INSIDE TODAY'S MATCHUP

- Coastal Division foes Virginia and Pittsburgh will convene at Scott Stadium for the first time since 2018.
- Virginia has lost the last two games by a combined five points, including a 40T loss to Miami on Oct. 29. Five of Virginia's nine games this season have been decided by a touchdown or less.
- With the exception of a season-opening, 30-14 win for UVA in 2019, the Panthers have won five of the last six games against Virginia, including a 48-38 shootout last season, the highest scoring game in the series between the two teams.
- Virginia is in the middle of a four-game homestand, only the second time in the history of the program that UVA has played four-straight Saturdays at Scott Stadium and the first time since 1970.
- UVA is 23-8 in its last 31 games at Scott Stadium. The 23 home wins since 2018 are the third-most by any ACC team, trailing Clemson (30) and NC State (28), and the most by any Coastal Division team.
- Pitt leads the ACC and ranks 10th in country in time of possession per game (33:23) while Virginia is last in the league with an average time of possession just under 28 minutes.

In his first career start, tight end Sackett Wood Jr. led the Cavaliers in receiving, hauling in six passes for 94 yards, the most by a UVA tight end this season.

THEY SAID IT

"These kids, they fight. They're doing everything we ask, eliminating all the outside noise, working every day. And they will see the fruits of their labor. It's slow and it's painful, and I get it. But today, they should believe [in] what we can do offensively. Yes, we had a turnover, but we were able to run the ball, we threw it when we wanted to, took our shots, and if we didn't get a shot, we were able to convert third downs in the first half and second half to stay on schedule. So, just keep believing, just keep working at it and it's going to come."

- Offensive Coordinator Des Kitchings on the UVA offense last week.

STEPPING UP

· Despite the absence of three of the Cavaliers top targets (Keytaon Thompson, Dontayvion Wicks & Lavel Davis Jr.) on offense against then-No. 17 UNC, the Cavaliers put forth their highest offensive output since the season opener against Richmond.

· The trio of Thompson, Wicks and Davis have combined for 56 career starts. · Running back Perris Jones also sat out with an injury after starting the first eight games of the season. Senior Mike Hollins rushed a career-high 16 times and totaled 75 yards on the ground. Freshman Xavier Brown and fifth-year Ronnie Walker Jr. each scored their first touchdowns of the season.

DUAL-THREAT QB

· Armstrong has five rushing touchdowns in the last five games including his first two-TD performance of the season last week against North Carolina. It marked the sixth time in his career he's rushed for multiple touchdowns in game.

· Armstrong has 20 career rushing touchdowns tied with former teammate Bryce Perkins (2018-19) for the third-most by a quarterback in UVA history. He needs one more touchdown to tie College Football Hall of Famer Bill Dudley for the second most in program history.

PASS DEFENDERS

• Fifth-year Anthony Johnson is having the best season of his college career. His 13 passes defended (11 pass break ups & 2 INT) are tied for the third most in the nation. The 11 pass break ups are a career-high through just nine games played.

• For his career, Johnson has 37 career passes defended (30 pass break ups + 7 interceptions), the fifth most of any active FBS corner back and tops among all active Power-5 corners.

• On the other side of the field, Fentrell Cypress has 12 pass break ups, the most in the ACC and tied for the second-most in the country.

• The 25 combined passes defended are the most by any duo in the country.

ACC SACK LEADER - CHICO BENNETT JR.

• Despite not recording a sack in last week against North Carolina, Bennett's seven sacks are the most of any ACC pass rusher. He only trails the national leader Tuli Tuipulotu of Southern California who has nine sacks in nine games played.

