THE KICKOFF

THE SERIES WITH HIGH POINT

- This will mark the eighth meeting between Virginia and High Point all-time
- Virginia holds a record of 3-3-1 against the High Point all-time with a 3-2-0 mark at home
- The Cavaliers have won their last three games against High Point and are unbeaten against the Panthers under head coach George Gelnovatch

CAVALIERS FINDING FORM

- The Cavaliers are unbeaten in their last six games with four wins and two draws—two of Virginia's three wins in that stretch came against ranked opposition.
- In those matches, Virginia has conceded a total of just three goals while keeping three clean sheets
- In three ACC contests over that stretch, Virginia has taken 10 points out of a possible 12 to surge into second place in the ACC coastal. Virginia logged wins over No. 8 Louisville, No. 11 Pitt and Virginia Tech while taking a draw from BC on the road.

LAST TIME OUT

- Virginia cruised to a 3-0 win over Virginia Tech in the Smithfield Commonwealth Clash on Friday (Oct. 20)
- Stephen Annor recorded his second brace of the season and his fifth game-winner
- Annor's game-winning goal was scored in the third minute of play marking the fastest goal of the season for UVA—it was the second time Annor has scored within the opening five minutes this season

GOOD IN THE CLOSE ONES

Virginia is currently unbeaten in games decided by a single goal or less with a record of 5-0-3. Eight of UVA's 14 games have been decided by a goal or less including three of its last four:

vs Pitt (10/13), W, 2-1
at BC (10/6), T, 1-1
vs Hofstra (10/3), T, 1-1

Each of those three matches for Virginia were trying as the Cavaliers fell behind by a goal in each, testing the team's grit having been unable to earn a positive result after going down a goal in each game prior.

Mouhameth Thiam and Stephen Annor proved their ability to perform in the clutch lifting Virginia to three positive results scoring all four goals in those matches.

COMMON OPPONENTS

Virginia and High Point have matched up with just two common opponents this season—both ACC opposition:

UVA	Results	HPU
@ Virginia Tech: W, 3-0		@ Virginia Tech: L, 2-3
vs NC State: W, 3-1		@ NC State: T, 0-0

LAST TIME AGAINST HIGH POINT

The last time the two teams met took place at Klöckner Stadium on Sept. 2, 2021.

Virginia took home a 2-0 win thanks to a brace from former Cavalier standout Andreas Ueland.

IN THE RANKINGS

Virginia broke into the United Soccer Coaches poll for the first time since the pre-season when they were ranked No. 15.

Virginia checked in at No. 18 in the eight poll of the season. Virginia was ranked 15th by the NCAA Selection Committee on Oct. 20 in the in-season top-16.

THIAM IN THE CLUTCH

Mouhameth Thiam has proven to be a major factor for the Cavaliers when it matters most. Of Virginia's eight game-winning goals this season, Thiam has been involved in five of them.

Thiam has seven total goal involvements this season and each has either tied the game or taken the lead for Virginia.

BREAKING THE ICE

The Cavaliers have found the back of the net in all but one of their matches this season. However, scoring first had proven to be key early on.

When scoring the first goal, UVA is unbeaten with a record of 7-0-1. On the other end, Virginia started 0-3 when conceding the first goal.

In the last three matches in which UVA has conceded the first goal, the Cavaliers have come back to earn a positive result in each. UVA came back to draw No. 16 Hofstra, and tied Boston College in a difficult road match. At home, Virginia found its first comeback victory against No. 11 Pitt by a score of 2-1.

ANNOR SCORING NOTES

Cavalier freshman Stephen Annor provides an electrifying presence at the top of Virginia's attack.

Annor has scored 10 goals this season, which ranks 12th in NCAA. His 10 goals marks the first time a Cavalier has recorded double digit goals since Dary Dike scored 10 goals in 23 games in 2019—Annor has matched that total in just 14 games.

Annor leads all ACC players with seven league goals this season.

