COVERING THE CAVALIERS

UNIQUELY UVA

The University of Virginia is an institution rich with history and tradition. Here is some of the terminology that contributes to UVA's culture.

Grounds: The term used by students, faculty and alumni to refer to the University dating as far back as Thomas Jefferson. "Campus" is never used.

First Year, Second Year, Third Year, Fourth Year: Instead of freshman, sophomore, junior, senior. Why you may ask? To be a "senior" implies that a person has reached the final phase of learning, a feat that Thomas Jefferson believed to be impossible, arguing instead that education is a life-long process.

Commonwealth: Virginia is one of four constituent states of the United States of America that officially uses the name "Commonwealth" instead of the word state in all references. The other three commonwealths are Kentucky, Massachusetts and Pennsylvania.

UNIVERSITY NICKNAMES

Virginia's athletics teams have been accompanied by a somewhat confusing array of nicknames. The most prominent and widely accepted of these monikers are "Cavaliers," "Wahoos" and "Hoos."

Although the terms "Cavaliers," "Wahoos" and "Hoos" are used almost interchangeably to refer to University teams and players, "Cavaliers" is more often used by the media, while "Wahoos" and "Hoos" are frequently used by Virginia students and fans.

Legend has it that Washington & Lee baseball fans dubbed the Virginia players "Wahoos" during the fiercely contested rivalry that existed between the two in-state schools in the 1890s. By 1940, "Wahoos" was in general use around Grounds to denote University students or events relating to them. The abbreviated "Hoos" sprang up later in student newspapers and has gained growing popularity in recent years.

THE CAVALIER MASCOT

The costumed Cavalier with a large character head debuted during Virginia's 1984 football season and has remained the official mascot of the University.

UNIVERSITY COLORS

Orange and blue were adopted as the University of Virginia's official athletic colors at a mass student meeting in 1888. UVA athletic teams had previously worn silver gray and cardinal red, but those colors did not stand out on muddy football fields, prompting a student movement to change them.

One of the students attending the mass meeting was Allen Potts, a star athlete who played on Virginia's first football team in 1888. Potts showed up at the meeting wearing a navy blue-and-orange scarf that he had acquired during a summer boating expedition at Oxford University. Orange and blue were chosen as the official athletic colors after one of Potts' fellow students pulled the scarf off Potts' neck and, waving it to the crowd, yelled, "How will this do?" UVA later served as the inspiration for schools like Auburn and Florida when they selected school colors.

WAH-HOO-WAH

The origin of "Wah-hoo-wah" is uncertain. The cheer was used to root on Virginia teams as early as 1890 and may have been borrowed from Dartmouth College, whose athletics teams were once known as the Indians.

Legend attributes the yell to Natalie Floyd Otey, who sang the ballad "Where'er You Are, There Shall My Love Be" at Charlottesville's Levy Opera House in 1893. The predominantly student audience noticed that Otey warbled the first three words of the song between each of the stanzas and decided to join in the refrain. By evening's end, goes the legend, the crowd had corrupted "Where'er You Are" into "Wah-hoo-wah."

The Levy Opera House stands at the corner of High Street and Park Street and has since been renovated into an office building.

· Saturday marks the seventh meeting between Virginia and Richmond in men's lacrosse.
· UVA owns a 6-0 all-time record in the series that was first contested in 2014.
· The 2014 meeting was Richmond's very first NCAA Division I men's lacrosse game in program history.
· James Pannell scored two of his game-high four goals late in the fourth quarter and the UVA defense held on for the narrow 13-12 win over the eventual Atlantic Sun champions and NCAA participant.
· In 2015 at Klöckner Stadium UVA used five goals from Owen Van Arsdale, four from Ryan Tucker and three from Greg Coholan to cruise to a 14-7 triumph over the Spiders.
· Behind 12 saves from goalie Matt Barrett, UVA recorded its first shutout (9-0) since 2007 when UVA and Richmond met in 2016 at Robins Stadium. AJ Fish, Matt Emery and Ryan Lukacovic all scored two goals to help the winning effort.
· Because UVA made back-to-back trips to Robins Stadium, UVA and Richmond met at Klöckner Stadium in Charlottesville back-to-back times for the 2018 and 2019 seasons.

