INSIDE SATURDAY'S MATCHUP

- The Virginia-Pitt showdown Saturday night marks the 15th meeting in the all-time series that was first contested in 1953.
- The Panthers have won 10 of the 14 meetings and claimed seven of the nine games as members of the ACC (since 2013).
- Virginia's lone win on the road against Pitt came in the season opener of the 2019 season, a 30-14 triumph in which UVA scored the final 17 points and pitched a second-half shutout.
- Saturday will also mark the Hoos' 11th game in an NFL stadium since the start of 2018 season. UVA is 3-7 in such contests. Virginia's last win at an NFL stadium came in 2021 at Hard Rock Stadium over Miami.
- The Cavaliers play their third night game of the season and second on the road. UVA is 2-1 in night games this season and has won three of its last five night games dating back to 2023. UVA is 3-2 all-time against the Panthers in night games.
- Pitt, which enters Saturday as the No. 23 team in the country, is UVA's second AP top-25 team in the last three games. Three of UVA's final four opponents are currently ranked inside the top-25 (No. 23 Pitt, No. 10 Notre Dame & No. 13 SMU).
- The combined win percentage of UVA's final four opponents (.794) is tied for the fourth-highest in all of FBS.
- Despite losses to Maryland, Louisville Clemson and North Carolina, Virginia has held a lead in every contest this season, including a 20-17 fourth-quarter edge against Louisville. UVA's early 7-3 advantage against Clemson in the second quarter was the first by UVA against the Tigers since 2004, a span of five games. Virginia's 31 points in the contest are the second-most ever against Clemson in 50 all-time meetings and most since 1966.
- At 4-4 on the season, UVA is looking to hit the 5-win mark for the first time since 2020.
- Virginia is also seeking its third road win of the year, which would be the most in a single season since 2011.

TOP STORYLINES

- The Cavaliers are coming off their second bye week of the season. The 2024 schedule is perfectly cut into thirds by the two bye weeks. UVA went 3-1 in its first stretch and 1-3 in its second. The Cavaliers need two wins in their final four games of the season to become bowl eligible for the first time since 2021.
- Virginia is 3-0 under Tony Elliott coming off a bye week, including last year's victory over then-No. 10 North Carolina in Chapel Hill.
- The Cavaliers have been flagged for 40 penalties (5.0 per game), the second-fewest of any team in the ACC. On the opposite side of the ball, Pitt has committed 489 yards worth of penalties, the fourth-most of any team in the league.
- Malachi Fields is currently sits in 12th place on UVA's career receiving yards list. His 1,695 career receiving yards are eight yards shy of Heath Miller (2002-04), who finished his career with 1,703. Fields' 117 career receptions are three shy of Dane Sullivan (1970-72) for the 15th most in program history.

UNIQUELY UVA

The University of Virginia is an institution rich with history and tradition. Here is some of the terminology that contributes to UVA's culture.

Grounds: The term used by students, faculty and alumni to refer to the University dating as far back as Thomas Jefferson. "Campus" is never used.

First Year, Second Year, Third Year, Fourth Year: Instead of freshman, sophomore, junior, senior. Why you may ask? To be a "senior" implies that a person has reached the final phase of learning, a feat that Thomas Jefferson believed to be impossible, arguing instead that education is a life-long process.

Commonwealth: Virginia is one of four constituent states of the United States of America that officially uses the name "Commonwealth" instead of the word state in all references. The other three commonwealths are Kentucky, Massachusetts and Pennsylvania.

UNIVERSITY NICKNAMES

Virginia's athletics teams have been accompanied by a somewhat confusing array of nicknames. The most prominent and widely accepted of these monikers are "Cavaliers," "Wahoos" and "Hoos."

Although the terms "Cavaliers," "Wahoos" and "Hoos" are used almost interchangeably to refer to University teams and players, "Cavaliers" is more often used by the media, while "Wahoos" and "Hoos" are frequently used by Virginia students and fans.

Legend has it that Washington & Lee baseball fans dubbed the Virginia players "Wahoos" during the fiercely contested rivalry that existed between the two in-state schools in the 1890s. By 1940, "Wahoos" was in general use around Grounds to denote University students or events relating to them. The abbreviated "Hoos" sprang up later in student newspapers and has gained growing popularity in recent years.

