COVERING THE CAVALIERS

UNIQUELY UVA
The University of Virginia is an institution rich with history and tradition. Here is some of the terminology that contributes to UVA's culture.

Grounds: The term used by students, faculty and alumni to refer to the University dating as far back as Thomas Jefferson. "Campus" is never used.

First Year, Second Year, Third Year, Fourth Year: Instead of freshman, sophomore, junior, senior. Why you may ask? To be a "senior" implies that a person has reached the final phase of learning, a feat that Thomas Jefferson believed to be impossible, arguing instead that education is a life-long process.

Commonwealth: Virginia is one of four constituent states of the United States of America that officially uses the name "Commonwealth" instead of the word state in all references. The other three commonwealths are Kentucky, Massachusetts and Pennsylvania.

UNIVERSITY NICKNAMES
Virginia's athletics teams have been accompanied by a somewhat confusing array of nicknames. The most prominent and widely accepted of these monikers are "Cavaliers," "Wahoos" and "Hoos."

Although the terms "Cavaliers," "Wahoos" and "Hoos" are used almost interchangeably to refer to University teams and players, "Cavaliers" is more often used by the media, while "Wahoos" and "Hoos" are frequently used by Virginia students and fans.

Legend has it that Washington & Lee baseball fans dubbed the Virginia players "Wahoos" during the fiercely contested rivalry that existed between the two in-state schools in the 1890s. By 1940, "Wahoos" was in general use around Grounds to denote University students or events relating to them. The abbreviated "Hoos" sprang up later in student newspapers and has gained growing popularity in recent years.

THE CAVALIER MASCOT
The costumed Cavalier with a large character head debuted during Virginia's 1984 football season and has remained the official mascot of the University.

UNIVERSITY COLORS
Orange and blue were adopted as the University of Virginia's official athletic colors at a mass student meeting in 1888. UVA athletic teams had previously worn silver gray and cardinal red, but those colors did not stand out on muddy football fields, prompting a student movement to change them.

One of the students attending the mass meeting was Allen Potts, a star athlete who played on Virginia's first football team in 1888. Potts showed up at the meeting wearing a navy blue-and-orange scarf that he had acquired during a summer boating expedition at Oxford University. Orange and blue were chosen as the official athletic colors after one of Potts' fellow students pulled the scarf off Potts' neck and, waving it to the crowd, yelled, "How will this do?" UVA later served as the inspiration for schools like Auburn and Florida when they selected school colors.

WAH-HOO-WAH
The origin of "Wah-hoo-wah" is uncertain. The cheer was used to root on Virginia teams as early as 1890 and may have been borrowed from Dartmouth College, whose athletics teams were once known as the Indians.

Legend attributes the yell to Natalie Floyd Otey, who sang the ballad "Where'er You Are, There Shall My Love Be" at Charlottesville's Levy Opera House in 1893. The predominantly student audience noticed that Otey warbled the first three words of the song between each of the stanzas and decided to join in the refrain. By evening's end, goes the legend, the crowd had corrupted "Where'er You Are" into "Wah-hoo-wah."

The Levy Opera House stands at the corner of High Street and Park Street and has since been renovated into an office building.

VIRGINIA VS. THE TOURNAMENT FIELD
· Virginia is 6-4 against teams in the 2021 NCAA Tournament field.
· UVA owns wins over Bryant, Georgetown, High Point, Loyola, North Carolina and Notre Dame. UVA has lost to Duke, North Carolina and Syracuse (2).

UVA ON SIX-GAME NCAA WINNING STREAK
· UVA has won six NCAA Tournament games in a row, dating back to 2019, which is tied for the longest streak in UVA postseason history. The 2003-05 UVA teams also won six in a row.
· The six postseason wins in a row are the most by a Cavalier team in consecutive NCAA Tournaments since the COVID-19 pandemic canceled the 2020 NCAA Tournament. UVA did not make the 2004 NCAA Tournament.

UVA HAD A 22-DAY LAYOFF BETWEEN GAMES
· UVA played on April 24 against Syracuse and didn't play again until 22 days later against Bryant, which is tied for the longest break between a UVA regular season finale and the NCAA Tournament. The 1997 season also saw 22 days (April 26-May 18). UVA lost that NCAA Tournament game to Maryland, 10-9.
· UVA also had 21 day breaks in 1980, 1995 and 1996.
· UVA now plays a game six days later with its appearance in the 2021 NCAA Quarterfinal round.