UVA VS. THE COMMONWEALTH OF VIRGINIA
· UVA enters Saturday's contest with Richmond with a 113-19-2 all-time record against opponents from the Commonwealth.

· For the 15th year out of 16, UVA is facing an opponent from the Commonwealth of Virginia. From 2006-16 UVA played VMI every season, while adding Richmond to the annual schedule with the beginning of the Spiders' program in 2014. UVA did not play a Commonwealth team in 2020 before the pandemic haulted the season. Richmond and VMI were both on UVA's schedule that was eventually canceled due to COVID-19.

LOOKING BACK AT HISTORICAL FIRST RICHMOND LACROSSE GAME
· The inaugural game of the Richmond lacrosse program took place on Feb. 8, 2014 at Robins Stadium against a UVA team that was ranked No. 7 in the nation.

· There are two current Southern Conference opponents UVA has never played: Jacksonville and Mercer.
· Those two programs started playing lacrosse in the last nine years: Jacksonville (2010) and Mercer (2011).
· The conference as a whole is very young in lacrosse. Richmond began in 2014 and High Point began in 2013. The old guard in the leauge are Air Force, who began playing lacrosse in 1967, and VMI, who started in 1983.

Virginia 20, Towson 11
Feb. 6 • Charlottesville, Va.

The No. 5 Virginia Cavaliers (1-0) used a seven-goal second quarter to distance themselves from the Towson Tigers (0-1), 20-11, at Klöckner Stadium.

Connor Shellenberger scored seven points on four goals and three assists in his collegiate debut. Payton Cormier added a career-high six goals and one assist, while graduate transfer Charlie Bertrand notched four goals and two assists in his UVA debut.

HOW IT HAPPENED

UVA scored 52 seconds into the game to take an early 1-0 lead on an unassisted Shellenberger score. Towson rebounded with a 4-1 spurt to take a 4-2 lead with 6:26 left in the first frame. Cormier broke through with his first goal at 3:50 in the first quarter to jumpstart a 7-0 Cavalier run, pushing the Cavaliers ahead for good. Cormer scored four times during the run and capped it on a Shellenberger helper with 9:37 left in the second quarter, giving UVA an 9-4 lead.

Leading at the half, 11-5, UVA opened the third quarter scoring on a 7-2 streak to put the game out of reach. A dropdown shot by Peter Garno on another Shellenberger assist closed the third quarter scoring as UVA led 18-7 heading into the fourth quarter.

FROM THE LOCKER ROOM

"Give Towson a ton of credit. The way they came at us in the first quarter – they scored those four goals and hit three pipes. They were all over us. They came to Charlottesville to get a win and they were not intimidated at all. I was really impressed with their team and their coaching staff and how prepared they were. For us, it was getting into a rhythm at the face-off X, and Petey LaSalla started to pick up some tough ground balls and winning the possessions there. I thought we really did a nice job with our shooting. The goalie for Towson, Shane Brennan, was fantastic early and he's a really talented goalie, but we were smart with our shooting and didn't take too many shots from too far out. I know Griff Harris stuck one from deep in that first quarter, but for the most part we made sure we got closer and took good shots and got them off his body. There was a tenacity and selling out for loose balls – I'm a very grateful coach and a very grateful man to have a team that is going to sell out for their teammates." – Lars Tiffany

Game 2
Virginia 14, Army 6
Feb. 14 • Charlottesville, Va.

The No. 3 Virginia Cavaliers (2-0) picked up a key non-conference home win over the No. 12 Army West Point Black Knights (0-1), 14-9. The contest was played at the Lower Turf practice field due to field conditions at Klöckner Stadium.

The Cavaliers won 10-of-13 first-half faceoffs to control possession and alleviate a first-time starter in goal, Bobby Gavin, from a strong Army attack. Gavin, starting for Alex Rode who wasn't available, allowed four goals on the first four shots he saw from Army. He settled down and shutout Army in the second quarter as UVA held an 8-4 lead going into the intermission.

