GAME OVERVIEW

- In search of its third straight win, Virginia (5-4) opens ACC play by hosting No. 1 Notre Dame (6-0) Saturday (March 28).
- Opening faceoff from Klöckner Stadium is set for noon on ESPNU and WINA (98.9 FM/1070 AM).
- Saturday's game is dedicated to the Yellow Door Foundation, a non-profit organization whose mission is to provide free, long-term "sanctuary" lodging for the families of pediatric patients undergoing cancer and transplant treatment at UVA Children's hospital.

A WIN FOR THE CAVALIERS WOULD...

- Give UVA its first three-game win streak since winning seven consecutive during the 2024 regular season.
- Snap a four-game skid in the series with Notre Dame, dating back to UVA's heartbreaking loss in overtime at the 2023 NCAA semifinals.
- Be their first over a No. 1 ranked opponent since defeating top-ranked UND 12-8 at Arlotta Stadium on April, 30, 2023, when the Cavaliers were ranked No. 3 in the USILA coaches poll.
- Snap an 11-game skid against ranked opponents, dating back to UVA's double-overtime thriller over Johns Hopkins at the 2024 NCAA quarterfinals on May 19, 2024.
- Be the first for an unranked UVA team over a No. 1 opponent in program history.

THE UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA

UNIQUELY UVA

The University of Virginia is an institution rich with history and tradition. Here is some of the terminology that contributes to UVA's culture.

Grounds: The term used by students, faculty and alumni to refer to the University dating as far back as Thomas Jefferson. "Campus" is never used.

First Year, Second Year, Third Year, Fourth Year: Instead of freshman, sophomore, junior, senior. Why you may ask? To be a "senior" implies that a person has reached the final phase of learning, a feat that Thomas Jefferson believed to be impossible, arguing instead that education is a life-long process.

Commonwealth: Virginia is one of four constituent states of the United States of America that officially uses the name "Commonwealth" instead of the word state in all references. The other three commonwealths are Kentucky, Massachusetts and Pennsylvania.

UNIVERSITY NICKNAMES

Virginia's athletics teams have been accompanied by a somewhat confusing array of nicknames. The most prominent and widely accepted of these monikers are "Cavaliers," "Wahoos" and "Hoos."

Although the terms "Cavaliers," "Wahoos" and "Hoos" are used almost interchangeably to refer to University teams and players, "Cavaliers" is more often used by the media, while "Wahoos" and "Hoos" are frequently used by Virginia students and fans.

Legend has it that Washington & Lee baseball fans dubbed the Virginia players "Wahoos" during the fiercely contested rivalry that existed between the two in-state schools in the 1890s. By 1940, "Wahoos" was in general use around Grounds to denote University students or events relating to them. The abbreviated "Hoos" sprang up later in student newspapers and has gained growing popularity in recent years.

THE CAVALIER MASCOT

The costumed Cavalier with a large character head debuted during Virginia's 1984 football season and has remained the official mascot of the University.

UNIVERSITY COLORS

Orange and blue were adopted as the University of Virginia's official athletic colors at a mass student meeting in 1888. UVA athletic teams had previously worn silver gray and cardinal red, but those colors did not stand out on muddy football fields, prompting a student movement to change them.

One of the students attending the mass meeting was Allen Potts, a star athlete who played on Virginia's first football team in 1888. Potts showed up at the meeting wearing a navy blue-and-orange scarf that he had acquired during a summer boating expedition at Oxford University. Orange and blue were chosen as the official athletic colors after one of Potts' fellow students pulled the scarf off Potts' neck and, waving it to the crowd, yelled, "How will this do?" UVA later served as the inspiration for schools like Auburn and Florida when they selected school colors.

WAH-HOO-WA

The origin of "Wah-hoo-wa" is uncertain. The cheer was used to root on Virginia teams as early as 1890 and may have been borrowed from Dartmouth College, whose athletics teams were once known as the Indians.

Legend attributes the yell to Natalie Floyd Otey, who sang the ballad "Where'er You Are, There Shall My Love Be" at Charlottesville's Levy Opera House in 1893. The predominantly student audience noticed that Otey warbled the first three words of the song between each of the stanzas and decided to join in the refrain. By evening's end, goes the legend, the crowd had corrupted "Where'er You Are" into "Wah-hoo-wah."

The Levy Opera House stands at the corner of High Street and Park Street and has since been renovated into an office building.

SERIES HISTORY

- Notre Dame holds a 12-11 edge in the all-time series with Virginia, which began during the 1993 NCAA Tournament.
- After UVA won six consecutive games from 2019-23, the Fighting Irish enter Saturday's contest on a four-game win streak over the Cavaliers.
- In a physical battle that featured 12 total penalties, UND scored seven consecutive goals in the second half to seal a 12-7 win over the Hoos last season at Arlotta Stadium (South Bend, Ind.).
- The last time these two teams met at Klöckner Stadium was in the 2024 regular-season finale, when the top-ranked Irish claimed the last three goals and held then-No. 6 UVA scoreless for the final 12:51 to earn an 11-9 win.
- Virginia and Notre Dame have squared off five times in the NCAA Tournament ('93, '94, '06, '12, '23), with the Cavaliers leading 3-2 in such contests.
- At Championship Weekend in 2023, UND scored four of the last five goals, including the game-winner in overtime, at Lincoln Financial Field (Philadelphia, Pa.).
- In the 2019 ACC Tournament championship game, Virginia knocked off the Irish, 10-4, at Klöckner Stadium after holding UND scoreless for 42:12 of game time.
- In 2006, the Cavaliers defeated the Irish 20-8 in the NCAA quarterfinals before capturing the program's fourth NCAA title in a 15-7 decision over UMass at Lincoln Financial Field (Philadelphia, Pa.).

SCOUTING THE FIGHTING IRISH

- As of March 25, No. 1 Notre Dame (6-0) enters Saturday's contest as one of only five unbeaten Division I teams.
- The Fighting Irish (2023 and 2024) and Cavaliers (2019 and 2021) are the only two DI teams to have won consecutive national championships in the last 10 years.
- UND ranks in the top-10 nationally in a number of statistical categories, but perhaps most notably in scoring defense. On average, the Irish are allowing only 8.33 goals per game, and have held their last three opponents – all of which were ranked – to single-digit goals.
- Notre Dame is led by Charlottesville native and UVA alum Kevin Corrigan '82, who is in his 40th season as a collegiate head coach, which makes him the second-longest tenured active Division I head coach.

