UNIQUELY UVA

The University of Virginia is an institution rich with history and tradition. Here is some of the terminology that contributes to UVA’s culture.

Grounds: The term used by students, faculty and alumni to refer to the University dating as far back as Thomas Jefferson. “Campus” is never used.

First Year, Second Year, Third Year, Fourth Year: Instead of freshman, sophomore, junior, senior. Why you may ask? To be a “senior” implies that a person has reached the final phase of learning, a feat that Thomas Jefferson believed to be impossible, arguing instead that education is a life-long process.

Commonwealth: Virginia is one of four constituent states of the United States of America that officially uses the name “Commonwealth” instead of the word state in all references. The other three commonwealths are Kentucky, Massachusetts and Pennsylvania.

UNIVERSITY NICKNAMES

Virginia’s athletics teams have been accompanied by a somewhat confusing array of nicknames. The most prominent and widely accepted of these monikers are “Cavaliers,” “Wahoos” and “Hoos.”

Although the terms “Cavaliers,” “Wahoos” and “Hoos” are used almost interchangeably to refer to University teams and players, “Cavaliers” is more often used by the media, while “Wahoos” and “Hoos” are frequently used by Virginia students and fans.

Legend has it that Washington & Lee baseball fans dubbed the Virginia players “Wahoos” during the fiercely contested rivalry that existed between the two in-state schools in the 1890s. By 1940, “Wahoos” was in general use around Grounds to denote University students or events relating to them. The abbreviated “Hoos” sprang up later in student newspapers and has gained growing popularity in recent years.

THE CAVALIER MASCOT

The costumed Cavalier with a large character head debuted during Virginia’s 1984 football season and has remained the official mascot of the University.

The first documented Cavalier on horseback was Francis Bell, a Virginia student from Dublin, Va., in 1947. Bell rode onto the field dressed as Cavaliers for Virginia’s home football game with Harvard on the afternoon of October 11.

The Cavalier on horseback returned as the University’s mascot in 1963. The UVA Polo Club provided both the horse and rider. However, the mounted Cavalier and his horse parted company in 1974 with the inception of AstroTurf at Scott Stadium.

The mounted Cavalier made its return in the Florida Citrus Bowl at the end of the 1989 football season. Due to its instant popularity, the Cavalier on horseback returned the following season on a regular basis and continues to lead the Virginia football team onto the field at the beginning of all home games.

Since 2000, Kim Kirschnick led the Cavaliers out of the tunnel on horseback and retired after the 2021 season finale against Virginia Tech. 2022 marked Julie Caruccio first season as the mounted Cavalier. A former interim dean of students at UVA, Caruccio is the first female in school history to have the mounted Cavalier job on a full-time basis. When the tradition rotated among members of the club polo team until Kirschnick took over in 2000, at least two women – Bess Worrall and Kerry McDaniel – were on horseback for a few games in the early ‘90s.

UNIVERSITY COLORS

Orange and blue were adopted as the University of Virginia’s official athletic colors at a mass student meeting in 1888. UVA athletic teams had previously worn silver gray and cardinal red, but those colors did not stand out on muddy football fields, prompting a student movement to change them.

One of the students attending the mass meeting was Allen Potts, a star athlete who played on Virginia’s first football team in 1888. Potts showed up at the meeting wearing a navy blue-and-orange scarf that he had acquired during a summer boating expedition at Oxford University. Orange and blue were chosen as the official athletic colors after one of Potts’ fellow students pulled the scarf off Potts’ neck and, waving it to the crowd, yelled, “How will this do?” UVA later served as the inspiration for schools like Auburn and Florida when they selected school colors.

WAH-HOO-WA

The origin of “Wah-hoo-wa” is uncertain. The cheer was used to root on Virginia teams as early as 1890 and may have been borrowed from Dartmouth College, whose athletics teams were once known as the Indians.

Legend attributes the yell to Natalie Floyd Otey, who sang the ballad “Where’er You Are, There Shall My Love Be” at Charlottesville’s Levy Opera House in 1893. The predominantly student audience noticed that Otey warbled the first three words of the song between each of the stanzas and decided to join in the refrain. By evening’s end, goes the legend, the crowd had corrupted “Where’er You Are” into “Wah-hoo-wah.”

