THEY SAID IT

"We've got to defend our turf. Doesn't matter who's coming in here. This is our house, and we've got to be ready to defend it. And I thought the guys took a step forward in that direction."

- Head coach Tony Elliott after Virginia defeated Duke, winning its first home ACC game since 2021.

INSIDE SATURDAY'S MATCHUP

Saturday will be the 104th meeting between Virginia and Virginia Tech. Due to the tragedy on Grounds that claimed the lives of UVA football players Devin Chandler, Lavel Davis Jr. and D'Sean Perry in November 2022, the two teams did not play one another for the first time since 1969.

 The first edition of what is now known as the Commonwealth Clash was first played in 1895, a 38-0 Cavalier victory in Charlottesville.

• Saturday will be UVA's first game against Virginia Tech in the Tony Elliott era. Elliott is looking to become the first UVA coach to defeat Virgina Tech in his first meeting since Sonny Randle in 1972.

Despite putting up their top passing performance in the series history (419 yards), the Cavaliers dropped a 29-24 decision to the Hokies at Scott Stadium in 2021.
 After a 30-27 win over Duke last week Virginia is seeking back-to-back ACC wins for the first time since 2021 then it for a series history (48 40). Virginia when it rattled off four-straight victories, including home wins over Duke (48-0) and Georgia Tech (48-40). Virginia has not closed a season with back-to-back victories since 2003, which featured a 35-21 UVA victory over then-No. 21 Virginia Tech at Scott Stadium.

 Virginia lech at Scott Stadium.
 Virginia boasts the fifth-best passing offense in the ACC at 251.5 yards per game. Virginia Tech boasts the top passing defense in the ACC and the seventh-best in FBS, allowing just 166.5 passing yards per game. UVA has eclipsed the 200-yard passing mark in each of its last 10 games.
 As a team, UVA has produced six-straight 100-yard rushing efforts for the first time since the 2020 season, including 170 yards on the ground against Duke last week. The Cavaliers have squared off against the ACC's top two rushing defenses in the last four weeks - Miami (92.9 rushing yards per game, the 10th highest total in rushing yards allowed per game). The Hokies defense is allowing 158.9 yards per game, the 10th highest total in the league.

The wide receiving tandem has combined for 2,033 yards this season, the third most of any duo in the country and needs 161 combined yards to surpass Dontayvion Wicks and Keytaon Thompson as the most productive single season receiving tandem in program history.

 Seven of UVA's 11 games this season have been decided by one score and the Cavaliers have owned double-digit leads against its opponents in seven of their 11 games this season. UVA is 2-5 in games decided by one score. UVA is 2-8 in the last two seasons in games decided by three points or less. • Six true freshmen, CB Dre Walker, WR Jaden Gibson, QB Anthony Colandrea, WR Suderian Harrison, LB Kam Robinson and S Caleb Hardy, have started games for Virginia this season. A total of 12 true freshmen have seen action this year and 28 Cavaliers have made their collegiate debuts.

NUMBERS TO KNOW

Passing yards Anthony Colandrea has amassed in seven games this season, the most of any true freshman at the power-5 leve.

Receptions needed for Malik Washington to break the ACC's single-season receptions per game record.

Jonas Sanker has 65 solo tackles, the most in the ACC and the fifth most of any defender in the FBS. He needs three tackles to reach 100 total stops for the season and would be the first UVA defensive back since Quin Blanding with 100 or more tackles.

UNIQUELY UVA

The University of Virginia is an institution rich with history and tradition. Here is some of the terminology that contributes to UVA's culture.

Grounds: The term used by students, faculty and alumni to refer to the University dating as far back as Thomas Jefferson. "Campus" is never used.

First Year, Second Year, Third Year, Fourth Year: Instead of freshman, sophomore, junior, senior. Why you may ask? To be a "senior" implies that a person has reached the final phase of learning, a feat that Thomas Jefferson believed to be impossible, arguing instead that education is a life-long process.

Commonwealth: Virginia is one of four constituent states of the United States of America that officially uses the name "Commonwealth" instead of the word state in all references. The other three commonwealths are Kentucky, Massachusetts and Pennsylvania.

