INSIDE SATURDAY'S MATCHUP

- Saturday will be the 129th meeting between Virginia and North Carolina, dubbed as the "South's Oldest Rivalry".
- It is tied with Georgia-Auburn as the second-most played rivalry in all of FBS behind Wisconsin-Minnesota (133 meetings).
- The series was first played on Oct. 22, 1892, a 30-18 Virginia victory in Charlottesville.
- UVA and UNC have met every season since 1919 and there have been only four seasons since 1900 when they did not meet (1906, 1909 and 1917-18, when football was postponed at both schools due to World War I).
- Virginia won 17 of the first 22 meetings between 1892-1915.
- Sitting President of the United States Calvin Coolidge attended the 1928 meeting on Thanksgiving Day in Charlottesville at Lambeth Field.
- The Cavaliers and Tar Heels have split the series 23-23 at Scott Stadium.
- UVA has won five of the last seven meetings against Carolina and is 59-65-4 against the Tar Heels all-time. Note: Both teams count the 1956 meeting as a win. The game was forfeited by UNC due to the use of an ineligible player.
- Despite losses to Maryland, Louisville and Clemson, Virginia has held a lead in every contest this season, including a 20-17 fourth quarter edge over Louisville. UVA's early 7-3 advantage against Clemson in the second quarter was the first by UVA against the Tigers since 2004, a span of five games. Virginia's 31 points scored at Clemson are its second-most ever against the Tigers in 50 all-time meetings, and most since 1966.
- With an overall record of 4-3 on the season, UVA is looking to hit the five-win mark for the first time since 2020.
- Virginia is in search of its third ACC win and third home win of the season, which would be the most in both categories under Tony Elliott and most since 2021.

TOP STORYLINES

- In last season's meeting against North Carolina, the Cavaliers claimed their first-ever road win over a top-10 opponent after defeating the tenth-ranked Tar Heels, 31-27. Entering last year's contest, UVA was 0-30 all-time against top-10 foes on the road.
- The Hoos are set to square off against the ACC's leading rusher Omarion Hampton, who has rushed for at least 100 yards in all but one game this season and is 99 yards from reaching 1,000 rushing yards this season. UVA has allowed only one 100-yard rusher in 2024, Louisville's Isaac Brown.
- Virginia wideout Andre Greene Jr. is in his first season with the Cavaliers after transferring from North Carolina. UNC freshman kicker Lucas Osada is from Charlottesville and attended Woodberry Forest School. Among the seven Virginia natives on UNC's roster is offensive lineman Zach Rice, who attended Liberty Christian Academy in Lynchburg alongside UVA's Davis Lane Jr., a quarterback at the prep level.
- UVA's remaining schedule includes three matchups with foes ranked in this week's AP top-25 poll, No. 19 Pitt (Nov. 9), No. 12 Notre Dame (Nov. 16) and No. 22 SMU (Nov. 23). Including today's matchup, UVA's remaining opponents have a combined winning percentage of .643 (27-15), the third highest among all ACC teams and 18th in FBS.

UNIQUELY UVA

The University of Virginia is an institution rich with history and tradition. Here is some of the terminology that contributes to UVA's culture.

Grounds: The term used by students, faculty and alumni to refer to the University dating as far back as Thomas Jefferson. "Campus" is never used.

First Year, Second Year, Third Year, Fourth Year: Instead of freshman, sophomore, junior, senior. Why you may ask? To be a "senior" implies that a person has reached the final phase of learning, a feat that Thomas Jefferson believed to be impossible, arguing instead that education is a life-long process.

Commonwealth: Virginia is one of four constituent states of the United States of America that officially uses the name "Commonwealth" instead of the word state in all references. The other three commonwealths are Kentucky, Massachusetts and Pennsylvania.

UNIVERSITY NICKNAMES

Virginia's athletics teams have been accompanied by a somewhat confusing array of nicknames. The most prominent and widely accepted of these monikers are "Cavaliers," "Wahoos" and "Hoos."

Although the terms "Cavaliers," "Wahoos" and "Hoos" are used almost interchangeably to refer to University teams and players, "Cavaliers" is more often used by the media, while "Wahoos" and "Hoos" are frequently used by Virginia students and fans.

Legend has it that Washington & Lee baseball fans dubbed the Virginia players "Wahoos" during the fiercely contested rivalry that existed between the two in-state schools in the 1890s. By 1940, "Wahoos" was in general use around Grounds to denote University students or events relating to them. The abbreviated "Hoos" sprang up later in student newspapers and has gained growing popularity in recent years.

THE CAVALIER MASCOT

The costumed Cavalier with a large character head debuted during Virginia's 1984 football season and has remained the official mascot of the University.