The Levy Opera House stands at the corner of High Street and Park Street and has since been renovated into an office building.

LAST YEAR'S MEETING AGAINST THE CHANTICLEERS

- Virginia's first-ever matchup with Coastal Carolina ended in a 43-24 victory, marking the Cavaliers' largest win on the road under Tony Elliott.
- On a hot, humid afternoon in front of a sold-out Brooks Stadium (Conway, S.C.), UVA ran for 384 yards, its most in a single game since 1998.
- The Cavaliers accumulated 525 yards of total offense (384 rush, 141 pass), also the most in a game under Elliott and most since racking up 588 against BYU in 2021.
- One of 43 unbeaten FBS teams at the time, the Chanticleers had won 23 of their previous 27 home games and had not trailed in any of their three contests leading up to the matchup with UVA.
- Landon Danley (LB) forced a fumble on the opening kickoff, and teammate Eli Wood (WR) recovered it. Both Danley and Wood were primary contributors on special teams last season, but are expected to have a larger role in plays from scrimmage this season.
- The fumble recovery helped the Hoos score a touchdown only 1:24 into the game. UVA led for the remainder of the game.

VIRGINIA-COASTAL CAROLINA CONNECTIONS

- Former UVA long snapper Payton Bunch, who exhausted his final year of eligibility at the end of last season, transferred to Virginia from Coastal Carolina for the 2024 season.
- Virginia defensive passing game coordinator/defensive backs coach Curome Cox spent five seasons (2013-17) as an assistant coach.
- At CCU, Cox coached both defensive backs and special teams, helping the Chanticleers to Big South Conference championships in 2013 and 2014. In 2016, Coastal led all FCS teams in interceptions.
- Virginia's Assistant Director of Football Performance Nutrition Haylie Beck is a former Coastal Carolina indoor and outdoor beach volleyball player. She earned her bachelor of science degree from CCU in Exercise and Sport Science in 2021.

- Additionally, Elliott returns his entire assistant coaching staff from 2024, including Des Kitchings (offensive coordinator) and John Rudzinski (defensive coordinator), making UVA one of only six Power-4 schools to return their entire coaching staff in 2025.
- Elliott brought a wealth of championship experience to Charlottesville following an 11-year tenure at Clemson University, his alma mater. Elliott helped the Tigers win national championships in 2016 and 2018 and seven ACC championships (2011, 2015, 2016, 2017, 2018, 2019, 2020).

- In Elliott's first two seasons at UVA, the Cavaliers were outscored by their opponents in the fourth quarters 43-36 in 2022 and 114-54 in 2023.

TONY ELLIOTT: ONE OF 16 AFRICAN AMERICAN HEAD COACHES IN FBS

- In 2024, Fralin Family Football Head Coach Tony Elliott was one of 16 African American head coaches in FBS.
- The Cavaliers have six full-time African American assistant coaches.

A LOOK BACK AT 2024 SLATE

- Three of the Cavaliers' final four opponents (No. 23 Pitt, No. 8 Notre Dame, No. 13 SMU) of the 2024 season were ranked top in the AP top-25 poll at the time of each matchup.
- The SMU game marked only the sixth instance in program history (1949, 1996, 2002, 2005, 2019, 2021, 2024) in which the Cavaliers faced three consecutive opponents ranked in the AP top-25 poll.
- Entering the game against Pitt, UVA was tied for the fourth-most difficult remaining schedule, based on opponent win percentage, according to WarrenNolan.com.
- Both SMU and Clemson went on to secure their spot in the ACC Championship game and College Football Playoff.