JAKE GIULIERI CLUTH PLAYS IN NCAA TOURNAMENT
· Second-year defensemen Jake Giulieri has limited action in the NCAA Tournament, mostly on man-down. He made two big plays on man-down in this year's NCAA Tournament.
· Against Bryant and UVA down two men, he knocked down a pass in the closing seconds of the second quarter that allowed UVA to hold the ball and get possession coming out in the third quarter to run out the penalty.
· Against Georgetown UVA was leading 2-1 early. With UVA down a man in the first quarter, Giulieri intercepted a Georgetown shot. UVA ran out the penalty and Payton Cormier scored on a Jeff Conner pass to give UVA a 3-1 lead.

THE SERIES VS. THE TAR HEELS
· Virginia leads the all-time series with North Carolina by a 54-32 margin.
· The Cavaliers' 54 wins place the Tar Heels on UVA's list of most beaten opponents (UVA has defeated Duke 50 times).
· Overall Virginia has won 24 of the last 34 games dating back to 1997, but North Carolina has won seven of the past 13 meetings – including in the semifinal round of the 2012 ACC Championship and the 2013 ACC Finals.
· Three of the Tar Heels' wins in this span were all by two goals (7-5 in 2001, 11-9 in 2004 and again in 2012).
· UNC scored back-to-back goals with 2:33 and 2:38 left in the game to escape with an 11-10 win at Fetzer Field in Chapel Hill in 2014's regular season meeting.
· UNC won four of the last eight games by three goals: 10-7 in Charlottesville during the 2013 regular season meeting, 16-13 in the 2013 ACC Championship game at UNC's Kenan Stadium, 15-12 in 2017 at Klöckner Stadium and 16-13 earlier this season at Klöckner.
· North Carolina's previous five wins over UVA before the 2013 meetings had been by either one or two goals; until 2013 the Tar Heels had not won by more than two goals since a 15-7 win in the 1994 ACC Tournament.
· Virginia owned a 10-game winning streak over the Tar Heels, the longest winning streak in the series since winning six in a row from 1997-2000, but UNC snapped it in the ACC Tournament in 2012.
· UVA used seven points from Michael Kraus (3 g, 4 a) and four goals from Mike D'Amario to record its first ACC win since 2014 when the Cavaliers won, 15-12, at Kenan Stadium in 2018. The ACC win snapped an 18-game losing streak in league play. Counting the 2018 win over UNC, UVA has won four of its last six games in ACC play.

UVA AND UNC OPENED UP METLIFE STADIUM
· The 2010 meeting was a No. 1 (UVA) vs. No. 2 (UNC) matchup that served as the first-ever event at MetLife Stadium, home of the New York Giants and New York Jets. The event was a triple header titled the Big City Classic. UVA won the second game of the day over the Tar Heels, 7-5.

UVA AND UNC MEET FOR THIRD TIME IN 2021
· UVA and UNC are playing each other for the third time in 2021 when they meet in Saturday's semifinal. It is just the fourth time UVA has played a team three times in the same season.
· The previous three times were against the three other teams in Hartford for Championship Weekend.
· UVA played Duke three times in 2010, Maryland three times in 2008 and North Carolina three times in 1994.
· UVA and UNC split the regular season meetings, with each team winning on the road.

· Bertrand's 65-game goal scoring streak is a collegiate record when spanning all DI, DII and DIII players.

CAVALIERS HOLD GEORGETOWN IN CHECK
· UVA beat No. 5 seed Georgetown 14-3 in the quarterfinal round. It was tied for the fewest points a UVA team has yielded in an NCAA Tournament game. The 1972 Cavaliers held Army to three goals in a 10-3 quarterfinal win.
· The 16 ground balls Georgetown picked up were the fewest in an NCAA Tournament by a UVA opponent.
· The UVA defense held Georgetown's Jake Carraway without a goal. He had the nation's longest active goal-scoring streak entering the game at 44 games.
· UVA also held TJ Haley, the nation's top assist man, to zero points in the win.

UVA'S DEFENSE HOLDS LATE IN WIN OVER BRYANT
· Trailing by two goals in the third quarter to Bryant, 10-8, in the NCAA First Round, the UVA defense buckled down and held the Bulldogs scoreless for a 17:59 over the end of the third and most of the fourth quarter. During that span the Cavaliers went on a 5-0 run to secure the victory.

Game 1
Virginia 20, Towson 11
Feb. 6 • Charlottesville, Va.