POWER-5 SACK LEADERS

1. Tuli Tuipulotu, Southern California	9.0
2. Laiatu Latu, UCLA	8.0
Nick Herbig, Wisconsin	8.0
4. Felix Anudike-Uzomah, Kansas St.	7.5
Drew Sanders Arkansas	7.5
6. Chico Bennett Jr., Virginia	7.0
Felix Anudike-Uzomah, Kansas St.	7.5
Tyree Wilson, Texas Tech	7.0
Will Anderson Jr., Alabama	7.0
Mike Morris, Michigan	7.0

• Through only eight games, Bennett's seven sacks are the most by a Cavalier since Jordan Mack (7.5) and Noah Taylor (7.0) in 2019. The last two Cavaliers to reach eight sacks in a season were Max Valles (9.0) and Henry Coley (8.0) in 2014.

• Bennett, a Georgia Tech transfer, had a huge day in his homecoming on the Flats on Oct. 20, recording a career-high seven tackles and putting forth his second, multi-sack effort of the season.

• Bennett has been named ACC Defensive Lineman of the Week twice (Sept. 23 & Oct. 24).

• Bennett is the ninth Cavalier defensive lineman to win the award twice in the same season. The list includes: Mandy Alonso (2021), Matt Conrath (2011), Nate Collins (2009), Chris Long (2007), Patrick Kerney (1998), Mark Kirchbaum (1993), Chris Slade (1991) and Ron Mattes (3x in 1984).

JACKSON AMONG NATION'S TOP LBs

• Linebacker Nick Jackson won his first career ACC Linebacker of the Week award on Monday (Oct. 31). The senior made 14 tackles, assisted on a tackle for loss and was credited with a pass break up in UVA's 14-12 loss to Miami. The double-digit tackle effort was the 19th of his career.

• Through nine games played, Jackson is second in the ACC with 10.3 tackles per game. His 93 total tackles are also second behind UNC's Cedric Gray in the ACC and are 10th-most in the country.

• Playing in his hometown for the first time in his career against Georgia Tech on Oct. 20, Nick Jackson led UVA with eight tackles, recorded a career high two sacks and recovered the first fumble of his career.

• Jackson is on pace for his third-consecutive 100-tackle season with 93 through nine games. He's recorded double-digit tackle efforts in five of the nine games this season, including a 10-tackle performance in just one half against Duke. The senior linebacker was forced to sit out the first half against the Blue Devils due to a targeting call against Syracuse in the week prior. The first-half suspension halted his streak of 27-straight starts at linebacker for the Hoos.

• Jackson has 19 double-digit tackle efforts over the course of his four years at UVA.

• Jackson was the ACC's top tackler in 2021, totaling 117 stops and was credited with 2.5 sacks in 12 games. He recorded six tackles for loss, broke up two passes and had six quarterback hurries.

• Jackson's 9.8 tackles per game also led the ACC and were the 14th most in the country.

• The Atlanta native went on to earn second team All-ACC honors for the second year in-a-row.

• Jackson has the chance to join Charles McDaniel (1982-84), Jon Copper (2006-08) and Micah Kiser (2015-17) as the only Cavaliers to lead the team in tackles for three consecutive seasons.

HISTORIC PERFORMANCE

• The Cavaliers accumulated eight sacks, the second-most ever in a game in program history and the most since setting the school record with nine against Duke in 2006. UVA has recorded eight sacks in a game, four times, most recently in 1996 against Wake Forest.

• The eight sacks were the most by an ACC team this season. Including UVA, only nine schools in the country have recorded eight or more sacks in a game this season.

DEFENSIVE SUPERLATIVES

- The Cavalier defense had their streak of not allowing an offensive touchdown end at nine last week against North Carolina.
- UVA held North Carolina to a field goal in the first quarter and 10 points at halftime, the fewest by the Tar Heels at either break this season. UNC came into the contest as the top scoring offense in the ACC and the sixth-best in the country.
- The Virginia defense did not allow a first down in the third quarter and held Georgia Tech to 14 total yards in the third quarter on four drives (all 3-and-outs). It forced the Yellow Jackets to go 3-and-out on its first six possessions of the second half.
- The Georgia Tech offense did not score in the second half, the first time a UVA opponent was held scoreless in the second half since blanking Duke in the final 30 minutes last season.

