INSIDE SATURDAY'S MATCHUP

- Virginia will make its second appearance in the ACC Championship game, its only other appearance coming in 2019 against Clemson, whose co-offensive coordinator was Tony Elliott.
- The Cavaliers are amid their second 10-win season in the 136-year history of the program. The only other 10-win campaign came in 1989 under Hall of Fame Coach George Welsh. Current UVA defensive ends coach Chris Slade, the ACC's all-time leader in sacks, was a first year on the '89 squad.
- The Cavaliers finished 7-1 in the ACC with its lone blemish coming at home against Wake Forest (Nov. 8), a game in which quarterback Chandler Morris exited in the second quarter due to injury.
- At 7-1 in the ACC, Virginia matched its best record in league play and marked the first time ever UVA has finished alone atop the league standings. The Cavaliers have never won the league outright, winning shares in 1989 (6-1) and 1995 (7-1) before the ACC title game began determining the league champion in 2005.
- Virginia and Duke will play for the second time this season. UVA has not played an opponent twice in one season since defeating Richmond both times in 1906. The other five occasions in which UVA played the same team two times in the same season occurred in the 1890s.
- The Cavaliers became bowl-eligible by winning six of their first seven games. The last time Virginia was bowl-eligible was in 2021, when the Fenway Bowl was canceled due to COVID issues. UVA's last bowl appearance was the 2019 Orange Bowl against Florida.
- For the first time since 2019, Virginia appeared in the AP Poll on Sept. 28 after its upset win over then-No. 8 Florida State and has been nationally ranked for 10 consecutive weeks, its longest tenure in the AP Top 25 since 2004.
- Virginia returns to Bank of America Stadium for the first time since the 2019 ACC Championship and boasts a 3-1 record in the home of the Carolina Panthers, with wins in the 2018 Belk Bowl and the 2003 & 2004 Continental Tire Bowls. The Cavaliers have played in an NFL Stadium in seven of the last eight seasons, a span that includes a signature win by Elliott over then-No. 23 Pitt last season at Acrisure Stadium (Pittsburgh, Pa.).
- Virginia is 4-1 in games away from Scott Stadium this season, and over the past two years owns a 7-4 mark on the road. The Cavaliers have won four straight games away from Charlottesville, including a 34-17 win over Duke (Nov. 15) in Durham.

TOP STORYLINES

- Virginia was picked to finish 14th in the league's preseason media poll and will now compete for its first outright ACC Championship in program history. The Cavaliers were 5-7 last season and its five-win improvement from last season is tied for the fourth best in FBS this year and tied for the best year-to-year improvement in school history (1986-87 & 1892-1893).
- Virginia and Duke will play for the second time in 21 days. The Cavaliers never trailed in a dominant 34-17 win in Durham (Nov. 15). The Cavaliers held the Blue Devils to season lows in total offense (255) rushing yards (42), passing yards (213), pass completions (18), points scored (17) and first downs (11). On offense, UVA doubled Duke's total yardage (540 to 255), led by 133 rushing yards and two touchdowns from Charlotte native J'Mari Taylor.
- The Cavalier defense has been dominant in the back half of the season. Over its last five games, all ACC contests, UVA has held opponents to 15.4 points per game. The Cavaliers have forced turnovers in nine of its 12 games this season and are 9-0 this season when forcing at least one turnover.
- Led by Taylor, the Cavaliers boast the third-best rushing attack in the ACC, averaging 188.7 yards per game. Taylor won the ACC's regular season rushing title with 997 yards and is looking for his second-straight 1,000-yard season (1,146 at NC Central in 2024). The Cavaliers haven't had a 1,000-yard back since Jordan Ellis in 2018, who went over the 1K mark at Bank of America Stadium in the shutout win over South Carolina at the 2018 Belk Bowl.

NUMBERS TO KNOW

Number of offensive touchdowns allowed by the UVA defense in the last 12 quarters.

6

First downs gained by Virginia Tech last Saturday, the fewest by a UVA opponent since 2004

14

J'Mari Taylor is the seventh player in UVA history with 14 or more rushing touchdowns in a season.

27

Opponents are 45-for-165 (27%) on third down against the UVA defense the second lowest percentage of any FBS defense.

THEY SAID IT...

"Back in January, knowing that we were bringing in 54 new guys, that first team meeting, I said, 'Hey, this team's going to need some TLCL.' And it's not tender, love and care – you're going to get that. That's who we are as coaches. But really, what it's going to come down to is, can everybody that's in this room become a team? And then will our leaders step up and lead, and then will everybody be fully committed to the goals that we set as an organization." – Tony Elliott on his 'TLCL to CLT' mantra

COVERING THE CAVALIERS

THIS WEEK'S AVAILABILITY SCHEDULE

Sunday, Nov. 30

4 p.m. – Tony Elliott, ACC Head Coaches Teleconference

Tuesday, Dec. 2

12:30 p.m. – Select student-athletes and coordinators at the Hardie Center

Wednesday, Dec. 3

11:30 a.m. – Tony Elliott, Signing Day press conference at the Hardie Center

Friday, Dec. 5

4:15 p.m. – Tony Elliott, ACC Head Coach Press Conference

Note: Schedule is subject to change. Members of the media are advised to monitor their email early in the week for a memo entitled "Virginia Football Media Schedule." Student-athletes are available for interviews each Tuesday depending on class schedules. Interview requests should be directed to Patrick Boling at least 24 hours in advance.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Coach Elliott will take part in a postgame press conference in the media room, while requested players will be brought to the media room to meet with media representatives after Elliott. UVA athletic communications personnel will take player requests during the fourth quarter of each game.

Virginia's locker room is closed to media following games, both at home and on the road.

ACC MEDIA PORTAL

The ACC Media Portal has moved to a new service provider. The Conference will continue to provide video from a variety of press conferences and select ACC Championship footage throughout the athletic year. Game highlights from regular season football and basketball games will no longer be provided. Previous accounts to the ACC Media Portal will no longer be active. If you are interested in access to the new ACC Media Portal, please contact Slim Vollinger, svollinger@theacc.org to gain access and for additional information. The use of ACC Championship highlights provided through the ACC Media Portal remain subject to all restrictions as outlined in the ACC News Access Guidelines.

UNIQUELY UVA

The University of Virginia is an institution rich with history and tradition. Here is some of the terminology that contributes to UVA's culture.

Grounds: The term used by students, faculty and alumni to refer to the University dating as far back as Thomas Jefferson. "Campus" is never used.

First Year, Second Year, Third Year, Fourth Year: Instead of freshman, sophomore, junior, senior. Why you may ask? To be a "senior" implies that a person has reached the final phase of learning, a feat that Thomas Jefferson believed to be impossible, arguing instead that education is a life-long process.

Commonwealth: Virginia is one of four constituent states of the United States of America that officially uses the name "Commonwealth" instead of the word state in all references. The other three commonwealths are Kentucky, Massachusetts and Pennsylvania.

UNIVERSITY NICKNAMES

Virginia's athletics teams have been accompanied by a somewhat confusing array of nicknames. The most prominent and widely accepted of these monikers are "Cavaliers," "Wahoos" and "Hoos."

Although the terms "Cavaliers," "Wahoos" and "Hoos" are used almost interchangeably to refer to University teams and players, "Cavaliers" is more often used by the media, while "Wahoos" and "Hoos" are frequently used by Virginia students and fans.

Legend has it that Washington & Lee baseball fans dubbed the Virginia players "Wahoos" during the fiercely contested rivalry that existed between the two in-state schools in the 1890s. By 1940, "Wahoos" was in general use around Grounds to denote University students or events relating to them. The abbreviated "Hoos" sprang up later in student newspapers and has gained growing popularity in recent years.

THE CAVALIER MASCOT

The costumed Cavalier with a large character head debuted during Virginia's 1984 football season and has remained the official mascot of the University.

The first documented Cavalier on horseback was Francis Bell, a Virginia student from Dublin, Va., in 1947. Bell rode onto the field dressed as Cavaliers for Virginia's home football game with Harvard on the afternoon of October 11.

The Cavalier on horseback returned as the University's mascot in 1963. The UVA Polo Club provided both the horse and rider. However, the mounted Cavalier and his horse parted company in 1974 with the inception of AstroTurf at Scott Stadium.

The mounted Cavalier made its return in the Florida Citrus Bowl at the end of the 1989 football season. Due to its instant popularity, the Cavalier on horseback returned the following season on a regular basis and continues to lead the Virginia football team onto the field at the beginning of all home games.