HOW IT HAPPENED

Army scored first on a Bobby Abshire goal 1:04 into the game. UVA won the next three faceoffs, which resulted in three-straight goals by the Cavaliers, giving UVA a lead (3-1) they never relinquished. Ian Laviano started the UVA scoring with the 100th goal of his career at 13:21 in the first quarter. Matt Moore scored next and Payton Cormier capped the run with a score at 11:36 in the first quarter on a Connor Shellenberger helper.

Army cut UVA'a lead to one goal, 5-4, at the first quarter break after the Black Knights scored twice in the last two minutes of the frame. Aidan Byrnes scored off a Brendan Nichtern helper with 14 seconds left to cap the first quarter.

That was as close as Army would get. The Cavaliers outscored the Black Knights 3-0 in the second quarter on goals by Moore and two by Cormier to cushion UVA's lead. Cormier's third goal of the game came with 1.1 seconds left in the first half. UVA's lead never fell below four goals in the second half as the Cavaliers wrapped up the key home win.

FROM THE LOCKER ROOM

"I'm really impressed with Bobby's [Gavin] performance, especially considering that the first quarter he didn't make any saves and all four shots on goal went in. It's really easy for any player, especially a young player, to get down on themselves. But – just as it's been said many times in sports – 'next play mentality, next shot mentality' – here's this First Year, who embraced it. Bobby went out there in the second quarter and made some big saves, he got his confidence going, and it really helped liberate the rest of the team. He knew that he didn't have to be perfect and that he could erase some mistakes. Give Bobby Gavin credit in his first start here at UVA. It did not start well, but he was able to step up and not worry about the start."– Lars Tiffany

Game 3
Virginia 15, Loyola (Md.) 12
Feb. 20 • Baltimore, Md.

Matt Moore scored five goals and Connor Shellenberger notched five points (2-3-5) as the No. 3 Virginia Cavaliers (3-0) overcame a slow start to pick up a key road win against the No. 11 Loyola Greyhounds (1-1), 15-12, at the Ridley Athletic Complex.

Loyola led 4-1 after the first quarter thanks to a 3-0 run by the Greyhounds to close the first period. Kevin Lindley scored twice for Loyola during the streak. The Cavaliers responded with a 5-0 spurt to start the second quarter and never looked back, taking a 6-4 lead with 6:31 left before the intermission.

HOW IT HAPPENED

Charlie Bertrand started the scoring for the Cavaliers in the second period after dodging from X at 12:06 in the frame. Bertrand's goal started a 5-0 UVA run that gave UVA the lead for the first time. Moore scored his first on a Shellenberger helper at 9:55, while Dox Aitken scored at 8:52 in the period off a dodge to tie the game at 4-4. Petey LaSalla won the ensuing faceoff and deposited his only goal of the game seven seconds later to give UVA the lead for the first time, 5-4. Ian Laviano capped the run on Shellenberger's second assist of the game with 3:37 left in the first half. UVA took a 7-6 lead into the half after the Greyhounds finished the quarter with a 2-1 run.

Loyola scored 35 seconds into the third quarter, tying the game at 7-7. Moore responded at 13:42 in the third quarter to give UVA the lead for good, 8-7, on an unassisted score. UVA outscored Loyola 5-3 in the third frame, spelling the difference. The Greyhounds cut the lead to 13-12 on a Peter Swindell unassisted goal with 7:38, but the Loyola wasn't able to even the game on offense and saw Moore shoot from a ridiculous angle coming off of X to put the game out of reach, 14-11, with 5:21 left. Payton Cormier pushed his third through to cap the win with 4:34 left to play.

FROM THE LOCKER ROOM

"I am very grateful for the way Petey LaSalla played today and then Gavin Tygh, who came in and got some big wins at the faceoff X. Possessions against this Loyola team are so critical. I want to give Loyola credit. They are a team that we know is a very good team and they get the ball up quickly and go. Riding is a strength of ours most games. We just couldn't quite get those extra turnovers in the middle of field. Give Loyola credit there. That is what exaggerates the faceoff because if we can't get the extra possessions on the ride, then we're have to get those extra positions in the faceoff game. Beating [Bailey] Savio, Loyola's elite faceoff man, and getting the edge at the faceoff X was so critical for earning a win today."– Lars Tiffany

Game 4
Syracuse 20, Virginia 10
Feb. 27 • Syracuse, N.Y.