RELIABLE RETURN GAME

- Kemp is also one of the most experienced punt returners in college football, fielding 62 career punts.

LONG ATTEMPTED: 47 vs. Louisville (10/8/22)

- True freshman Will Bettridge accounted for all 12 points against Miami, including a pair of 41 yarders in overtime. He became the first UVA kicker with four field goals in a game since 2015 when Ian Frye did it against the Hurricanes.
- Bettridge needs two more field goals to tie Wayne Morrison's mark for the most by a UVA freshman in a single season. Morrison converted nine field goals as a first year in 1979.
- Bettridge connected on a 47-yard field goal in the first quarter against Louisville. It was the longest field goal by a UVA kicker this season and the longest since Brian Delaney kicked a 48-yarder against Virginia Tech in 2019

- Farrell was named the ACC Specialist of the Week and one of three kickers listed a Lou Groza Award Star of the Week on Sept. 19. Farrell made field goals from 26, 30 and 26 yards in the Cavaliers' 16-14 victory against ODU. Farrell's final kick was the game-winner as time expired. It marked the first time since the 2011 season UVA won a game on the last play with a field goal.

- Daniel Sparks leads the ACC with a 44.8 punt average, the 15th highest in the country. As it stands, the 44.8 average would be the highest by a UVA kicker since Ryan Weigand in 2007 who also lead the conference in punt average.
- The transfer from Minnesota has 10 punts of 50+ yards (3rd most in ACC) and 12 punts inside the 20 yard line (the second most in ACC).
- Sparks currently carries the ninth-highest grade (79.5) of all FBS punters according to Pro Football Focus.

LAST YEAR'S MEETING VS. PITT

· Touted as one of the top quarterback matchups in all of college football in 2021, the battle between Brennan Armstrong and future first round pick Kenny Pickett lived up to the hype.

· Armstrong threw for 487 yards and three touchdowns while Pickett accounted for 340 yards and four touchdowns.

· Wide receiver Jordan Addison stole the show, catching all four of Pickett's touchdown passes and finished with 202 yards receiving. He became the first UVA opposing wide receiver to catch four touchdowns in a game. His 62-yard touchdown with 2:10 remaining in the game all but sealed the game and helped Pitt clinch the Coastal Division crown.

· Keytaon Thompson and Dontayvion Wicks each had double-digit catches and 100+ yards receiving. Thompson led the Cavaliers with a career-high 11 catches for 126 yards and a touchdown. Wicks caught 10 passes for 144 yards.

CAVALIER/PANTHER CONNECTIONS

· Pitt special teams coordinator/running backs coach Andre Powell was at Virginia from 1996-2000 coaching running backs and wide receivers under then head coach George Welsh. He later went on to coach at Clemson and was the running backs from 2007-10 before leaving for the same position at Maryland. Dabo Swinney replaced Powell with current UVA head coach Tony Elliott.

· Pitt offensive line coach Dave Borbely had two coaching stints at Virginia, first from 2006-09 as the offensive line coach/run game coordinator for then head coach Al Groh. He returned to Charlottesville for one season under Mike London to coach the o-line.

Playing in his final game, Schaub was named the game's MVP. He broke the UVA career touchdown record with a 52-yard strike to Heath Miller, a record that was surpassed earlier this season by Brennan Armstrong at Georgia Tech.

· The Cavalier defense held Panther wideout and Heisman Trophy runner-up Larry Fitzgerald to 77 yards on five catches, snapping his NCAA record 18-game touchdown reception streak.

· Current wide receivers coach and future UVA quarterback Marques Hagans was a redshirt freshman on the team and had three receptions for 30 yards in the bowl game victory.