2024 STORYLINES IN REVIEW

- Virginia (3-5 ACC) finished only one win away from .500 in league play in 2024. The Cavaliers mounted fourth-quarter comebacks at Wake Forest (31-30) and against Boston College (24-14). UVA earned its signature win in a 24-19 road win over then-No. 23 Pitt in primetime.
- Behind a dominant 384-rushing-yard performance, the Cavaliers downed Coastal Carolina 43-24 to secure UVA's largest margin of victory on the road under head coach Tony Elliott.
- After a standout senior campaign in 2024, former safety Jonas Sanker was selected 93rd overall by the New Orleans Saints in the third round of the 2025 NFL Draft.
- Sanker was a two-time First Team All-ACC selection and became UVA's only four-time ACC Defensive Back of the Week in the same season (2024).

NO PRESEASON RANKED OPPONENTS

- Virginia is the only Power Four team without an opponent ranked in the AP preseason top 25.
- The last time UVA entered a season without a preseason-ranked opponent on its schedule was 1986.
- According to ESPN's preseason power index, Virginia Tech (No. 31) is the highest-rated team on UVA's 2025 slate.

MORE ON THE 2025 SLATE

- Virginia will play seven home games in 2025, including four in the first five weeks of the season.
- Of UVA's 12 opponents, eight played in a bowl game in 2024.

MORRIS' FOURTH CONSECUTIVE YEAR STARTING

- Virginia's Chandler Morris is one of 15 FBS quarterbacks poised to open the season as his team's starting QB for the fourth consecutive year.
- Morris was named the top signal caller on UVA's depth chart heading into fall camp. The previous two seasons (2023-24) featured QB battles. Virginia does not return a QB that completed a pass in 2024.
- Morris started all 13 games for North Texas in 2024. At TCU, he started the first six games of the 2023 season before injuring his left knee – the same knee that had sidelined him in the 2022 season opener and subsequently kept him out for the remainder of the year.
- Morris is one of only four FBS QBs to start for at least three different schools. The others are Bowling Green's Drew Pyne (Missouri, Arizona State & Notre Dame), Eastern Michigan's Noah Kim (Coastal Carolina & Michigan State) and Fresno State's E.J. Warner (Rice & Temple).

- Virginia's offensive line is led by assistant coach Terry Heffernan, who also serves as the program's Offensive Run Game Coordinator.
- Virginia is expected to be without tackles Makilan Thomas (Arkansas State) Monroe Mills (Louisville) to start the season. On Aug. 6, head coach Tony Elliott told the media that Thomas (foot) is expected to miss "multiple months," while Mills (knee) is not expected to play this season.
- Elliott on this year's offensive line group: "Even though I'm a receiver at heart and coached skill guys my whole life, you win up front ... And that's why the biggest area that we addressed was the offensive line and adding depth to the offensive line. That's probably the one position that we've been playing catch up the most over the last three years, but with the addition of the seven guys that we brought in this offseason, I think we're in a space now where we can have competitive depth, which creates for competitive practice, which allows us to create that chemistry."

TRANSFER CONNECTIONS

30-YEAR ANNIVERSARY: UVA'S HISTORIC WIN OVER FSU

- This season, Virginia hosts Florida State at Scott Stadium on Friday, Sept. 26 at 7 p.m. on ESPN.
- This year also marks the 30-year anniversary of UVA's 33-28 triumph over the nation's No. 2 team in front of a sold-out Scott Stadium.
- UVA's Anthony Poindexter and Adrian Burnim stopped FSU star running back Warrick Dunn on the goal line as time expired to solidify one of the most iconic victories in program history.
- The win marked the first-ever for an ACC team over the Seminoles, who joined the league in 1992. FSU had won 29 consecutive conference games prior to the Cavalier victory.
- FSU leads the all-time series 15-4, but the Cavaliers have won three of the last six meetings dating back to 2005.
- The last time the two teams played under the Scott Stadium lights was in 2019, when the Hoos scored three touchdowns in the fourth quarter to knock off the Seminoles, 31-24, in front of more than 57,000 fans.

