OPENING DRAW

GAME OVERVIEW

- Virginia concludes its three-game homestand with an ACC tilt clash with Syracuse. Faceoff is set for 12 p.m.

Virginia has won 10 of the last 18 regular-season meetings, but five of the last eight losses have come at the Carrier Dome (2011, 2013, 2015, 2017, 2021).
- The Syracuse leads the series by a narrow margin, 19-18.
- UVA and Syracuse won four combined NCAA titles between 2006-11.

200TH MEN'S LACROSSE GAME AT KLÖCKNER STADIUM

- Saturday marks the 200th all-time UVA men's lacrosse game at Klöckner Stadium.
- The very first men's lacrosse game at Klöckner Stadium was on April 3, 1993 when the Cavaliers beat Maryland, 11-10, in overtime.
- The 100th all-time game at Klöckner Stadium came on March 10, 2009 when UVA beat Vermont, 16-4.
- UVA is 157-42 (.789) all-time on the green grass at Klöckner Stadium. A win Saturday would be the Cavaliers' 50th win in the month of April at Klöckner Stadium. They are 49-18 (.731) all-time in the fourth month of the year at UVA's venerable edifice.

After playing primarily as a midfielder in 2018, Matt Moore became just the fifth Cavalier to tally 100+ career goals and 100+ career assists. He enters Saturday with 208 career points, which is tied with Matt Ward for No. 11 all-time at UVA.

COVERING THE CAVALIERS

UNIQUELY UVA

The University of Virginia is an institution rich with history and tradition. Here is some of the terminology that contributes to UVA's culture.

Grounds: The term used by students, faculty and alumni to refer to the University dating as far back as Thomas Jefferson. "Campus" is never used.

First Year, Second Year, Third Year, Fourth Year: Instead of freshman, sophomore, junior, senior. Why you may ask? To be a "senior" implies that a person has reached the final phase of learning, a feat that Thomas Jefferson believed to be impossible, arguing instead that education is a life-long process.

Commonwealth: Virginia is one of four constituent states of the United States of America that officially uses the name "Commonwealth" instead of the word state in all references. The other three commonwealths are Kentucky, Massachusetts and Pennsylvania.

UNIVERSITY NICKNAMES

Virginia's athletics teams have been accompanied by a somewhat confusing array of nicknames. The most prominent and widely accepted of these monikers are "Cavaliers," "Wahoos" and "Hoos."

Although the terms "Cavaliers," "Wahoos" and "Hoos" are used almost interchangeably to refer to University teams and players, "Cavaliers" is more often used by the media, while "Wahoos" and "Hoos" are frequently used by Virginia students and fans.

Legend has it that Washington & Lee baseball fans dubbed the Virginia players "Wahoos" during the fiercely contested rivalry that existed between the two in-state schools in the 1890s. By 1940, "Wahoos" was in general use around Grounds to denote University students or events relating to them. The abbreviated "Hoos" sprang up later in student newspapers and has gained growing popularity in recent years.

THE CAVALIER MASCOT

The costumed Cavalier with a large character head debuted during Virginia's 1984 football season and has remained the official mascot of the University.

UNIVERSITY COLORS

Orange and blue were adopted as the University of Virginia's official athletic colors at a mass student meeting in 1888. UVA athletic teams had previously worn silver gray and cardinal red, but those colors did not stand out on muddy football fields, prompting a student movement to change them.

One of the students attending the mass meeting was Allen Potts, a star athlete who played on Virginia's first football team in 1888. Potts showed up at the meeting wearing a navy blue-and-orange scarf that he had acquired during a summer boating expedition at Oxford University. Orange and blue were chosen as the official athletic colors after one of Potts' fellow students pulled the scarf off Potts' neck and, waving it to the crowd, yelled, "How will this do?" UVA later served as the inspiration for schools like Auburn and Florida when they selected school colors.

WAH-HOO-WAH

The origin of "Wah-hoo-wah" is uncertain. The cheer was used to root on Virginia teams as early as 1890 and may have been borrowed from Dartmouth College, whose athletics teams were once known as the Indians.

Legend attributes the yell to Natalie Floyd Otey, who sang the ballad "Where'er You Are, There Shall My Love Be" at Charlottesville's Levy Opera House in 1893. The predominantly student audience noticed that Otey warbled the first three words of the song between each of the stanzas and decided to join in the refrain. By evening's end, goes the legend, the crowd had corrupted "Where'er You Are" into "Wah-hoo-wah."

The Levy Opera House stands at the corner of High Street and Park Street and has since been renovated into an office building.

