INSIDE TODAY'S MATCHUP

· Virginia will be home for four-straight weekends and not leave the Commonwealth for the remainder of the 2022 regular season.

· UVA last played four-straight home games in 2020 but has only played on four-consecutive Saturdays at Scott Stadium during the 1951 and 1970 seasons.

· The Cavaliers are 2-1 at home this season and own a 23-6 record at Scott Stadium since 2018. The 23 home wins are the third most in the ACC behind Clemson (30) and NC State (26) and the most of any ACC Coastal Division school in the last five years.

· After visiting Miami in each of the last three seasons, Virginia will host the Hurricanes for the first time since 2018. The Cavaliers upset a then-No. 16 Miami team with a 16-13 victory in that contest, the first win over a ranked opponent at home since 2014.

· Virginia has won four of the last five meetings against Miami at Scott Stadium.

· Miami and Virginia are two of the top teams in the country in getting after the quarterback. The Hurricanes are averaging 3.43 sacks per game, second most in the ACC and eighth most in the country. The Cavaliers rank third in the ACC and 11th most in the country with 3.29 sacks per game.

Chico Bennett Jr. was named the ACC Defensive Lineman of the Week for the second time this season after his seven-tackle, two-sack performance at Georgia Tech.

TOP STORYLINES

· Saturday's contest is crucial for both teams to keep their Coastal Division title hopes alive. UVA and Miami are two of the four Coastal teams with one win. The Cavaliers have first place North Carolina on deck next weekend.

· After becoming UVA's all-time leader in career touchdowns passes last week against Georgia Tech, Brennan Armstrong has his sights set on the ACC record books. The southpaw sits 376 yards away from 10,000 yards of total offense for his career. Only 14 players in league history have reached 10,000 yards in their careers.

· The Virginia defense is coming off one of the most dominant efforts in the last decade. The Cavaliers yielded only 202 yards of total offense against Georgia Tech, the fewest against an ACC/FBS opponent since 2013.

· In addition, the Cavaliers accumulated eight sacks, the second-most ever in a game in program history and the most since setting the school record with nine against Duke in 2006. UVA has recorded eight sacks in a game, four times, most recently in 1996 against Wake Forest.

NUMBERS TO KNOW

376	6	8	11
Yards Brennan Armstrong needs to reach 10,000 yards of total offense in his career. Only 14 ACC players have reached the 10,000-yard plateau.	WR Dontayvion Wicks has 12 career touchdown catches, six of which have gone for 40+ yards, including a 44-yard catch and run against GT last Thursday.	Virginia is one of seven schools nationally to record 8 or more sacks in a game this season. The 23 total team sacks have already surpassed UVA's total from the 2021 season.	Cornerback Anthony Johnson leads the ACC and is tied for fourth in the country with 11 total passes defended (pass breakups + interceptions).

· Prior to this season, the Cavaliers hadn't recorded more rushing yards than passing yards in a game since 2020 against North Carolina (210 rush/208 pass).

· Promising a commitment to the running game, Tony Elliott has delivered. As a play caller at Clemson that started with 2014 season bowl win over Oklahoma, the Tiger offense had 39 games in which the offense accumulated 200 or more passing and rushing yards in a game and went a perfect 39-0 in those games. As a head coach, he is 2-0 when totaling more than 200 yards in both the running and passing game.

· In the 12 seasons before Elliott's arrival, UVA has rushed for 200+ and passed for 200+ in the same game 20 times and own a record of 14-6 in those contests.

RARE RUSHING FEATS

· In the season opener against Richmond, the Cavaliers ran for 259 yards on 42 attempts. Both were the most in a game since 2020 against Boston College and marked on the fourth time since 2015 UVA has ran for 250+ on the ground, a span of 87 games.

· Against Richmond Perris Jones became the first UVA running back with a 100-yard rushing effort since Jordan Ellis in the 2018 Belk Bowl.

· Both Jones and Brennan Armstrong had 100-yard games on the ground, the first time two UVA rushers went for 100+ yards in the same game since Jordan Ellis (146) and Bryce Perkins (108) vs. Richmond in 2018.