The No. 10 Syracuse Orange (1-1, 1-0 ACC) outscored UVA in the second half, 11-3, to hand the No. 3 Virginia Cavaliers (3-1, 0-1 ACC) their first defeat of the year, 20-10, inside the Carrier Dome.

After UVA trailed early, 2-0, the Cavaliers went on a 5-1 run to stake themselves to a 5-3 lead in the first quarter. The Orange put a goal in right before the end of the first frame, starting a 7-2 Syracuse run that started the game's separation.

HOW IT HAPPENED
Trailing 2-0 with 10:51 left in the first quarter, Ian Laviano scored the first of his three goals on a helper from Matt Moore to start the UVA scoring. Connor Shellenberger, Payton Cormier and Charlie Bertrand all scored goals as part of a 4-0 Cavalier run that gave UVA a 4-2 lead with 7:19 left in the first frame.

Syracuse bounced right back with a 2-1 run to close the period on goals by Lucas Quinn and Brendan Curry. The latter coming with 16 seconds left in the first quarter, cutting UVA's lead to one goal, 5-4.

Curry's goal started a 7-2 Orange run, giving Syracuse a 10-7 lead 13 seconds into the third quarter. UVA's only goals during that span came from Cormier and Laviano. The Laviano goal with 5:28 left in the first half came off a saved shot by Jared Conners.

FROM THE LOCKER ROOM
"We knew all week that Syracuse was putting a big emphasis on taking away transition because Army was able to expose them last week. Not only did they take away transition, then we suffered the same flaws that Syracuse did a week ago. We were letting them get behind us. Some of that hyperness and being aware of the next play, Syracuse was all over finding that edge. They were finding that transition and making that look. They played like a team that was trying to avenge something and give Coach Desko tremendous credit. He got that team to bounce back in great fashion. Another category where we really struggled, and give Syracuse credit, was our clearing. Four or five times our defensemen are running on the midfield line and getting checked by their attackmen and that surprised us. We have tremendous confidence in Kyle Kology and Cade Saustad, and others, to win that matchup and run over the midline. Syracuse got us today." – Lars Tiffany

Alex Rode made 17 saves, including 12 in the second half, to help the No. 8 Virginia Cavaliers (4-1) outlast the No. 19 High Point Panthers (1-3), 12-11, at Klöckner Stadium.

High Point scored four goals in the final frame to push the envelope, courtesy of 12 UVA turnovers. Rode made six of his saves in the fourth quarter to keep the Panthers at bay. Ian Laviano's man-up goal with 12:37 left to play proved to be the difference.

HOW IT HAPPENED
The Cavaliers were humming in the first quarter, taking a 6-1 lead into the second frame. Peter Garno scored the first of his two goals 52 seconds into the game to get things started. Six different Cavaliers scored in the quarter and Ben Wayer capped the spurt with his first career goal with three seconds left on a Connor Shellenberger helper.

Timely UVA turnovers, faceoff wins and transition helped High Point get back in the game as the Panthers went on a 5-0 run to start the second quarter, tying the game at 6-6. Asher Nolting scored his only goal of the game to cap the run on an extra-man situation with 7:32 left to play before the intermission. UVA responded with goals by Charlie Bertrand and Xander Dickson to take an 8-6 lead into the break. UVA never relinquished the lead again.

The Cavaliers extended their lead in the third quarter to four goals, 11-7, via two goals and assist by Matt Moore.

FROM THE LOCKER ROOM
"I loved how we started this game. I love the energy from the bench and I loved how our guys got excited for a 3 p.m. start in the middle of the week. Coming out of class at noon, 12:30 p.m., as a coach you get concerned – 'are we ready to play?' I was so excited with the start we had. High Point, you have to give them credit. This is never going to be an easy opponent to play. They popped one forward on the fast break off the face-off, and then they had another transition goal, and all of a sudden it was 6-3 and they had some momentum going. It's a tribute to Jon Torpey and the way he builds his teams, his men. They're not intimidated by anyone, and they made some nice adjustments with their offense. I give them a lot of credit for pushing a little lower with their 1-4-1 wing dodge and making some really nice looks through our defense. We talked about that at halftime, and we made some adjustments there." – Lars Tiffany

March 6 • Charlottesville, Va.