THE SERIES VS. SYRACUSE

- Syracuse leads the series by a slim margin, 19-18, which mimics the back-and-forth scoring characteristic of the games between the two teams.
- Entering the 2021 season the series was tied, 18-18, and so was the all-time score when you combine all the games, 466-466. Syracuse won the first meeting this season, 20-10, at the Carrier Dome, which serves as UVA's worst loss in the series. Prior to the February setback, The previous five games in the series were decided by one goal, three of which have been won by Syracuse.
- The two schools battled only three times between 1938-93, but have met at least once each season between 1994 and 2019 before the COVID-19 pandemic snapped the streak in 2020.
- The regular-season series began in 1995.
- The two schools have also met six times in the NCAA Tournament since 1995.
- The 2018 season was the first time UVA and Syracuse met in the ACC Tournament, an 11-10 win for UVA in the semifinals.
- Virginia has won 11 of the last 19 meetings in the series, including six straight regular-season match-ups until a 2011 setback at the Carrier Dome.
- The Orange won in overtime, 9-8, in the 2003 at the Dome. It was the first time in the series that neither team scored in the double figures.
- Another heartbreaking UVA loss saw the Orange pull out a dramatic come-from-behind 12-11 double overtime win in the semifinals of the 2008 NCAA Tournament on the way to capturing the national championship.
- The 2008 Syracuse NCAA win ended Virginia's five-game series winning streak, the longest by either team in the series.
- Both teams are known for their high-scoring offenses, but it is interesting to note that since 1999 UVA (03-06-06-14-19) and Syracuse (2002-03-04-06-15-21) have scored at least 15 goals only five and six times in the series, respectively.
- Virginia's loss in 2011 snapped a three-game win streak in the "Dome" over Syracuse, a feat boasted by no other opponent of the Orange.
- The 2014 meeting at Klöckner Stadium between UVA and Syracuse, James Pannell scored a career-high seven goals in a 17-12 UVA triumph. It was Syracuse's first-ever ACC game.
- The Orange in 2016 and 2017 have come out on top, 14-13, over the Cavaliers. Syracuse's win at Klöckner Stadium in 2016 snapped UVA's four-game winning streak in Charlottesville.

TIGHT GAMES CHARACTERIZE SERIES

- The potential for a high-scoring game such as the classic 1997 match-up won by Syracuse, 22-21, is one of the main reasons this game is so widely anticipated.
- However, since 1996 a three-goal win can be considered a “blowout”
- 21 of the last 30 games since then have been decided by just one or two goals.
- More than half the games between the two schools (23 of 37), have been decided by one or two goals, including both games in 2008, which went to overtime.
- In the history of the series, the biggest win by either team was Syracuse's 20-10 win the last time these teams met (Feb. 27, 2021).
- Virginia's biggest win is a 15-7 victory in the Carrier Dome in 1995.
- UVA's 14-10 win in 2012 was the largest winning-margin for the Cavaliers in the series since winning 17-10 in the 2006 Final Four.
- UVA's 2014 win was a five-goal margin, 17-12, at Klöckner Stadium.
- All five of the last six meetings since 2016 have been one-goal games, with Syracuse holding a 4-2 margin over that time frame.

NO WONDER THE SERIES IS NEARLY 50/50

- Since 1994, the two teams have met 34 times—with Syracuse winning 18 times and Virginia 16.
- 22 of those games have been decided by one or two goals, including a string of five meetings - both games in 2008 went to overtime - until UVA's four-goal win in 2012 in Charlottesville snapped the streak.

UVA ON THE GREEN GRASS OF KLÖCKNER

- Virginia owns a 157-42 (.7889) all-time record at Klöckner Stadium, including a 6-2 mark in 2021 and are winners of 18 of last 22 played in the historic edifice. UVA also is 12-3 all-time at Klöckner Stadium in the NCAA Tournament.
- UVA is 30-10 all-time at Klöckner Stadium under head coach Lars Tiffany.
- Klöckner Stadium first hosted lacrosse in 1993.

AITKEN IS AMONG A SPECIAL GROUP OF MIDFIELDERS

- Dox Aitken is No. 17 all-time in DI midfielder scoring with 171 career points. Full list on page No. 7.
- Aitken needs four assists to become the 17th midfielder in the history of the game at the DI level to record at least 100 career goals and 40 career assists.
- He is No. 4 all-time among ACC midfielders in career points.