The first documented Cavalier on horseback was Francis Bell, a Virginia student from Dublin, Va., in 1947. Bell rode onto the field dressed as Cavaliers for Virginia's home football game with Harvard on the afternoon of October 11.

The Cavalier on horseback returned as the University's mascot in 1963. The UVA Polo Club provided both the horse and rider. However, the mounted Cavalier and his horse parted company in 1974 with the inception of AstroTurf at Scott Stadium.

The mounted Cavalier made its return in the Florida Citrus Bowl at the end of the 1989 football season. Due to its instant popularity, the Cavalier on horseback returned the following season on a regular basis and continues to lead the Virginia football team onto the field at the beginning of all home games.

Since 2000, Kim Kirschnick led the Cavaliers out of the tunnel on horseback and retired after the 2021 season finale against Virginia Tech. 2022 marks Julie Caruccio first season as the mounted Cavalier. A former interim dean of students at UVA, Caruccio is the first female in school history to have the mounted Cavalier job on a full-time basis. When the tradition rotated among members of the club polo team until Kirschnick took over in 2000, at least two women - Bess Worrall and Kerry McDaniel - were on horseback for a few games in the early '90s.

UNIVERSITY COLORS

Orange and blue were adopted as the University of Virginia's official athletic colors at a mass student meeting in 1888. UVA athletic teams had previously worn silver gray and cardinal red, but those colors did not stand out on muddy football fields, prompting a student movement to change them.

One of the students attending the mass meeting was Allen Potts, a star athlete who played on Virginia's first football team in 1888. Potts showed up at the meeting wearing a navy blue-and-orange scarf that he had acquired during a summer boating expedition at Oxford University. Orange and blue were chosen as the official athletic colors after one of Potts' fellow students pulled the scarf off Potts' neck and, waving it to the crowd, yelled, "How will this do?" UVA later served as the inspiration for schools like Auburn and Florida when they selected school colors.

WAH-HOO-WA

The origin of "Wah-hoo-wa" is uncertain. The cheer was used to root on Virginia teams as early as 1890 and may have been borrowed from Dartmouth College, whose athletics teams were once known as the Indians.

Legend attributes the yell to Natalie Floyd Otey, who sang the ballad "Where'er You Are, There Shall My Love Be" at Charlottesville's Levy Opera House in 1893. The predominantly student audience noticed that Otey warbled the first three words of the song between each of the stanzas and decided to join in the refrain. By evening's end, goes the legend, the crowd had corrupted "Where'er You Are" into "Wah-hoo-wah."

The Levy Opera House stands at the corner of High Street and Park Street and has since been renovated into an office building.

- The Charlottesville native has scored touchdowns in three of UVA's last four games, including when he caught two touchdown passes at Coastal Carolina.
- In Virginia's seven games this season, Fields has 40 receptions for 606 yards. Both his 5.7 receptions-per-game and 86.6 receiving-yards-per-game averages are good for third in the ACC.

- With reserve quarterback Grady Brosterhaus under center, UVA often calls upon this package in short-yardage situations.
- The older brother of UVA offensive lineman Blake Steen, Tyler Steen, is currently a member of the Philadelphia Eagles and provided the UVA coaching staff with tips on how the Eagles like to execute the 'tush push.'

GRADY BROSTERHAUS RUSHES

- Grady Brosterhaus leads UVA in rushing touchdowns (4).
- Of his 10 rushes this season, Brosterhaus has either picked up a first down or scored a touchdown seven times.

- The duo are arguably the best in the ACC at their respective positions.
- Fields set career highs in receiving yards in his first two games of the 2024 season against Richmond (100) and Wake Forest (148). In 2023, Fields caught 58 passes, including five touchdowns, for 811 yards.
- Sanker was a First Team All-ACC selection in 2023 after starting in all 12 possible games and leading the Hoos in total tackles (107), pass breakups (11) and forced fumbles (3). He was named ACC Defensive Back of the Week in consecutive weeks (Oct. 7 & 14).

- Entering 2024, UVA's projected starting defense had combined for 343 games played and 231 starts, including Kam Butler (44) and Kempton Shine (40).

- Cornerback Kempton Shine, who transferred to UVA this offseason, entered the 2024 season with 25 consecutive starts.

IN GOOD HANDS

- Virginia is one of 14 schools with a female athletic trainer as its primary care provider for the football program. Associate Athletics Director for Sports Medicine, Kelli Pugh, has worked closely with the UVA football program since 2002.
- Of those 14 female athletic trainers, Pugh is one of four working at Power-4 institutions.