· Against Illinois, UVA accumulated 42 rushing yards on 29 attempts. It's the fewest amount of yards on 27 or more attempts since 2019 against Notre Dame.

Marcus Wilson - 129 yds (1987)
Bryce Perkins - 108 yds (2018)
Jerrod Washington - 107 yds (1992)

Perris Jones- 104 yds (2022)
Since 1986

· Armstrong's 64-yard run against Richmond was the longest of his career, the longest of any Cavalier since his 60-yard scamper against Boston College in 2020 and the sixth-longest ever by a UVA quarterback.

Longest Rushes by a UVA quarterback

1. Bob Davis - 88 yds (1964)
2. Bill Dudley - 79 yds (1941)

·Virginia returned one letterwinner (Jonathan Leech) on its offensive line from last season, tied with Colorado State for the fewest in college football.

·Freshman McKale Boley became only the second Cavalier true freshman ever to start the opening game at offensive tackle. He's only the sixth UVA freshman OT to start a game at offensive tackle.

True freshmen starters at OT in UVA history

D'Brickashaw Ferguson (2002 – all 14 gms)
Brad Butler (2002 – 1 gm)
Morgan Moses (2010 – 6 gms)
Eric Smith (2013 – 8 gms)
Chris Glaser (2017 – 2 gms)

WIDE RECEIVER U

·Virginia and UTSA were the only two schools to return three wide receivers that accumulated 725 or more yards last season (Dontayvion Wicks - 1,203; Keytaon Thompson - 990 & Billy Kemp IV). The UVA trio accounted for 2,918 yards, almost 500 more yards than their Roadrunner counterparts.

LOOKING AHEAD TO WEEK EIGHT

· Armstrong now owns school records for career and single-season passing yards, career and single season touchdown passes, career and single season total offense and the program's single-game passing yards mark.

· The lefthander is on pace to break UVA's career completions record, held by Matt Schaub (716).

· On the ground, Armstrong has rushed for 1,182 yards, the fourth Cavalier quarterback ever to rush for 1,000 career yards. He needs 87 yards to surpass Shawn Moore for third place all-time.

· Armstrong's school record streak of 18-straight games with a touchdown was snapped at Illinois.

· Armstrong is the school's record holder in 200-yard games (22), 300-yard games (12), 400 yard games (5) and the only player in school history to throw for 500 yards in a game.

· The Cavalier signal caller broke UVA's career total offense record on a 64-yard touchdown run in the season opener against Richmond. He leaped frogged Shawn Moore (7,987) and Bryce Perkins (7,910) on UVA's all-time list.

· Armstrong has 8,442 career passing yards the second most by a lefthanded quarterback in ACC history. He trails only Wake Forest's Tanner Price who threw 8,899 from 2010-13.

· Armstrong joins Jameis Winston (Florida State), Deshaun Watson (Clemson) and Sam Hartman (Wake Forest) as the only ACC quarterbacks to return the next season after passing for 4,000 yards in the year prior.

HIGHLIGHTS OF A HISTORIC 2021 SEASON

· Armstrong is one of three players in NCAA Football history that have thrown for 4,400 yards or more playing just 11 games. Only Houston quarterbacks Andre Ware (4,699 in 1989) and David Klinger (5,140 in 1990) had more yards playing 11 games in a season.

· Armstrong's 4,449 passing in 2021 were the most ever by an NCAA left-handed quarterback. He surpassed Scott Mitchell (Utah) who threw for 4,322 in 1988.

· Armstrong came just 145 yards shy of breaking the ACC single-season record for passing yards and might have done it if the Fenway Bowl was not canceled.

· The 4,000-yard season was one of 10 ever by an ACC quarterback.

· Armstrong broke UVA's single season passing record in just nine games and finished with 4,449 passing yards, the fourth most in a single season in ACC history.

· In addition, Armstrong set Virginia's single-season records for total offense (4,700), passing touchdowns (31) and completions (326).