The No. 8 Virginia Cavaliers (5-1) used a 12-1 run to the start the game as they cruised past the Air Force Falcons, 20-4, at Klöckner Stadium.

Connor Shellenberger dished four assists in the first quarter as six different Cavaliers scored goals, including Peter Garno, who notched his first career hat-trick in the opening frame. The ball was humming around in the first half as UVA held a 13-2 advantage at the intermission. Nine of the 13 first-half goals were assisted for the Cavaliers.

HOW IT HAPPENED
Garno started the UVA offense on a Shellenberger helper 2:01 into the game. He also scored unassisted at 5:18 in the first quarter and again with 1:48 left in the opening frame when Shellenberger found him again.

Charlie Bertrand scored four goals in the first half, while Matt Moore dished out four assists. Shellenberger scored his only goal of the game at 5:11 in the third quarter on a Bertrand assist to give UVA a 16-2 lead. As UVA emptied the bench, Patrick McIntosh scored his first two career goals, while Connell Kumar also netted his first collegiate goal in the fourth quarter.

Air Force had its chances, but UVA goalie Alex Rode turned away nine of the 11 shots he saw on goal, including six saves in the first half.

FROM THE LOCKER ROOM
"It was really rewarding to see our offense generate a lot of opportunities to score for others. We were able to facilitate, starting with Connor Shellenberger and Matt Moore. They were dodging, creating, and finding open teammates. That was really great to see, because we haven't had a lot of assists in recent games. It was really nice to see how Coach [Sean] Kirwan put our team into some dodging angles, and then we just shared the ball more and we moved the ball more, which is important against a goalie like [Braden] Host. That was really critical, to get him moving from pipe to pipe instead of just seeing the ball the entire time." – Lars Tiffany

Game 7
North Carolina 16, Virginia 13
March 11 • Charlottesville, Va.

The No. 8 Virginia Cavaliers fell behind early and couldn't overcome a first-half deficit, falling to the No. 1 North Carolina Tar Heels, 16-13, at Klöckner Stadium.

An illegal stick by UNC's Zac Tucci gave UVA a three-minute full-time served extra-man possession to start the second quarter. UVA's Peter Garno was saved early on during the Cavalier possession by UNC's Collin Krieg. UNC turned the man-down situation into back-to-back goals during an 8-1 run that the forced the Cavaliers to play catchup all night.

HOW IT HAPPENED

Nicky Solomon scored at 10:24 in the first to start the 8-1 UNC streak that was the turning point for the Tar Heels, which included the two man-down goals to start the second quarter. Solomon's unassisted score with 2:40 left in the first half capped the run, giving UNC an 11-3 lead. Griffin Harris stopped the bleeding for the Cavaliers with 43 seconds left in the second quarter to send UVA into the intermission down by seven goals, 11-4.

Harris' goal started a 5-1 UVA run that made it a four-goal game, 12-8, when Matt Moore scored an unassisted goal with 7:32 left in the third quarter. UNC scored back-to-back goals to make it 15-9 with 12:06 left to play when Matt Wright scored on a Brian Cameron helper.

UVA didn't go away, scoring four goals in a row. The first two were assisted by Moore, who found Quinn and Connor Shellenberger. Conner scored his second on a Shellenberger assist, while Shellenberger capped the streak with an unassisted score with 1:35 left to play, cutting the UVA deficit to 15-13. UVA won the ensuing faceoff, but after UNC was flagged for pushing, Moore's shot was saved by Krieg. UNC pushed transition and scored an empty-net goal to seal the victory with 10 seconds left.

FROM THE LOCKER ROOM

"Collin Krieg, the goalie for North Carolina, had a great day today with 20 saves and that was probably one of the more important ones when he saved [against] Peter Garno there at the start of a three-minute EMO chance. They do a nice job with the man-down clear, and they got the reset [on that possession], so we're trying to get the ball back and double. They got us early and often. They shot well today. Even though Alex Rode gave up 15 goals, I feel like he made a lot of good saves, and Carolina's a good shooting team." – Lars Tiffany

March 20 • Charlottesville, Va.