UNIVERSITY NICKNAMES

Virginia's athletics teams have been accompanied by a somewhat confusing array of nicknames. The most prominent and widely accepted of these monikers are "Cavaliers," "Wahoos" and "Hoos."

Although the terms "Cavaliers," "Wahoos" and "Hoos" are used almost interchangeably to refer to University teams and players, "Cavaliers" is more often used by the media, while "Wahoos" and "Hoos" are frequently used by Virginia students and fans.

Legend has it that Washington & Lee baseball fans dubbed the Virginia players "Wahoos" during the fiercely contested rivalry that existed between the two in-state schools in the 1890s. By 1940, "Wahoos" was in general use around Grounds to denote University students or events relating to them. The abbreviated "Hoos" sprang up later in student newspapers and has gained growing popularity in recent years.

THE CAVALIER MASCOT

The costumed Cavalier with a large character head debuted during Virginia's 1984 football season and has remained the official mascot of the University.

The first documented Cavalier on horseback was Francis Bell, a Virginia student from Dublin, Va., in 1947. Bell rode onto the field dressed as Cavaliers for Virginia's home football game with Harvard on the afternoon of October 11.

The Cavalier on horseback returned as the University's mascot in 1963. The UVA Polo Club provided both the horse and rider. However, the mounted Cavalier and his horse parted company in 1974 with the inception of AstroTurf at Scott Stadium.

The mounted Cavalier made its return in the Florida Citrus Bowl at the end of the 1989 football season. Due to its instant popularity, the Cavalier on horseback returned the following season on a regular basis and continues to lead the Virginia football team onto the field at the beginning of all home games.

Since 2000, Kim Kirschnick led the Cavaliers out of the tunnel on horseback and retired after the 2021 season finale against Virginia Tech. 2022 marks Julie Caruccio first season as the mounted Cavalier. A former interim dean of students at UVA, Caruccio is the first female in school history to have the mounted Cavalier job on a full-time basis. When the tradition rotated among members of the club polo team until Kirschnick took over in 2000, at least two women – Bess Worrall and Kerry McDaniel – were on horseback for a few games in the early '90s.

UNIVERSITY COLORS

Orange and blue were adopted as the University of Virginia's official athletic colors at a mass student meeting in 1888. UVA athletic teams had previously worn silver gray and cardinal red, but those colors did not stand out on muddy football fields, prompting a student movement to change them.

One of the students attending the mass meeting was Allen Potts, a star athlete who played on Virginia's first football team in 1888. Potts showed up at the meeting wearing a navy blue-and-orange scarf that he had acquired during a summer boating expedition at Oxford University. Orange and blue were chosen as the official athletic colors after one of Potts' fellow students pulled the scarf off Potts' neck and, waving it to the crowd, yelled, "How will this do?" UVA later served as the inspiration for schools like Auburn and Florida when they selected school colors.

WAH-HOO-WAH

The origin of "Wah-hoo-wah" is uncertain. The cheer was used to root on Virginia teams as early as 1890 and may have been borrowed from Dartmouth College, whose athletics teams were once known as the Indians.

Legend attributes the yell to Natalie Floyd Otey, who sang the ballad "Where'er You Are, There Shall My Love Be" at Charlottesville's Levy Opera House in 1893. The predominantly student audience noticed that Otey warbled the first three words of the song between each of the stanzas and decided to join in the refrain. By evening's end, goes the legend, the crowd had corrupted "Where'er You Are" into "Wah-hoo-wah."

The Levy Opera House stands at the corner of High Street and Park Street and has since been renovated into an office building.

If Colandrea starts against Virginia Tech, he'd be the first ever UVA true freshman quarterback to start against the Hokies. Only Don Majkowski (1983), Peter Lalich (2007) and Jay Woolfolk (2021) have attempted a pass as true freshmen against Virginia Tech.

Came in relief of an injured Tony Muskett in the fourth quarter of season opener against then-No. 12 Tennessee. Appeared in his fifth game of the year after Muskett was injured in the first series against Georgia Tech (11/4).

Ranks ninth in the ACC in total passing yards (1,715) and passing touchdowns (11).

Averaging 13.7 yards per completion, does not meet NCAA minimum for games played (75%) but would rank second amongst ACC quarterbacks and 16th in FBS. Colandrea is responsible for eight of Virginia's 11 plays of 40 or more yards.

