Established in the summer of 2017, The Virginia Baseball Hall of Fame inducted its inaugural 15-member class the following January at the program’s annual Step Up to the Plate event at John Paul Jones Arena. Hall of Fame plaques are on permanent display at Disharoon Park on the right field line concourse.

In order to be considered for hall of fame induction, former student-athletes needed to be five years removed from exhaustion of college eligibility. Players and coaches were selected based on accolades earned as a player or coach while at Virginia, distinguishing careers in amateur or professional baseball and/or significant contributions through work or service made to the university.