THE CAVALIER MASCOT

The costumed Cavalier with a large character head debuted during Virginia's 1984 football season and has remained the official mascot of the University.

The first documented Cavalier on horseback was Francis Bell, a Virginia student from Dublin, Va., in 1947. Bell rode onto the field dressed as Cavaliers for Virginia's home football game with Harvard on the afternoon of October 11.

The Cavalier on horseback returned as the University's mascot in 1963. The UVA Polo Club provided both the horse and rider. However, the mounted Cavalier and his horse parted company in 1974 with the inception of AstroTurf at Scott Stadium.

The mounted Cavalier made its return in the Florida Citrus Bowl at the end of the 1989 football season. Due to its instant popularity, the Cavalier on horseback returned the following season on a regular basis and continues to lead the Virginia football team onto the field at the beginning of all home games.

Since 2000, Kim Kirschnick led the Cavaliers out of the tunnel on horseback and retired after the 2021 season finale against Virginia Tech. 2022 marks Julie Caruccio first season as the mounted Cavalier. A former interim dean of students at UVA, Caruccio is the first female in school history to have the mounted Cavalier job on a full-time basis. When the tradition rotated among members of the club polo team until Kirschnick took over in 2000, at least two women - Bess Worrall and Kerry McDaniel - were on horseback for a few games in the early '90s.

UNIVERSITY COLORS

Orange and blue were adopted as the University of Virginia's official athletic colors at a mass student meeting in 1888. UVA athletic teams had previously worn silver gray and cardinal red, but those colors did not stand out on muddy football fields, prompting a student movement to change them.

One of the students attending the mass meeting was Allen Potts, a star athlete who played on Virginia's first football team in 1888. Potts showed up at the meeting wearing a navy blue-and-orange scarf that he had acquired during a summer boating expedition at Oxford University. Orange and blue were chosen as the official athletic colors after one of Potts' fellow students pulled the scarf off Potts' neck and, waving it to the crowd, yelled, "How will this do?" UVA later served as the inspiration for schools like Auburn and Florida when they selected school colors.

WAH-HOO-WA

The origin of "Wah-hoo-wa" is uncertain. The cheer was used to root on Virginia teams as early as 1890 and may have been borrowed from Dartmouth College, whose athletics teams were once known as the Indians.

Legend attributes the yell to Natalie Floyd Otey, who sang the ballad "Where'er You Are, There Shall My Love Be" at Charlottesville's Levy Opera House in 1893. The predominantly student audience noticed that Otey warbled the first three words of the song between each of the stanzas and decided to join in the refrain. By evening's end, goes the legend, the crowd had corrupted "Where'er You Are" into "Wah-hoo-wah."

The Levy Opera House stands at the corner of High Street and Park Street and has since been renovated into an office building.

- Sanker's 11-tackle effort marked his third of the season and sixth in his last 10 games dating back to last year.
- He also combined for a tackle for loss and added a pass break-up against the Cardinals. Sanker and the UVA defense held Louisville, the nation's 13th-best passing offense (303 ypg), to season lows in both points scored (24) and passing yards (231).

HOOS' EXPERIENCE ON DEFENSE

- Virginia has one of the most experienced defenses in the country.
- Entering 2024, UVA's projected starting defense had combined for 343 games played and 231 starts, including Kam Butler (44) and Kempton Shine (40).
- Virginia's projected defensive starters entered 2024 with an average of 31.2 career games played and 21.0 starts.
- Cornerback Kempton Shine, who transferred to UVA this offseason, entered the 2024 season with 25 consecutive starts.

IN GOOD HANDS

- Virginia is one of 14 schools with a female athletic trainer as its primary care provider for the football program. Associate Athletics Director for Sports Medicine, Kelli Pugh, has worked closely with the UVA football program since 2002.
- Of those 14 female athletic trainers, Pugh is one of four working at Power-4 institutions.