LAST TIME OUT

- In its second night game at Klöckner Stadium this season, Virginia erupted for eight unanswered first-half goals, powering an 18-7 rout of Dartmouth in crisp, windy conditions this past Monday (March 23).
- True freshman Brendan Millon notched a whopping four goals and six assists His career-high 10 points are the most by an ACC player in a game this season and tied for fourth among all individual performances nationally. The last UVA player to record at least 10 points in a game was current UVA assistant coach Connor Shellenberger, who did so against Towson in 2024.
- For the second straight game, Jake Marek (4-3) shined in net for the Cavaliers, who stopped 13 Big Green shots on cage and only allowed six goals in 52:40 of action. He also achieved a career-best 68.4 save percentage.
- Defensively, UVA was led by John Schroter, who finished with a game-high three caused turnovers. The Big Green entered last Monday's game averaging 13.0 goals per game, but were held to their second-lowest goal total this season (7).

McCABE MILLON'S IMPRESSIVE START

- McCabe Millon's junior campaign is off to a hot start.
- For games played through March 25, Millon leads the ACC and is second among all Division I players in both assists (3.44) and points (5.56) game.
- He has notched at least five points in all but two games this season.
- Millon achieved career highs in both points (9) and assists (5) in UVA's season opener, a 19-14 win over Colgate (Feb. 8).
- He was named a Tewaaraton Award Preseason Watch List selection – along with teammate John Schroter – this past February.

HOOS IN THE NATIONAL STATISTICAL RANKINGS

- For games played through March 25, Virginia leads the nation in assists (9.89).
- UVA is also third in ground balls (37.89), fourth in caused turnovers (12.00) and points (24.56), sixth in scoring offense (14.67), and eighth shooting percentage (33.9).
- Brendan Millon leads all Division I freshmen in assists (2.67) and points (4.89), good for fifth and 10th overall, respectively.
- Both and McCabe and Brendan Millon are first and third, respectively, among all ACC players in points per game. UVA is the only DI team with two players averaging at least 4.89 points per game.
- Truitt Sunderland is tied for 11th nationally in man-up goals (3) and 16th in goals per game (2.89).

SUNDERLAND ADDED TO TEWAARATON AWARD WATCH LIST

- Virginia senior attackman Truitt Sunderland was named a second-round addition to the Tewaaraton Award Watch List, the Tewaaraton Award Foundation announced Thursday (March 26).
- Sunderland joined fellow UVA attackman McCabe Millon and defenseman John Schroter, who were previously named to the Foundation's preseason watch list in February.
- The final wave of midseason additions comes before the men's and women's lists are narrowed to 25 nominees each on April 26.
- Following a six-goal performance in UVA's 16-11 win over Utah (March 21) at Scott Stadium, Sunderland claimed his first career ACC offensive player-of-the-week honor and was named to the USILA's Team of the Week.

THE CAVALIERS AT KLÖCKNER STADIUM

- Virginia owns a 186-53 (.778) all-time record at Klöckner Stadium and has won 16 of its last 25 games played at the historic edifice.
- The Cavaliers' average margin of victory in their last 25 games at Klöckner Stadium is 3.72 goals.
- Virginia is 60-21 (.741) all-time at Klöckner Stadium under head coach Lars Tiffany.
- UVA is also 15-3 all-time at Klöckner Stadium in NCAA Tournament contests.
- Lacrosse debuted in Klöckner Stadium in 1993.

ON THE HORIZON

- The Cavaliers travel to No. 4 Duke (8-0) for its ACC road opener.
- Opening faceoff is scheduled for noon on ACC Network.
- Virginia will look to snap a 20-game skid in the regular-season series with the Blue Devils, a streak that began in 2005.
- Duke opens ACC play at No. 7 Syracuse on Saturday (March 28) at 2 p.m. The game will be broadcast on ESPNU, following the conclusion of the Virginia–Notre Dame game.

VIRGINIA IS A GROUND BALL MACHINE

- Virginia has led the nation in ground balls in seven of the last nine years
- UVA has also finished in the top-4 nationally in ground balls the last 10 consecutive seasons.
- UVA is the only program in the nation to finish in the top-4 nationally in ground balls per game 15 times over the last 16 seasons.
- The only program in 2016 to finish with more ground balls per game was UVA head coach Lars Tiffany's 2016 Brown team.

THREE TRANSFERS BOLSTER UVA'S 2026 ROSTER

- The Cavaliers added three transfers to this year's roster in goalie Jake Marek (Air Force), and defensemen Michael Meredith (Jacksonville) and Aidan Murnane (Colgate).
- All three players have contributed significantly so far this season, including Meredith who has started in every game at close defense (as of March 15).
- Marek guided Air Force to an ASUN championship and NCAA Tournament appearance in 2025. He finished with 170 saves, good for No. 3 in Air Force single-season history.
- Meredith was First Team All-ASUN as true freshman at Jacksonville in 2025. He started in 12 of his 13 appearances at close defense. Meredith is the first former Boys' Latin player to sign with Virginia in more than 25 years.
- Murnane suffered a season-ending injury during Colgate's season opener last year against Penn State. In 2024, he was Second Team All-Patriot League and tallied 20 caused turnovers and 38 ground balls, both career highs. With 39 career starts as a Raider, Murnane has more starting experience than any other player on this year's Cavalier squad.

VIRGINIA'S FIRST-YEAR (FRESHMAN) CLASS

- The Cavaliers' freshman class was ranked No. 3 in the nation by Inside Lacrosse.
- UVA's 10 signees makeup the nation's No. 3 recruiting class according to Inside Lacrosse.
- The Cavaliers' freshman class is the only one nationally that is made of five- and four-star prospects.
- Virginia's first-years consists of Patrick Biese (G), Ben Boyer (LSM/D), Owen Crann (M), Charlie Halpert (D), Robby Hopper (LSM/D), Brayden Lahey (A), Wes Martin (M), Griff Meyer (FO/M), Brendan Millon (A) and Lindan Verville (M).

ACC CHAMPIONSHIP PEDIGREE

- Virginia has claimed at least a share of 19 ACC championships, including two (2019 & 2022) under head coach Lars Tiffany.
- The Cavaliers won 11 titles (1962, 1964, 1969, 1970, 1971, 1975, 1980, 1983, 1984, 1985 and 1986) prior to the ACC establishing a tournament from 1989-2019 to determine the champion.
- Virginia has won seven ACC Tournament championships: 1997, 1999, 2000, 2003, 2006, 2010 and 2019.
- In the 2019 ACC Tournament, which was held at Klöckner Stadium, UVA defeated Notre Dame 10-4 in the championship game.
- From 1989-2019, Virginia won 14 regular-season titles (1990, 1993, 1994, 1995, 1997, 1999, 2000, 2002, 2003, 2006, 2009, 2010, 2012 and 2019), more than any other ACC school.
- The ACC Tournament, which returned in 2024 following a four-year hiatus from 2020-23, will be contested at American Legion Memorial Stadium (Charlotte, N.C.) on May 1 and 3.