· Armstrong threw for 300-or-more yards 10 times and 400 yards six times in 11 games played, both school records. Prior to 2021 a UVA quarterback hadn't thrown for 300 yards more than four times (Matt Schaub and Bryce Perkins) in the same season or thrown for 400 yards twice in the same season.

· Armstrong owned three of the top 14 passing performances by an FBS quarterback last season. His 554 at UNC were the fourth most by an FBS QB in 2021.

CHICO x 2

· Senior Chico Bennett Jr. was named the ACC Defensive Player of the Week for the second time on Monday (Oct. 24). Bennett, a Georgia Tech transfer, had a huge day in his homecoming on the Flats, recording a career-high seven tackles and putting forth his second, multi-sack effort of the season.

· Bennett sits atop the ACC leaders in sacks with six on the season and his 0.86 sacks per game are tied for the 18th best in the country.

· Bennett is the ninth Cavalier defensive lineman to win the award twice in the same season. The list includes: Mandy Alonso (2021), Matt Conrath (2011), Nate Collins (2009), Chris Long (2007), Patrick Kerney (1998), Mark Kirchbaum (1993), Chris Slade (1991) and Ron Mattes (3x in 1984).

· Through only seven games, Bennett's six sacks are the most by a Cavalier since Charles Snowden had six in his 2020 campaign.

HOMETOWN KID

· Playing in his hometown for the first time in his career last week against Georgia Tech, Nick Jackson led UVA with eight tackles, recorded a career high two sacks and recovered the first fumble of his career.

· Jackson is on pace for his third-consecutive 100-tackle season with 70 through seven games. He's recorded double-digit tackle efforts in four of the seven games this season, including a 10-tackle performance in just one half against Duke. The senior linebacker was forced to sit out the first half against the Blue Devils due to a targeting call against Syracuse in the week prior. The first-half suspension halted his streak of 27-straight starts at linebacker for the Hoos.

· Jackson has 18 double-digit tackle efforts over the course of his four years at UVA.

LAST YEAR'S MEETING VS. MIAMI
· The Cavaliers escaped with a 30-28 victory after the Hurricanes missed a 28-yard field goal as time expired.
· Virginia snapped a five-game road losing streak in last year's meeting against the Hurricanes. The victory at Hard Rock Stadium was Virginia's first since 2011. The Cavaliers had dropped six-straight games in the facility, including the 2019 Orange Bowl (to Florida).
· Dontayvion Wicks, had only two receptions, but one turned out to be one of the most memorable of the college football season. In third quarter, on second-and-17 from the Miami 37, Armstrong threw a long pass to the end zone that was nearly intercepted. As the defensive back came down with the ball, however, it came loose and landed on Wicks' back. As Wicks rolled over, the ball popped up, and he grabbed it for an unforgettable touchdown.
· The game served as a homecoming for defensive end Mandy Alonso who had career-highs sacks (2) and tackles for losses (3). He made the tackle on the first quarter safety. He went on to earn ACC Defensive Lineman of the Week honors.
· Last year's meeting was the only game of the season in which Armstrong did not amass 300 yards passing. He completed 25 of 44 passes for 268 yards and one TD. He was intercepted once, a turnover that Miami quickly turned into a touchdown.

CAVALIER/HURRICANE CONNECTION
· Virginia has nine players from the Sunshine State including five from the Miami area - Dawson Alters, Will Bettridge, Sean Moore, D'Sean Perry and Blake Steen.
· Current Cavalier running back Cody Brown transferred from Miami to Virginia prior to the 2022 season. Brown appeared in 10 games as a true freshman for the Hurricanes and accumulated 139 yards on 34 carries. He scored three touchdowns last season, two came in a two-score, 77-yard effort against Central Connecticut.

Tony Elliott, a patient man, was looking for the right fit when it came time for him to leave the assistant coaching ranks and take on the responsibility of running a collegiate football program as the head coach. During his 11-year tenure at Clemson, his alma mater, several opportunities presented themselves, but it was not until Virginia came calling that he felt the setting was right for what he wants to accomplish.