The No. 9 Virginia Cavaliers scored four unanswered goals in the fourth quarter to fend off the Robert Morris Colonials, 14-12, at Klöckner Stadium.

With the score tied, 10-10, and 9:05 left to play, Dox Aitken dodged and stuck a left-handed shot high to complete his hat-trick and start a decisive 4-0 run to secure the win. HOW IT HAPPENED

Robert Morris took its only lead of the game, 2-1, after scoring back-to-back goals in the first quarter. Ryan Smith's unassisted goal at 7:21 capped the mini spurt. RMU's lead lasted seven seconds as Petey LaSalla won the ensuing faceoff and found Payton Cormier for an easy score, tying the game at 2-2.

Cormier's goal, his second of the game, started a 6-1 Virginia streak as the Cavaliers took a 7-3 lead. Cormier scored three times in the run, including the last two. Cormier's fourth goal of the game came with 7:08 left to play in the second quarter.

RMU started a 7-3 run of their own to tie the game at 10-10. Corson Kealey scored with 12:24 left to play, tying the game for the final time. But UVA went on the final 4-0 run to pick up the non-conference win.

FROM THE LOCKER ROOM

"Petey is one of the grittiest people I know. He's a very talented faceoff man, but what makes Petey one of the best faceoff men in the nation is his ability to make plays with the ball in his stick on offense and in those transitions. Not only feeding the ball, but we throw the ball to Petey. He has so much talent as a lacrosse player. Certainly, at the faceoff X today, Petey was critical. He was able to draw some man-ups to give us an extra-man situations several times during the fourth quarter when possessions were so critical to keep Robert Morris off the scoreboard. I'm feeling very grateful that Petey LaSalla is a Virginia Cavalier." – Lars Tiffany

March 27 • Notre Dame, Ind.

The No. 9 Virginia Cavaliers scored five goals in the third quarter to propel them to victory over the No. 6 Notre Dame Fighting Irish, 12-11, at Arlotta Stadium.

Dox Aitken scored the game's first and last goals, his final tally coming with 2:28 left in the game to snap an 11-11 tie. Aitken's goal gave UVA its first-ever win at Notre Dame in four tries. His game-winning goal came after Notre Dame tied the contest, 11-11, on back-to-back goals by Eric Dobson and Will Yorke on consecutive Irish possessions. Yorke's score tied the game with 3:24 left to play.

HOW IT HAPPENED

UVA held Notre Dame scoreless in the first quarter after taking an early 3-0 lead. The Irish went on a 7-2 run in the second quarter to take a 7-5 lead into the intermission.

The Cavaliers came out of halftime with a 3-0 spurt to take the lead, 8-7. Ian Laviano found a loose ball on the doorstep and delivered it home with 4:12 left in the third frame to cap the streak. Yorke tied the game roughly two minutes later, 8-8, with an unassisted goal.

Virginia wasn't done with its third-quarter scoring. Payton Cormier scored the fourth of his five goals with 1:03 left in the third, followed by a step-down score from Laviano, completing his hat-trick.

Notre Dame didn't go away in the fourth quarter, starting the game's final frame on a 3-1 run, tying the game at 11-11. From there, Aitken scored his goal to put UVA up for good. With three seconds left, UVA goalie Alex Rode saved a Yorke shot on the doorstep to solidify the win.

FROM THE LOCKER ROOM

"At the University of Virginia, a member of the ACC, it's really critical that we play at a high level against our conference opponents. It's really how we measure ourselves. Coming out here to South Bend, Ind., and getting a win is significant because we know how strong the opponent is. Notre Dame has a team defense that's really tough to crack. Their offense shares the ball. They have a very good faceoff man and good goalie. Winning here means we must have played well as a team. This is our best team victory of the season. We've won games prior to this, with great individual efforts, which we had some as of those as well, but it was much more of trust the system and trust each other. It is pure elation to earn a victory here today." – Lars Tiffany