Since 2000, Kim Kirschnick led the Cavaliers out of the tunnel on horseback and retired after the 2021 season finale against Virginia Tech. 2022 marked Julie Caruccio first season as the mounted Cavalier. A former interim dean of students at UVA, Caruccio is the first female in school history to have the mounted Cavalier job on a full-time basis. When the tradition rotated among members of the club polo team until Kirschnick took over in 2000, at least two women – Bess Worrall and Kerry McDaniel – were on horseback for a few games in the early '90s.

UNIVERSITY COLORS

Orange and blue were adopted as the University of Virginia's official athletic colors at a mass student meeting in 1888. UVA athletic teams had previously worn silver gray and cardinal red, but those colors did not stand out on muddy football fields, prompting a student movement to change them.

One of the students attending the mass meeting was Allen Potts, a star athlete who played on Virginia's first football team in 1888. Potts showed up at the meeting wearing a navy blue-and-orange scarf that he had acquired during a summer boating expedition at Oxford University. Orange and blue were chosen as the official athletic colors after one of Potts' fellow students pulled the scarf off Potts' neck and, waving it to the crowd, yelled, "How will this do?" UVA later served as the inspiration for schools like Auburn and Florida when they selected school colors.

WAH-HOO-WA

The origin of "Wah-hoo-wa" is uncertain. The cheer was used to root on Virginia teams as early as 1890 and may have been borrowed from Dartmouth College, whose athletics teams were once known as the Indians.

Legend attributes the yell to Natalie Floyd Otey, who sang the ballad "Where'er You Are, There Shall My Love Be" at Charlottesville's Levy Opera House in 1893. The predominantly student audience noticed that Otey warbled the first three words of the song between each of the stanzas and decided to join in the refrain. By evening's end, goes the legend, the crowd had corrupted "Where'er You Are" into "Wah-hoo-wah."

The Levy Opera House stands at the corner of High Street and Park Street and has since been renovated into an office building.

A WIN FOR THE CAVALIERS WOULD...

- Mark Virginia Football's first-ever outright ACC Championship, including first ACC Championship game victory.
- Be UVA's 11th victory of the season and set the program's single-season wins record.
- Mark Virginia's largest overall win improvement from year to year in its 136-year history.
- Be the program's 699th all-time win. UVA's first season of football was 1888.
- Give Tony Elliott his seventh ACC championship (2011, 2015, 2016, 2017, 2018, 2019 and 2020) between his tenures as UVA head coach (2022-pres.) and assistant at Clemson (2011-21).
- Be Virginia's seventh victory of the season while ranked in the AP poll. The last time UVA had six or more wins while ranked in the AP top-25 was in 2004, when it was ranked in every game that year.
- Mark UVA Athletics' second ACC team championship this academic year. The Cavalier men's cross country team won the championship meet – the program's fifth overall – in Louisville, Ky. on Oct. 31.
- Be Virginia Athletics' 100th ACC team championship since the spring of 2002, the most of any ACC school in that span.
- Also be the University's 158th overall ACC championship.
- Be UVA's fourth all-time at Bank of America Stadium.

UPCOMING MILESTONES

- Tailback J'Mari Taylor needs three yards to reach 1,000 for the season. He would become UVA's first 1,000-yard rusher since Jordan Ellis (1,026) in 2018.
- Taylor is also 115 rushing yards shy of 3,000 for his career.
- Quarterback Chandler Morris needs 110 rushing yards to reach 1,000 for his career. He is also four carries shy of 200 career rushes.
- Receiver Cam Ross needs six receptions to reach 200 for his career. He also needs 41 yards receiving for 500 this season.
- Receiver Trell Harris' next touchdown reception would mark the 10th of his career.
- Receiver Jahmal Edrine's next touchdown reception would mark the 10th of his career.
- Defensive end Mitchell Melton needs two sacks for the 10th of his career.
- Defensive tackle Jacob Holmes needs 1.0 TFL for the 20th of his career.
- Linebacker James Jackson needs seven total tackles to reach 250 for his career, and just two solo tackles to record his 100th.
- Safety Antonio Clary needs seven tackles to reach 200 total for his career. He also needs 10 solo tackles to reach No. 100.

MILESTONES ECLIPSED AGAINST VIRGINIA TECH

- Tailback J'Mari Taylor appeared in his 50th career game.
- Linebacker Maddox Marcellus made his first career start and recorded a game-high nine tackles and intercepted a pass on the Hokies' first drive.
- Quarterback Chandler Morris tallied his 15th rushing touchdown on an 8-yard rush late in the third quarter.

YEAR FOUR UNDER TONY ELLIOTT

- Tony Elliott is in his fourth year at the helm of the Virginia football program.
- Additionally, Elliott returned his entire assistant coaching staff from 2024, including Des Kitchings (offensive coordinator) and John Rudzinski (defensive coordinator), making UVA one of only six Power-4 schools to return their entire coaching staff in 2025.
- Elliott brought a wealth of championship experience to Charlottesville following an 11-year tenure at Clemson University, his alma mater. Elliott helped the Tigers win national championships in 2016 and 2018 and seven ACC championships (2011, 2015, 2016, 2017, 2018, 2019, 2020).
- During his 16-year tenure as an assistant coach, Elliott has been a part of 15 winning seasons, including 10-win seasons at Clemson from 2011-20.
- With Elliott as offensive coordinator, Clemson went 89-10 and made four CFP National Championship game.

ELLIOTT GARNERS NATIONAL RECOGNITION

- Virginia head coach Tony Elliott has been named a semifinalist for three national coach-of-the-year awards.
- He was named a semifinalist for the Munger Award, Bobby Dodd Trophy and Paul "Bear" Bryant Coach of the Year Awards.
- Prior to the season, Virginia had won nine or more games in a season eight times in the 136-year history of the program.
- Despite being picked 14th in the 2025 ACC preseason poll, Elliott and the Cavaliers posted a league-best 7-1 record in ACC play, which also tied the program's best record in conference play.
- The Cavaliers are bowl-eligible for the first time since 2021 and earned a berth in the ACC Championship game for only the second time in program history, also the first since 2019.

ACC WIN IMPROVEMENT UNDER ELLIOTT

- Virginia has increased its ACC win total each year under head coach Tony Elliott.
- The Cavaliers were the only ACC team to finish 7-1 in league play this year. UVA's 7-1 ACC record tied with the 1995 Cavaliers' best record in ACC play in program history.
- Elliott is also the fastest UVA head football coach to clinch at least a share of first place in the final ACC standings.
- This year, the Cavaliers won their first five ACC games, the longest ACC win streak in program history.

SO WE MEET AGAIN...

- Virginia and Duke will play for the second time this season. UVA won the regular-season matchup at Wallace Wade Stadium, 34-17.
- Saturday's game marks the seventh two-time opponent in UVA football single-season history.
- The others include: North Carolina (1892), Georgetown (1893), Navy (1893), Richmond (1894 & 1906) and the Hampton Athletic Club (1896).

CAVALIERS RETURN TO BANK OF AMERICA STADIUM

- Virginia is 3-1 all-time at Bank of America Stadium, home to the NFL's Carolina Panthers. See chart below.
- Additionally, Saturday's will also mark the program's 12th game in an NFL stadium since the start of 2018 season. UVA is 4-7 in such contests. Virginia's last win at an NFL stadium came in a primetime matchup against Pittsburgh at Acrisure Stadium, formerly (and still colloquially) known as Heinz Field.

WAHOOS HAVE THREE OVERTIME WINS

- Virginia has emerged victorious in three overtime games this season: Florida State [46-38] in double overtime, and road games against Louisville [30-27] and North Carolina [17-16].
- As of Oct. 26, UVA is one of only eight teams in college football history to have won three overtime games in the same season.
- Texas Tech was the previous team with three OT wins during the 2022 season.
- Overtime in college football was first instituted in 1996.
- Not since 1935 has UVA had more than three tied scores at the end of regulation.

IMPROVEMENT IN ONE-SCORE GAMES

• The Cavaliers have been much improved in one-score games over the last two seasons in contrast to 2022 and 2023.

HOOS INSIDE AP TOP 25

- At No. 16 in this week's Associated Press (AP) Top 25, UVA has been ranked in the previous 10 consecutive polls, dating back to Sept. 28 (week 5).
- The last time the Cavaliers were ranked in at least 10 consecutive polls was in 2004, when they were in the top-25 in every week that season.
- Following its 31-21 road win over Cal, Virginia earned a No. 12 ranking in the AP poll, its highest since Oct. 31, 2004.
- Following the program's highest-ranked win at Scott Stadium in the last 20 years the Cavaliers – a 46-38 double overtime win over then-No. 8 Florida State – made their season debut in the AP poll at No. 24 in the week 6 edition on Sept. 28.
- Virginia received votes in the week 2 edition of the AP poll following its 48-7 season-opening rout of Coastal Carolina.