The No. 5 Virginia Cavaliers (1-0) used a seven-goal second quarter to distance themselves from the Towson Tigers (0-1), 20-11, at Klöckner Stadium.

Connor Shellenberger scored seven points on four goals and three assists in his collegiate debut. Payton Cormier added a career-high six goals and one assist, while graduate transfer Charlie Bertrand notched four goals and two assists in his UVA debut.

HOW IT HAPPENED

UVA scored 52 seconds into the game to take an early 1-0 lead on an unassisted Shellenberger score. Towson rebounded with a 4-1 spurt to take a 4-2 lead with 6:26 left in the first frame. Cormier broke through with his first goal at 3:50 in the first quarter to jumpstart a 7-0 Cavalier run, pushing the Cavaliers ahead for good. Cormer scored four times during the run and capped it on a Shellenberger helper with 9:37 left in the second quarter, giving UVA an 9-4 lead.

Leading at the half, 11-5, UVA opened the third quarter scoring on a 7-2 streak to put the game out of reach. A dropdown shot by Peter Garno on another Shellenberger assist closed the third quarter scoring as UVA led 18-7 heading into the fourth quarter.

FROM THE LOCKER ROOM

"Give Towson a ton of credit. The way they came at us in the first quarter – they scored those four goals and hit three pipes. They were all over us. They came to Charlottesville to get a win and they were not intimidated at all. I was really impressed with their team and their coaching staff and how prepared they were. For us, it was getting into a rhythm at the face-off X, and Petey LaSalla started to pick up some tough ground balls and winning the possessions there. I thought we really did a nice job with our shooting. The goalie for Towson, Shane Brennan, was fantastic early and he's a really talented goalie, but we were smart with our shooting and didn't take too many shots from too far out. I know Griff Harris stuck one from deep in that first quarter, but for the most part we made sure we got closer and took good shots and got them off his body. There was a tenacity and selling out for loose balls – I'm a very grateful coach and a very grateful man to have a team that is going to sell out for their teammates." – Lars Tiffany

Game 2
Virginia 14, Army 6
Feb. 14 • Charlottesville, Va.

The No. 3 Virginia Cavaliers (2-0) picked up a key non-conference home win over the No. 12 Army West Point Black Knights (0-1), 14-9. The contest was played at the Lower Turf practice field due to field conditions at Klöckner Stadium.

The Cavaliers won 10-of-13 first-half faceoffs to control possession and alleviate a first-time starter in goal, Bobby Gavin, from a strong Army attack. Gavin, starting for Alex Rode who wasn't available, allowed four goals on the first four shots he saw from Army. He settled down and shutout Army in the second quarter as UVA held an 8-4 lead going into the intermission.

HOW IT HAPPENED

Army scored first on a Bobby Abshire goal 1:04 into the game. UVA won the next three faceoffs, which resulted in three-straight goals by the Cavaliers, giving UVA a lead (3-1) they never relinquished. Ian Laviano started the UVA scoring with the 100th goal of his career at 13:21 in the first quarter. Matt Moore scored next and Payton Cormier capped the run with a score at 11:36 in the first quarter on a Connor Shellenberger helper.

Army cut UVA'a lead to one goal, 5-4, at the first quarter break after the Black Knights scored twice in the last two minutes of the frame. Aidan Byrnes scored off a Brendan Nichtern helper with 14 seconds left to cap the first quarter.

That was as close as Army would get. The Cavaliers outscored the Black Knights 3-0 in the second quarter on goals by Moore and two by Cormier to cushion UVA's lead. Cormier's third goal of the game came with 1.1 seconds left in the first half. UVA's lead never fell below four goals in the second half as the Cavaliers wrapped up the key home win.

FROM THE LOCKER ROOM

"I'm really impressed with Bobby's [Gavin] performance, especially considering that the first quarter he didn't make any saves and all four shots on goal went in. It's really easy for any player, especially a young player, to get down on themselves. But – just as it's been said many times in sports – 'next play mentality, next shot mentality' – here's this First Year, who embraced it. Bobby went out there in the second quarter and made some big saves, he got his confidence going, and it really helped liberate the rest of the team. He knew that he didn't have to be perfect and that he could erase some mistakes. Give Bobby Gavin credit in his first start here at UVA. It did not start well, but he was able to step up and not worry about the start."– Lars Tiffany

Game 3
Virginia 15, Loyola (Md.) 12
Feb. 20 • Baltimore, Md.