On Dec. 10, 2021, Elliott was named the University of Virginia's Fralin Family Head Football Coach. At his introductory press conference, he explained his decision to become the Cavaliers' head coach and what he wants to accomplish in Charlottesville.

"I chose UVA because I wanted to lead a program that was partnered with a university that had world-class academics," he said "I wanted to be able to recruit the best and the brightest student-athletes.

"I wanted to compete in the best conference in college athletics. I wanted to be a part of an alignment with (athletic director) Ms. Carla (Williams) and President (Jim) Ryan that shared a vision that was similar to mine, which is centered around the holistic development of the student-athlete. And lastly, I wanted to be part of a university and athletic department that would not compromise its values to win.

"There is no better place for me than UVA. And there is no better time than now."

With that, Elliott went to work crafting what he had hoped to build for years – The Model Program.

"My vision for the UVA football program is to become the model in college football, the model program in college football," he said. "My goal is to contribute to changing the narrative in college football and demonstrate that you can win at the highest level and you can do so while achieving excellence in education, leadership and service."

Elliott's cornerstones of that culture are based on H.E.A.R.T.– humility, effort, accountability, respect and toughness.

"I think that building a championship culture starts with making sure that you have alignment and a vision," he said. "You clearly state the vision and you are particular in the people that you bring in and make sure that they align with the vision, and then you stay grounded to the principles that you set in place for the players and the staff, and you go to work every single day, and you keep an inside-out mentality. It's one day at a time, and eventually that will bring your championship culture to life."

Elliott's background and coaching pedigree is rich with championship experiences.

He spent 11 seasons as an assistant on Dabo Swinney's staff at Clemson. In January of 2021, he was named the program's assistant head coach and offensive coordinator. He previously served as the team's co-offensive coordinator (2014-20) and the team's running backs coach (2011-20).

At Clemson, Elliott was a part of a 10-season stretch in which the Tigers won 10 or more games. In that span, Clemson won six Atlantic Coast Conference Championships, made four appearances in the College Football Playoff National Championship game and captured national titles in 2016 and 2018.

Since Elliott's promotion to co-offensive coordinator prior to the 2014 Russell Athletic Bowl, the Tigers posted an 89-10 record and ranked in the top 12 nationally in total offense. Clemson either led or ranked No. 2 in the ACC in total offense in five of his seven seasons as an offensive coordinator. Elliott's 2018 and 2019 offenses were responsible for two of the 22 650-point seasons in major college football history.

Elliott was named the Frank Broyles Award recipient as the nation's top assistant coach in 2017. Before transitioning to the tight ends room this year, Elliott was in charge of Clemson's running backs for his first 10 seasons. In that time, he guided Clemson running back Travis Etienne to one of the most illustrious careers in ACC and college football history, helping him set the NCAA record for most games scoring a touchdown (46) and secure ACC records for career rushing yards (4,952), total touchdowns (78), rushing touchdowns (70) and points (468).

As the program's offensive coordinator, Elliott worked with two first-round draft picks at quarterback, including the 2021 first overall pick Trevor Lawrence. From 2015-2020, a Clemson offensive player took home both the ACC's Player of the Year and Offensive Player of the Year awards four times.

Prior to returning to his alma mater, Elliott spent three seasons at Furman (2008-10) and two at South Carolina State (2006-07) coaching wide receivers at both schools. Prior to his coaching career he worked for Michelin North America for two years.

In 2002, Elliott earned his undergraduate degree in industrial engineering from Clemson, where he was a first-team Academic All-ACC selection as well as a CoSIDA Academic District III member. He was also a recipient of an ACC Weaver-James-Corrigan Postgraduate Scholarship.

Under Tommy Bowden, he came to Clemson as a walk-on wide receiver in the fall of 1999 and finished his career with four letters and appeared in 44 games. Swinney was his position coach his senior year (2003) in which he was named a co-captain of a team that finished with a 9-4 record and a No. 22 final ranking by AP and USA Today.