Game 11 • Virginia 34, Duke 17
Saturday, Nov. 15 • Durham, N.C./Wallace Wade Stadium

Virginia Team Notes

- Virginia won its ninth game of the season, the ninth time in program history and first time since 2019 that the Cavaliers have won nine games in a season.
- The 9-2 start to the season is the best 11-game start since 2007.
- Virginia has won four-straight road games to match a school record set in 1984 and 1990. The Cavaliers finished the regular season 4-1 on the road.
- UVA improved to 6-1 in the ACC, the first time UVA has won six of its first seven ACC games since 2007 and only the fourth time ever (1989, 1995, 2007, 2025).
- The Cavaliers are assured of at least a 6-2 record in ACC regular-season games for the first time since 2019. That year, UVA went on to face Clemson and Tony Elliott, who at the time served as the Tigers' offense coordinator, in the ACC championship game.
- Virginia tallied its fifth win of the season while ranked in the AP poll (No. 20). The last time UVA had five or more wins while ranked in the AP top-25 was in 2004, when it was ranked in every game that year.
- Virginia improved to 42-34 in the all-time series with Duke, which was first contested in 1890. UVA's 42 wins over the Blue Devils are third-most against any other opponent in program history. The Cavaliers have won nine of the last 10 meetings against Duke.
- UVA has totaled at least 30 points in eight games this year, a feat not achieved since the 2021 season.
- The Cavaliers started the game with their longest opening drive of the season, which spanned 6:47 and ended with a five-yard touchdown by J'Mari Taylor.
- Duke's first touchdown in the fourth quarter marked the first surrendered by UVA in a play from scrimmage in its last seven quarters of action (123 minutes and 34 seconds). The last touchdown from scrimmage by a UVA opponent was Cal (Nov. 1), which score early in the fourth quarter.
- UVA has scored first in 10 of its 11 games and is 9-1 when scoring first this season.
- UVA held the Blue Devils to season lows in several categories, including total offense (255) rushing yards (42), passing yards (213), pass completions (18), points scored (17) and first downs (11).
- Duke entered Saturday's game as the No. 4 passing offense (312.9) in the country, while also averaging 35.2 points per game, good for fourth in the ACC and No. 22 in FBS.
- The Virginia defense held the Blue Devils to 16 yards of total offense in the first quarter. This is the lowest Duke has had in a quarter this season.
- Virginia held Duke to three first-downs in the opening half. Duke is the third UVA opponent to be held to less than five first-downs this season.
- Virginia held the Blue Devils to 50 yards of total offense in the first half. Duke is the fifth opponent that UVA has held to under 100 yards in a half this season.
- For the sixth time this season, UVA held its opponent to without a touchdown in the first half.
- UVA doubled its opponent's total yardage (540 to 255) for the second time this season (W&M; 700 to 263).

Virginia Individual Player Notes

- Trell Harris (8 rec, 161 yards, 1 TD) is the first Cavalier wide receiver with at least 150 yards receiving since Malik Washington against Louisville in 2023. Harris' eight receptions and 161 yards are career bests.
- Harris' third reception of the game, a 29-yard catch in the second quarter, marked the 100th of his career.
- J'Mari Taylor (18 rushes, 133 yards 2 TD) has scored at least one rushing TD in 19 of last 22 games dating back to his time at NC Central. Taylor now has 13 touchdowns this season, the most by a Cavalier in a season since Keith Payne had 14 in 2010. Taylor also now has 36 career rushing touchdowns.
- Taylor broke a 78-yard TD rush in the third quarter, which is tied for the 11th-longest rush in school history (Alvin Pearman vs. Virginia Tech in 2004).
- For the fourth time this season, Taylor rushed for multiple touchdowns. The last UVA player to record four multi-rushing TD games was Brennan Armstrong in 2021.
- With Taylor and Harris' performances, UVA had a 100-yard pass catcher and 100-yard rusher in the same game for the first time since 2023 against William & Mary. Perris Jones (134 yards rushing) and Malik Washington (112 yards receiving) were the last duo to accomplish that feat.
- Taylor and Harris combined for a total of 319 all-purpose yards, the most by a Cavalier duo since Keytaon Thompson (151) and Ra'Shaun Henry's (179) 330 all-purpose yards at Louisville (Oct. 9, 2021).
- Chandler Morris (23-35, 316 yards, 2 TD) went over the 300-yard mark for the second time this season (the other was against Stanford, when he had 380) and the 11th time of his career.
- Morris' touchdown pass in the second quarter to Sage Ennis was the 60th touchdown pass of his career. Morris now has 61 career passing TDs.
- Fisher Camac (6 tackles, 3 solo, 2 sacks, 2.5 TFL, 1 QBH) is the third Cavalier to record a multi-sack game this season, joining Mitchell Melton (2 vs. Louisville) and Daniel Rickert (2 vs. Stanford). Camac upped his season total to 4.5 and now has 13 career sacks.
- On fourth down in the third quarter, defensive end Mitchell Melton recorded a strip sack and recovered his own forced fumble. It was Melton's third forced fumble this season, which leads the team. Melton is one three Cavaliers in the last 10 years with at least three forced fumbles in a season. Jonas Sanker had three in 2023, and Micah Kiser had five in 2016.
- Defensive tackle Jacob Holmes matched his career high of six tackles. Holmes also had one sack and 1.5 tackles for loss.
- Cornerback Emmanuel Karnley finished with a career-high three pass break-ups. Karnley also started in Saturday's game at Durham, his seventh of the season and fifth consecutive start.
- With two catches, receiver Jahmal Edrine reached 100 receptions for his career.
- Linebacker and team captain James Jackson appeared in his 50th career game.
- With 10 points, Will Bettridge (2-2 FG, 4-4 PAT) is now tied for third on UVA's career scoring list with Gene Mayer (1912-15). Bettridge has 293 career points.

FOURTH-QUARTER EMPHASIS

- Virginia has improved in the fourth quarter over the last two seasons, a point of emphasis by head coach Tony Elliott.
- This year, Virginia has outscored its opponents 51-50 in quarter No. 4, and 75-62 when factoring in overtime periods. UVA is also 3-0 in overtime games this season.
- The Cavaliers' defense unit has only given up three touchdowns in the fourth quarter in the previous six games (VT, Duke, Wake, Cal, UNC, WSU).
- In 2024, Virginia outscored its opponents in the fourth quarter in seven of its 12 games by a combined margin of 97-66.
- In Elliott's first two seasons at UVA, the Cavaliers were outscored by their opponents in the fourth quarters 114-54 in 2023 and 43-36 in 2022.
- In its seventh win of the 2025 season, UVA shut out North Carolina (Oct. 25) for the entire second half of regulation. During that span, the Cavaliers forced four UNC punts and nabbed two interceptions.
- Against Washington State (Oct. 18), UVA outscored the Cougars 12-0 in the fourth quarter to mount a comeback after trailing by 10 [17-7] at the half. After struggling for much of the game, the Cavaliers' offense put together a 97-yard touchdown drive, which tied the score [20-20], and then added a safety to take the lead for good with under 3:00 to play.
- On Sept. 26, then-No. 8 Florida State, which entered the game with the nation's No. 1 offense, became the first team this season to score points from scrimmage against UVA in the fourth quarter. The Seminoles were UVA's fifth opponent of the year.

WAHOOS' DEFENSIVE DELIVERANCE

- Virginia has held its last five opponents, all ACC contests, to an average of 15.4 points per game.
- The Cavaliers lead the ACC in both third-down defense (27.3%) and fewest first downs allowed (188). UVA's third-down defense conversion rate is also good for second among all FBS teams.
- UVA is also second in the ACC in scoring defense (20.0) and third in total defense (311.67).
- In its last three games (VT, Duke, Wake), the Cavaliers' defensive unit has only given up two touchdowns.
- Virginia is 9-0 in this season when forcing a turnover.
- The Cavaliers did not allow Wake Forest's offense to score a touchdown.
- With interceptions by true freshman Corey Costner and junior Kam Robinson at Cal (Nov. 1), UVA recorded two interceptions in three consecutive games (Cal, UNC, Wazzu), a first since 2011 (Idaho, Georgia Tech, NC State).
- Clutch plays down the stretch have been a determining factor in UVA's seven-game win streak.
- Robinson's pick-six at Cal put the game out of reach with under a minute to play.
- At North Carolina (Oct. 25), Emmanuel Karnley and Ja'son Prevard teamed up for a stop at the goal line on the Heels' two-point conversion attempt in overtime to deliver UVA's third overtime victory this season.
- Robinson's safety late in the fourth quarter against Washington State (Oct. 18) proved to be the game-winning score after breaking a 20-20 tie.
- Prevard's second interception of the game against then-No. 8 Florida State (Sept. 26) came on fourth down in double overtime.