TYLER NEVILLE'S INSPIRATIONAL STORY

- Virginia tight end Tyler Neville, who transferred to UVA this offseason after playing three seasons at Harvard, has overcome an unconscionable number of medical obstacles dating back to the day he was born.
- Born without hearing, ear tube surgery was the first of more than 20 surgeries, including Pectus-Excavatum, Septoplasty and a dozen ear tube surgeries, before Neville's 18th birthday.
- Despite the many medical challenges Neville overcame, it was the cancer diagnosis (Hodgkin lymphoma) in the fall of 2016 that really knocked the wind out of him.
- Due to his Pectus-Excavatum condition and surgery in which a metal rod was inserted into his chest, radiation treatment was not an option. As a freshman in high school Neville was forced to undergo chemotherapy beginning in the fall of 2016, but after fourth months of chemo treatment was declared cancer free - and without missing a single football or basketball practice.
- To read more on Neville's story, visit tylervillefoundation.com/tyler-s-story.

THE RETURN OF ANTONIO CLARY

- Safety Antonio Clary opted to return to Virginia in 2024 for his sixth year of college (fifth playing season) after missing the 2023 season due to an ankle injury.
- Clary led the Hoos in tackles in their first four games of the 2024 season.
- As of Oct. 12, Clary is second in the ACC and tied for 13th nationally in tackles per game (9.6).
- He exited the BC game (10/5) due to injury and missed the Cavaliers' following game against Louisville (10/12).
- In UVA's 31-30 comeback victory over Wake Forest (9/7), Clary recovered a fumble with 1:24 to effectively seal the win.
- He is the team's only two-time UVA graduate, having earned his bachelor's degree in history with a minor in African & American Studies in 2022 and master's degree in Educational Psychology.

HARDIE FOOTBALL OPERATIONS CENTER

- This past summer, Virginia Athletics proudly opened the 93,000-square-foot Molly and Robert Hardie Football Operations Center, which conveniently sits adjacent to the team's George Welsh Indoor Practice Facility and outdoor practice fields.
- The state-of-the-art space encompasses: the team locker, players' lounge and 96-person dining space, 14,000-square-foot strength and condition space with over 150,000 lbs of weight-lifting equipment, cardio mezzanine, 195-seat team meeting space, tiered-seating meeting spaces for each position group, and coaches' offices.
- The exterior of the Hardie Center displays a classic yet chic design and is enclosed by red brick, which is synonymous with the architectural style of the University's most prominent edifices across Grounds such as The Rotunda.
- Of the Hardie Center, Fralin Family Football head coach Tony Elliott said, "I wanted the building to be timeless. I wanted to capture all different eras, to be contemporary enough to show the flash and the glitz and glamor as an area for certain recruits, but then also pay homage to all the guys that didn't have an opportunity to walk through those doors today but laid the foundation for Virginia football."

SIGNIFICANT UPGRADES TO SCOTT STADIUM

- This past year the Cavaliers' home venue, Scott Stadium, underwent one of the most significant transformations since it debuted in 1931.
- A 6,700-square-foot videoboard, the Ramon W. Breeden Jr. Videoboard, was constructed along with an accompanying custom-point audio system.
- The new videoboard replaced the previous 'Hoo Vision' board, which was installed in 2009, and elevates Virginia into the upper echelon of college football in this space.
- Other fan experience refinements include the addition of new access points to The Hill behind the north end zone to enhance fan safety and manage capacity, expanded concession options, and additional free shuttles to and from Scott Stadium.

CARLA WILLIAMS ON CFP COMMITTEE

- On Feb. 8, 2024, Virginia Director of Athletics Carla Williams was named to the College Football Playoff (CFP) Management Committee.
- As a new member, Williams began a three-year term beginning in the spring of 2024.
- “Carla is an outstanding advocate for college football and will be a knowledgeable, passionate and valuable member of the College Football Playoff Selection Committee,” said ACC Commissioner Jim Phillips. “Throughout her time at Virginia as well as her entire career, Carla has consistently shown to be a tremendous leader.”
- Williams is in her seventh year as director of athletics at Virginia. During her time in Charlottesville, UVA teams have captured multiple national titles across numerous sports, including the 2019 men’s basketball title, 2019 and 2021 men’s lacrosse titles, three straight women’s swimming and diving championships from 2021-23, and the 2022 and 2023 men’s tennis team titles. In addition, UVA has won 17 ACC Championships.
- Williams was a three-year starter and All-SEC guard for the Georgia women’s basketball team from 1987-89. Williams then served as an assistant coach for the team before moving into administration as UGA’s assistant director of compliance for a year before taking administrative roles at Florida State and Vanderbilt.

Tony Elliott, a patient man, was looking for the right fit when it came time for him to leave the assistant coaching ranks and take on the responsibility of running a collegiate football program as the head coach. During his 11-year tenure at Clemson, his alma mater, several opportunities presented themselves, but it was not until Virginia came calling that he felt the setting was right for what he wants to accomplish.

On Dec. 10, 2021, Elliott was named the University of Virginia's Fralin Family Head Football Coach. At his introductory press conference, he explained his decision to become the Cavaliers' head coach and what he wants to accomplish in Charlottesville.