Of Virginia's eight game-winning goals, Annor has accounted for half (4) of them. That total is tied for third in NCAA Division I and is just one short of the national lead. Three of his five game-winners have come in one-goal games.

Annor is inching closer to the UVA freshman record of 16 set by Alkecko Eskandarian (2000) and George Gelnovatch (1983)

Annor has scored in five of his last six games, and in six of his last nine. He has scored six goals at home.

When referring to Stephen on broadcast, stick to "Stephen Annor" instead of "Stephen Annor Gyamfi".

NOTES CONTINUED

TOP DRAWER SOCCER MIDSEASON RANKINGS

TopDrawer Soccer announced its midseason top 100 players and freshmen on Oct. 17:

Virginia's Stephen Annor was rated the fourth-best Freshman in NCAA Division I while Mouhameth Thiam was ranked No. 58 on the overall players list.

BATROUNI BETWEEN THE PIPES

Virginia goalkeeper, Joey Batrouni, after serving as a backup for six consecutive matches was thrust into the starting role against ETSU and has started every match since.

The ACC announced Tuesday (Oct. 3) that Batrouni had been selected as the defensive player of the week after a pair of shutout performances including a 3-0 win over No. 8 Louisville.

In his last six games, Batrouni has impressed with a record of 4-0-2 keeping two clean sheets, while making 18 saves and conceding just three goals.

SLOAN BREAKS THROUGH VS MARYLAND

Parker Sloan turned in a spectacular performance against Maryland to help Virginia see out a 2-1 win.

The FC Richmond product was recruited to Virginia as a forward, but did not see the field in his freshman season. Early in 2023, Sloan broke into the team at the left back position.

Against Maryland, Sloan's pace caused Coach Gelnovatch to move the converted fullback to the opposite side of the field in order to deal with the speedy Kimani Stewart-Baynes on the wing of an athletic Maryland attack.

Sloan was crucial to the Cavalier defensive effort as he made things increasingly difficult on Stewart-Baynes—He was rewarded with his first career start in Virginia's following match at Duke (9/8/23).

WIESE RESURGANCE

Paul Wiese has been a consistent presence for the Cavaliers throughout his time in Charlottesville. He led the Cavaliers in assists as a freshman in 2021 with his total of six. In 2022 he started all 19 games for Virginia playing as a right wing-back.

Ahead of the 2023 season, Virginia brought in a stable of newcomers capable of playing first team minutes. As a result, Wiese began the first two games of the season and made just two starts in his first five games.

Virginia switch from a four-back formation back to a 3-5-2 against JMU where Wiese naturally slotted back in as a right wing-back. Wiese has started every game since for the Cavaliers.

IMPACT NEWCOMERS

Virginia's 2023 recruiting class ranks in the nation's top-five according to TopDrawerSoccer. With it, comes a wealth of college soccer experience including five transfers. Among those

NUMBERS TO KNOW

Mouhameth Thiam has seven total goal involvements this season.

All seven of his goals and assists have served to either tie or take the lead.

10

Stephen Annor has 10 goals on the season becoming the first Cavalier to hit double digits since 2019 (Dike, 10g).

He is second in the ACC in total goals and leads the league with 7 ACC goals.

Virginia is unbeaten in it's last six matches—its longest streak of the season.

UVA is hitting form on a similar trend with 2022 when the team was unbeaten in 3 for the first time on Sept. 30 is Mouhameth Thiam, a first team All-Pac-12 selection for Oregon State last season who led the Beavers in goals (5) and assists (4). Thiam has 20 collegiate goals to his name.

The Virginia youngsters are just as exciting. The freshman class includes players who have seen competition at the highest levels such as: Stephen Annor Gyamfi (SIMA Gold), Cesar Cordova (Houston Dynamo), Brendan Lambe (Atlantia United) and Nacho Alem (DC United)

PENALTY SAVES

Virginia's opponents have been awarded two penalty kicks in 2023, but Virginia goalkeepers Holden Brown and Joey Batrouni have stopped each.