Matt Moore scored five goals and Connor Shellenberger notched five points (2-3-5) as the No. 3 Virginia Cavaliers (3-0) overcame a slow start to pick up a key road win against the No. 11 Loyola Greyhounds (1-1) , 15-12, at the Ridley Athletic Complex.

Loyola led 4-1 after the first quarter thanks to a 3-0 run by the Greyhounds to close the first period. Kevin Lindley scored twice for Loyola during the streak. The Cavaliers responded with a 5-0 spurt to start the second quarter and never looked back, taking a 6-4 lead with 6:31 left before the intermission.

HOW IT HAPPENED

Charlie Bertrand started the scoring for the Cavaliers in the second period after dodging from X at 12:06 in the frame. Bertrand's goal started a 5-0 UVA run that gave UVA the lead for the first time. Moore scored his first on a Shellenberger helper at 9:55, while Dox Aitken scored at 8:52 in the period off a dodge to tie the game at 4-4. Petey LaSalla won the ensuing faceoff and deposited his only goal of the game seven seconds later to give UVA the lead for the first time, 5-4. Ian Laviano capped the run on Shellenberger's second assist of the game with 3:37 left in the first half. UVA took a 7-6 lead into the half after the Greyhounds finished the quarter with a 2-1 run.

Loyola scored 35 seconds into the third quarter, tying the game at 7-7. Moore responded at 13:42 in the third quarter to give UVA the lead for good, 8-7, on an unassisted score. UVA outscored Loyola 5-3 in the third frame, spelling the difference. The Greyhounds cut the lead to 13-12 on a Peter Swindell unassisted goal with 7:38 left, but the Loyola wasn't able to even the game on offense and saw Moore shoot from a ridiculous angle coming off of X to put the game out of reach, 14-11, with 5:21 left. Payton Cormier pushed his third through to cap the win with 4:34 left to play.

FROM THE LOCKER ROOM

"I am very grateful for the way Petey LaSalla played today and then Gavin Tygh, who came in and got some big wins at the faceoff X. Possessions against this Loyola team are so critical. I want to give Loyola credit. They are a team that we know is a very good team and they get the ball up quickly and go. Riding is a strength of ours most games. We just couldn't quite get those extra turnovers in the middle of field. Give Loyola credit there. That is what exaggerates the faceoff because if we can't get the extra possessions on the ride, then we're have to get those extra positions in the faceoff game. Beating [Bailey] Savio, Loyola's elite faceoff man, and getting the edge at the faceoff X was so critical for earning a win today."– Lars Tiffany

Game 4
Syracuse 20, Virginia 10
Feb. 27 • Syracuse, N.Y.

The No. 10 Syracuse Orange (1-1, 1-0 ACC) outscored UVA in the second half, 11-3, to hand the No. 3 Virginia Cavaliers (3-1, 0-1 ACC) their first defeat of the year, 20-10, inside the Carrier Dome.

After UVA trailed early, 2-0, the Cavaliers went on a 5-1 run to stake themselves to a 5-3 lead in the first quarter. The Orange put a goal in right before the end of the first frame, starting a 7-2 Syracuse run that started the game's separation.

HOW IT HAPPENED

Trailing 2-0 with 10:51 left in the first quarter, Ian Laviano scored the first of his three goals on a helper from Matt Moore to start the UVA scoring. Connor Shellenberger, Payton Cormier and Charlie Bertrand all scored goals as part of a 4-0 Cavalier run that gave UVA a 4-2 lead with 7:19 left in the first frame.

Syracuse bounced right back with a 2-1 run to close the period on goals by Lucas Quinn and Brendan Curry. The latter coming with 16 seconds left in the first quarter, cutting UVA's lead to one goal, 5-4.

Curry's goal started a 7-2 Orange run, giving Syracuse a 10-7 lead 13 seconds into the third quarter. UVA's only goals during that span came from Cormier and Laviano. The Laviano goal with 5:28 left in the first half came off a saved shot by Jared Conners.