MILESTONES REACHED AGAINST UTAH

- Charlie Bertrand, one of two active lacrosse player in the nation with at least 200 career goals (230), scored his 300th collegiate point against the Utes. He is currently No. 3 among active players with 300 career points, behind Duke's Michael Sowers (357) and Fairfield's Matt Chlastawa (307).
- With two assists against the Utes, Matt Moore became the fifth Cavalier in program history with 100 career goals and 100 career assists. He joined Kevin Pehlke, Danny Glading, Steele Stanwick and Michael Kraus. He also became the 10th Cavalier to reach 100 career assists.
- Dox Aitken and Jared Conners passed Bray Malphrus (71) for the UVA career record for games played, which now stands at 72.
- Petey LaSalla won 20 faceoffs against the Utes, giving the midfielder his fourth career game with 20+ faceoff wins. That is a career UVA record that was previously held by Justin Schwenk (3).

LASALLA AND CONNERS PICKING UP THE GB

- UVA's Petey LaSalla is No. 2 in the nation with 110 ground balls. LSM Jared Conners is tied for No. 13 with 68 ground balls, which is No. 1 among LSMs. Duke's Tyler Carpenter (52) trails Conners by 16 GBs.
- GK Alex Rode leads the nation's goalies with 38 ground balls.

2021 VIRGINIA MEN'S LACROSSE

The No. 5 Virginia Cavaliers (1-0) used a seven-goal second quarter to distance themselves from the Towson Tigers (0-1), 20-11, at Klöckner Stadium.

Connor Shellenberger scored seven points on four goals and three assists in his collegiate debut. Payton Cormier added a career-high six goals and one assist, while graduate transfer Charlie Bertrand notched four goals and two assists in his UVA debut.

HOW IT HAPPENED

UVA scored 52 seconds into the game to take an early 1-0 lead on an unassisted Shellenberger score. Towson rebounded with a 4-1 spurt to take a 4-2 lead with 6:26 left in the first frame. Cormier broke through with his first goal at 3:50 in the first quarter to jumpstart a 7-0 Cavalier run, pushing the Cavaliers ahead for good. Cormier scored four times during the run and capped it on a Shellenberger helper with 9:37 left in the second quarter, giving UVA an 9-4 lead.

Leading at the half, 11-5, UVA opened the third quarter scoring on a 7-2 streak to put the game out of reach. A dropdown shot by Peter Garno on another Shellenberger assist closed the third quarter scoring as UVA led 18-7 heading into the fourth quarter.

FROM THE LOCKER ROOM

"Give Towson a ton of credit. The way they came at us in the first quarter – they scored those four goals and hit three pipes. They were all over us. They came to Charlottesville to get a win and they were not intimidated at all. I was really impressed with their team and their coaching staff and how prepared they were. For us, it was getting into a rhythm at the face-off X, and Petey LaSalla started to pick up some tough ground balls and winning the possessions there. I thought we really did a nice job with our shooting. The goalie for Towson, Shane Brennan, was fantastic early and he's a really talented goalie, but we were smart with our shooting and didn't take too many shots from too far out. I know Griff Harris stuck one from deep in that first quarter, but for the most part we made sure we got closer and took good shots and got them off his body. There was a tenacity and selling out for loose balls – I'm a very grateful coach and a very grateful man to have a team that is going to sell out for their teammates." – Lars Tiffany

Game 2 Virginia 14, Army 6 Feb. 14 • Charlottesville, Va.

The No. 3 Virginia Cavaliers (2-0) picked up a key non-conference home win over the No. 12 Army West Point Black Knights (0-1), 14-9. The contest was played at the Lower Turf practice field due to field conditions at Klöckner Stadium.

The Cavaliers won 10-of-13 first-half faceoffs to control possession and alleviate a first-time starter in goal, Bobby Gavin, from a strong Army attack. Gavin, starting for Alex Rode who wasn't available, allowed four goals on the first four shots he saw from Army. He settled down and shutout Army in the second quarter as UVA held an 8-4 lead going into the intermission.

HOW IT HAPPENED

Army scored first on a Bobby Abshire goal 1:04 into the game. UVA won the next three faceoffs, which resulted in three-straight goals by the Cavaliers, giving UVA a lead (3-1) they never relinquished. Ian Laviano started the UVA scoring with the 100th goal of his career at 13:21 in the first quarter. Matt Moore scored next and Payton Cormier capped the run with a score at 11:36 in the first quarter on a Connor Shellenberger helper.

Army cut UVA's lead to one goal, 5-4, at the first quarter break after the Black Knights scored twice in the last two minutes of the frame. Aidan Byrnes scored off a Brendan Nichtern helper with 14 seconds left to cap the first quarter.

That was as close as Army would get. The Cavaliers outscored the Black Knights 3-0 in the second quarter on goals by Moore and two by Cormier to cushion UVA's lead. Cormier's third goal of the game came with 1.1 seconds left in the first half. UVA's lead never fell below four goals in the second half as the Cavaliers wrapped up the key home win.