CAVALIERS ARE MUCH REFINED IN GOAL-TO-GO

- Virginia has scored touchdowns on 23 of its 29 goal-to-go situations so far this year, a clip of 79.3 percent.
- UVA scored touchdowns in all three goal-to-go situations in its most recent 27-7 win over Virginia Tech (Nov. 29).
- The Cavaliers came away with TDs on their first 10 goal-to-go situations this year.
- In 2024, UVA scored 15 touchdowns in 24 goal-to-go situations, a clip of 62.5 percent.
- For a breakdown of goal-to-go scenarios, turn to page No. 35.

PROTECT THE BALL, PROTECT THE QB

- Virginia head coach Tony Elliott has said that the ball and the quarterback "are the program," underscoring the central role both play in a team's success.
- The Cavaliers have played six games this season without committing a giveaway (VT, Cal, WSU, UofL, SU, CCU).
- Virginia has turned the ball over only 11 times (8 INT, 3 fumbles), which is tied for first among all ACC teams this season.
- The only game the Cavaliers have lost a fumble was against Wake Forest (Nov. 8), when they lost three. UVA entered the matchup as one of two teams nationally to have not lost a fumble.
- Virginia has not allowed a sack in five games this year, most recently in its 34-17 road win over Duke (Nov. 15), and in its first three games of the season.
- This season marked the first time since 2011 that UVA went three consecutive games without giving up a sack. The 2011 team had the same starters in all 13 games and was comprised of Oday Aboushi, Austin Pasztor, Anthony Mihota, Luke Bowanko and Morgan Moses. Four of those players went on to play in the NFL.

ON THIS DATE: DEC. 6

- Since the program's inaugural season in 1888, Virginia has only played one game on Dec. 6.
- The game, which took place in 1897 against Vanderbilt in Nashville, Tenn., was played to a 0-0 draw.
- The game was part of the "championship of the south" after the Cavaliers finished with a 6-2 in the regular season.
- According to an article published on the Commodores' website on Sept. 11, 2014, by Nashville sports historian Bill Traugher, UVA agreed to come to Nashville for a game with a guarantee of $600, plus half of the net receipts.
- Virginia alumni in Nashville sent the following message via telegram to their alma mater, "As Virginia alumni here we strongly urge you to fulfill contract and play Vanderbilt, as no excuse exists. Otherwise Vanderbilt will publish correspondence and be awarded championship."
- Supposedly, Virginia only brought four substitutes and journeyed 26 hours on the train that brought them to Nashville.

J'MARI TAYLOR: ONE OF THE NATION'S LEADING RUSHERS

- J'Mari Taylor, who transferred to UVA this past January from North Carolina Central, leads the ACC in rushing yards (997) and leads all ACC tailbacks in rushing touchdowns (14).
- The Charlotte native is the seventh UVA player to rush for at least 14 touchdowns in season and first since Keith Payne did so in 2010. The UVA single-season record is 17 posted by Wali Lundy (2004) and Bill Dudley (1941).
- Taylor has scored at least one rushing TD in 20 of his last 23 games, dating back to his time at NCCU.
- His 83.1 rushing yards-per-game average is also good for third among all ACC players.
- Taylor has three 100-yard rushing performances this season (150 at NCSU, 133 at Duke, 105 at Cal), the most by a UVA tailback in a season since Jordan Ellis in 2018.
- Taylor scored the game-winning TDs in overtime in road contests at both North Carolina (10/25) and Louisville; both rushes occurred on direct snaps.
- His streak of 14 games with at least one touchdown that ended in UVA's 48-20 win over Stanford (9/20). During that span, Taylor had scored 23 total touchdowns, 21 of which came on the ground.
- At NC State (9/6), Taylor matched his career high of three rushing TDs and surpassed 2,000 career rushing yards.
- Taylor also became the first UVA player with five rushing TDs in the first two games of the season since Kevin Parks also had five in 2011.
- Taylor has nine career multi-rushing TD performances, including four at UVA.
- He had two rushing TDs in his Cavalier debut against Coastal Carolina (8/30).

MORRIS STEERING THE CAVALIERS' OFFENSE

- Virginia quarterback Chandler Morris is leading a UVA team that's averaging 433 yards of total offense — good for third in the ACC.
- With Morris under center, UVA (10-2) tied the program's single-season wins record, also its highest wins mark since 1989.
- Morris is one of only five ACC QBs who have completed at least 65.9 percent of passes and thrown for at least 14 touchdowns.
- Morris is averaging 215.5 yards passing and 236.2 yards of total offense per game.
- His standout performances include UVA's wins over Stanford (380 yards passing), Duke (316 yards passing) and then-No. 8 Florida State (266 yards of total offense). Morris accounted for five total TDs in wins over the Cardinal and Seminoles.
- With Morris under center, the Cavaliers have scored at least 30 points in eight games so far this season.
- For his efforts, Morris has garnered national recognition. He was named one of 20 FBS semifinalists for the Davey O'Brien Award, Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award National Player of the Week, and a two-time ACC Quarterback of the Week.
- For more info on Morris, see page 13.

BETTRIDGE ON UVA'S CAREER SCORING LIST

- Placekicker Will Bettridge is one of three players in UVA history to reach the 300-point club .
- This year, he's averaging 8.8 points per game, good for third among all ACC players and is 13th nationally (as of Nov. 29).
- For the second consecutive season, Bettridge led all UVA scorers in 2024 with 78 points (18-21 FG, 24-24 PAT).
- His 6.5 points-per-game average was good for 16th among all ACC players.

SIX WINS AT SCOTT STADIUM

- Virginia's six home victories this season mark only the third time in the past 34 years that UVA has recorded at least six wins at Scott Stadium.
- UVA has achieved six or more home wins in a season 13 times: 2025, 2019, 2002, 1991, 1989, 1951, 1925, 1914, 1913, 1912, 1911, 1910 and 1902.
- For the first time under Tony Elliott, UVA achieved a winning record at home.
- Elliott has stressed the importance of "defending Scott [Stadium]" throughout his tenure at UVA.
- Of UVA's seven home games played this season, four occurred within the first five weeks of the season
- Virginia played seven home games at Scott Stadium including four in the first five weeks of the season.

CAVALIERS RECLAIM THE COMMONWEALTH CUP

- For only the third time since 2000, Virginia defeated its in-state rival, Virginia Tech, 27-7 in the regular-season finale at Scott Stadium.
- As a result, the Cavaliers reclaimed the Commonwealth Cup for the first time since 2019 and secured the program's second-ever berth in the ACC Championship game, also a first since 2019.
- The win was also UVA's 10th of the season, which tied the program's single-season wins record set in 1989.
- Virginia's defense held Tech to 197 yards, 57 of which came on its lone score of the game, a touchdown pass late in the fourth quarter.
- It marked the first time UVA has held Virginia Tech to single-digit points since the 1991 meeting, a 38-0 victory for the Wahoos in Charlottesville.
- The Hokies' six first downs were their fewest in a game since 1998.
- An announced crowd of 58,832, the largest for a game at Scott Stadium since 2011, savored the victory Saturday night.

HOOS GOING INTERNATIONAL TO KICK OFF 2026

- Virginia and NC State will open the 2026 season in a Week 0 ACC matchup on Aug. 29 in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, at Nilton Santos Stadium (Engenhão).
- The meeting is the first-ever FBS game to be played in South America.
- Rio de Janeiro hosted the FIFA World Cup in 1950 and 2014, the 2016 Summer Olympic Games, and Copa America as recently as 2021. The National Football League has held matchups in São Paulo and recently signed a multi-year agreement to bring at least three more games to Brazil over five years, starting with a game in Rio de Janeiro in 2026
- In May 2024, Virginia and NC State announced a home-and-home football non-conference series; however, the 2026 matchup will now be contested as a conference game, as announced by the ACC.
- In a designated non-conference game earlier this season, the Wolfpack intercepted a UVA pass in the end zone to seal a 35-31 victory in Raleigh.
- First contested in 1904, the Wolfpack lead the all-time series with UVA, 38-22-1.
- Virginia will still host six regular-season home games at Scott Stadium in 2026.
- The event, College Football Brasil, is powered by Athlete Advantage, in partnership with Brasil Sports Business, and with the full support of the Governor of the Rio de Janeiro State, Claudio Castro, and the city of Rio de Janeiro through the Mayor Eduardo Paes, highlighting one of the world's premier sports cities.