Batrouni made the stop at the penalty spot against LMU in his debut as a Cavalier after showing of a knack for spot saves in the spring season.

Brown provided a game-saving stop against Maryland to protect a 2-1 Cavalier lead.

ACC WEEKLY HONORS

Virginia has had three players honored as ACC Player of the Week this season:

- Stephen Annor: ACC Offensive Player of the Week (Sept. 19)
- Joey Batrouni: ACC Defensive Player of the Week (Oct. 3)
- Mouhameth Thiam: ACC Co-Offensive Player of the Week (Oct.17)

VIRGINIA CAPTAINS

Leo Afonso returns to captain the team for the third season. He will be joined by goalkeeper, Holden Brown and center back, Will Citron.

THE RUN IN

Virginia's final two games of the season features a pair of difficult opponents at home:

Remaining Schedule
Date	Team	USC Rank	RPI Rank
Oct. 24	High Point	NR	95
Oct. 27	North Carolina	11	14

OUT FOR 2023

Sophomore forward Triton Beauvois suffered a torn ACL in a road match at Duke and will miss the remainder of the season.

Holden Brown will also miss out on the rest of the 2023 season after sustaining an injury on the training ground.

GELNOVATCH HITS 100 ACC WINS

Head coach George Gelnovatch recorded his 100th ACC victory in a 3-1 win over NC State (Sept. 16). Gelnovatch becomes just the second coach to achieve the feat and the first to do so at a single school. Jay Vidovich hit the milestone in 2022 with combined victories at Wake Forest and Pitt.

NOTE: Only regular-season contests count towards this total.

COACHING ELEVATIONS

George Gelnovatch announced on July 17 the elevation of Adam Perron from assistant coach to associate head coach. Jermaine Birriel was promoted to an assistant coaching position after serving as an operations director for two seasons.

ACC HEATING UP

Virginia currently sits second in the ACC Coastal standings as things begin to heat up down the home stretch.

Just four points separate the Cavaliers from North Carolina at the bottom of the standings with the two set to match up in the regular season finale.

Five of the six ACC Coastal schools are currently ranked in the top-25 including: No. 6 Notre Dame, No. 9 Duke, No. 11 North Carolina, No. 18 Virginia, and No. 23 Pitt.

No. 3 Wake Forest, No. 15 Clemson and No. 22 Clemson round out the eight total ACC teams making an appearance in the top-25.

ACC TOURNAMENT IMPLICATIONS

Virginia, Duke and Syracuse are all vying for the final quarter-final spot up for grabs on the final day of the regular season.

Virginia has clinched a home game in the ACC tournament in either the first round, or as the No. 4 seed in the quarter-finals.

If It Ended Today:

- First Round - Wed., Nov. 1
- #12 BC at #5 Duke
- #11 NC State at #6 Syracuse
- #10 Louisville at #7 Pitt
- #9 VT at #8 UNC

Quarterfinal - Sun., Nov. 5

- #4 Virginia
- #3 Clemson
- #2 Wake
- #1 Notre Dame

CAVALIER SPOTLIGHTS

MOUHAMETH THIAM
MEANT FOR VIRGINIA

Hailing from Dakar, Senegal, Mouhameth Thiam began his college soccer journey at Radford, just over two hours from Virginia's Klöckner Stadium. After a freshman season in which he led the Highlanders in goals, he transferred to Oregon State to play under former UVA associate head coach (2014-2017), Terry Boss.

Under Boss, Thiam flourished. In his first two seasons, he recorded 10 goals and nine assists for 29 points while leading the Beavers to an Elite 8 appearance in 2021. Thiam garnered All-PAC-12 honors while leading his team in scoring in 2022.

Boss left for Austin FC in 2023 and Thiam entered the transfer portal with one season of remaining eligibility, as well as the attention of top programs around the NCAA. Virginia was already on his mind.