FROM THE LOCKER ROOM

"I'm really impressed with Bobby's [Gavin] performance, especially considering that the first quarter he didn't make any saves and all four shots on goal went in. It's really easy for any player, especially a young player, to get down on themselves. But – just as it's been said many times in sports – 'next play mentality, next shot mentality' – here's this First Year, who embraced it. Bobby went out there in the second quarter and made some big saves, he got his confidence going, and it really helped liberate the rest of the team. He knew that he didn't have to be perfect and that he could erase some mistakes. Give Bobby Gavin credit in his first start here at UVA. It did not start well, but he was able to step up and not worry about the start." – Lars Tiffany

3 TEWAARATON TROPHY WINNERS

Matt Moore scored five goals and Connor Shellenberger notched five points (2-3-5) as the No. 3 Virginia Cavaliers (3-0) overcame a slow start to pick up a key road win against the No. 11 Loyola Greyhounds (1-1), 15-12, at the Ridley Athletic Complex.

Loyola led 4-1 after the first quarter thanks to a 3-0 run by the Greyhounds to close the first period. Kevin Lindley scored twice for Loyola during the streak. The Cavaliers responded with a 5-0 spurt to start the second quarter and never looked back, taking a 6-4 lead with 6:31 left before the intermission.

HOW IT HAPPENED

Charlie Bertrand started the scoring for the Cavaliers in the second period after dodging from X at 12:06 in the frame. Bertrand's goal started a 5-0 UVA run that gave UVA the lead for the first time. Moore scored his first on a Shellenberger helper at 9:55, while Dox Aitken scored at 8:52 in the period off a dodge to tie the game at 4-4. Petey LaSalla won the ensuing faceoff and deposited his only goal of the game seven seconds later to give UVA the lead for the first time, 5-4. Ian Laviano capped the run on Shellenberger's second assist of the game with 3:37 left in the first half. UVA took a 7-6 lead into the half after the Greyhounds finished the quarter with a 2-1 run.

Loyola scored 35 seconds into the third quarter, tying the game at 7-7. Moore responded at 13:42 in the third quarter to give UVA the lead for good, 8-7, on an unassisted score. UVA outscored Loyola 5-3 in the third frame, spelling the difference. The Greyhounds cut the lead to 13-12 on a Peter Swindell unassisted goal with 7:38, but the Loyola wasn't able to even the game on offense and saw Moore shoot from a ridiculous angle coming off of X to put the game out of reach, 14-11, with 5:21 left. Payton Cormier pushed his third through to cap the win with 4:34 left to play.

FROM THE LOCKER ROOM

"I am very grateful for the way Petey LaSalla played today and then Gavin Tygh, who came in and got some big wins at the faceoff X. Possessions against this Loyola team are so critical. I want to give Loyola credit. They are a team that we know is a very good team and they get the ball up quickly and go. Riding is a strength of ours most games. We just couldn't quite get those extra turnovers in the middle of field. Give Loyola credit there. That is what exaggerates the faceoff because if we can't get the extra possessions on the ride, then we're have to get those extra positions in the faceoff game. Beating [Bailey] Savio, Loyola's elite faceoff man, and getting the edge at the faceoff X was so critical for earning a win today." – Lars Tiffany

Syracuse 20, Virginia 10
Feb. 27 • Syracuse, N.Y.

The No. 10 Syracuse Orange (1-1, 1-0 ACC) outscored UVA in the second half, 11-3, to hand the No. 3 Virginia Cavaliers (3-1, 0-1 ACC) their first defeat of the year, 20-10, inside the Carrier Dome.

After UVA trailed early, 2-0, the Cavaliers went on a 5-1 run to stake themselves to a 5-3 lead in the first quarter. The Orange put a goal in right before the end of the first frame, starting a 7-2 Syracuse run that started the game's separation.

HOW IT HAPPENED

Trailing 2-0 with 10:51 left in the first quarter, Ian Laviano scored the first of his three goals on a helper from Matt Moore to start the UVA scoring. Connor Shellenberger, Payton Cormier and Charlie Bertrand all scored goals as part of a 4-0 Cavalier run that gave UVA a 4-2 lead with 7:19 left in the first frame.

Syracuse bounced right back with a 2-1 run to close the period on goals by Lucas Quinn and Brendan Curry. The latter coming with 16 seconds left in the first quarter, cutting UVA's lead to one goal, 5-4.

Curry's goal started a 7-2 Orange run, giving Syracuse a 10-7 lead 13 seconds into the third quarter. UVA's only goals during that span came from Cormier and Laviano. The Laviano goal with 5:28 left in the first half came off a saved shot by Jared Conners.