LOOKING AHEAD TO WEEK 10

- Armstrong now owns school records for career and single-season passing yards, career and single season touchdown passes, career and single season total offense, career passing attempts and the program's single-game passing yards mark.
- The lefthander is on pace to break UVA's career completions record, held by Matt Schaub (716).
- On the ground, Armstrong has rushed for 1,313 yards, the fourth Cavalier quarterback ever to rush for 1,000 career yards. He is 318 yards shy of college football hall of famer, Bill Dudley for the second most by a quarterback in program history.
- Armstrong's school record streak of 18-straight games with a touchdown was snapped at Illinois.
- Armstrong is the school's record holder in 200-yard games (25), 300-yard games (12), 400 yard games (5) and the only player in school history to throw for 500 yards in a game.
- The Cavalier signal caller broke UVA's career total offense record on a 64-yard touchdown run in the season opener against Richmond. He leaped frogged Shawn Moore (7,987) and Bryce Perkins (7,910) on UVA's all-time list.
- Armstrong has 8,650 career passing yards the second most by a lefthanded quarterback in ACC history. He trails only Wake Forest's Tanner Price who threw 8,899 from 2010-13.
- Armstrong joins Jameis Winston (Florida State), Deshaun Watson (Clemson) and Sam Hartman (Wake Forest) as the only ACC quarterbacks to return the next season after passing for 4,000 yards in the year prior.

HIGHLIGHTS OF A HISTORIC 2021 SEASON

- Armstrong is one of three players in NCAA Football history that have thrown for 4,400 yards or more playing just 11 games. Only Houston quarterbacks Andre Ware (4,699 in 1989) and David Klinger (5,140 in 1990) had more yards playing 11 games in a season.
- Armstrong's 4,449 passing in 2021 were the most ever by an NCAA left-handed quarterback. He surpassed Scott Mitchell (Utah) who threw for 4,322 in 1988.
- Armstrong came just 145 yards shy of breaking the ACC single-season record for passing yards and might have done it if the Fenway Bowl was not canceled.
- The 4,000-yard season was one of 10 ever by an ACC quarterback.
- Armstrong broke UVA's single season passing record in just nine games and finished with 4,449 passing yards, the fourth most in a single season in ACC history.
- In addition, Armstrong set Virginia's single-season records for total offense (4,700), passing touchdowns (31) and completions (326).
- Armstrong threw for 300-or-more yards 10 times and 400 yards six times in 11 games played, both school records. Prior to 2021 a UVA quarterback hadn't thrown for 300 yards more than four times (Matt Schaub and Bryce Perkins) in the same season or thrown for 400 yards twice in the same season.
- Armstrong owned three of the top 14 passing performances by an FBS quarterback last season. His 554 at UNC were the fourth most by an FBS QB in 2021.

Tony Elliott, a patient man, was looking for the right fit when it came time for him to leave the assistant coaching ranks and take on the responsibility of running a collegiate football program as the head coach. During his 11-year tenure at Clemson, his alma mater, several opportunities presented themselves, but it was not until Virginia came calling that he felt the setting was right for what he wants to accomplish.

On Dec. 10, 2021, Elliott was named the University of Virginia's Fralin Family Head Football Coach. At his introductory press conference, he explained his decision to become the Cavaliers' head coach and what he wants to accomplish in Charlottesville.

"I chose UVA because I wanted to lead a program that was partnered with a university that had world-class academics," he said "I wanted to be able to recruit the best and the brightest student-athletes.

"I wanted to compete in the best conference in college athletics. I wanted to be a part of an alignment with (athletic director) Ms. Carla (Williams) and President (Jim) Ryan that shared a vision that was similar to mine, which is centered around the holistic development of the student-athlete. And lastly, I wanted to be part of a university and athletic department that would not compromise its values to win.

"There is no better place for me than UVA. And there is no better time than now."

With that, Elliott went to work crafting what he had hoped to build for years - The Model Program.

"My vision for the UVA football program is to become the model in college football, the model program in college football," he said. "My goal is to contribute to changing the narrative in college football and demonstrate that you can win at the highest level and you can do so while achieving excellence in education, leadership and service."

Elliott's cornerstones of that culture are based on H.E.A.R.T.- humility, effort, accountability, respect and toughness.