LARS TIFFANY AMONG VIRGINIA'S ELITE COACHING LINEAGE

- Lars Tiffany is in his 10th season as UVA head coach and 22nd of his head coaching career with stops at Stony Brook (2005-06) and Brown (2007-16).
- Tiffany guided the Cavaliers to the program's eighth and ninth national championships overall in 2019 and 2021, marking the only pair of back-to-back titles in program history (note: COVID-19 forced the cancellation of the 2020 NCAA Tournament).
- He has also steered the Hoos to four of the last six Championship Weekends (2019, 2021, 2023, 2024), and is one of two active Division I head coaches accomplish such a feat.
- Tiffany-coached teams, including his 2016 Brown squad which also reached Championship Weekend, have led the nation in ground balls per game in eight of the last 10 seasons.
- Tiffany graduated from Brown University in 1990, where he played defense and was a two-time captain under former UVA head coach Dom Starsia.

SEASON OVERVIEW

- The Cavaliers' 2026 schedule features eight participants from last year's NCAA Tournament, including non-conference foes Colgate, Richmond, Towson and Maryland.
- UVA hosts eight home contests, highlighted by its non-conference matchup against Johns Hopkins (Feb. 28), and ACC contests against Notre Dame (March 28) and North Carolina (April 18).
- The Wahoos returned five starters from their 2025 roster, including preseason All-Americans McCabe Millon (attack) and John Schroter (defense). They brought back their entire starting attack – Truitt Sunderland, Ryan Colsey, and Millon – which accounted for nearly 70% of the team's total point production last season.
- The Hoos look to fill the void left by 2025 All-Americans Ben Wayer (LSM) and Griffin Schutz (midfield) and four-year starting netminder Matthew Nunes, who concluded his career No. 2 in career saves in program history.
- In the summer of 2025, head coach Lars Tiffany announced the addition of UVA legend Connor Shellenberger as the team's assistant coach. The program's only four-time first-team All-American and a three-time Tewaaraton Award finalist, Shellenberger assists associate head coach and offensive coordinator Kevin Cassese with the development of the Cavaliers' attackmen and offensive midfielders.
- The University of Virginia was named the host of this year's NCAA Men's Lacrosse Championships (Championship Weekend). The event, which encompasses all three Divisional championships and the Division I semifinals, will commence at Scott Stadium May 23-25. For a complete overview of the 2026 NCAA Men's Lacrosse Championships at Scott Stadium, turn to page 10.

MILLON, SCHROTER NAMED TO TEWAARATON AWARD WATCH LIST

- Junior attackman McCabe Millon and senior defenseman John Schroter were among 50 players nationally named to the Tewaaraton Award's initial watch list on Feb. 10. Both earned preseason All-America honors from Inside Lacrosse and USA Lacrosse Magazine, with Schroter also collecting Preseason All-ACC recognition for 2026.
- Schroter, a 2025 second-team All-American and All-ACC selection, started all 14 games last season while routinely matching up against opponents' top attackmen. He totaled 22 ground balls and 17 caused turnovers.
- Millon, ranked No. 22 on Inside Lacrosse's preseason Top 50 list, also started all 14 games in 2025. He led UVA with 27 assists and finished second on the team with 50 points, becoming one of seven ACC players to reach the 50-point mark while tying for second in the league in assists per game (1.93).

THE NATION'S TOP MAN-DOWN UNIT IN 2025

- Virginia led the nation in man-down defense during the 2025 season.
- In 14 games, the Cavaliers allowed just seven goals on 53 opposing extra-man opportunities, posting an 86.8% kill rate that ranked first among all Division I teams.
- UVA held opponents scoreless on the man-up in eight of its 14 games, including Richmond (0-for-6), Towson (2-for-7) and Notre Dame (1-for-7), each on at least five opportunities.
- The Cavaliers' man-down defense showed significant improvement from 2024, when opponents converted 50.9% (28-for-55) of their extra-man chances.
- The man-down unit is guided by assistant coach Logan Greco, a former UVA close defenseman and member of the Cavaliers' 2019 NCAA and ACC champion squad.

ORANGE & BLUE: IT RUNS IN THE FAMILY

- The Cavalier lacrosse program has a long history of sibling connections and this year is no different.
- Attackmen McCabe Millon ('27) and Brendan Millon ('29) are the program's first brother tandem over the last 15 years. They are also one of 48 sets of brothers – representing 33 different teams – currently playing together on the same team, according to a list compiled by Division I men's lacrosse sports information directors.
- Both Millon brothers were the No. 1 prospects in their respective signing classes. Their parents, Mark and Erin, are both U.S. Lacrosse Hall of Fame inductees. Mark starred at UMass (1990-93) before an accomplished professional career. Erin played at Maryland, helping the Terrapins reach the 1990 national championship game, and spent 11 years with the U.S. Women's National Team, winning World Cup titles in 1997 and 2001.
- Other notable UVA lacrosse sibling connections include: Shamel and Rhamel Bratton, Brian and Kevin Carroll, Brendan, Conor and Gavin Gill, Billy, Danny and Pat Glading.

SHELLENBERGER RETURNS TO (HIS FORMER STOMPING) GROUNDS

- Former UVA standout attackman Connor Shellenberger returned to his alma mater as an assistant coach, head coach Lars Tiffany announced July 14, 2025.
- Shellenberger works closely with associate head coach Kevin Cassese on developing the program's attackmen and offensive midfielders.
- Both Shellenberger (2022-24) and Cassese (2001-02) were named Tewaaraton Award finalists multiple times, which is presented annually to the nation's most outstanding college lacrosse player. They also both earned USILA player-of-the-year honors at their respective positions.
- Shellenberger is the program's record holder in both points and assists.
- He was named the NCAA Tournament Most Outstanding Player after guiding the Cavaliers to the program's ninth national championship in 2021.
- Shellenberger is the program's only four-time USILA First Team All-American and three-time Tewaaraton Award finalist. He was named the ACC's men's lacrosse Scholar-Athlete of the Year in 2023.
- In the summer of 2025, Shellenberger guided the New York Atlas to a PLL championship and became the youngest MVP in PLL history.

UVA TRIO EARNS RUNNER-UP FINISH AT U20 WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP

- This past summer, Will Erdmann (midfield), Robby Hopper (defense) and Brendan Millon (attack) competed for the U.S. men's national team at the 2025 World Lacrosse Men's U20 Championship.
- The 20-team event was held on Jeju Island, Korea, Aug. 15-24.
- The U.S. earned a runner-up finish after being upset by Canada 6-5 in heartstopping fashion of the championship game.