FROM THE LOCKER ROOM

"We knew all week that Syracuse was putting a big emphasis on taking away transition because Army was able to expose them last week. Not only did they take away transition, then we suffered the same flaws that Syracuse did a week ago. We were letting them get behind us. Some of that hyperness and being aware of the next play, Syracuse was all over finding that edge. They were finding that transition and making that look. They played like a team that was trying to avenge something and give Coach Desko tremendous credit. He got that team to bounce back in great fashion. Another category where we really struggled, and give Syracuse credit, was our clearing. Four or five times our defensemen are running on the midfield line and getting checked by their attackmen and that surprised us. We have tremendous confidence in Kyle Kology and Cade Saustad, and others, to win that matchup and run over the midline. Syracuse got us today." – Lars Tiffany

Game 5

Virginia 12, High Point 11
March 3 • Charlottesville, Va.

Alex Rode made 17 saves, including 12 in the second half, to help the No. 8 Virginia Cavaliers (4-1) outlast the No. 19 High Point Panthers (1-3), 12-11, at Klöckner Stadium.

High Point scored four goals in the final frame to push the envelope, courtesy of 12 UVA turnovers. Rode made six of his saves in the fourth quarter to keep the Panthers at bay. Ian Laviano's man-up goal with 12:37 left to play proved to be the difference.

HOW IT HAPPENED

The Cavaliers were humming in the first quarter, taking a 6-1 lead into the second frame. Peter Garno scored the first of his two goals 52 seconds into the game to get things started. Six different Cavaliers scored in the quarter and Ben Wayer capped the spurt with his first career goal with three seconds left on a Connor Shellenberger helper.

Timely UVA turnovers, faceoff wins and transition helped High Point get back in the game as the Panthers went on a 5-0 run to start the second quarter, tying the game at 6-6. Asher Nolting scored his only goal of the game to cap the run on an extra-man situation with 7:32 left to play before the intermission. UVA responded with goals by Charlie Bertrand and Xander Dickson to take an 8-6 lead into the break. UVA never relinquished the lead again.

The Cavaliers extended their lead in the third quarter to four goals, 11-7, via two goals and assist by Matt Moore.

FROM THE LOCKER ROOM

"I loved how we started this game. I love the energy from the bench and I loved how our guys got excited for a 3 p.m. start in the middle of the week. Coming out of class at noon, 12:30 p.m., as a coach you get concerned – 'are we ready to play?' I was so excited with the start we had. High Point, you have to give them credit. This is never going to be an easy opponent to play. They popped one forward on the fast break off the face-off, and then they had another transition goal, and all of a sudden it was 6-3 and they had some momentum going. It's a tribute to Jon Torpey and the way he builds his teams, his men. They're not intimidated by anyone, and they made some nice adjustments with their offense. I give them a lot of credit for pushing a little lower with their 1-4-1 wing dodge and making some really nice looks through our defense. We talked about that at halftime, and we made some adjustments there." – Lars Tiffany

Game 6

Virginia 20, Air Force 4
March 6 • Charlottesville, Va.

The No. 8 Virginia Cavaliers (5-1) used a 12-1 run to start the game as they cruised past the Air Force Falcons, 20-4, at Klöckner Stadium.

Connor Shellenberger dished four assists in the first quarter as six different Cavaliers scored goals, including Peter Garno, who notched his first career hat-trick in the opening frame. The ball was humming around in the first half as UVA held a 13-2 advantage at the intermission. Nine of the 13 first-half goals were assisted for the Cavaliers.

HOW IT HAPPENED

Garno started the UVA offense on a Shellenberger helper 2:01 into the game. He also scored unassisted at 5:18 in the first quarter and again with 1:48 left in the opening frame when Shellenberger found him again.

Charlie Bertrand scored four goals in the first half, while Matt Moore dished out four assists. Shellenberger scored his only goal of the game at 5:11 in the third quarter on a Bertrand assist to give UVA a 16-2 lead. As UVA emptied the bench, Patrick McIntosh scored his first two career goals, while Connell Kumar also netted his first collegiate goal in the fourth quarter.

Air Force had its chances, but UVA goalie Alex Rode turned away nine of the 11 shots he saw on goal, including six saves in the first half.

FROM THE LOCKER ROOM

"It was really rewarding to see our offense generate a lot of opportunities to score for others. We were able to facilitate, starting with Connor Shellenberger and Matt Moore. They were dodging, creating, and finding open teammates. That was really great to see, because we haven't had a lot of assists in recent games. It was really nice to see how Coach [Sean] Kirwan put our team into some dodging angles, and then we just shared the ball more and we moved the ball more, which is important against a goalie like [Braden] Host. That was really critical, to get him moving from pipe to pipe instead of just seeing the ball the entire time." – Lars Tiffany

Game 7

North Carolina 16, Virginia 13
March 11 • Charlottesville, Va.