POP-TARTS CRAZY GOOD TEAM OF THE WEEK

- Following its 46-38 double-overtime win over No. 8 Florida State (Sept. 26), Virginia was named the Pop-Tarts Crazy Good Team of the Week, as selected by the All-America Committee of the Football Writers Association of America.
- This is the third time for Virginia (4-1, 2-0 in the ACC) to receive the award from the FWAA and the first time in two seasons since it won at No. 10 North Carolina, 31-27, the weekend of Oct. 21, 2023.
- Since 2002, the FWAA has named a National Team of the Week. Coming into the 2025 season, 284 teams have been honored, including 101 different Division I programs. Each honored team will receive a custom Pop-Tarts "care package" along with a hand-crafted game ball made in America by Dallas-based Big Game USA, the nation's leading manufacturer of custom footballs.

HISTORIC WIN OVER NO. 8 FLORIDA STATE

- On the night of Friday, Sept. 26, unranked Virginia toppled No. 8 Florida State 46-38 in double overtime at Scott Stadium.
- UVA QB Chandler Morris led the effort on offense with five total touchdowns, including three rushing, and completed 26 of his 35 passing attempts for 229 yards. Defensively, nickelback Ja'son Prevard finished with a career-best two interceptions including one on the final play of double overtime.
- The win marked UVA's first over a top-10 opponent at Scott Stadium 2005, when it since defeated the fourth-ranked Seminoles 26-21. It was also UVA's first home win over a top-25 opponent since 2020, when the Hoos knocked off then-No. 15 North Carolina.

- UVA's victory was its third over a ranked opponent under head coach Tony Elliott (No. 8 FSU-2025, No. 23 Pitt-2024, No. 10 UNC-2023). Elliott joined George Welsh (4) as the second head coach in program history with multiple top-10 wins.
- The win also marked the second of the season (as of Sept. 30) by an unranked FBS team over a top-10 team. The other was when then-unranked FSU upset then-No. 8 Alabama 31-17 in week 1.
- UVA's 46 points are its most ever against in Florida State, its highest-ever against a top-10 opponent, and the most by an unranked ACC team vs. a top-10 foe since 2009 (per Stats Perform).
- The nationally-televised contest on ESPN peaked at 6.9 million viewers, the most-watched ESPN game on record (excluding Black Friday holiday games).

CARTER, RICKERT BRING WEALTH OF EXPERIENCE TO CAVALIERS' DEFENSIVE LINE

- Entering the 2025 season, Virginia defensive linemen Jahmeer Carter (44) and Daniel Rickert (36) had combined for 80 career starts – the most of any defensive line duo in the nation.
- Both Carter and Rickert are now in their sixth season of college football.
- Carter is one of two players on this year's roster who has spent the last six seasons at UVA.
- Rickert transferred to Virginia this offseason after five season at Tennessee Tech.

WAYLEE'S BURST ON TO THE SCENE

- Tailback Harrison Waylee exploded for three touchdowns and 151 yards rushing in UVA's 55-16 rout of William & Mary (9/13).
- His performance was highlighted by the longest rush from scrimmage in UVA history, a 97-yard dash in the third quarter. It's the longest by any NCAA rusher this season, and he is one of two Power 4 running backs (Jeremiyah Love, Notre Dame) with a rush of at least 97 yards dating back to 2019.
- It was his third multi-TD game of his career and first since he had three against Ball State in 2022 when he played for Northern Illinois.
- The W&M game marked the first time since 2004 in which UVA had a player scored three rushing touchdowns in consecutive games (J.Taylor at NC State & Waylee vs. William & Mary). Wali Lundy scored three rushing TDs in three straight games against Akron, North Carolina and Temple in 2004.
- Waylee went over the 100-yard mark for the first time as a Cavalier and the 14th time for his career.
- Waylee leads all active FBS players with 3,368 rushing yards over the course of 39 career appearances.

vs. Duke

Note: For the first eight games of the season, Virginia elected game captains on a week-to-week basis. After UVA's eighth game at North Carolina (Oct. 25), head coach Tony Elliott announced the following players as season captains by virtue of a players-only vote: Jahmeer Carter (NT), Sage Ennis (TE), James Jackson (LB) and Chandler Morris (QB).

CAM ROSS' HISTORIC UVA DEBUT PERFORMANCE

- In his UVA debut against Coastal Carolina (8/30), receiver Cam Ross accounted for 224 all-purpose yards and two total touchdowns.
- In the third quarter of UVA's dominant 48-7 season-opening victory, Ross returned a CCU kickoff 100 yards for a touchdown, which tied for the longest kickoff return in school history.
- He also had seven catches for 124 yards, highlighted by a 29-yard TD reception. His 124 receiving yards marked the fourth 100-yard receiving game of his career.
- Ross became the first FBS player since 2020 to record at least 120 yards receiving and return a kick for a touchdown in the same game.
- For his performance, he was named the ACC's Receiver and Specialist of the Week (Sept. 2), and became the first UVA player ever to earn both honors.

MORRIS' FOURTH CONSECUTIVE YEAR STARTING

- For the fourth consecutive year, Chandler Morris was the starting quarterback in his team's season opener.
- Morris was one of 14 FBS quarterbacks to start for his team for the fourth consecutive year.
- Morris was named the top signal caller on UVA's depth chart heading into fall camp. The previous two seasons (2023-24) featured QB battles. Virginia did not return a QB that completed a pass in 2024.
- Morris started all 13 games for North Texas in 2024. At TCU, he started the first six games of the 2023 season before injuring his left knee – the same knee that had sidelined him in the 2022 season opener and subsequently kept him out for the remainder of the year.
- Morris is one of only four FBS QBs to start for at least three different schools. The others are Bowling Green's Drew Pyne (Missouri, Arizona State & Notre Dame), Eastern Michigan's Noah Kim (Coastal Carolina & Michigan State) and Fresno State's E.J. Warner (Rice & Temple).

MORRIS' PRE-EXISTING TIES TO TONY ELLIOTT

- Chandler Morris' father, Chad Morris, coached alongside Tony Elliott at Clemson, where Morris served as offensive coordinator from 2011-14.
- As a child, Chandler often spent time around the Clemson football facility with the children of Dabo Swinney and Brent Venables.
- Chad was also the head coach at SMU (2015-17) and Arkansas (2018-19).
- On the timing of the decision, Elliott said: "to go in this offseason without a true quarterback controversy or battle or waiting until the end of camp ... I think was important for our football team especially with the number of transfers we brought in."

TRANSFER CONNECTIONS

- Defensive end Mitchell Melton (Ohio State) and wideout Jayden Thomas (Notre Dame) squared off against each other in the 2024 national championship game, with the Melton and the Buckeyes prevailing, 34-23.
- Army defensive back transfer Donavon Platt's most recent interception came against current UVA QB Chandler Morris. Platt intercepted a pass in the red zone in then-No. 18 Army's 14-3 victory over North Texas on Nov. 9, 2024.
- UVA's offensive line coach and offensive run game coordinator Terry Heffernan coached offensive lineman Drake Metcalf for two seasons (2021-22) at Stanford.

THIRTY-TWO (32) NEW CAVALIER TRANSFERS

- This offseason, head coach Tony Elliott and his staff added 32 transfers to the 2025 roster.
- Of the 32 newest transfers, 16 play defense, 15 play offense, and one is a long snapper.

AN EMBARRASSMENT OF RICHES

- Virginia is the only FBS program with 19 combined sixth- and seventh-year players.
- Additionally, UVA and Colorado are the only two FBS schools with three players who are in their seventh season of college football.
- Virginia's group seventh-years includes Antonio Clary (S), Cam Ross (WR) and Kenan Johnson (DB).
- UVA's sixth-year players are: Chandler Morris (QB), Harrison Waylee (RB), Owen Gardner (RB), Walker Wallace (TE), Drake Metcalf (OL), Monroe Mills (OL), Ethan Sipe (OL), Brady Wilson (OL), Tyshawn Wyatt (OL), Mitchell Melton (DE), Daniel Rickert (DE), Jahmeer Carter (DT), Da'Marcus Crosby II (DB), Devin Neal (S) and Daniel Sparks (P).
- Clary has spent all seven seasons at UVA and battled numerous injuries throughout his career.
- Ross (James Madison) transferred to UVA in January, while Johnson transferred in May.
- Of its 16 sixth-year players, Carter is the only one who has played at UVA for the entirety of his college career.