HEAD COACH LARS TIFFANY

OVERVIEW

Lars Tiffany was named Virginia's 17th head coach on June 21, 2016. He is currently in his tenth season at UVA and 21st season overall as head coach. Tiffany is Virginia's only head coach to win back-to-back national championships (2019 & 2021). Tiffany begins the 2026 season with 98 wins as UVA head coach, also No. 3 all-time in program history behind coaching legends, Jim "Ace" Adams (137) and Dom Starsia (274).

ACCOLADES

- 2x NCAA national champion (2019, 2021)
- 2x ACC Coach of the Year (2019, 2022)
- 2x Ivy League Coach of the Year (2015-16)
- America East Coach of the Year (2005)

PLAYING CAREER

A 1990 graduate of Brown, Tiffany was a two-time team captain and starter on defense for three years. Tiffany played for former Virginia head coach Dom Starsia at Brown. A Biology concentrator, Tiffany played on two Brown teams that advanced to the NCAA Tournament (1987 & 1990). He was Co-MVP of the Brown squad that captured its first-ever NCAA playoff victory in 1990 (12-9 vs. UMass). Tiffany capped his career by playing in the North-South Senior All-Star game.

PERSONAL

Lars and his wife, Tara, reside in Charlottesville with their daughter, Charlotte.

CHAMPIONSHIP WEEKEND AT SCOTT STADIUM

- Last May, the University of Virginia was named the host of the 2026 NCAA Men's Lacrosse Championships, commonly referred to as "Championship Weekend."
- The three-day event will commence over Memorial Day weekend at Scott Stadium, which is home to the UVA football team and has hosted concerts for some of the world's most iconic touring artists, including The Rolling Stones, U2, and Charlottesville's own Dave Matthews Band.
- The men's Division I semifinals will take place on Saturday, May 23, while the Division II and III finals will be contested on Sunday, May 24.
- For the 40th consecutive edition, Championship Weekend culminates with the Division I title game as a stand-alone finale on Memorial Day – Monday, May 25.
- Virginia was awarded hosting duties after the NCAA announced a venue change in the fall of 2023, following a scheduling conflict with Gillette Stadium (Foxborough, Mass), which was selected as one of the host sites for the 2026 FIFA Men's World Cup.
- This year's Championship Weekend marks the first time since 1982 that UVA will host the Division I Men's Lacrosse Championship, having previously staged the event at Scott Stadium in both 1977 and 1982.
- Aside from the 1977 and 1982 games, UVA has hosted only two other NCAA Championships, the Division I men's and women's cross country championship races in 1987 and 2023.
- This year's Championships marks the first time postseason lacrosse will be played at the venue since it served as a host site for the 2004 NCAA Tournament quarterfinals.
- Scott Stadium is also the first campus stadium to be the final site of the Division I Men's Lacrosse Championship since 2002, when Rutgers hosted the event.
- Not since April 2, 2011 – when the Cavaliers hosted Maryland in a nationally televised regular-season matchup – has a lacrosse game been played at Scott Stadium.
- In a fitting end to the season, Virginia went on to defeat the Terrapins, 9-7, in the national championship game, capturing the program's fifth NCAA title in the process.
- Prior to Klöckner Stadium's inaugural season in 1993, Scott Stadium served as UVA's primary home for lacrosse – particularly for matchups against marquee opponents.
- Scott Stadium was also the host site of the 1976 North-South All-Star game, a prestigious annual event that showcases the nation's top senior college lacrosse players.
- In 2003, the NCAA unified the Division II and Division III national championship games with the Division I semifinals and final, creating a single, championship-filled weekend.
- The inaugural all-division format took place at M&T Bank Stadium in Baltimore, where the Wahoos defeated Johns Hopkins, 9-7, in the championship game in dramatic fashion amid soaking wet conditions.

GAME 9	Dartmouth	7
	Virginia	18

March 28, 2026 • Charlottesville, Va. • Klöckner Stadium

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. — In its second night game at Klöckner Stadium this season, Virginia erupted for eight unanswered first-half goals, powering an 18-7 rout of Dartmouth (4-4) on a crisp, windy Monday night (March 23).

True freshman Brendan Millon (4g, 6a) led the Cavaliers with a career-high 10 points. His 10 points are the most by an ACC player in a game this season and tied for fourth among all individual performances nationally. The last UVA player to record at least 10 points in a game was current UVA assistant coach Connor Shellenberger, who did so against Towson in 2024.

For the second straight game, Jake Marek (4-3) shined in net for the Cavaliers, stopping 13 Big Green shots on cage and only allowed six goals in 52:40 of action. Defensively, UVA was led by John Schroter, who finished with a game-high three caused turnovers. The Big Green entered Monday's game averaging 13.00 goals per game, but were held to their second-lowest goal total this season.

Virginia opened with a 7-1 lead after the first quarter, with six different Cavaliers accounting for the first seven goals and Marek posting six saves. Owen Crann recorded his first career goal after scooping a loose ball on a Dartmouth faceoff violation and scoring uncontested. UVA extended the run to eight straight goals in the second quarter, its longest streak of the season, and led 11-2 before Dartmouth made a goalie change. Brendan Millon and Joey Terenzi connected on two second-quarter goals, including a quick-stick finish by Millon at the horn. Virginia led 12-4 at halftime, tying its largest halftime lead of the season.

UVA opened the second half with three consecutive goals, including two from Ryan Colsey, who finished with four goals for his fourth hat trick of the season and second straight four-goal game. The Cavaliers held Dartmouth scoreless in the third quarter, forced three failed clears and won the ground ball margin 13-6. Millon recorded his 10th point on his sixth assist, connecting with Chase Band with under 12 minutes remaining. Charles Balsamo scored twice, including the game's opening goal, for his first multi-goal performance of the season.