FROM THE LOCKER ROOM

"We knew all week that Syracuse was putting a big emphasis on taking away transition because Army was able to expose them last week. Not only did they take away transition, then we suffered the same flaws that Syracuse did a week ago. We were letting them get behind us. Some of that hyperness and being aware of the next play, Syracuse was all over finding that edge. They were finding that transition and making that look. They played like a team that was trying to avenge something and give Coach Desko tremendous credit. He got that team to bounce back in great fashion. Another category where we really struggled, and give Syracuse credit, was our clearing. Four or five times our defensemen are running on the midfield line and getting checked by their attackmen and that surprised us. We have tremendous confidence in Kyle Kology and Cade Saustad, and others, to win that matchup and run over the midline. Syracuse got us today." – Lars Tiffany

March 3 • Charlottesville, Va.

Alex Rode made 17 saves, including 12 in the second half, to help the No. 8 Virginia Cavaliers (4-1) outlast the No. 19 High Point Panthers (1-3), 12-11, at Klöckner Stadium.

High Point scored four goals in the final frame to push the envelope, courtesy of 12 UVA turnovers. Rode made six of his saves in the fourth quarter to keep the Panthers at bay. Ian Laviano's man-up goal with 12:37 left to play proved to be the difference.

HOW IT HAPPENED

The Cavaliers were humming in the first quarter, taking a 6-1 lead into the second frame. Peter Garno scored the first of his two goals 52 seconds into the game to get things started. Six different Cavaliers scored in the quarter and Ben Wayer capped the spurt with his first career goal with three seconds left on a Connor Shellenberger helper.

Timely UVA turnovers, faceoff wins and transition helped High Point get back in the game as the Panthers went on a 5-0 run to start the second quarter, tying the game at 6-6. Asher Nolting scored his only goal of the game to cap the run on an extra-man situation with 7:32 left to play before the intermission. UVA responded with goals by Charlie Bertrand and Xander Dickson to take an 8-6 lead into the break. UVA never relinquished the lead again.

The Cavaliers extended their lead in the third quarter to four goals, 11-7, via two goals and assist by Matt Moore.

FROM THE LOCKER ROOM

"I loved how we started this game. I love the energy from the bench and I loved how our guys got excited for a 3 p.m. start in the middle of the week. Coming out of class at noon, 12:30 p.m., as a coach you get concerned – 'are we ready to play?' I was so excited with the start we had. High Point, you have to give them credit. This is never going to be an easy opponent to play. They popped one forward on the fast break off the face-off, and then they had another transition goal, and all of a sudden it was 6-3 and they had some momentum going. It's a tribute to Jon Torpey and the way he builds his teams, his men. They're not intimidated by anyone, and they made some nice adjustments with their offense. I give them a lot of credit for pushing a little lower with their 1-4-1 wing dodge and making some really nice looks through our defense. We talked about that at halftime, and we made some adjustments there." – Lars Tiffany

Game 6
Virginia 20, Air Force 4
March 6 • Charlottesville, Va.

The No. 8 Virginia Cavaliers (5-1) used a 12-1 run to the start the game as they cruised past the Air Force Falcons, 20-4, at Klöckner Stadium.

Connor Shellenberger dished four assists in the first quarter as six different Cavaliers scored goals, including Peter Garno, who notched his first career hat-trick in the opening frame. The ball was humming around in the first half as UVA held a 13-2 advantage at the intermission. Nine of the 13 first-half goals were assisted for the Cavaliers.

HOW IT HAPPENED

Garno started the UVA offense on a Shellenberger helper 2:01 into the game. He also scored unassisted at 5:18 in the first quarter and again with 1:48 left in the opening frame when Shellenberger found him again.

Charlie Bertrand scored four goals in the first half, while Matt Moore dished out four assists. Shellenberger scored his only goal of the game at 5:11 in the third quarter on a Bertrand assist to give UVA a 16-2 lead. As UVA emptied the bench, Patrick McIntosh scored his first two career goals, while Connell Kumar also netted his first collegiate goal in the fourth quarter.

Air Force had its chances, but UVA goalie Alex Rode turned away nine of the 11 shots he saw on goal, including six saves in the first half.

FROM THE LOCKER ROOM

"It was really rewarding to see our offense generate a lot of opportunities to score for others. We were able to facilitate, starting with Connor Shellenberger and Matt Moore. They were dodging, creating, and finding open teammates. That was really great to see, because we haven't had a lot of assists in recent games. It was really nice to see how Coach [Sean] Kirwan put our team into some dodging angles, and then we just shared the ball more and we moved the ball more, which is important against a goalie like [Braden] Host. That was really critical, to get him moving from pipe to pipe instead of just seeing the ball the entire time." – Lars Tiffany

North Carolina 16, Virginia 13
March 11 • Charlottesville, Va.