ACADEMIC REPORT CARD

- The UVA football program recorded its highest-ever semester team GPA with a 3.22 during the 2025 spring semester.
- At his introductory press conference head coach Tony Elliott stated, "I chose UVA because I wanted to lead a program that was partnered with a university that had world-class academics. I wanted to be able to recruit the best and the brightest student-athletes ... I wanted to be part of a university and athletic department that would not compromise its values to win."
- "My vision for the UVA football program is to become the model in college football, the model program in college football," Elliott said. "My goal is to contribute to changing the narrative in college football and demonstrate that you can win at the highest level and you can do so while achieving excellence in education, leadership and service."
- In 2002, Elliott earned his bachelor's degree in industrial engineering from Clemson, where he was a first-team All-ACC Academic selection and a CoSIDA Academic District III member. He was also a recipient of the ACC's Weaver-James-Corrigan Postgraduate Scholarship.

HARDIE FOOTBALL OPERATIONS CENTER

- In June 2024, Virginia Athletics proudly opened the 93,000-square-foot Molly and Robert Hardie Football Operations Center, which conveniently sits adjacent to the team's George Welsh Indoor Practice Facility and outdoor practice fields.
- The state-of-the-art space encompasses: the team locker, players' lounge and 96-person dining space, 14,000-square-foot strength and condition space with over 150,000 lbs of weight-lifting equipment, cardio mezzanine, 195-seat team meeting space, tiered-seating meeting spaces for each position group, and coaches' offices.
- The Hardie Center recently opened its full-service dining hall capable of providing meals for the entire team and staff.
- The exterior of the Hardie Center displays a classic yet chic design and is enclosed by red brick, which is synonymous with the architectural style of the University's most prominent edifices across Grounds such as The Rotunda.
- Of the Hardie Center, Fralin Family Football head coach Tony Elliott said, "I wanted the building to be timeless. I wanted to capture all different eras, to be contemporary enough to show the flash and the glitz and glamor as an area for certain recruits, but then also pay homage to all the guys that didn't have an opportunity to walk through those doors today but laid the foundation for Virginia football."

CARLA WILLIAMS ON CFP COMMITTEE

- On Feb. 8, 2024, Virginia Director of Athletics Carla Williams was named to the College Football Playoff (CFP) Management Committee.
- As a member of the committee, Williams began a three-year term beginning in the spring of 2024.
- “Carla is an outstanding advocate for college football and will be a knowledgeable, passionate and valuable member of the College Football Playoff Selection Committee,” said ACC Commissioner Jim Phillips. “Throughout her time at Virginia as well as her entire career, Carla has consistently shown to be a tremendous leader.”
- Williams is in her eighth year as director of athletics at Virginia. During her time in Charlottesville, UVA teams have captured multiple national titles across numerous sports, including the 2019 men’s basketball title, 2019 and 2021 men’s lacrosse titles, four straight women’s swimming and diving championships from 2021-24, and the 2022 and 2023 men’s tennis team titles. In addition, UVA has won 2022 ACC Championships.
- Williams was a three-year starter and All-SEC guard for the Georgia women’s basketball team from 1987-89. Williams then served as an assistant coach for the team before moving into administration as UGA’s assistant director of compliance for a year before taking administrative roles at Florida State and Vanderbilt.

Tony Elliott, a patient man, was looking for the right fit when it came time for him to leave the assistant coaching ranks and take on the responsibility of running a collegiate football program as the head coach. During his 11-year tenure at Clemson, his alma mater, several opportunities presented themselves, but it was not until Virginia came calling that he felt the setting was right for what he wants to accomplish.

On Dec. 10, 2021, Elliott was named the University of Virginia’s Fralin Family Head Football Coach. At his introductory press conference, he explained his decision to become the Cavaliers’ head coach and what he wants to accomplish in Charlottesville.

“I chose UVA because I wanted to lead a program that was partnered with a university that had world-class academics,” he said “I wanted to be able to recruit the best and the brightest student-athletes.

“I wanted to compete in the best conference in college athletics. I wanted to be a part of an alignment with (athletic director) Ms. Carla (Williams) and President (Jim) Ryan that shared a vision that was similar to mine, which is centered around the holistic development of the student-athlete. And lastly, I wanted to be part of a university and athletic department that would not compromise its values to win.

“There is no better place for me than UVA. And there is no better time than now.”

With that, Elliott went to work crafting what he had hoped to build for years – The Model Program.