NOTES

- For the second time this season, Virginia's defense held its opponent to single-digit goals. The Cavaliers also held High Point to only seven goals on March 3, 2023.
- UVA never trailed in Monday's contest.
- The Cavaliers scored eight unanswered goals in the first half, the longest goal streak by UVA in a game this season.
- Virginia also held the Big Green scoreless for 15:29, including the entire third quarter. The last time a UVA opponent did not score for a full quarter was Duke – also in the third quarter – on April 26, 2025.
- No Dartmouth player had more than two points.
- Dartmouth was 15 for 21 on clears, a clip of 71.4%.
- With four goals and six assists, Brendan Millon tallied 10 points, the most by a UVA player since Connor Shellenberger also had 10 against Towson in 2024.
- Brendan Millon's 10 points are the most by an ACC player in a game this season and are tied for fourth-most nationally. His 10 points are also tied for 18th in school single-game history.
- Joey Terenzi (1g, 2a) notched a season-high three points.
- Senior attackman Ryan Colsey extended his goal streak to 23 games dating back to last year's season opener, a span in which he's totaled 51 goals.
- Owen Crann scored his first career goal with 44 seconds remaining in the first quarter.
- For the second straight game, UVA goalie Jake Marek (13 saves) finished with double-digit saves. He had a season-high 14 saves in UVA's previous game, a 16-11 win over Utah (March 21).
- Marek only gave up six goals in 52:40, registering a career-best 6.83 goals-against average. He finished with 13 saves after facing 33 shots.
- Marek, who entered Monday's game with 296 career saves, eclipsed the 300-save mark.
- McCabe Millon (1g, 3a), who entered Saturday's game as the Division I leader in assists and points per game, has recorded at least four points in all but one game so far this season.
- Charles Balsamo appeared in his 60th career game – a mark that leads the team – while Truitt Sunderland made tallied his 50th career appearance.
- Dartmouth is led by former UVA associate head coach and offensive coordinator Sean Kirwan, who is in his third season leading the Big Green. Kirwan was on staff at UVA for seven seasons (2017-23), including during the Cavaliers' back-to-back national championship runs in 2019 and 2021.

GAME 8	Utah	11
	Virginia	16

March 21, 2026 • Charlottesville, Va. • Scott Stadium

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. — Andrew Greenspan won a career-high 15 faceoffs and Truitt Sunderland matched his career best with six goals to lead Virginia (4-4) to a 16-11 victory over Utah (5-3). The Cavaliers outscored the Utes 11-7 in the second on their way to snapping a two-game skid.

The game was contested in bright and warm conditions at Scott Stadium, the home venue of UVA football and site of the upcoming NCAA Men's Lacrosse Championships (May 23-25).

With the help of Greenspan, the Hoos won 22 of the game's 31 total faceoffs. UVA starting goaltender Jake Marek (3-3) finished with a season-high 14 saves. In addition to Sunderland, the Cavaliers were led on offense by McCabe Millon (2g, 3a), Ryan Colsey (4g) and Brendan Millon (1g, 3a). Defensively, John Schroter held his primary matchup and Utah's leading scorer Ryan Stines (1g) to only one point, a season low. Stines entered Saturday's game ninth among all Division I players in goals per game (3.29).

After Lindan Verville dislodged a Utah player's crosse with a stick-check, Sunderland opened the scoring in transition for Virginia. Utah responded with three straight goals to take a 3-1 lead after the first quarter. The Cavaliers surged in the second, scoring four of the next five goals—including back-to-back unassisted efforts from midfielders Joey Terenzi and Ryan Duenkel—to reclaim a 5-4 advantage by halftime, with Marek recording nine of his 14 saves before the break.

Utah managed to tie the game three times early in the third quarter, but Virginia answered with a decisive four-goal run to take control, eventually building an 11-7 lead they never surrendered. The Cavaliers exploded for seven goals in the third—matching their highest-scoring quarter of the season—with two apiece from Colsey and Sunderland. Sunderland added consecutive goals in the fourth to push the lead to its largest margin at 15-9, while Virginia dominated faceoffs in the second half, winning 15 of 20.

WITH THE WIN...

- Virginia earned its first victory at Scott Stadium since March 8, 1995, when it defeated Penn State, 20-12. The Nittany Lions, who finished that season 11-2 overall, were led by former UVA head coach Glenn Thiel.
- The Cavaliers claimed their fourth victory of the series with Utah in as many games.
- UVA, now 4-4, got back to .500 on the season.

ADDITIONAL NOTES

- For the third time of his career, Truitt Sunderland scored a career-high six goals. Sunderland also scored six goals in UVA's 2025 and 2026 season openers, both of which were against Colgate.
- Senior attackman Ryan Colsey extended his goal streak to 22 games dating back to last year's season opener, a span in which he's totaled 47 goals.
- McCabe Millon (2g, 3a), who entered Saturday's game as the Division I leader in assists and points per game, has recorded at least five points in all but one game so far this season.
- Faceoff specialist Andrew Greenspan won a career-high 15 faceoffs on 19 attempts. His previous best was 13 wins against Syracuse last season.
- UVA goaltender Jake Marek finished with a season-high 14 saves.
- Saturday's contest marked the first lacrosse game held at Scott Stadium since April 2, 2011, when the No. 6 Cavaliers fell 12-7 to No. 10 Maryland. UVA went on to defeat the Terrapins 9-7 in the national championship game and capture the program's fifth NCAA title.

GAME 7	Virginia	12
	#10 Maryland (30T)	13

March 14, 2026 • College Park, Md. • SECU Stadium

COLLEGE PARK, Md. — In their first game that required at least three overtime periods since the 2009 seven-overtime thriller against Maryland, the Cavaliers were on the wrong end of this year's meeting with the 10th-ranked Terrapins. As UMD midfielder Zach Whittier flashed behind the cage, he reeled in a pass from attackman Leo Johnson, wrapped around the far side of the crease and buried his second goal of the afternoon to solidify a 13-12 win for the Terrapins 2:35 into the third overtime at SECU Stadium Saturday afternoon (March 14).

The Cavaliers trailed for most of the contest after falling behind in the first quarter, but rallied to retake the lead with 3:47 left in the fourth. Nearly three minutes later, Johnson spun to split two UVA defenders and notched his third goal of the afternoon, a blow that ultimately sent the 99th meeting between two of college lacrosse's most storied programs to overtime. Saturday's contest marked the fourth one-score game – including third in overtime – in the last nine meetings between the rivals.

Balanced scoring from eight Cavaliers was on full display Saturday afternoon. UVA was led by Truitt Sunderland (2g, 1a) and Brendan Millon (2g, 2a), both of whom notched three points each. In his first game back since UVA's contest at Richmond (Feb. 14) earlier this season, Joey Terenzi (1g, 1a, 2g) also provided a spark for the Hoos, particularly on the faceoff wings. Defensively, John Schroter stood out among the pack as he finished with a season-high four caused turnovers. UVA goaltender Jake Marek (2-3) finished with nine saves.

The Cavaliers could not capitalize on a two-man-down situation in the first after a UVA shot rang off the post and UMD netminder Brian Ruppel (14 saves) turned away back-to-back Cavalier shots. After UVA received goals from Terenzi, who was in his first game back since Feb. 14, and long-stick midfielder Robby Hopper, the score was tied 5-5. Maryland scored the next two to lead it 7-5 at the intermission. The Terps grasped their largest lead of the game, 11-8, after posting four goals in the third, the last of which was Johnson's second of the day. After UMD was flagged for an illegal hit to the head on Ryan Duenkel, UVA missed out being man-up for two full minutes after McCabe Millon retaliated. The Cavaliers' offense came alive in the fourth, when they began dodging Terrapin short-stick defenders from behind the cage, which fueled a four-goal run and gave the Hoos their first lead [12-11] since the first quarter.