In his first collegiate start, Colandrea was 20-for-26 with 377 yards and two touchdowns against James Madison, all single-game UVA freshman records at the time. The two touchdown passes matched the school mark held by Jameel Sewell (2006) and Scott Gardner who did it twice in 1972.

His 377-yard passing performance against JMU is the fifth-best of any ACC quarterback this season.

His 75-yard touchdown pass to Kobe Pace on the first play of the second half against JMU was the longest ever by a UVA freshman quarterback (Previous: Todd Kirtley, 73-yard TD pass vs. NC State in 1978). The throw also eclipsed UVA's single-game passing record by a freshman (previous: 243 by Jameel Sewell vs. Maryland in 2006).

LAST MEETING VS VIRGINIA TECH

• Back in 2021, Virginia Tech held off Virginia in the final minute to secure a 29-24 at Scott Stadium. • With 3:05 to play, UVA's defense came up with a takeaway, giving quarterback Brennan Armstrong and the offense a chance to pull out a dramatic win for the home team. The Cavaliers drove to the Hokies' 11-yard line, where they had a first down, but their next two plays netted only 2 yards.

• On third down, Virginia tried a trick play, a lateral pass from Armstrong to tackle Bobby Haskins, who was an eligible receiver. Tech read it perfectly and dropped Haskins for a 5-yard loss. On fourth down, Armstrong's pass to wide receiver Ra'Shaun Henry was broken up in the end zone, and the Hokies celebrated their second straight victory in the series.

• UVA wide receiver Dontayvion Wicks set the then-Virginia single-season receiving yardage record on a 19-yard reception on UVA's second scoring drive in the first quarter. He surpassed Herman Moore's mark of 1,190 yards set back in 1990. Wicks finished with three catches for 55 yards and compiled 1,203 receiving yards in 2021.

On Dec. 10, 2021, Elliott was named the University of Virginia's Fralin Family Head Football Coach. At his introductory press conference, he explained his decision to become the Cavaliers' head coach and what he wants to accomplish in Charlottesville.

"I chose UVA because I wanted to lead a program that was partnered with a university that had world-class academics," he said "I wanted to be able to recruit the best and the brightest student-athletes.

"I wanted to compete in the best conference in college athletics. I wanted to be a part of an alignment with (athletic director) Ms. Carla (Williams) and President (Jim) Ryan that shared a vision that was similar to mine, which is centered around the holistic development of the student-athlete. And lastly, I wanted to be part of a university and athletic department that would not compromise its values to win.

"There is no better place for me than UVA. And there is no better time than now."

With that, Elliott went to work crafting what he had hoped to build for years – The Model Program.

"My vision for the UVA football program is to become the model in college football, the model program in college football," he said. "My goal is to contribute to changing the narrative in college football and demonstrate that you can win at the highest level and you can do so while achieving excellence in education, leadership and service."

Elliott's cornerstones of that culture are based on H.E.A.R.T.- humility, effort, accountability, respect and toughness.

"I think that building a championship culture starts with making sure that you have alignment and a vision," he said. "You clearly state the vision and you are particular in the people that you bring in and make sure that they align with the vision, and then you stay grounded to the principles that you set in place for the players and the staff, and you go to work every single day, and you keep an inside-out mentality. It's one day at a time, and eventually that will bring your championship culture to life."

Elliott's background and coaching pedigree is rich with championship experiences.

He spent 11 seasons as an assistant on Dabo Swinney's staff at Clemson. In January of 2021, he was named the program's assistant head coach and offensive coordinator. He previously served as the team's co-offensive coordinator (2014-20) and the team's running backs coach (2011-20).

At Clemson, Elliott was a part of a 10-season stretch in which the Tigers won 10 or more games. In that span, Clemson won six Atlantic Coast Conference Championships, made four appearances in the College Football Playoff National Championship game and captured national titles in 2016 and 2018.

After Elliott's promotion to co-offensive coordinator prior to the 2014 Russell Athletic Bowl, the Tigers posted an 89-10 record and ranked in the top 12 nationally in total offense. Clemson either led or ranked No. 2 in the ACC in total offense in five of his seven seasons as an offensive coordinator. Elliott's 2018 and 2019 offenses were responsible for two of the 22 650-point seasons in major college football history.