The No. 8 Virginia Cavaliers fell behind early and couldn't overcome a first-half deficit, falling to the No. 1 North Carolina Tar Heels, 16-13, at Klöckner Stadium.

An illegal stick by UNC's Zac Tucci gave UVA a three-minute full-time served extra-man possession to start the second quarter. UVA's Peter Garno was saved early on during the Cavalier possession by UNC's Collin Krieg. UNC turned the man-down situation into back-to-back goals during an 8-1 run that forced the Cavaliers to play catchup all night.

HOW IT HAPPENED

Nicky Solomon scored at 10:24 in the first to start the 8-1 UNC streak that was the turning point for the Tar Heels, which included the two man-down goals to start the second quarter. Solomon's unassisted score with 2:40 left in the first half capped the run, giving UNC an 11-3 lead. Griffin Harris stopped the bleeding for the Cavaliers with 43 seconds left in the second quarter to send UVA into the intermission down by seven goals, 11-4.

Harris' goal started a 5-1 UVA run that made it a four-goal game, 12-8, when Matt Moore scored an unassisted goal with 7:32 left in the third quarter. UNC scored back-to-back goals to make it 15-9 with 12:06 left to play when Matt Wright scored on a Brian Cameron helper.

UVA didn't go away, scoring four goals in a row. The first two were assisted by Moore, who found Quinn and Connor Shellenberger. Conner scored his second on a Shellenberger assist, while Shellenberger capped the streak with an unassisted score with 1:35 left to play, cutting the UVA deficit to 15-13. UVA won the ensuing faceoff, but after UNC was flagged for pushing, Moore's shot was saved by Krieg. UNC pushed transition and scored an empty-net goal to seal the victory with 10 seconds left.

FROM THE LOCKER ROOM

"Collin Krieg, the goalie for North Carolina, had a great day today with 20 saves and that was probably one of the more important ones when he saved [against] Peter Garno there at the start of a three-minute EMO chance. They do a nice job with the man-down clear, and they got the reset [on that possession], so we're trying to get the ball back and double. They got us early and often. They shot well today. Even though Alex Rode gave up 15 goals, I feel like he made a lot of good saves, and Carolina's a good shooting team." – Lars Tiffany

Game 8

Virginia 14, Robert Morris 12
March 20 • Charlottesville, Va.

The No. 9 Virginia Cavaliers scored four unanswered goals in the fourth quarter to fend off the Robert Morris Colonials, 14-12, at Klöckner Stadium.

With the score tied, 10-10, and 9:05 left to play, Dox Aitken dodged and stuck a left-handed shot high to complete his hat-trick and start a decisive 4-0 run to secure the win. Matt Moore assisted the next three UVA goals, one by Jared Conners, another on a stepdown by Peter Garno and a transition goal by Scott Bower capped the run to solidify the victory.

HOW IT HAPPENED

Robert Morris took its only lead of the game, 2-1, after scoring back-to-back goals in the first quarter. Ryan Smith's unassisted goal at 7:21 capped the mini spurt. RMU's lead lasted seven seconds as Petey LaSalla won the ensuing faceoff and found Payton Cormier for an easy score, tying the game at 2-2.

Cormier's goal, his second of the game, started a 6-1 Virginia streak as the Cavaliers took a 7-3 lead. Cormier scored three times in the run, including the last two. Cormier's fourth goal of the game came with 7:08 left to play in the second quarter.

RMU started a 7-3 run of their own to tie the game at 10-10. Corson Kealey scored with 12:24 left to play, tying the game for the final time. But UVA went on the final 4-0 run to pick up the non-conference win.

FROM THE LOCKER ROOM

"Petey is one of the grittiest people I know. He's a very talented faceoff man, but what makes Petey one of the best faceoff men in the nation is his ability to make plays with the ball in his stick on offense and in those transitions. Not only feeding the ball, but we throw the ball to Petey. He has so much talent as a lacrosse player. Certainly, at the faceoff X today, Petey was critical. He was able to draw some man-ups to give us an extra-man situations several times during the fourth quarter when possessions were so critical to keep Robert Morris off the scoreboard. I'm feeling very grateful that Petey LaSalla is a Virginia Cavalier." – Lars Tiffany

Game 9

Virginia 12, Notre Dame 11
March 27 • Notre Dame, Ind.