The Cavaliers committed three of their 12 total turnovers in the first overtime period. After UMD All-American defenseman Will Schaller exited the game with an apparent lower-body injury in the second overtime, UVA attackman McCabe Millon (1g, 2a) tried to provide a spark for the Hoos in the second overtime, but to no avail. In the third overtime, Ruppel denied attempts from Band, Duenkel, and Colsey – the last of which clanged off the post and deflected out of bounds. After clearing the ball, Whittier eluded his defender on an off-ball cut behind the cage before hammering home perhaps Maryland's most consequential goal of the season to date.

NOTES

- The game was UVA's first that required at least three overtime periods since the Cavaliers defeated Maryland 10-9 in seven overtimes on March 28, 2008, at Klöckner Stadium.
- Four of the last nine games of the series have been determined by one goal, including three in overtime.
- UVA outscored Maryland 4-1 in the fourth quarter.
- UVA's man-down unit held the Terrapins scoreless on all four of their extra-man chances.
- Senior attackman Ryan Colsey extended his goal streak to 21 games dating back to last year's season opener, a span in which he's totaled 43 goals.
- Defenseman John Schroter finished with a season-high four caused turnovers.
- In his first game back since Richmond (Feb. 14) of this year, midfielder Joey Terenzi finished with one goal and one assist, the most points he's had in a game since he also had two at Richmond on Feb. 17, 2024.
- UVA long-stick midfielder Robby Hopper scored his first career goal in the second quarter.
- The Cavaliers only committed 12 turnovers, their fewest in a game since recording 11 at Notre Dame on April 12, 2025.
- Faceoff specialist Andrew Greenspan was 4 for 8 at the faceoff X, which included a win in the first overtime period against Maryland's Henry Dodge. Dodge leads the nation in faceoff win percentage this year.
- With the win, Maryland improved to 53-46 in the all-time series, which began in 1926. Saturday's game was officially the 99th of the series between the Cavaliers and Terrapins.

GAME 6	Towson	13
	#17 Virginia	9

March 7, 2026 • Charlottesville, Va. • Klöckner Stadium

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. — A six-goal run bridging the first and second quarters propelled Towson (3-3) past No. 17 Virginia (3-3) in its 13-9 win Saturday evening (March 7) at Klöckner Stadium. The loss snapped Virginia's 15-game winning streak in the series, which had stood unbroken since 2001. Prior to Saturday's game, the Tigers had not defeated the Cavaliers since the first round of the 1991 NCAA Tournament.

Towson attackman Alex Roussel posted a game-high nine points on five goals and four assists, and goaltender Matt Nilan (3-3) tallied 15 saves to earn the win in net. Roussel's nine points are the most by a UVA opposing player since Duke's Brennan O'Neill also had nine points on March 31, 2023.

Virginia was led Truitt Sunderland, who finished with three goals – to notch his 10th career hat trick – and an assist. For the sixth consecutive game, McCabe Millon (1g, 4a) finished with at least five points. UVA netminder Jake Marek (2-2) finished with 10 saves, including seven in the second half.

Two teams traded man-up goals to start the contest. Sunderland's first goal of the afternoon gave the Cavaliers their second lead of the day, but it only lasted for seven seconds. Roussel scored three straight to ignite the Tigers' six-goal spree, which it carried into the second quarter. By the end of the first half, UVA narrowly trimmed its deficit to four [9-5].

Roussel's fifth strike of the evening opened the scoring in the second half, after which UVA claimed four of the next five goals to cut its deficit to two [11-9]. Despite outshooting the Tigers 14-5 in the fourth quarter, UVA was shutout for the final 16:07.

NOTES

- With the loss, Virginia's 15-game win streak in the Towson series came to a close. UVA now leads the all-time series, which began in 1972, 18-4.
- UVA's 15-game win streak was the program's second-longest among all active Division I opponents. Only UVA's 25-game win streak over VMI was longer than that against the Tigers entering Saturday's game.
- Both UVA and Towson are now 3-3 this season; neither team has won back-to-back games.
- Seven of the Cavaliers' nine goals were assisted. UVA entered Saturday's contest as the nation's leader in assists per game. Virginia now has 64 assists in six games played this season.
- McCabe Millon (1g, 4a) tallied a team-high five points. Millon, who led the nation in points per game entering Saturday's contest, has recorded at least five points in all six games so far this season.
- Senior attackman Ryan Colsey extended his goal streak to 20 games dating back to last year's season opener, a span in which he's totaled 41 goals.
- Towson attackman Alex Roussel (5g, 4a) posted a game-high nine points, the most by a UVA opposing player since March 31, 2023, when Duke's Brennan O'Neill also had nine at Klöckner Stadium.
- The night game was UVA's first of two scheduled to be contested at Klöckner Stadium this season. The Cavaliers host Dartmouth on Monday, March 23 at 7 p.m.
- It was also UVA's first night game at Klöckner Stadium since Feb. 18, 2025, when it defeated High Point, 17-8.
- Saturday's contest was UVA's annual HEADstrong Foundation dedication game. The HEADstrong Foundation is a non-profit organization that offers financial, residential, and emotional support to families affected by cancer.

GAME 5	#17 Virginia	14
	High Point	7

March 3, 2026 • High Point, N.C. • Vert Stadium

HIGH POINT, N.C. — No. 17 Virginia (3-2) scored the game's first four goals and cruised to a 14-7 road victory over High Point Tuesday evening (March 3) at Vert Stadium.

The win is UVA's second consecutive on the road and comes only two days after a 14-13 heartbreaking defeat to then-No. 16 Johns Hopkins this past Saturday.

UVA starting goaltender Jake Marek (2-1) shined in net on the way to his second win of the season. Marek finished with nine saves, including four in the fourth quarter, and only five goals allowed in 52:50 of action. He also tied for a game-high four caused turnovers.

With the help of Marek, Virginia's man-down unit held the Panthers scoreless on all three of their extra-man opportunities.

Offensively, the Cavaliers were led by Truitt Sunderland (3g, 2a), Brendan Millon (2g, 3a) and McCabe Millon (2g, 4a). Sunderland notched his ninth career hat trick. Eleven of UVA's 14 goals were assisted.