LOOK HOOS DEEP IN THE TRENCHES

- With the addition of seven offensive linemen by way of the transfer portal this offseason, Virginia entered the 2025 season with the nation's most experienced offensive line, based on the combined number of career games played (334) and starts (213).
- Entering 2025, UVA was the only program whose offensive line combined for at least 300 career appearances and 200 career starts.
- Noah Josey (guard) and McKale Boley (tackle) are UVA's only returning starters on the offensive line from last year.
- Virginia's offensive line is led by assistant coach Terry Heffernan, who also serves as the program's offensive run game coordinator.
- On Aug. 6, head coach Tony Elliott told the media that Makilan Thomas (foot) is expected to miss "multiple months," while Monroe Mills (knee) is not expected to play this season.
- Elliott on this year's offensive line group: "Even though I'm a receiver at heart and coached skill guys my whole life, you win up front ... And that's why the biggest area that we addressed was the offensive line and adding depth to the offensive line. That's probably the one position that we've been playing catch up the most over the last three years, but with the addition of the seven guys that we brought in this offseason, I think we're in a space now where we can have competitive depth, which creates for competitive practice, which allows us to create that chemistry."

A LOOK BACK AT 2024 SLATE

- Three of the Cavaliers' final four opponents (No. 23 Pitt, No. 8 Notre Dame, No. 13 SMU) of the 2024 season were ranked in the AP top-25 poll at the time of each matchup.
- The SMU game marked only the sixth instance in program history (1949, 1996, 2002, 2005, 2019, 2021, 2024) in which the Cavaliers faced three consecutive opponents ranked in the AP top-25 poll.
- Entering the game against Pitt, UVA was tied for the fourth-most difficult remaining schedule, based on opponent win percentage, according to WarrenNolan.com.
- Both SMU and Clemson went on to secure their spot in the ACC Championship game and College Football Playoff.
- After knocking off Indiana, Georgia and Penn State in the CFP, Notre Dame advanced to the national championship game, where the Fighting Irish fell 34-24 to Ohio State.

2024 STORYLINES IN REVIEW

- Virginia (3-5 ACC) finished only one win away from .500 in league play in 2024. The Cavaliers mounted fourth-quarter comebacks at Wake Forest (31-30) and against Boston College (24-14). UVA earned its signature win in a 24-19 road win over then-No. 23 Pitt in primetime.
- Behind a dominant 384-rushing-yard performance, the Cavaliers downed Coastal Carolina 43-24 to secure UVA's largest margin of victory on the road under head coach Tony Elliott.
- After a standout senior campaign in 2024, former safety Jonas Sanker was selected 93rd overall by the New Orleans Saints in the third round of the 2025 NFL Draft.
- Sanker was a two-time First Team All-ACC selection and became UVA's only four-time ACC Defensive Back of the Week in the same season (2024).

IN GOOD HANDS

- Virginia is one of 13 schools with a female athletic trainer as its primary care provider for the football program. Associate Athletics Director for Sports Medicine, Kelli Pugh, has worked closely with the UVA football program since 2002.
- Of those 13 female athletic trainers, Pugh is one of six working at Power-4 institutions.

LEGACY PATCHES

To honor Lavel Davis Jr., Devin Chandler and D'Sean Perry the No. 1 (worn by Suderian Harrison and James Jackson), No. 15 (worn by Dillon Newton-Short and Hunter Osborne Ivy) and No. 41 (worn by Will Bettridge) jerseys will each feature a legacy patch. Harrison both attended Woodland High School in South Carolina. Bettridge, who wore No. 17 as a first-year, switched to No. 41 in 2023, to honor his former high school teammate, Perry. Each year the staff will seek input from the families of Davis, Chandler and Perry about who will wear Nos. 1, 15 and 41.

BRYCE PERKINS EARNS UFL MVP HONORS

- Former UVA quarterback Bryce Perkins was named the 2025 MVP of the United Football League after passing for 1,342 yards and nine touchdowns in seven games. Perkins also rushed for 269 yards and five touchdowns.
- Perkins was previously a member of the Los Angeles Rams from 2020-22 and made his NFL debut in 2022, playing in five games with one start.
- He was a member of the Rams’ roster, which defeated the Cincinnati Bengals 23-20 to win Super Bowl LVI in 2022.

ACADEMIC REPORT CARD

- The UVA football program recorded its highest-ever semester team GPA with a 3.22 during the 2025 spring semester.
- At his introductory press conference head coach Tony Elliott stated, “I chose UVA because I wanted to lead a program that was partnered with a university that had world-class academics. I wanted to be able to recruit the best and the brightest student-athletes ... I wanted to be part of a university and athletic department that would not compromise its values to win.”
- “My vision for the UVA football program is to become the model in college football, the model program in college football,” Elliott said. “My goal is to contribute to changing the narrative in college football and demonstrate that you can win at the highest level and you can do so while achieving excellence in education, leadership and service.”
- In 2002, Elliott earned his bachelor’s degree in industrial engineering from Clemson, where he was a first-team All-ACC Academic selection and a CoSIDA Academic District III member. He was also a recipient of the ACC’s Weaver-James-Corrigan Postgraduate Scholarship.

HARDIE FOOTBALL OPERATIONS CENTER

- In June 2024, Virginia Athletics proudly opened the 93,000-square-foot Molly and Robert Hardie Football Operations Center, which conveniently sits adjacent to the team’s George Welsh Indoor Practice Facility and outdoor practice fields.
- The state-of-the-art space encompasses: the team locker, players’ lounge and 96-person dining space, 14,000-square-foot strength and condition space with over 150,000 lbs of weight-lifting equipment, cardio mezzanine, 195-seat team meeting space, tiered-seating meeting spaces for each position group, and coaches’ offices.
- The Hardie Center recently opened its full-service dining hall capable of providing meals for the entire team and staff.
- The exterior of the Hardie Center displays a classic yet chic design and is enclosed by red brick, which is synonymous with the architectural style of the University’s most prominent edifices across Grounds such as The Rotunda.
- Of the Hardie Center, Fralin Family Football head coach Tony Elliott said, “I wanted the building to be timeless. I wanted to capture all different eras, to be contemporary enough to show the flash and the glitz and glamor as an area for certain recruits, but then also pay homage to all the guys that didn’t have an opportunity to walk through those doors today but laid the foundation for Virginia football.”

CARLA WILLIAMS ON CFP COMMITTEE

- On Feb. 8, 2024, Virginia Director of Athletics Carla Williams was named to the College Football Playoff (CFP) Management Committee.
- As a member of the committee, Williams began a three-year term beginning in the spring of 2024.
- “Carla is an outstanding advocate for college football and will be a knowledgeable, passionate and valuable member of the College Football Playoff Selection Committee,” said ACC Commissioner Jim Phillips. “Throughout her time at Virginia as well as her entire career, Carla has consistently shown to be a tremendous leader.”
- Williams is in her eighth year as director of athletics at Virginia. During her time in Charlottesville, UVA teams have captured multiple national titles across numerous sports, including the 2019 men’s basketball title, 2019 and 2021 men’s lacrosse titles, four straight women’s swimming and diving championships from 2021-24, and the 2022 and 2023 men’s tennis team titles. In addition, UVA has won 2022 ACC Championships.
- Williams was a three-year starter and All-SEC guard for the Georgia women’s basketball team from 1987-89. Williams then served as an assistant coach for the team before moving into administration as UGA’s assistant director of compliance for a year before taking administrative roles at Florida State and Vanderbilt.

Tony Elliott, a patient man, was looking for the right fit when it came time for him to leave the assistant coaching ranks and take on the responsibility of running a collegiate football program as the head coach. During his 11-year tenure at Clemson, his alma mater, several opportunities presented themselves, but it was not until Virginia came calling that he felt the setting was right for what he wants to accomplish.

On Dec. 10, 2021, Elliott was named the University of Virginia's Fralin Family Head Football Coach. At his introductory press conference, he explained his decision to become the Cavaliers' head coach and what he wants to accomplish in Charlottesville.

"I chose UVA because I wanted to lead a program that was partnered with a university that had world-class academics," he said "I wanted to be able to recruit the best and the brightest student-athletes."

"I wanted to compete in the best conference in college athletics. I wanted to be a part of an alignment with (athletic director) Ms. Carla (Williams) and President (Jim) Ryan that shared a vision that was similar to mine, which is centered around the holistic development of the student-athlete. And lastly, I wanted to be part of a university and athletic department that would not compromise its values to win.

"There is no better place for me than UVA. And there is no better time than now."

With that, Elliott went to work crafting what he had hoped to build for years – The Model Program.

"My vision for the UVA football program is to become the model in college football, the model program in college football," he said. "My goal is to contribute to changing the narrative in college football and demonstrate that you can win at the highest level and you can do so while achieving excellence in education, leadership and service."