Thiam cites the similarity of coaching styles between George Gelnovatch and Terry Boss, specifically the high standards each demands of their players, as a big reason why he joined the Cavaliers.

He recalled having great respect for the Virginia program while playing against Virginia at Klöckner Stadium with Radford in 2019. Now with Klöckner as his home stadium, Thiam is an impact player for Virginia with a goal and two assists while playing a number of positions in midfield.

STEPHEN ANNOR INSTANT IMPACT

Ghanaian international, Stephen Annor's electrifying presence at the top of the Virginia attack took nobody by surprise—especially not head coach George Gelnovatch.

A highly sought-after recruit out of Montverde's SIMA Gold, Annor had used up all of his official visits before having the chance to visit Virginia's Grounds.

That didn't stop the Virginia coaches from traveling to Florida to watch him perform. A virtual tour of Grounds would have to suffice, and in the end, Annor chose Virginia.

He has quickly become a fan-favorite in Charlottesville with his highlight-reel goals and electric backflip celebration.

Annor had a breakout week (Sept. 12-16) scoring three goals in two games. The Cavaliers took four points from two matches while Annor garnered ACC Player of the Week honors.

HEAD COACH GEORGE GELNOVATCH

George Gelnovatch enters his 28th season as the head coach of the Virginia men's soccer program. The longest tenured head coach in program history, Gelnovatch has led the Cavaliers to a pair of national championships in 2009 and 2014 as well as six NCAA College Cup appearances and 24-consecutive berths in the NCAA tournament (1996-2019).

Gelnovatch became the program's all-time leader in wins on August 25, 2017 with a 3-2 double-overtime victory over Villanova, surpassing his UVA mentor Bruce Arena for the program record in wins with 296. He reached the 300-win plateau on Sept. 15, 2017 with a 2-1 triumph at Virginia Tech, becoming just the fourth coach in Atlantic Coast Conference history to win 300 career matches.

A former Cavalier soccer All-American and assistant coach, Gelnovatch has guided Virginia to five ACC tournament titles, three regular-season ACC championships and a record of 369-155-70 (.679) during his tenure as UVA head coach. Over the course of his tenure as an assistant and head coach at Virginia, he has been a part of all seven of the Cavaliers' national championships.

Gelnovatch is the first coach in NCAA Division I men's soccer history to lead 20-straight teams to the NCAA tournament. He is one of just eight coaches in the Division I men's soccer annals to take 20 teams to the tournament and one of only four active coaches to do so.

Among active coaches, Gelnovatch enters the 2023 campaign ranked seventh in career wins (361) and 13th in career win percentage (.680). Among Division I coaches all-time, he ranked 33rd in career wins and 43rd in career winning percentage. These figures are even more striking when considering Gelnovatch's teams play one of the nation's toughest schedules on a yearly basis.

Virginia has won at least 15 games in a season 10 times under Gelnovatch, including 2019 when it won 21 games the second most in the history of the program en route to an ACC Coastal Division Championship, an ACC Tournament crown and a Runner-Up finish in the NCAA College Cup.

Gelnovatch has developed a number of Major League Soccer players during his UVA tenure, with 31 players going in MLS drafts and 13 in the MLS Supplemental Draft, while nine signed Project-40/Generation Adidas contracts and Jordan Allen (2014), Derrick Etienne (2015), Scott Thomsen (2015) and Aboubacar Keita (2018) each signed MLS Homegrown contracts. Jason Moore (1999) and Alecko Eskandarian (2003) were selected No. 1 in the MLS Draft, as 13 Cavaliers have been picked in the first round of the various MLS drafts.

Gelnovatch was named the 10th coach of the Virginia program on Jan. 3, 1996, after Bruce Arena announced he would end his 18-year career at the helm of UVA soccer to become head coach and assistant general manager of Major League Soccer's D.C. United.
