

Virginia Postgame Notes – Maryland (9/14/24)

Virginia Team Notes

- Virginia drops to 32-46-2 all-time against Maryland, and has lost each of the last four matchups. It marked the first meeting between the two schools in Charlottesville since 2012.
- Maryland was limited to seven points off UVA's four turnovers (two fumbles, two interceptions). The two fumbles lost by Virginia were the first two of the season.
- The Virginia defense was credited with eight pass breakups. It marks the second time in the last 26 games UVA had eight or more pass breakups (8 vs. Duke – 2023).
- Went over 100 rushing yards for the second time in three games.
- Virginia held a lead over Maryland at halftime for the second consecutive year.
- UVA was held scoreless in the second half for the first time since last year's meeting against the Terps.
- The Cavaliers offense produced three plays over 30 yards in the contest and now have 11 on the season.

Virginia Individual Player Notes

- Antonio Clary set a career-high 14 tackles, including one for-loss to go along with two pass breakups.
- Jonas Sanker had 11 tackles putting him over the 200-tackle mark for his career.
- Wide receiver Kameron Courtney recorded his first career catch, a 33-yard reception in the first quarter ... he finished with two receptions for 36 yards.
- Quarterback Anthony Colandrea put UVA up 13-7 with :01 left in the first half with a 10-yard rushing touchdown, his second rushing TD of his career. He finished with 247 yards passing, his 10th career 200-yard game.
- Jahmeer Carter upped his career total to 2.5 with a takedown behind the line in the third quarter. It was his first sack since North Carolina on Oct. 21, 2023.
- Trell Harris' diving 45-yard catch in the first quarter is the longest of his career. Harris led all UVA wideouts with 72 yards receiving on the night.
- Tyler Neville's 39-yard catch in the second quarter is the longest of his career. Neville finished with three catches for 57 yards.
- Jam Jackson had a career high nine tackles and also was credited with two pass breakups.
- Chico Bennett matched a career-high with eight tackles. He also had eight at Louisville last season.