UNIQUELY UVA

The University of Virginia is an institution rich with history and tradition. Here is some of the terminology that contributes to UVA's culture.

Grounds: The term used by students, faculty and alumni to refer to the University dating as far back as Thomas Jefferson. "Campus" is never used.

First Year, Second Year, Third Year, Fourth Year: Instead of freshman, sophomore, junior, senior. Why you may ask? To be a "senior" implies that a person has reached the final phase of learning, a feat that Thomas Jefferson believed to be impossible, arguing instead that education is a life-long process.

Commonwealth: Virginia is one of four constituent states of the United States of America that officially uses the name "Commonwealth" instead of the word state in all references. The other three commonwealths are Kentucky, Massachusetts and Pennsylvania.

UNIVERSITY NICKNAMES

Virginia's athletics teams have been accompanied by a somewhat confusing array of nicknames. The most prominent and widely accepted of these monikers are "Cavaliers," "Wahoos" and "Hoos."

Although the terms "Cavaliers," "Wahoos" and "Hoos" are used almost interchangeably to refer to University teams and players, "Cavaliers" is more often used by the media, while "Wahoos" and "Hoos" are frequently used by Virginia students and fans.

Legend has it that Washington & Lee baseball fans dubbed the Virginia players "Wahoos" during the fiercely contested rivalry that existed between the two in-state schools in the 1890s. By 1940, "Wahoos" was in general use around Grounds to denote University students or events relating to them. The abbreviated "Hoos" sprang up later in student newspapers and has gained growing popularity in recent years.

THE CAVALIER MASCOT

The costumed Cavalier with a large character head debuted during Virginia's 1984 football season and has remained the official mascot of the University.

The first documented Cavalier on horseback was Francis Bell, a Virginia student from Dublin, Va., in 1947. Bell rode onto the field dressed as Cavaliers for Virginia's home football game with Harvard on the afternoon of October 11.

The Cavalier on horseback returned as the University's mascot in 1963. The UVA Polo Club provided both the horse and rider. However, the mounted Cavalier and his horse parted company in 1974 with the inception of AstroTurf at Scott Stadium.

The mounted Cavalier made its return in the Florida Citrus Bowl at the end of the 1989 football season. Due to its instant popularity, the Cavalier on horseback returned the following season on a regular basis and continues to lead the Virginia football team onto the field at the beginning of all home games.

Since 2000, Kim Kirschnick led the Cavaliers out of the tunnel on horseback and retired after the 2021 season finale against Virginia Tech. 2022 marks Julie Caruccio first season as the mounted Cavalier. A former interim dean of students at UVA, Caruccio is the first female in school history to have the mounted Cavalier job on a full-time basis. When the tradition rotated among members of the club polo team until Kirschnick took over in 2000, at least two women – Bess Worrall and Kerry McDaniel – were on horseback for a few games in the early '90s.

UNIVERSITY COLORS

Orange and blue were adopted as the University of Virginia's official athletic colors at a mass student meeting in 1888. UVA athletic teams had previously worn silver gray and cardinal red, but those colors did not stand out on muddy football fields, prompting a student movement to change them.

One of the students attending the mass meeting was Allen Potts, a star athlete who played on Virginia's first football team in 1888. Potts showed up at the meeting wearing a navy blue-and-orange scarf that he had acquired during a summer boating expedition at Oxford University. Orange and blue were chosen as the official athletic colors after one of Potts' fellow students pulled the scarf off Potts' neck and, waving it to the crowd, yelled, "How will this do?" UVA later served as the inspiration for schools like Auburn and Florida when they selected school colors.

WAH-HOO-WAH

The origin of "Wah-hoo-wah" is uncertain. The cheer was used to root on Virginia teams as early as 1890 and may have been borrowed from Dartmouth College, whose athletics teams were once known as the Indians.

Legend attributes the yell to Natalie Floyd Otey, who sang the ballad "Where'er You Are, There Shall My Love Be" at Charlottesville's Levy Opera House in 1893. The predominantly student audience noticed that Otey warbled the first three words of the song between each of the stanzas and decided to join in the refrain. By evening's end, goes the legend, the crowd had corrupted "Where'er You Are" into "Wah-hoo-wah."