"I think that building a championship culture starts with making sure that you have alignment and a vision," he said. "You clearly state the vision and you are particular in the people that you bring in and make sure that they align with the vision, and then you stay grounded to the principles that you set in place for the players and the staff, and you go to work every single day, and you keep an inside-out mentality. It's one day at a time, and eventually that will bring your championship culture to life."

Elliott's background and coaching pedigree is rich with championship experiences.

He spent 11 seasons as an assistant on Dabo Swinney's staff at Clemson. In January of 2021, he was named the program's assistant head coach and offensive coordinator. He previously served as the team's co-offensive coordinator (2014-20) and the team's running backs coach (2011-20).

At Clemson, Elliott was a part of a 10-season stretch in which the Tigers won 10 or more games. In that span, Clemson won six Atlantic Coast Conference Championships, made four appearances in the College Football Playoff National Championship game and captured national titles in 2016 and 2018.

Since Elliott's promotion to co-offensive coordinator prior to the 2014 Russell Athletic Bowl, the Tigers posted an 89-10 record and ranked in the top 12 nationally in total offense. Clemson either led or ranked No. 2 in the ACC in total offense in five of his seven seasons as an offensive coordinator. Elliott's 2018 and 2019 offenses were responsible for two of the 22 650-point seasons in major college football history.

Elliott was named the Frank Broyles Award recipient as the nation's top assistant coach in 2017. Before transitioning to the tight ends room this year, Elliott was in charge of Clemson's running backs for his first 10 seasons. In that time, he guided Clemson running back Travis Etienne to one of the most illustrious careers in ACC and college football history, helping him set the NCAA record for most games scoring a touchdown (46) and secure ACC records for career rushing yards (4,952), total touchdowns (78), rushing touchdowns (70) and points (468).

As the program's offensive coordinator, Elliott worked with two first-round draft picks at quarterback, including the 2021 first overall pick Trevor Lawrence. From 2015-2020, a Clemson offensive player took home both the ACC's Player of the Year and Offensive Player of the Year awards four times.

Prior to returning to his alma mater, Elliott spent three seasons at Furman (2008-10) and two at South Carolina State (2006-07) coaching wide receivers at both schools. Prior to his coaching career he worked for Michelin North America for two years.

In 2002, Elliott earned his undergraduate degree in industrial engineering from Clemson, where he was a first-team Academic All-ACC selection as well as a CoSIDA Academic District III member. He was also a recipient of an ACC Weaver-James-Corrigan Postgraduate Scholarship.

Under Tommy Bowden, he came to Clemson as a walk-on wide receiver in the fall of 1999 and finished his career with four letters and appeared in 44 games. Swinney was his position coach his senior year (2003) in which he was named a co-captain of a team that finished with a 9-4 record and a No. 22 final ranking by AP and USA Today.

UNIQUELY UVA

The University of Virginia is an institution rich with history and tradition. Here is some of the terminology that contributes to UVA's culture.

Grounds: The term used by students, faculty and alumni to refer to the University dating as far back as Thomas Jefferson. "Campus" is never used.

First Year, Second Year, Third Year, Fourth Year: Instead of freshman, sophomore, junior, senior. Why you may ask? To be a "senior" implies that a person has reached the final phase of learning, a feat that Thomas Jefferson believed to be impossible, arguing instead that education is a life-long process.

Commonwealth: Virginia is one of four constituent states of the United States of America that officially uses the name "Commonwealth" instead of the word state in all references. The other three commonwealths are Kentucky, Massachusetts and Pennsylvania.

UNIVERSITY NICKNAMES

Virginia's athletics teams have been accompanied by a somewhat confusing array of nicknames. The most prominent and widely accepted of these monikers are "Cavaliers," "Wahoos" and "Hoos."

Although the terms "Cavaliers," "Wahoos" and "Hoos" are used almost interchangeably to refer to University teams and players, "Cavaliers" is more often used by the media, while "Wahoos" and "Hoos" are frequently used by Virginia students and fans.