The No. 8 Virginia Cavaliers fell behind early and couldn't overcome a first-half deficit, falling to the No. 1 North Carolina Tar Heels, 16-13, at Klöckner Stadium.

An illegal stick by UNC's Zac Tucci gave UVA a three-minute full-time served extra-man possession to start the second quarter. UVA's Peter Garno was saved early on during the Cavalier possession by UNC's Collin Krieg. UNC turned the man-down situation into back-to-back goals during an 8-1 run that the forced the Cavaliers to play catchup all night.

HOW IT HAPPENED
Nicky Solomon scored at 10:24 in the first to start the 8-1 UNC streak that was the turning point for the Tar Heels, which included the two man-down goals to start the second quarter. Solomon's unassisted score with 2:40 left in the first half capped the run, giving UNC an 11-3 lead. Griffin Harris stopped the bleeding for the Cavaliers with 43 seconds left in the second quarter to send UVA into the intermission down by seven goals, 11-4.

Harris' goal started a 5-1 UVA run that made it a four-goal game, 12-8, when Matt Moore scored an unassisted goal with 7:32 left in the third quarter. UNC scored back-to-back goals to make it 15-9 with 12:06 left to play when Matt Wright scored on a Brian Cameron helper.

UVA didn't go away, scoring four goals in a row. The first two were assisted by Moore, who found Quinn and Connor Shellenberger. Conner scored his second on a Shellenberger assist, while Shellenberger capped the streak with an unassisted score with 1:35 left to play, cutting the UVA deficit to 15-13. UVA won the ensuing faceoff, but after UNC was flagged for pushing, Moore's shot was saved by Krieg. UNC pushed transition and scored an empty-net goal to seal the victory with 10 seconds left.

FROM THE LOCKER ROOM
"Collin Krieg, the goalie for North Carolina, had a great day today with 20 saves and that was probably one of the more important ones when he saved [against] Peter Garno there at the start of a three-minute EMO chance. They do a nice job with the man-down clear, and they got the reset [on that possession], so we're trying to get the ball back and double. They got us early and often. They shot well today. Even though Alex Rode gave up 15 goals, I feel like he made a lot of good saves, and Carolina's a good shooting team." – Lars Tiffany

RMU started a 7-3 run of their own to tie the game at 10-10. Corson Kealey scored with 12:24 left to play, tying the game for the final time. But UVA went on the final 4-0 run to pick up the non-conference win.

FROM THE LOCKER ROOM
"Petey is one of the grittiest people I know. He's a very talented faceoff man, but what makes Petey one of the best faceoff men in the nation is his ability to make plays with the ball in his stick on offense and in those transitions. Not only feeding the ball, but we throw the ball to Petey. He has so much talent as a lacrosse player. Certainly, at the faceoff X today, Petey was critical. He was able to draw some man-ups to give us an extra-man situations several times during the fourth quarter when possessions were so critical to keep Robert Morris off the scoreboard. I'm feeling very grateful that Petey LaSalla is a Virginia Cavalier." – Lars Tiffany

FROM THE LOCKER ROOM
"At the University of Virginia, a member of the ACC, it's really critical that we play at a high level against our conference opponents. It's really how we measure ourselves. Coming out here to South Bend, Ind., and getting a win is significant because we know how strong the opponent is. Notre Dame has a team defense that's really tough to crack. Their offense shares the ball. They have a very good faceoff man and good goalie. Winning here means we must have played well as a team. This is our best team victory of the season. We've won games prior to this, with great individual efforts, which we had some as of those as well, but it was much more of trust the system and trust each other. It is pure elation to earn a victory here today." – Lars Tiffany

Game 10
Virginia 18, Richmond 10
April 3 • Charlottesville, Va.

The No. 5 Virginia Cavaliers used 10 goal scorers to pace an 18-10 win over the No. 13 Richmond Spiders at Klöckner Stadium.

The Cavaliers outscored the Spiders 7-2 in the first quarter to take an early lead. Five different Cavaliers dented the scoreboard to pace the UVA attack. Trailing 1-0, Matt Moore tied the game, 1-1, with 9:06 left in the opening frame. The unassisted shot from his knees made Moore the 19th player in UVA program history with 100 career goals. UVA won the ensuing faceoff and 34 seconds later Connor Shellenberger gave UVA the lead for good.

