant general manager of Major League Soccer's D.C. United.