Legend has it that Washington & Lee baseball fans dubbed the Virginia players "Wahoos" during the fiercely contested rivalry that existed between the two in-state schools in the 1890s. By 1940, "Wahoos" was in general use around Grounds to denote University students or events relating to them. The abbreviated "Hoos" sprang up later in student newspapers and has gained growing popularity in recent years.

THE CAVALIER MASCOT

The costumed Cavalier with a large character head debuted during Virginia's 1984 football season and has remained the official mascot of the University.

The first documented Cavalier on horseback was Francis Bell, a Virginia student from Dublin, Va., in 1947. Bell rode onto the field dressed as Cavaliers for Virginia's home football game with Harvard on the afternoon of October 11.

The Cavalier on horseback returned as the University's mascot in 1963. The UVA Polo Club provided both the horse and rider. However, the mounted Cavalier and his horse parted company in 1974 with the inception of AstroTurf at Scott Stadium.

The mounted Cavalier made its return in the Florida Citrus Bowl at the end of the 1989 football season. Due to its instant popularity, the Cavalier on horseback returned the following season on a regular basis and continues to lead the Virginia football team onto the field at the beginning of all home games.

Since 2000, Kim Kirschnick led the Cavaliers out of the tunnel on horseback and retired after the 2021 season finale against Virginia Tech. 2022 marks Julie Caruccio first season as the mounted Cavalier. A former interim dean of students at UVA, Caruccio is the first female in school history to have the mounted Cavalier job on a full-time basis. When the tradition rotated among members of the club polo team until Kirschnick took over in 2000, at least two women – Bess Worrall and Kerry McDaniel – were on horseback for a few games in the early '90s.

UNIVERSITY COLORS

Orange and blue were adopted as the University of Virginia's official athletic colors at a mass student meeting in 1888. UVA athletic teams had previously worn silver gray and cardinal red, but those colors did not stand out on muddy football fields, prompting a student movement to change them.

One of the students attending the mass meeting was Allen Potts, a star athlete who played on Virginia's first football team in 1888. Potts showed up at the meeting wearing a navy blue-and-orange scarf that he had acquired during a summer boating expedition at Oxford University. Orange and blue were chosen as the official athletic colors after one of Potts' fellow students pulled the scarf off Potts' neck and, waving it to the crowd, yelled, "How will this do?" UVA later served as the inspiration for schools like Auburn and Florida when they selected school colors.

WAH-HOO-WAH

The origin of "Wah-hoo-wah" is uncertain. The cheer was used to root on Virginia teams as early as 1890 and may have been borrowed from Dartmouth College, whose athletics teams were once known as the Indians.

Legend attributes the yell to Natalie Floyd Otey, who sang the ballad "Where'er You Are, There Shall My Love Be" at Charlottesville's Levy Opera House in 1893. The predominantly student audience noticed that Otey warbled the first three words of the song between each of the stanzas and decided to join in the refrain. By evening's end, goes the legend, the crowd had corrupted "Where'er You Are" into "Wah-hoo-wah."

The Levy Opera House stands at the corner of High Street and Park Street and has since been renovated into an office building.

GAME 1 • UVA 34, RICHMOND 17
Sept. 3 • Charlottesville, Va.