"I chose UVA because I wanted to lead a program that was partnered with a university that had world-class academics," he said "I wanted to be able to recruit the best and the brightest student-athletes.

"I wanted to compete in the best conference in college athletics. I wanted to be a part of an alignment with (athletic director) Ms. Carla (Williams) and President (Jim) Ryan that shared a vision that was similar to mine, which is centered around the holistic development of the student-athlete. And lastly, I wanted to be part of a university and athletic department that would not compromise its values to win.

"There is no better place for me than UVA. And there is no better time than now."

With that, Elliott went to work crafting what he had hoped to build for years - The Model Program.

"My vision for the UVA football program is to become the model in college football, the model program in college football," he said. "My goal is to contribute to changing the narrative in college football and demonstrate that you can win at the highest level and you can do so while achieving excellence in education, leadership and service."

Elliott's cornerstones of that culture are based on H.E.A.R.T.- humility, effort, accountability, respect and toughness.

"I think that building a championship culture starts with making sure that you have alignment and a vision," he said. "You clearly state the vision and you are particular in the people that you bring in and make sure that they align with the vision, and then you stay grounded to the principles that you set in place for the players and the staff, and you go to work every single day, and you keep an inside-out mentality. It's one day at a time, and eventually that will bring your championship culture to life."

Elliott's background and coaching pedigree is rich with championship experiences.

He spent 11 seasons as an assistant on Dabo Swinney's staff at Clemson. In January of 2021, he was named the program's assistant head coach and offensive coordinator. He previously served as the team's co-offensive coordinator (2014-20) and the team's running backs coach (2011-20).

At Clemson, Elliott was a part of a 10-season stretch in which the Tigers won 10 or more games. In that span, Clemson won six Atlantic Coast Conference Championships, made four appearances in the College Football Playoff National Championship game and captured national titles in 2016 and 2018.

After Elliott's promotion to co-offensive coordinator prior to the 2014 Russell Athletic Bowl, the Tigers posted an 89-10 record and ranked in the top 12 nationally in total offense. Clemson either led or ranked No. 2 in the ACC in total offense in five of his seven seasons as an offensive coordinator. Elliott's 2018 and 2019 offenses were responsible for two of the 22 650-point seasons in major college football history.

Elliott was named the Frank Broyles Award recipient as the nation's top assistant coach in 2017. Before transitioning to the tight ends room this year, Elliott was in charge of Clemson's running backs for his first 10 seasons. In that time, he guided Clemson running back Travis Etienne to one of the most illustrious careers in ACC and college football history, helping him set the NCAA record for most games scoring a touchdown (46) and secure ACC records for career rushing yards (4,952), total touchdowns (78), rushing touchdowns (70) and points (468).

As the program's offensive coordinator, Elliott worked with two first-round draft picks at quarterback, including the 2021 first overall pick Trevor Lawrence. From 2015-2020, a Clemson offensive player took home both the ACC's Player of the Year and Offensive Player of the Year awards four times.

Prior to returning to his alma mater, Elliott spent three seasons at Furman (2008-10) and two at South Carolina State (2006-07) coaching wide receivers at both schools. Prior to his coaching career he worked for Michelin North America for two years.

In 2002, Elliott earned his undergraduate degree in industrial engineering from Clemson, where he was a first-team Academic All-ACC selection as well as a CoSIDA Academic District III member. He was also a recipient of an ACC Weaver-James-Corrigan Postgraduate Scholarship.

Under Tommy Bowden, he came to Clemson as a walk-on wide receiver in the fall of 1999 and finished his career with four letters and appeared in 44 games. Swinney was his position coach his senior year (2003) in which he was named a co-captain of a team that finished with a 9-4 record and a No. 22 final ranking by AP and USA Today.

SCOTT STADIUM, HOME OF THE CAVALIERS

- The Carl Smith Center, home of David A. Harrison III Field at Scott Stadium, with its unique architectural design, scenic setting on the University's Grounds and exceptional sight lines, is one of the nation's finest college football settings.
- Opened in 1931, Scott Stadium might be one of the oldest campus college football stadiums in the nation, but you could never tell from its appearance. Numerous upgrades and expansions make it a modern home for the Cavaliers and their fans.
- Scott Stadium was the gift of Frederic William Scott and Elisabeth Strother Scott, and was dedicated to the memory of his parents, Frederic Robert Scott and Frances Branch Scott.
- Virginia played its dedication game at Scott Stadium on Oct. 15, 1931 against the Virginia Military Institute before a then-capacity crowd of 22,000. Prior to that season, the Cavaliers staged their home games at the University's Lambeth Field.
- Virginia has played 490 games in the historic venue. UVA's all-time record at Scott Stadium stands at 284-194-12.