NOTES

- Virginia earned its second consecutive victory on the road this season.
- The Cavaliers improved to 7-2 in the all-time series and tallied their fifth consecutive win over High Point.
- With the win UVA (3-2) pulled above .500 overall on the season.
- Senior attackman Ryan Colsey extended his goal streak to 19 games dating back to last year's season opener, a span in which he's totaled 40 goals.
- With three goals and two assists, Truitt Sunderland notched his ninth career hat trick.
- McCabe Millon, who entered Tuesday's contest as the nation's points leader, finished with six points on two goals and four assists. Millon now has 14 goals and 19 assists this season.
- Brendan Millon finished with two goals and three assists. Brendan Millon now has 11 goals and 13 assists.
- Brothers McCabe and Brendan Millon entered Tuesday's game Nos. 1 and 2, respectively, among all ACC players in points per game.
- Sean Browne bookended scoring for the Hoos, an effort that marked his first career multi-goal performance.
- Tim Myers scored his first career goal with 3:12 remaining in the first quarter.
- Defenseman Aidan Murnane and goaltender Jake Marek totaled four caused turnovers each, both of which are the most by a UVA player in a game this year.
- Marek also achieved a 5.68 goals-against average, his career best (minimum 36:00 played), and the best average by a Cavalier since April 6, 2024, when Matthew Nunes held North Carolina to five goals in the first 55:09 of play.
- High Point committed 24 turnovers, the second most by a UVA opponent this season.

GAME 4	#16 Johns Hopkins	14
	#13 Virginia	13

Feb. 28, 2026 • Charlottesville, Va. • Klöckner Stadium

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va — No. 13 Virginia jumped out to a 5-1 lead but surrendered a late surge in a 14-13 loss to No. 16 Johns Hopkins at Klöckner Stadium. The Blue Jays scored 10 of the game's final 12 goals to secure their first lead late and held on, marking the third straight one-goal game between the programs. The matchup was the 100th in a series that began in 1904.

Virginia built an 8-3 halftime advantage and extended it to 11-4 early in the third quarter behind strong ball movement and timely defense. Ryan Duenkel scored twice during the opening run, and the Cavaliers appeared in control after defenseman Tommy Snyder scored his first career goal in transition. However, a late third-quarter push by Hopkins trimmed the deficit to 12-8 entering the fourth.

Hopkins attackman Hunter Chauvette scored a game-high six goals, including the go-ahead strike in the final minutes. Goaltender Oran Gelinias earned the win in relief after starter Dash Lamitie exited in the first quarter. The Blue Jays closed the game with six consecutive goals to take a 14-12 lead before holding off a last-minute Virginia push.

Ryan Colsey led Virginia with three goals, two assists and five ground balls, while McCabe Millon (2g, 3a) also tallied five points. Freshman Brendan Millon contributed two goals and two assists in his first start at attack. Despite a late goal by Truitt Sunderland to pull within one, UVA's final attempts were denied as Hopkins retained the Doyle Smith Cup for the third straight year.

NOTES

- Including Saturday's game, ten of the last 17 meetings have been decided by one goal. UVA is now 5-5 in such contests.
• Senior attackman Ryan Colsey extended his goal streak to 18 games dating back to last year's season opener, a span in which he's totaled 39 goals.
• The game was UVA's first at Klöckner Stadium this season after its season opener, a 19-14 win over Colgate (Feb. 8), was moved to the George Welsh Indoor Football Practice Facility due to frigid temperatures.
• Saturday's contest also marked the latest in a season that UVA has played its first game at Klöckner Stadium since 2004, when the Cavaliers didn't open at home until March 6 against Syracuse.
• This year marked the 20th anniversary of the establishment of the Doyle Smith Cup. Beginning with the 2006 meeting, UVA and Hopkins came together to honor the life and legacy of Edward "Doyle" Smith and his lasting contributions to both programs and the game at the national level.
• The game was part of a doubleheader with the UVA women's lacrosse team, which fell 16-8 to No. 2 Stanford.
• Saturday's doubleheader is also the men's and women's annual One Love game, an event created in 2010 to honor former Virginia women's lacrosse player Yeardeley Love and support the One Love Foundation, a national nonprofit dedicated to educating, empowering, and activating young people to end relationship violence and promote healthy relationships.

GAME 3	#17 Virginia	19
	Stony Brook	7

Feb. 21, 2026 • Stony Brook, N.Y. • LaValle Stadium

STONY BROOK, N.Y. — No. 17 Virginia (2-1) scored 11 seconds in, and the rest was never in doubt as UVA cruised to a decisive 19-7 victory over Stony Brook (0-3) at LaValle Stadium Saturday afternoon (Feb. 21). In his return to his former post, Lars Tiffany became only the third UVA head coach in program history to tally 100 wins, joining legends Jim "Ace" Adams and Dom Starsia.

Eleven Cavaliers found the back of the net, including Brendan Millon (5g, 2a), who led all players with seven points. His brother, McCabe Millon (2g, 4a) added six points and true freshman faceoff specialist Griff Meyer scored two goals and logged his first career assist. Meyer was 11 for 17 at the faceoff X, his second straight game finishing above .500 on faceoffs.

In his first start of the season, Kyle Morris (1-0) earned the win in net and stopped eight Seawolve shots. He averaged only 7.57 goals-against in 47:32 of action. Virginia's man-down unit shut out SBU on all its five extra-man opportunities.

The Cavaliers scored the first seven goals after McCabe Millon opened the barrage on an assist from Meyer on the first play of the game. UVA led 7-1 by the end of the first quarter. UVA kept rolling in the second with three more early goals and Brendan Millon's first career hat trick, heading into halftime up 11-3 while Morris piled up saves. The Hoos added three unassisted goals in the third - including Meyer's highlight-reel spin move through multiple checks followed by a backhanded finish to notch his second score of the day. UVA's surged continued into the fourth quarter with four more scores, highlighted by Sean Browne's first career goal, as reserves saw action to cap the rout.

NOTES

- UVA improved to 13-0 in the all-time series with Stony Brook.
• Lars Tiffany became only the third coach in UVA history to tally 100 wins as UVA head coach. In his 10th season Virginia, Tiffany is now 100-45 as Cavalier head coach.
• Tiffany also improved 3-0 all-time against his former team. Tiffany was named the Seawolves' fourth head coach on Aug. 10, 2004, and spent two seasons (2005-06) in that position.
• UVA's man-down unit held the Seawolves off the scoreboard on all five of their extra-man opportunities.
• Stony Brook's seven goals are the fewest by a Cavalier opponent in a true road game since their 8-5 win over Manhattan in Riverdale, N.Y.
• In his third career game, true freshman Brendan Millon tallied five goals - his first career hat trick - and two assists.
• Senior attackman Ryan Colsey extended his scoring streak to 17 games dating back to last year's season opener, a span in which he's totaled 36 goals.
• Faceoff specialist Griff Meyer finished with two goals and one assist. The last time a UVA faceoff specialist scored two goals in a game was April 7, 2023, when Petey LaSalla notched two in a 19-12 victory at No. 10 North Carolina.
• Sean Browne notched his first career goal with 12:28 in the fourth quarter. Browne missed the 2025 season due to injury.
• In his homecoming, Manhasset, New York, native Charles Balsamo scored his third goal of the season in the third quarter.
• With two goals, Chase Band logged his first career multi-goal effort.
• Kyle Morris earned his first win in net since UVA's 17-8 win over High Point on Feb. 18, 2025.
• After missing UVA's first two games of the season, senior defenseman John Schroter made his season debut.