TYLER NEVILLE'S INSPIRATIONAL STORY

- Virginia tight end Tyler Neville, who transferred to UVA this offseason after playing three seasons at Harvard, has overcome an unconscionable number of medical obstacles dating back to the day he was born.
- Born without hearing, ear tube surgery was the first of more than 20 surgeries, including Pectus-Excavatum, Septoplasty and a dozen ear tube surgeries, before Neville's 18th birthday.
- Despite the many medical challenges Neville overcame, it was the cancer diagnosis (Hodgkin lymphoma) in the fall of 2016 that really knocked the wind out of him.
- Due to his Pectus-Excavatum condition and surgery in which a metal rod was inserted into his chest, radiation treatment was not an option. As a freshman in high school Neville was forced to undergo chemotherapy beginning in the fall of 2016, but after four months of chemo treatment was declared cancer free - and without missing a single football or basketball practice.
- To read more on Neville's story, visit tylernevillefoundation.com/tyler-s-story.

THE RETURN OF ANTONIO CLARY

- Safety Antonio Clary opted to return to Virginia in 2024 for his sixth year of college (fifth playing season) after missing the 2023 season due to an ankle injury.
- Clary led the Hoos in tackles in their first four games of the 2024 season.
- As of Oct. 12, Clary is second in the ACC and tied for 13th nationally in tackles per game (9.6).
- He exited the BC game (10/5) due to injury and missed the Cavaliers' following game against Louisville (10/12).
- In UVA's 31-30 comeback victory over Wake Forest (9/7), Clary recovered a fumble with 1:24 to effectively seal the win.
- He is the team's only two-time UVA graduate, having earned his bachelor's degree in history with a minor in African & American Studies in 2022 and master's degree in Educational Psychology.

HARDIE FOOTBALL OPERATIONS CENTER

- This past summer, Virginia Athletics proudly opened the 93,000-square-foot Molly and Robert Hardie Football Operations Center, which conveniently sits adjacent to the team's George Welsh Indoor Practice Facility and outdoor practice fields.
- The state-of-the-art space encompasses: the team locker, players' lounge and 96-person dining space, 14,000-square-foot strength and condition space with over 150,000 lbs of weight-lifting equipment, cardio mezzanine, 195-seat team meeting space, tiered-seating meeting spaces for each position group, and coaches' offices.
- The exterior of the Hardie Center displays a classic yet chic design and is enclosed by red brick, which is synonymous with the architectural style of the University's most prominent edifices across Grounds such as The Rotunda.

- Of the Hardie Center, Fralin Family Football head coach Tony Elliott said, "I wanted the building to be timeless. I wanted to capture all different eras, to be contemporary enough to show the flash and the glitz and glamor as an area for certain recruits, but then also pay homage to all the guys that didn't have an opportunity to walk through those doors today but laid the foundation for Virginia football."

SIGNIFICANT UPGRADES TO SCOTT STADIUM

- This past year the Cavaliers' home venue, Scott Stadium, underwent one of the most significant transformations since it debuted in 1931.
- A 6,700-square-foot videoboard, the Ramon W. Breeden Jr. Videoboard, was constructed along with an accompanying custom-point audio system.
- The new videoboard replaced the previous 'Hoo Vision' board, which was installed in 2009, and elevates Virginia into the upper echelon of college football in this space.
- Other fan experience refinements include the addition of new access points to The Hill behind the north end zone to enhance fan safety and manage capacity, expanded concession options, and additional free shuttles to and from Scott Stadium.

CARLA WILLIAMS ON CFP COMMITTEE

- On Feb. 8, 2024, Virginia Director of Athletics Carla Williams was named to the College Football Playoff (CFP) Management Committee.
- As a new member, Williams began a three-year term beginning in the spring of 2024.
- "Carla is an outstanding advocate for college football and will be a knowledgeable, passionate and valuable member of the College Football Playoff Selection Committee," said ACC Commissioner Jim Phillips. "Throughout her time at Virginia as well as her entire career, Carla has consistently shown to be a tremendous leader."
- Williams is in her seventh year as director of athletics at Virginia. During her time in Charlottesville, UVA teams have captured multiple national titles across numerous sports, including the 2019 men's basketball title, 2019 and 2021 men's lacrosse titles, three straight women's swimming and diving championships from 2021-23, and the 2022 and 2023 men's tennis team titles. In addition, UVA has won 17 ACC Championships.
- Williams was a three-year starter and All-SEC guard for the Georgia women's basketball team from 1987-89. Williams then served as an assistant coach for the team before moving into administration as UGA's assistant director of compliance for a year before taking administrative roles at Florida State and Vanderbilt.