HOW IT HAPPENED
Richmond bounced back to make it a closer game in the second quarter. The Spiders started the period on a 3-1 run. Dalton Young capped the run with a goal via a Sean Menges helper with 1:40 left in the first half. UVA responded with 14 seconds left in the second quarter when Shellenberger found Payton Cormier to send the Cavaliers into the intermission with a 9-5 lead.

Young scored at 11:58 in the third quarter to get the second half scoring started. It cut Richmond's deficit to three goals, 9-6. It was the closest the Spiders got. UVA responded with an 8-1 run to take a commanding 17-7 lead. Cormier's man-up goal on a Shellenberger helper with 8:35 in the game put a stamp on the streak. At one point during the run UVA held Richmond scoreless for 14:13. Virginia emptied its bench and Richmond closed the game on a 3-1 spurt in a losing effort.

FROM THE LOCKER ROOM
"What I really like is how our attackmen, Connor Shellenberger and Matt Moore, are making really good reads. Defenses are sliding early sometimes and then other times not sliding. Whether the slides are coming from the crease or cross-crease, I thought both Matt and Connor did a great job analyzing and dissecting the opposing team's schemes. I also want to give credit to our offensive coordinator Sean Kirwan for preparing our men for the different slide packages that Richmond throws at you. It really comes down to Matt and Connor making those reads and [then deciding] sometimes you have to go to the goal without the extra pass, but when the slides were drawn they found open people and shared the ball." – Lars Tiffany

The first quarter was an offensive show with 12 combined goals on 30 combined shots, three ties and three lead changes. With the score tied, 4-4, UVA finished the frame on a 3-1 run to take a 7-5 lead. Moore assisted the next three goals for UVA and Petey LaSalla scored off the opening draw of the fourth quarter to cap the pivotal streak.

LaSalla was clutch in the fourth quarter, winning the first nine draws of the period and 11-of-12 overall to pace UVA's attack. He scored and assisted Laviano at 7:27 in the fourth to give UVA a 16-12 lead. Laviano found Moore on an empty-net goal with 1:00 remaining to secure the victory and a four-goal lead, 18-14. UNC was able to muster two more goals in the losing effort.

FROM THE LOCKER ROOM
"Today's offensive explosion is due to the unselfishness of our offense, which starts with No. 5, Matt Moore, playing more and more unselfish and being a better facilitator for offense. The real key though is having the ball as much as we did and that starts with Petey LaSalla [at the faceoff X]. He continues time and time again to prove that not only is he an elite possession faceoff man, but also one of the most dangerous offensive threats in the nation. We saw it again today, with a goal and an assist in the fourth quarter that allowed us to pull away." – Lars Tiffany

FROM THE LOCKER ROOM

The 8-0 run was part of a larger 13-2 run that spelled the difference in the game. A Will Cory unassisted goal with 5:38 left to play capped the run and the UVA scoring.

FROM THE LOCKER ROOM

"I continue to be impressed by our entire team's energy throughout games. From the men on the field to the men off the field on the sideline. It's been special in 2021 how much the entire team stays energized and focused and loud during these games. I'm really grateful for the men on this team and how intense we are for those two hours. We continue to be very good in two specialty areas – Alex Rode had 11 saves at the half – this game could have been a whole lot closer, if not tied, without Alex playing so well in the goal – and, of course, Petey LaSalla and all the extra possessions he provides our offense. I'm a very fortunate coach to have such an edge in possessions and saves." – Lars Tiffany

Game 14
Syracuse 13, Virginia 11
April 24 • Charlottesville, Va.

Despite strong offensive and defensive efficiency, the No. 5 Virginia Cavaliers dropped its final regular season game of the season, 13-11, to the No. 11 Syracuse Orange at Klöckner Stadium.

Syracuse faceoff specialist set the tone for the entire game, winning 24-of-27 draws to pace the Orange's significant possession advantage.

HOW IT HAPPENED

With the game tied early, 2-2, Syracuse started a 5-0 run with 24 seconds left in the first quarter to take a sizeable advantage. Owen Hiltz capped the run off an Owen Seebold pass with 9:32 left in the second quarter to give the Orange a 7-2 lead.

Virginia played catchup the rest of the way. Trailing 8-4 at the half, UVA went on a 4-1 run to cut its deficit to one goal, 9-8. UVA had a chance late in the third to tie the game at 9-9, but Charlie Bertrand's shot hit pipe on a tremendous look inside. Shortly after a cross-field pass to Peter Garno set up a perfect scoring opportunity, Syracuse goalie Drake Porter made a tremendous save to turn UVA away.