The No. 9 Virginia Cavaliers scored five goals in the third quarter to propel them to victory over the No. 6 Notre Dame Fighting Irish, 12-11, at Arlotta Stadium.

HOW IT HAPPENED

UVA held Notre Dame scoreless in the first quarter after taking an early 3-0 lead. The Irish went on a 7-2 run in the second quarter to take a 7-5 lead into the intermission.

The Cavaliers came out of halftime with a 3-0 spurt to take the lead, 8-7. Ian Laviano found a loose ball on the doorstep and delivered it home with 4:12 left in the third frame to cap the streak. Yorke tied the game roughly two minutes later, 8-8, with an unassisted goal.

Virginia wasn't done with its third-quarter scoring. Payton Cormier scored the fourth of his five goals with 1:03 left in the third, followed by a step-down score from Laviano, completing his hat-trick.

FROM THE LOCKER ROOM

"At the University of Virginia, a member of the ACC, it's really critical that we play at a high level against our conference opponents. It's really how we measure ourselves. Coming out here to South Bend, Ind., and getting a win is significant because we know how strong the opponent is. Notre Dame has a team defense that's really tough to crack. Their offense shares the ball. They have a very good faceoff man and good goalie. Winning here means we must have played well as a team. This is our best team victory of the season. We've won games prior to this, with great individual efforts, which we had some as of those as well, but it was much more of trust the system and trust each other. It is pure elation to earn a victory here today." – Lars Tiffany

2021 VIRGINIA MEN'S LACROSSE

The No. 5 Virginia Cavaliers used 10 goal scorers to pace an 18-10 win over the No. 13 Richmond Spiders at Klöckner Stadium.

The Cavaliers outscored the Spiders 7-2 in the first quarter to take an early lead. Five different Cavaliers dented the scoreboard to pace the UVA attack. Trailing 1-0, Matt Moore tied the game, 1-1, with 9:06 left in the opening frame. The unassisted shot from his knees made Moore the 19th player in UVA program history with 100 career goals. UVA won the ensuing faceoff and 34 seconds later Connor Shellenberger gave UVA the lead for good.

HOW IT HAPPENED

Richmond bounced back to make it a closer game in the second quarter. The Spiders started the period on a 3-1 run. Dalton Young capped the run with a goal via a Sean Menges helper with 1:40 left in the first half. UVA responded with 14 seconds left in the second quarter when Shellenberger found Payton Cormier to send the Cavaliers into the intermission with a 9-5 lead.

Young scored at 11:58 in the third quarter to get the second half scoring started. It cut Richmond's deficit to three goals, 9-6. It was the closest the Spiders got. UVA responded with an 8-1 run to take a commanding 17-7 lead. Cormier's man-up goal on a Shellenberger helper with 8:35 in the game put a stamp on the streak. At one point during the run UVA held Richmond scoreless for 14:13. Virginia emptied its bench and Richmond closed the game on a 3-1 spurt in a losing effort.

FROM THE LOCKER ROOM

"What I really like is how our attackmen, Connor Shellenberger and Matt Moore, are making really good reads. Defenses are sliding early sometimes and then other times not sliding. Whether the slides are coming from the crease or cross-crease, I thought both Matt and Connor did a great job analyzing and dissecting the opposing team's schemes. I also want to give credit to our offensive coordinator Sean Kirwan for preparing our men for the different slide packages that Richmond throws at you. It really comes down to Matt and Connor making those reads and [then deciding] sometimes you have to go to the goal without the extra pass, but when the slides were drawn they found open people and shared the ball." – Lars Tiffany Game 11 Virginia 18, North Carolina 16 April 10 • Chapel Hill, N.C.

The No. 4 Virginia Cavaliers notched a key ACC road victory over the No. 3 North Carolina Tar Heels, 18-16, at Dorrance Field. Matt Moore led all players with eight points on two goals and six assists.

The first quarter was an offensive show with 12 combined goals on 30 combined shots, three ties and three lead changes. With the score tied, 4-4, UVA finished the frame on a 3-1 run to take a 7-5 lead. UNC held UVA scoreless for the next 19:36, but only managed a 3-0 spurt to take an 8-7 lead by the 11:00 mark of the third frame.

HOW IT HAPPENED

Trailing 10-9 with 4:23 left to play in the third, UVA went on a 5-0 run and never looked back. Dox Aitken started the run by tying the game on an Ian Laviano helper. Moore assisted the next three goals for UVA and Petey LaSalla scored off the opening draw of the fourth quarter to cap the pivotal streak.