The Levy Opera House stands at the corner of High Street and Park Street and has since been renovated into an office building.

GAME 1 • UVA 34, RICHMOND 17
Sept. 3 • Charlottesville, Va.

Game Notes
· UVA is 85-39-9 all-time in season openers and has won six-straight for the first time since winning six-consecutive openers from 1927-32.
· Tony Elliott made his head coaching debut and became the second UVA coach since 1965 win in his debut.
· Virginia had two 100-yard rushers – Brennan Armstrong (105 yards) and Perris Jones (104 yards) for the first time since Jordan Ellis (146) and Bryce Perkins (108) in 2018 against Richmond.
· UVA ran the ball 42 times and totaled 259 yards rushing, the most since accumulating 262 yards on 42 attempts against Boston College on Dec. 5, 2020.
· Virginia wore orange pants and orange jerseys for the first time since 2010 against North Carolina.
· Brennan Armstrong broke UVA's career total offense record with a 64-yard touchdown run. He surpassed Shawn Moore (7,987) and Bryce Perkins (7,910) on UVA's all-time list. It was the longest rush of his career and the 6th-longest ever by a UVA quarterback. His previous career long was 60 yards against Boston College in 2020.
· Armstrong rushed for 105 yards, his second 100-yard rushing effort of his career. He ran for 130 yards against Boston College on Dec. 5, 2020.
· Armstrong's 64-yard rushing touchdown was his 15th rushing score of his career, tying him with fellow southpaw Jameel Sewell for the fifth most ever by a UVA quarterback.
· McKale Boley and D'Brickashaw Ferguson are the only two true freshmen in UVA history to start at offensive tackle in the season opener. Only six true freshmen in program history have started a game at offensive tackle – Ferguson (2002 – all 14 games), Brad Butler (2002-1 game), Morgan Moses (2010 – 6 games), Eric Smith (2013 – 8 games), Chris Glaser (2017 – 2 games) and Boley (2022).
· Perris Jones is the first UVA running back with a rushing touchdown and a receiving touchdown in the same game since Wayne Taulapapa at Miami on Sept. 30, 2021. He totaled 104 yards on the ground, the first UVA running back to rush for 100 yards since Jordan Ellis against South Carolina in the 2018 Belk Bowl.

· The Georgia Tech offense did not score in the second half, the first time a UVA opponent was held scoreless in the second half since blanking Duke in the final 30 minutes last season.
· The UVA defense held the Yellow Jackets to 202 yards of total offense (146 pass/55 rush), the fewest in a game since allowing 183 against William & Mary in 2021 and the fewest allowed to an FBS/ACC opponent since yielding 199 to Pitt in 2013.
· Brennan Armstrong threw his 57th touchdown pass of his career, a 44-yard catch and run by Dontayvion Wicks in the second quarter to break UVA's career touchdown record. He surpassed Matt Schaub who threw for 56 touchdowns from 2000-03.
· Both Schaub and Armstrong broke the UVA career TD record in their 38th game. Schaub broke Shawn Moore's then-record with a 52-yard strike to Heath Miller in the 2003 Continental Tire Bowl against Pitt.
· Atlanta native Nick Jackson finished with a team-high eight tackles, recorded two sacks and recovered a fumble in the contest. It was his first ever multiple sack game and first fumble recovery of his career.
· Jackson moved up to 14th place all-time on UVA's all-time career tackle list and now has 324 in his four seasons as a Cavalier.
· Chico Bennett Jr., a transfer from Georgia Tech, also put together his first multi-outing sack of his career. He leads the team six on the season.
· Wicks had a season-high, 99 yards receiving on four catches. A total of 43 of his yards came after the catch. Wicks had two catches of 20 or more yards the 44-yard TD catch and a 37-yard catch in the third quarter. He has 34 catches of 20 or more yards, the most by any Cavalier receiver since 2000.