By the time UVA took another shot, Syracuse had already finished a 4-0 run to push its lead back up to five, 13-8. UVA tried one more push to get back in the game with a 3-0 run to finish the game. Bertrand scored back-to-back goals to make it 13-11, his second coming with 1:59 left to play on a Matt Moore helper. The Cavaliers were unable to get any closer and Syracuse closed out a key ACC win.

FROM THE LOCKER ROOM

"First I have to give credit to Syracuse. It was a big bounce back win for them. They have a very balanced attack and midfield. The way that they challenged us behind the goal and above the goal, they have arguably have the best midfield in the country on their first line. But they got production out of their second line as well. With Owen Hiltz and Rehfuss on attack, they have a really balanced approach that we struggled with. Unfortunately, that offense had the ball a lot today and we [Virginia] had to play a lot of defense because of their domination at the face off X. So, give credit to Jakob Phaup for what he was able to do today against Petey [LaSalla] and the rest of us. We love Petey. Petey will be back, but today was Syracuse's day at the face off X and that's the key to unleashing that offense." – Lars Tiffany

FROM THE LOCKER ROOM

"It's a treat to be coaching this team. It's a treat to be in the NCAA tournament. The competition in Division I lacrosse when you get to the month of May is intense. Bryant's effort today did not surprise me at all. Having coached against Mike Pressler and the Bulldogs during the years we had together (Sean Kirwan and Kip Turner), we fully knew what to expect and that is a tenacious team that was going to be all over the contested ground-balls. They're always good at the faceoff X because of the faceoff Coach, Casey Broderson, and there's just a will – an attitude – that they're not going to back down. I'm excited that we got to play in such a great game. I'm excited about the win, as it gives us an opportunity to play another team that's playing high-energy, high-level lacrosse in Kevin Warne's Georgetown Hoyas. I'm really excited about how we responded in the fourth quarter and how we made some great shots. Whether it was Payton [Cormier] or Ian [Laviano], just placing it into some tiny little windows, and then Charlie Bertrand too, picking up a big loose ball and putting one away, it was an exciting game, a great game. I'm not surprised at all that this was another slugfest." – Lars Tiffany

Game 16
Virginia 14, Georgetown 3
May 22 • Hempstead, N.Y.

The No. 4 seeded Virginia Cavaliers used a 9-0 run in the first half to cruise past the No. 5 seeded Georgetown Hoyas in the NCAA Quarterfinal Round, 14-3, at Hofstra's James M. Shuart Stadium. UVA advances to Championship Weekend for the second tournament in a row. The three goals allowed ties a UVA NCAA single-game best. The 1972 NCAA title team beat Army 10-3 in the quarterfinals to set the standard.

Connor Shellenberger led UVA with six goals and one assist in the win.

HOW IT HAPPENED

With the game tied, 1-1, early in the first quarter, the Cavalier offense went on attack to take a 10-1 lead into the intermission on a 9-0 run.

Shellenberger started things with an unassisted goal at 10:50 in the first. He scored five times during the Cavalier streak, capping the scoring with eight seconds left in the first half on a Jeff Conner helper. Georgetown finally pushed through 1:02 into the third, snapping a scoreless streak that lasted 28:32, easily UVA's longest defensive shield of the season.

Georgetown didn't score again for another 23:04, during which the Cavaliers finished the third quarter on a 4-0 run with goals by Charlie Bertrand, Ian Laviano, Shellenberger and Matt Moore, taking a 14-2 lead into the fourth quarter. Moore's goal came with five seconds left in the third quarter.

The Hoyas found nylon with 5:02 left to finish the game's scoring. Georgetown's Jake Carraway had the nation's longest active goal-scoring streak entering the game at 44 games before it was snapped against the Cavaliers on Saturday.

FROM THE LOCKER ROOM

"It was a complete effort today. The leadership from within this team starts with Jared Conners and John Fox, our two captains. Our goalie, Alex Rode and how he has stepped up as a leader, and then on the offense end with Ian Laviano. How he personally took a lot of responsibility for how we approached those three weeks off and how we were going to really improve our fitness get healthier, be more skilled and come tighter as a team. Many of us looked at that three week layoff, as a potential disease, but we turned it into a positive. The results are what we've seen since then. A fantastic complete effort by this team, starting with Petey LaSalla at the faceoff X, giving us those extra possessions." – Lars Tiffany