Elliott's cornerstones of that culture are based on H.E.A.R.T. – humility, effort, accountability, respect and toughness.

"I think that building a championship culture starts with making sure that you have alignment and a vision," he said. "You clearly state the vision and you are particular in the people that you bring in and make sure that they align with the vision, and then you stay grounded to the principles that you set in place for the players and the staff, and you go to work every single day, and you keep an inside-out mentality. It's one day at a time, and eventually that will bring your championship culture to life."

Elliott's background and coaching pedigree is rich with championship experiences.

He spent 11 seasons as an assistant on Dabo Swinney's staff at Clemson. In January of 2021, he was named the program's assistant head coach and offensive coordinator. He previously served as the team's co-offensive coordinator (2014-20) and the team's running backs coach (2011-20).

At Clemson, Elliott was a part of a 10-season stretch in which the Tigers won 10 or more games. In that span, Clemson won six Atlantic Coast Conference Championships, made four appearances in the College Football Playoff National Championship game and captured national titles in 2016 and 2018.

After Elliott's promotion to co-offensive coordinator prior to the 2014 Russell Athletic Bowl, the Tigers posted an 89-10 record and ranked in the top 12 nationally in total offense. Clemson either led or ranked No. 2 in the ACC in total offense in five of his seven seasons as an offensive coordinator. Elliott's 2018 and 2019 offenses were responsible for two of the 22 650-point seasons in major college football history.

Elliott was named the Frank Broyles Award recipient as the nation's top assistant coach in 2017. Before transitioning to the tight ends room this year, Elliott was in charge of Clemson's running backs for his first 10 seasons. In that time, he guided Clemson running back Travis Etienne to one of the most illustrious careers in ACC and college football history, helping him set the NCAA record for most games scoring a touchdown (46) and secure ACC records for career rushing yards (4,952), total touchdowns (78), rushing touchdowns (70) and points (468).

As the program's offensive coordinator, Elliott worked with two first-round draft picks at quarterback, including the 2021 first overall pick Trevor Lawrence. From 2015-2020, a Clemson offensive player took home both the ACC's Player of the Year and Offensive Player of the Year awards four times.

Prior to returning to his alma mater, Elliott spent three seasons at Furman (2008-10) and two at South Carolina State (2006-07) coaching wide receivers at both schools. Prior to his coaching career he worked for Michelin North America for two years.

In 2002, Elliott earned his undergraduate degree in industrial engineering from Clemson, where he was a first-team Academic All-ACC selection as well as a CoSIDA Academic District III member. He was also a recipient of an ACC Weaver-James-Corrigan Postgraduate Scholarship.

Under Tommy Bowden, he came to Clemson as a walk-on wide receiver in the fall of 1999 and finished his career with four letters and appeared in 44 games. Swinney was his position coach his senior year (2003) in which he was named a co-captain of a team that finished with a 9-4 record and a No. 22 final ranking by AP and USA Today.

SCOTT STADIUM, HOME OF THE CAVALIERS
- The Carl Smith Center, home of David A. Harrison III Field at Scott Stadium, with its unique architectural design, scenic setting on the University's Grounds and exceptional sight lines, is one of the nation's finest college football settings. - Opened in 1931, Scott Stadium might be one of the oldest campus college football stadiums in the nation, but you could never tell from its appearance. Numerous upgrades and expansions make it a modern home for the Cavaliers and their fans. - Scott Stadium was the gift of Frederic William Scott and Elisabeth Strother Scott, and was dedicated to the memory of his parents, Frederic Robert Scott and Frances Branch Scott. - Virginia played its dedication game at Scott Stadium on Oct. 15, 1931 against the Virginia Military Institute before a then-capacity crowd of 22,000. Prior to that season, the Cavaliers staged their home games at the University's Lambeth Field. - Virginia has played 490 games in the historic venue. UVA's all-time record at Scott Stadium stands at 284-194-12.

Game 12 • Virginia 27, Virginia Tech 7
Saturday, Nov. 29 • Charlottesville, Va./Scott Stadium

Virginia Team Notes

- Virginia won its ninth game of the season, the ninth time in program history and first time since 2019 that the Cavaliers have won nine games in a season.
- Virginia clinched its second-ever berth in the ACC Championship game (est. 2005) and will play Duke on Dec. 6 in Charlotte. The only other time UVA played in the conference title game was in 2019.
- UVA matched the program's single season record of 10 wins. The 1989 team is the only other team in program history to achieve a 10-win season.
- For the first time in program history, UVA (7-1) finished the regular season in sole possession of first place in the ACC standings.
- only Elliott, who's in his fourth season at UVA, became the fastest UVA head football coach to clinch at least a share of first place in the final ACC standings.
- The Cavaliers were co-ACC champions in 1989 and 1995.
- UVA's 7-1 record in ACC play also tied with the 1995 Cavaliers' best record in ACC play in school history.
- Virginia's six home victories this season mark just the third time in the past 34 years that UVA has recorded at least six wins at Scott Stadium. Entering Saturday's game, UVA has achieved six or more home wins in a season 13 times: 2025, 2019, 2002, 1991, 1989, 1951, 1925, 1914, 1913, 1912, 1911, 1910, and 1902.
- Elliott is now 6-0 as UVA head coach in games following a bye week.
- Virginia forced two turnovers and improved to 9-0 this season when forcing a turnover.
- Saturday marked the first time UVA has held Virginia Tech to single-digit points since the 1991 meeting, a 38-0 victory in Charlottesville.
- Virginia has held its last five opponents, all ACC contests, to an average of 15.4 points per game.
- UVA achieved its largest overall win improvement from year to year since 1986 (3-8) to 1987 (8-4). The only other time in program history that UVA improved by five games from one season to the next was in 1892 (3-2-1) to 1893 (8-3). The Cavaliers finished 5-7 overall in 2024.
- Virginia recorded the program's 698th all-time win. UVA's first season of football was 1888.
- The Cavaliers earned their second victory of the series with Virginia Tech for only the second time in the last 21 meetings, dating back to 2004.
- The Cavaliers held the Hokies scoreless in the first half. It marked the third team they held scoreless in a half this season.
- Prior to Virginia Tech's fourth-quarter touchdown, UVA's defense had allowed only one offensive touchdown in the previous 11 quarters (4th quarter at Duke).
- UVA now has 12 interceptions on the season, its most in a season since 2019. With Maddox Marcellus' first quarter interception, eight different Cavaliers have picked off a pass this season.
- The Cavaliers held the Hokies to four completed passes. The last time they held a team with five or less was in 2018 against Georgia Tech, when the Yellow Jackets had only one completion.
- Virginia held the Hokies to six first downs, the fewest by a UVA opponent since Akron's six on Sept. 18, 2004.
- Virginia Tech was 2-for-14 (14.3%) on third-down conversions, the lowest by a UVA opponent since Notre Dame was 1-for-12 on Nov. 16, 2024. The Cavaliers came into the contest ranked third in the country in third down defense.
- Virginia secured its sixth victory of the season while ranked in the AP poll. It marked the first time since 2004 that UVA recorded six or more wins in a year in which it appeared in every AP Top 25.
- UVA earned its second straight victory over the Hokies on Nov. 29. The previous time the Cavaliers defeated Virginia Tech on that date was Nov. 29, 2019, at Scott Stadium.

Virginia Individual Player Notes

- Making his first start of the season and first since playing for Eastern Kentucky last season, linebacker Maddox Marcellus led the Cavaliers with nine tackles (3 solo) and recorded his first interception as a Cavalier and third of his career. He was also credited with a half sack and one tackle for loss.
- Tailback J'Mari Taylor played in his 50th college game and finished with 80 yards on 20 carries and scored his 14th touchdown of the season. He is three yards shy of 1,000 for the season and leads the ACC with 997.
- Taylor is the seventh UVA player to rush for 14 touchdowns in season and the first since Keith Payne in 2010. The UVA single-season record is 17 posted by Wali Lundy (2004) and Bill Dudley (1941).
- Taylor also was credited with his first career touchdown pass with a 1-yard pass to Sage Ennis in the second quarter. He is the first non-QB to throw a TD pass for UVA since Olamide Zaccheaus vs. Duke in 2015.
- Taylor is the first ACC running back with a passing touchdown and a rushing touchdown in the same game since Clemson's Will Shipley against Wake Forest in 2021. Tony Elliott was Clemson's offensive coordinator. He's only the second UVA running back since 1995 to accomplish the feat, joining Wali Lundy against Western Michigan 2003.
- Quarterback Chandler Morris rushed for his career-best, fifth touchdown of the season. He now has 15 in his collegiate career.
- Wide receiver Kam Courtney established a career high with six receptions and had 50 yards receiving.
- Kicker Will Bettridge took over sole possession of third place on UVA's all-time scoring list with nine points (2-2 FG / 3-3 XP). He now has 302 career points and is 10 points behind Wali Lundy (312).