Elliott was named the Frank Broyles Award recipient as the nation's top assistant coach in 2017. Before transitioning to the tight ends room this year, Elliott was in charge of Clemson's running backs for his first 10 seasons. In that time, he guided Clemson running back Travis Etienne to one of the most illustrious careers in ACC and college football history, helping him set the NCAA record for most games scoring a touchdown (46) and secure ACC records for career rushing yards (4,952), total touchdowns (78), rushing touchdowns (70) and points (468).

As the program's offensive coordinator, Elliott worked with two first-round draft picks at quarterback, including the 2021 first overall pick Trevor Lawrence. From 2015-2020, a Clemson offensive player took home both the ACC's Player of the Year and Offensive Player of the Year awards four times.

Prior to returning to his alma mater, Elliott spent three seasons at Furman (2008-10) and two at South Carolina State (2006-07) coaching wide receivers at both schools. Prior to his coaching career he worked for Michelin North America for two years.

In 2002, Elliott earned his undergraduate degree in industrial engineering from Clemson, where he was a first-team Academic All-ACC selection as well as a CoSIDA Academic District III member. He was also a recipient of an ACC Weaver-James-Corrigan Postgraduate Scholarship.

Under Tommy Bowden, he came to Clemson as a walk-on wide receiver in the fall of 1999 and finished his career with four letters and appeared in 44 games. Swinney was his position coach his senior year (2003) in which he was named a co-captain of a team that finished with a 9-4 record and a No. 22 final ranking by AP and USA Today.

Oct. 28 • Miami Gardens, Fla.

Game Notes

• Virginia dropped to 8-13 all-time against Miami. The Hurricanes have won eight of the 11 regular season meetings against UVA in Miami.

Virginia rushed for 138 yards, only the second team this season (North Carolina - 238) to eclipse the 100-yard rushing mark against Miami. The Hurricanes came into the game allowing 79.6 rush yards per game, the fewest of any ACC team.

 Miami totaled 276 yards of total offense, their lowest output of the 2023 season.
 Saturday marked the 13th overtime game in UVA history and the second-straight against Miami. UVA is 4-9 all-time in overtime games and 0-3 in overtime games against the Hurricanes (2022 - 12-14; 2008 - 17-24).

• Virginia was not penalized in the game, the first time UVA went without committing a penalty since 2016 against Richmond.

•The last three matchups against Miami have been decided by three or less points.

 Saturday marked the fifth game this season UVA held a double-digit lead and drops to 1-4 in those contests. The Cavaliers were up 10-0 with 8:46 remaining in the second quarter.
 Four of Virginia's six losses this season have come by three or less points.

• Malik Washington matched his career-high with 12 catches and totaled 152 receiving yards in the contest. He extended his consecutive games with a reception streak to 33.

Washington has recorded 100 or more yards in a game in six of the eight games this season. He tied Germane Crowell (6 in 1997) and Dontayvion Wicks (6 in 2021) for the most 100-yard games in a season in UVA history.

Washington has put together three-straight 100-yard games (112 vs. W&M; 115 vs. North Carolina; 152 vs. Miami) for the second-time this season. He's the only player ever at UVA to have three-straight 100-yard games twice in one season.

• Malik Washington's 64-yard catch and run in the second quarter tied a career-long reception and was the second-longest play from scrimmage this season for Virginia. Washington had a 64-yard reception against Rutgers last season while playing for Northwestern.

• Mike Hollins rushed for two touchdowns, his third multi-touchdown game of the season. His seven rushing touchdowns this season are the most by a Cavalier since Brennan Armstrong's nine in 2021 and the most by a UVA running back since Wayne Taulapapa rushed for 12 in 2019.

True freshman Kam Robinson co-led the Cavaliers with nine tackles (seven solo) and was credited with his first career interception. The turnover led to UVA's second touchdown of the game and put UVA up 20-17. A linebacker has recorded three of UVA's six interceptions this season.
 Kicker Will Bettridge made all four of his field goal tries (22, 23, 32 & 35). He has made 12-straight field goals. The four field goals matched a career-high established against Miami last year.

• Sam Westfall was credited with his first career interception, picking off Tyler Van Dyke to stall a first quarter Miami drive. It was Westfall's 33rd career collegiate game.