GAME 2	#13 Virginia	12
	#8 Richmond	18

Feb. 14, 2026 • Richmond, Va. • Robins Stadium

RICHMOND, Va. — No. 8 Richmond (2-0) scored 11 of the final 16 goals on the way to its 18-12 victory over No. 13 Virginia (1-1) at Robins Stadium on Saturday afternoon (Feb. 14). Less than a week after UVA was forced to play its season opener indoors due to frigid temperatures, a lively crowd of 3,896 was in attendance under seasonally warm, sunny skies.

Goalkeeper Connor Knight (2-0) dazzled in net for the Spiders, finishing with a career-high 18 saves to earn his second win of the year.

For the second consecutive game, McCabe Millon stood out among the Hoos. He finished with a game-high seven points on four goals and three assists. Millon now has eight goals and eight assists in two games so far this season.

Virginia's Jake Marek (0-2), who made his second straight start Saturday, and Kyle Morris split goaltending duties, but the duo combined for only 11 saves after facing 40 Spider shots.

The teams were tied 4-4 after one, as Richmond scored with four seconds left to wipe out UVA's lead. Ryan Colsey had two goals and two assists – extending his scoring streak to 16 games – while McCabe handled out two first-quarter assists and later scored three goals in 65 seconds to erase a 7-4 deficit. The Spiders closed the half on top, 9-7, behind four first-half goals from Aidan O'Neil. O'Neil finished with five goals and one assist.

Richmond pushed its run to seven straight goals spanning the second and third quarters to seize control. UVA answered with four of the next five, including two from Brendan Millon, to pull within three [15-12], but the Spiders scored the final three goals to seal their second straight win in the series.

NOTES

- Junior attackman McCabe Millon (4g, 3a) led all players with seven points. In only two games this season, Millon has eight goals and eight assists.
- Senior attackman Ryan Colsey extended his scoring streak to 16 games dating back to last year's season opener, a span in which he's totaled 35 goals.
- Sophomore midfielder Sean Browne made his UVA debut. He missed the 2025 season and UVA's 2026 season opener due to injury.
- Senior midfielder Joey Terenzi made his season debut, his first appearance since the Ohio State game on Feb. 22, 2025.
- Sophomore defenseman Luke Hublitz made his first career start.
- Sophomore midfielder/attackman Ryan Duenkel scored his first career goal in the first quarter. He finished with two goals.
- True freshman faceoff specialist Griff Meyer won 17 of his 28 attempts at the center X. The last time a UVA faceoff specialist won 17 draws was in UVA's 17-14 win over Georgetown in the 2023 NCAA quarterfinals in Albany, N.Y., when Petey LaSalla also finished with 17 wins.
- The last time a UVA true freshman won at least 17 faceoffs was Petey LaSalla, who did so on four occasions in 2019.
- Virginia was 19 for 20 on its clear attempts.

GAME 1	Colgate	14
	#14 Virginia	19

Feb. 8, 2026 • Charlottesville, Va. • George Welsh IPF

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. — Truitt Sunderland (6g, 2a), McCabe Millon (4g, 5a) and Ryan Colsey (4g, 1a) combined for 14 goals as the Cavaliers (1-0) pulled away in the second half of their season opener, defeating Colgate (0-2) 19-14 on Sunday afternoon (Feb. 8). The contest was the first-ever lacrosse game held at the George Welsh Indoor Football Practice Facility, which does not accommodate spectators.

The trio of Colsey, Sunderland and McCabe Millon also made up the Cavaliers' starting attack in 2025. Sunderland's six goals matched his career high, which he also achieved in last year's season-opening win over Colgate. McCabe Millon's five assists and nine points are also career highs. McCabe's younger brother, freshman Brendan Millon, dished out five assists in his collegiate debut as a starting offensive midfielder. Fittingly, the first assist of his career came on a feed to his older brother in the first quarter, a goal that gave Virginia the lead.

After trailing 13-5 on faceoffs in the first half, UVA was able to out-manuever the Raiders in the second half, 10-7. Griff Meyer (10-23 FO) and Henry Metz (5-9 FO) spearheaded the second-half effort for the Cavaliers.

UVA's starting goalie Jake Marek (1-0), a transfer from Air Force, earned the win in net after stopping nine Raider shots and only allowed two goals in the fourth quarter. Colgate starting goaltender Andrew Lehman (0-2) made 13 saves in his second start of the season.

NOTES

- The Cavaliers improved to 6-0 in the all-time series with Colgate.
- UVA won its seventh consecutive season opener.
- Lars Tiffany improved to 9-1 in season openers as UVA head coach.
- Tiffany, whose first season in Charlottesville was in 2017, earned his 99th win as UVA head coach.
- UVA finished with 17 assists, the most in a game by any NCAA Division I team (as of Feb. 13).
- Eleven Cavaliers in Ben Boyer, Owen Crann, Ryan Duenkel, Robby Hopper, Luke Jamin, Jake Marek, Michael Meredith, Griff Meyer, Brendan Millon, Aidan Murnane and Lindan Verville made their UVA debuts.
- The contest was the first-ever lacrosse game played inside the George Welsh Indoor Football Practice facility and UVA's first home game away from Klöckner Stadium since the 2021 Army game, which was held at the Lower Turf practice field.
- Excluding the JMA Wireless Dome (Syracuse, N.Y.), it was also UVA's first indoor game since facing Notre Dame at the Loftus Sports Center in 2014.
- Colsey extended his scoring streak to 15 games, dating back to last year's season opener, a span in which he's totaled 33 goals.
- McCabe Millon set career highs in both assists (5) and points (9).
- Sunderland tied his career high of six goals.
- Against his former team, defenseman Murnane made 40th career start in his first game back since suffering a season-ending injury in the Raiders' 2025 opener against Penn State.
- Former UVA standout attackman Connor Shellenberger made his coaching debut as an assistant coach. Shellenberger primarily assists with the development of the program's attackmen and offensive midfielders.