LaSalla was clutch in the fourth quarter, winning the first nine draws of the period and 11-of-12 overall to pace UVA's attack. He scored and assisted Laviano at 7:27 in the fourth to give UVA a 16-12 lead. Laviano found Moore on an empty-net goal with 1:00 remaining to secure the victory and a four-goal lead, 18-14. UNC was able to muster two more goals in the losing effort.

FROM THE LOCKER ROOM

"Today's offensive explosion is due to the unselfishness of our offense, which starts with No. 5, Matt Moore, playing more and more unselfish and being a better facilitator for offense. The real key though is having the ball as much as we did and that starts with Petey LaSalla [at the faceoff X]. He continues time and time again to prove that not only is he an elite possession faceoff man, but also one of the most dangerous offensive threats in the nation. We saw it again today, with a goal and an assist in the fourth quarter that allowed us to pull away." – Lars Tiffany

Game 12 Duke 13, Virginia 12 (OT) April 15 • Charlottesville, Va.

The No. 4 Virginia Cavaliers dropped a heart-breaker in overtime, 13-12, to the No. 3 Duke Blue Devils at Klöckner Stadium. Duke scored the game's final three goals, including two in the fourth quarter to force overtime. The Blue Devils held UVA scoreless for the final 14:24 of regulation as well as 3:28 in overtime.

In the closing seconds of regulation Payton Cormier found Charlie Bertrand on the doorstep on what appeared to be the game-winning score. However, Bertrand was charged with falling inside the goal mouth after the ball found nylon, negating the score.

HOW IT HAPPENED

UVA won the overtime faceoff and after each defensive came up with big saves, Dox Aitken was stripped of the ball and Duke was off in transition. Joe Robertson dodged from X to score the unassisted goal with 32 seconds left to secure the win.

The Cavaliers took a narrow 12-10 lead on the heels of a 4-1 UVA run. After Michael Sowers gave Duke a 9-8 lead with an unassisted goal with 7:15 left in the third, Petey LaSalla won the ensuing faceoff and scored seven seconds later to start the streak. Matt Moore scored an unassisted goal with 14:24 on an inside roll dodge to cap the streak.

Duke's Brennan O'Neill started the Blue Devils' final 3-0 spurt with a goal at 9:55, followed by Garret Leadmon's game-tying goal with 1:45 in regulation.

FROM THE LOCKER ROOM

"What a tremendous lacrosse game. There were so many super-talented players on that field for both teams, and you saw two teams in an absolute slugfest, battling. I'm really fortunate to coach a team that was willing to grind out the extra groundballs, gain us extra possessions, and I'm really happy with our commitment to laying it all out there and playing with trust and confidence in our teammates." – Lars Tiffany

Game 13
Virginia 18, Utah 11
April 17 • Charlottesville, Va.

The No. 4 Virginia Cavaliers used an 8-0 run over the second and third quarters to cruise past the Utah Utes, 18-11, at Klöckner Stadium. UVA had 10 goal scorers behind hat-tricks from Connor Shellenberger and Peter Garno.

Utah took a 6-5 lead with 11:57 left in the second quarter after scoring back-to-back goals. Ryan Rogers scored his first goal of the season to cap Utah's 2-0 run. UVA responded with an 8-0 run and held the Utes scoreless for the next 20:52 of game time to take a commanding 13-6 lead.

HOW IT HAPPENED

Xander Dickson found a cutting Ian Laviano toward the goal with 10:50 left in the first half to tie the game, 6-6. After Laviano's goal the Cavaliers were off to the races. On the ensuing faceoff, which was won by UVA's Petey LaSalla, a scrum off a blocked shot in front of the Utah crease saw the ball carom off Grayson Sallade into the goal to give UVA the lead for good, 7-6.

LaSalla was a perfect 10-of-10 in the second period from the faceoff X, helping seven-different Cavaliers score during the 8-0 run with Laviano the only UVA player to score twice during the streak. Dickson capped the run with 11:20 left in the third quarter.

The 8-0 run was part of a larger 13-2 run that spelled the difference in the game. A Will Cory unassisted goal with 5:38 left to play capped the run and the UVA scoring.

FROM THE LOCKER ROOM

"I continue to be impressed by our entire team's energy throughout games. From the men on the field to the men off the field on the sideline. It's been special in 2021 how much the entire team stays energized and focused and loud during these games. I'm really grateful for the men on this team and how intense we are for those two hours. We continue to be very good in two specialty areas – Alex Rode had 11 saves at the half – this game could have been a whole lot closer, if not tied, without Alex playing so well in the goal – and, of course, Petey LaSalla and all the extra possessions he provides our offense. I'm a very fortunate coach to have such an edge in possessions and saves." – Lars Tiffany