Game Notes

- UVA is 85-39-9 all-time in season openers and has won six-straight for the first time since winning six-consecutive openers from 1927-32.
- Tony Elliott made his head coaching debut and became the second UVA coach since 1965 win in his debut.
- Virginia had two 100-yard rushers – Brennan Armstrong (105 yards) and Perris Jones (104 yards) for the first time since Jordan Ellis (146) and Bryce Perkins (108) in 2018 against Richmond.
- UVA ran the ball 42 times and totaled 259 yards rushing, the most since accumulating 262 yards on 42 attempts against Boston College on Dec. 5, 2020.
- Virginia wore orange pants and orange jerseys for the first time since 2010 against North Carolina.
- Brennan Armstrong broke UVA's career total offense record with a 64-yard touchdown run. He surpassed Shawn Moore (7,987) and Bryce Perkins (7,910) on UVA's all-time list. It was the longest rush of his career and the 6th-longest ever by a UVA quarterback. His previous career long was 60 yards against Boston College in 2020.
- Armstrong rushed for 105 yards, his second 100-yard rushing effort of his career. He ran for 130 yards against Boston College on Dec. 5, 2020.
- Armstrong's 64-yard rushing touchdown was his 15th rushing score of his career, tying him with fellow southpaw Jameel Sewell for the fifth most ever by a UVA quarterback.
- McKale Boley and D'Brickashaw Ferguson are the only two true freshmen in UVA history to start at offensive tackle in the season opener. Only six true freshmen in program history have started a game at offensive tackle – Ferguson (2002 – all 14 games), Brad Butler (2002-1 game), Morgan Moses (2010 – 6 games), Eric Smith (2013 – 8 games), Chris Glaser (2017 – 2 games) and Boley (2022).
- Perris Jones is the first UVA running back with a rushing touchdown and a receiving touchdown in the same game since Wayne Taulapapa at Miami on Sept. 30, 2021. He totaled 104 yards on the ground, the first UVA running back to rush for 100 yards since Jordan Ellis against South Carolina in the 2018 Belk Bowl.

GAME 7 • UVA 16, GEORGIA TECH, 9

Oct. 20 • Atlanta, Ga.

Game Notes

- Virginia improved to 22-21-1 and have won four of the last five against the Yellow Jackets.
- The Cavaliers picked up their first win at Bobby Dodd Stadium since 2008, dropping their previous five decisions.
- It marked only the second time in the 44-games between the two schools that Georgia Tech failed to reach double-digit points (UVA won 24-7 in Atlanta in 1994).
- Virginia picked up its first road win of the season and first victory away from Charlottesville since winning at Louisville on Oct. 9, 2021, a span of five games.
- The Cavaliers accumulated eight sacks, the second-most ever in a game in program history and the most since setting the school record with nine against Duke in 2006. UVA has recorded eight sacks in a game, four times, most recently in 1996 against Wake Forest.
- The eight sacks were the most by an ACC team this season. Including UVA, only seven schools in the country have recorded eight or more sacks in a game this season.
- UVA defense did not allow a first down in the third quarter and held Georgia Tech to 14 total yards in the third quarter on four drives (all 3-and-outs). It forced the Yellow Jackets to go 3-and-out on its first six possessions of the second half.
- The Georgia Tech offense did not score in the second half, the first time a UVA opponent was held scoreless in the second half since blanking Duke in the final 30 minutes last season.
- The UVA defense held the Yellow Jackets to 202 yards of total offense (146 pass/55 rush), the fewest in a game since allowing 183 against William & Mary in 2021 and the fewest allowed to an FBS/ACC opponent since yielding 199 to Pitt in 2013.
- Brennan Armstrong threw his 57th touchdown pass of his career, a 44-yard catch and run by Dontayvion Wicks in the second quarter to break UVA's career touchdown record. He surpassed Matt Schaub who threw for 56 touchdowns from 2000-03.
- Both Schaub and Armstrong broke the UVA career TD record in their 38th game. Schaub broke Shawn Moore's then-record with a 52-yard strike to Heath Miller in the 2003 Continental Tire Bowl against Pitt.
- Atlanta native Nick Jackson finished with a team-high eight tackles, recorded two sacks and recovered a fumble in the contest. It was his first ever multiple sack game and first fumble recovery of his career.
- Jackson moved up to 14th place all-time on UVA's all-time career tackle list and now has 324 in his four seasons as a Cavalier.
- Chico Bennett Jr., a transfer from Georgia Tech, also put together his first multi-outing sack of his career. He leads the team six on the season.
- Wicks had a season-high, 99 yards receiving on four catches. A total of 43 of his yards came after the catch. Wicks had two catches of 20 or more yards the 44-yard TD catch and a 37-yard catch in the third quarter. He has 34 catches of 20 or more yards, the most by any Cavalier receiver since 2000.