“My vision for the UVA football program is to become the model in college football, the model program in college football,” he said. “My goal is to contribute to changing the narrative in college football and demonstrate that you can win at the highest level and you can do so while achieving excellence in education, leadership and service.”

Elliott’s cornerstones of that culture are based on H.E.A.R.T.- humility, effort, accountability, respect and toughness.

“I think that building a championship culture starts with making sure that you have alignment and a vision,” he said. “You clearly state the vision and you are particular in the people that you bring in and make sure that they align with the vision, and then you stay grounded to the principles that you set in place for the players and the staff, and you go to work every single day, and you keep an inside-out mentality. It’s one day at a time, and eventually that will bring your championship culture to life.”

Elliott’s background and coaching pedigree is rich with championship experiences.

He spent 11 seasons as an assistant on Dabo Swinney’s staff at Clemson. In January of 2021, he was named the program’s assistant head coach and offensive coordinator. He previously served as the team’s co-offensive coordinator (2014-20) and the team’s running backs coach (2011-20).

At Clemson, Elliott was a part of a 10-season stretch in which the Tigers won 10 or more games. In that span, Clemson won six Atlantic Coast Conference Championships, made four appearances in the College Football Playoff National Championship game and captured national titles in 2016 and 2018.

After Elliott’s promotion to co-offensive coordinator prior to the 2014 Russell Athletic Bowl, the Tigers posted an 89-10 record and ranked in the top 12 nationally in total offense. Clemson either led or ranked No. 2 in the ACC in total offense in five of his seven seasons as an offensive coordinator. Elliott’s 2018 and 2019 offenses were responsible for two of the 22 650-point seasons in major college football history.

Elliott was named the Frank Broyles Award recipient as the nation’s top assistant coach in 2017. Before transitioning to the tight ends room this year, Elliott was in charge of Clemson’s running backs for his first 10 seasons. In that time, he guided Clemson running back Travis Etienne to one of the most illustrious careers in ACC and college football history, helping him set the NCAA record for most games scoring a touchdown (46) and secure ACC records for career rushing yards (4,952), total touchdowns (78), rushing touchdowns (70) and points (468).

As the program’s offensive coordinator, Elliott worked with two first-round draft picks at quarterback, including the 2021 first overall pick Trevor Lawrence. From 2015-2020, a Clemson offensive player took home both the ACC’s Player of the Year and Offensive Player of the Year awards four times.

Prior to returning to his alma mater, Elliott spent three seasons at Furman (2008-10) and two at South Carolina State (2006-07) coaching wide receivers at both schools. Prior to his coaching career he worked for Michelin North America for two years.

In 2002, Elliott earned his undergraduate degree in industrial engineering from Clemson, where he was a first-team Academic All-ACC selection as well as a CoSIDA Academic District III member. He was also a recipient of an ACC Weaver-James-Corrigan Postgraduate Scholarship.

Under Tommy Bowden, he came to Clemson as a walk-on wide receiver in the fall of 1999 and finished his career with four letters and appeared in 44 games. Swinney was his position coach his senior year (2003) in which he was named a co-captain of a team that finished with a 9-4 record and a No. 22 final ranking by AP and USA Today.

SCOTT STADIUM, HOME OF THE CAVALIERS

- The Carl Smith Center, home of David A. Harrison III Field at Scott Stadium, with its unique architectural design, scenic setting on the University's Grounds and exceptional sight lines, is one of the nation's finest college football settings.
- Opened in 1931, Scott Stadium might be one of the oldest campus college football stadiums in the nation, but you could never tell from its appearance. Numerous upgrades and expansions make it a modern home for the Cavaliers and their fans.
- Scott Stadium was the gift of Frederic William Scott and Elisabeth Strother Scott, and was dedicated to the memory of his parents, Frederic Robert Scott and Frances Branch Scott.
- Virginia played its dedication game at Scott Stadium on Oct. 15, 1931 against the Virginia Military Institute before a then-capacity crowd of 22,000. Prior to that season, the Cavaliers staged their home games at the University's Lambeth Field.
- Virginia has played 490 games in the historic venue. UVA's all-time record at Scott Stadium stands at 284-194-12.