Tony Elliott, a patient man, was looking for the right fit when it came time for him to leave the assistant coaching ranks and take on the responsibility of running a collegiate football program as the head coach. During his 11-year tenure at Clemson, his alma mater, several opportunities presented themselves, but it was not until Virginia came calling that he felt the setting was right for what he wants to accomplish.

On Dec. 10, 2021, Elliott was named the University of Virginia's Fralin Family Head Football Coach. At his introductory press conference, he explained his decision to become the Cavaliers' head coach and what he wants to accomplish in Charlottesville.

"I chose UVA because I wanted to lead a program that was partnered with a university that had world-class academics," he said "I wanted to be able to recruit the best and the brightest student-athletes.

"I wanted to compete in the best conference in college athletics. I wanted to be a part of an alignment with (athletic director) Ms. Carla (Williams) and President (Jim) Ryan that shared a vision that was similar to mine, which is centered around the holistic development of the student-athlete. And lastly, I wanted to be part of a university and athletic department that would not compromise its values to win.

"There is no better place for me than UVA. And there is no better time than now."

With that, Elliott went to work crafting what he had hoped to build for years - The Model Program.

"My vision for the UVA football program is to become the model in college football, the model program in college football," he said. "My goal is to contribute to changing the narrative in college football and demonstrate that you can win at the highest level and you can do so while achieving excellence in education, leadership and service."

Elliott's cornerstones of that culture are based on H.E.A.R.T.- humility, effort, accountability, respect and toughness.

"I think that building a championship culture starts with making sure that you have alignment and a vision," he said. "You clearly state the vision and you are particular in the people that you bring in and make sure that they align with the vision, and then you stay grounded to the principles that you set in place for the players and the staff, and you go to work every single day, and you keep an inside-out mentality. It's one day at a time, and eventually that will bring your championship culture to life."

Elliott's background and coaching pedigree is rich with championship experiences.

He spent 11 seasons as an assistant on Dabo Swinney's staff at Clemson. In January of 2021, he was named the program's assistant head coach and offensive coordinator. He previously served as the team's co-offensive coordinator (2014-20) and the team's running backs coach (2011-20).

At Clemson, Elliott was a part of a 10-season stretch in which the Tigers won 10 or more games. In that span, Clemson won six Atlantic Coast Conference Championships, made four appearances in the College Football Playoff National Championship game and captured national titles in 2016 and 2018.

After Elliott's promotion to co-offensive coordinator prior to the 2014 Russell Athletic Bowl, the Tigers posted an 89-10 record and ranked in the top 12 nationally in total offense. Clemson either led or ranked No. 2 in the ACC in total offense in five of his seven seasons as an offensive coordinator. Elliott's 2018 and 2019 offenses were responsible for two of the 22 650-point seasons in major college football history.

Elliott was named the Frank Broyles Award recipient as the nation's top assistant coach in 2017. Before transitioning to the tight ends room this year, Elliott was in charge of Clemson's running backs for his first 10 seasons. In that time, he guided Clemson running back Travis Etienne to one of the most illustrious careers in ACC and college football history, helping him set the NCAA record for most games scoring a touchdown (46) and secure ACC records for career rushing yards (4,952), total touchdowns (78), rushing touchdowns (70) and points (468).

As the program's offensive coordinator, Elliott worked with two first-round draft picks at quarterback, including the 2021 first overall pick Trevor Lawrence. From 2015-2020, a Clemson offensive player took home both the ACC's Player of the Year and Offensive Player of the Year awards four times.

Prior to returning to his alma mater, Elliott spent three seasons at Furman (2008-10) and two at South Carolina State (2006-07) coaching wide receivers at both schools. Prior to his coaching career he worked for Michelin North America for two years.

In 2002, Elliott earned his undergraduate degree in industrial engineering from Clemson, where he was a first-team Academic All-ACC selection as well as a CoSIDA Academic District III member. He was also a recipient of an ACC Weaver-James-Corrigan Postgraduate Scholarship.

Under Tommy Bowden, he came to Clemson as a walk-on wide receiver in the fall of 1999 and finished his career with four letters and appeared in 44 games. Swinney was his position coach his senior year (2003) in which he was named a co-captain of a team that finished with a 9-4 record and a No. 22 final ranking by AP and USA Today.