Game 11 • Virginia 34, Duke 17
Saturday, Nov. 15 • Durham, N.C./Wallace Wade Stadium

Virginia Team Notes

- Virginia won its ninth game of the season, the ninth time in program history and first time since 2019 that the Cavaliers have won nine games in a season.
- The 9-2 start to the season is the best 11-game start since 2007.
- Virginia has won four-straight road games to match a school record set in 1984 and 1990. The Cavaliers finished the regular season 4-1 on the road.
- UVA improved to 6-1 in the ACC, the first time UVA has won six of its first seven ACC games since 2007 and only the fourth time ever (1989, 1995, 2007, 2025).
- The Cavaliers are assured of at least a 6-2 record in ACC regular-season games for the first time since 2019. That year, UVA went on to face Clemson and Tony Elliott, both at the time served as the Tigers' offense coordinator, in the ACC championship game.
- Virginia tallied its fifth win of the season while ranked in the AP poll (No. 20). The last time UVA had five or more wins while ranked in the AP top-25 was in 2004, when it was ranked in every game that year.
- Virginia improved to 42-34 in the all-time series with Duke, which was first contested in 1890. UVA's 42 wins over the Blue Devils are third-most against any other opponent in program history. The Cavaliers have won nine of the last 10 meetings against Duke.
- UVA has totaled at least 30 points in eight games this year, a feat not achieved since the 2021 season.
- The Cavaliers started the game with their longest opening drive of the season, which spanned 6:47 and ended with a five-yard touchdown by J'Mari Taylor.
- Duke's first touchdown in the fourth quarter marked the first surrendered by UVA in a play from scrimmage in its last seven quarters of action (123 minutes and 34 seconds). The last touchdown from scrimmage by a UVA opponent was Cal (Nov. 1), which score early in the fourth quarter.
- UVA has scored first in 10 of its 11 games and is 9-1 when scoring first this season.
- UVA held the Blue Devils to season lows in several categories, including total offense (255) rushing yards (42), passing yards (213), pass completions (18), points scored (17) and first downs (11).
- Duke entered Saturday's game as the No. 4 passing offense (312.9) in the country, while also averaging 35.2 points per game, good for fourth in the ACC and No. 22 in FBS.
- The Virginia defense held the Blue Devils to 16 yards of total offense in the first quarter. This is the lowest Duke has had in a quarter this season.
- Virginia held Duke to three first-downs in the opening half. Duke is the third UVA opponent to be held to less than five first-downs this season.
- Virginia held the Blue Devils to 50 yards of total offense in the first half. Duke is the fifth opponent that UVA has held to under 100 yards in a half this season.
- For the sixth time this season, UVA held its opponent to without a touchdown in the first half.
- UVA doubled its opponent's total yardage (540 to 255) for the second time this season (W&M; 700 to 263).

Virginia Individual Player Notes

- Trell Harris (8 rec, 161 yards, 1 TD) is the first Cavalier wide receiver with at least 150 yards receiving since Malik Washington against Louisville in 2023. Harris' eight receptions and 161 yards are career bests.
- Harris' third reception of the game, a 29-yard catch in the second quarter, marked the 100th of his career.
- J'Mari Taylor (18 rushes, 133 yards 2 TD) has scored at least one rushing TD in 19 of last 22 games dating back to his time at NC Central. Taylor now has 13 touchdowns this season, the most by a Cavalier in a season since Keith Payne had 14 in 2010. Taylor also now has 36 career rushing touchdowns.
- Taylor broke a 78-yard TD rush in the third quarter, which is tied for the 11th-longest rush in school history (Alvin Pearman vs. Virginia Tech in 2004).
- For the fourth time this season, Taylor rushed for multiple touchdowns. The last UVA player to record four multi-rushing TD games was Brennan Armstrong in 2021.
- With Taylor and Harris' performances, UVA had a 100-yard pass catcher and 100-yard rusher in the same game for the first time since 2023 against William & Mary. Pernis Jones (134 yards rushing) and Malik Washington (112 yards receiving) were the last duo to accomplish that feat.
- Taylor and Harris combined for a total of 319 all-purpose yards, the most by a Cavalier duo since Keytaon Thompson (151) and RaShaun Henry's (179) 330 all-purpose yards at Louisville (Oct. 9, 2021).
- Chandler Morris (23-35, 316 yards, 2 TD) went over the 300-yard mark for the second time this season (the other was against Stanford, when he had 380) and the 11th time of his career.
- Morris' touchdown pass in the second quarter to Sage Ennis was the 60th touchdown pass of his career. Morris now has 61 career passing TDs.
- Fisher Camac (6 tackles, 3 solo, 2 sacks, 2.5 TFL, 1 QBH) is the third Cavalier to record a multi-sack game this season, joining Mitchell Melton (2 vs. Louisville) and Daniel Rickett (2 vs. Stanford). Camac upped his season total to 4.5 and now has 13 career sacks.
- On fourth down in the third quarter, defensive end Mitchell Melton recorded a strip sack and recovered his own forced fumble. It was Melton's third forced fumble this season, which leads the team. Melton is one three Cavaliers in the last 10 years with at least three forced fumbles in a season. Jonas Sanker had three in 2023, and Micah Kiser had five in 2016.
- Defensive tackle Jacob Holmes matched his career high of six tackles. Holmes also had one sack and 1.5 tackles for loss.
- Cornerback Emmanuel Karnley finished with a career-high three pass break-ups. Karnley also started in Saturday's game at Durham, his seventh of the season and fifth consecutive start.
- With two catches, receiver Jahmal Edrine reached 100 receptions for his career.
- Linebacker and team captain James Jackson appeared in his 50th career game.
- With 10 points, Will Bettridge (2-2 FG, 4-4 PAT) is now tied for third on UVA's career scoring list with Gene Mayer (1912-15). Bettridge has 293 career points.

Game 10 • Wake Forest 16, Virginia 9
Saturday, Nov. 8 • Charlottesville, Va./Scott Stadium

Virginia Team Notes

- Virginia's seven-game win streak came to a close. The win streak tied for the program record. UVA also recorded seven-game streaks in 1914, 1945, 1949, 1990 and 2007.
- UVA's five-game win streak in ACC play – a program record – also ended.
- With an overall record of 8-2, UVA is still off to its best start since 2007.
- The Cavaliers are now one of five ACC teams with only one loss in conference play (Duke, Georgia Tech, Pitt, SMU and Virginia).
- The result was UVA's first home loss of the season and first since the SMU game in 2024.
- The night game was UVA's fifth at Scott Stadium this season. UVA is now 4-1 in home night games this season.
- UVA dipped to 35-18 in the all-time series with Wake Forest, which began in 1889. The Demon Deacons have won three straight games at Scott Stadium (2012, 2021, 2025).
- Five of the Cavaliers' last six games have been decided by one score. UVA is now 4-1 in such contests. The Cavaliers had also won their previous four games decided by one score.
- For the first time this season, UVA lost a fumble after losing three fumbles to the Demon Deacons. Miami and UVA were the only two FBS teams to have not lost a fumble entering Saturday's contest. UVA had 10 fumbles entering the game, none of them were recovered by a UVA opponent.
- Despite the loss, Virginia outgained Wake Forest 327-203. Virginia has outgained its opponent in both losses this season (NC State & Wake Forest)
- The 203 yards of total offense by Wake Forest are the fewest allowed by UVA since 2022 against Georgia Tech (56 rush, 146 pass).
- UVA's stop on fourth down at the five-yard line in the second quarter was the second goal-to-go stop of the season. The other came against Florida State on the first of two interceptions by Ja'son Prevard.
- Virginia held the Demon Deacons to only 64 yards passing, the fewest by a UVA opponent since Nov. 17, 2018, against Georgia Tech, when the Yellow Jackets had 37 yards through the air.
- Wake Forest completed only nine passes, the fewest by a UVA opponent since 2021 (Virginia Tech). The Cavaliers' defense surrendered no passing yards in the third quarter.
- Virginia recorded its second blocked punt of the season. It marks the first time UVA has blocked two punts in a season since 2013. Coming into the week, only 17 teams in the country had multiple blocked punts.
- UVA surrendered a punt return for a touchdown for the first time since 2017, when Pitt's Quadre Henderson returned a 75-yarder at Heinz Field.
- The last time Virginia gave up only 16 points or less in a loss was in a 14-12 overtime decision against Miami on Oct. 9, 2022.
- The announced crowd of Saturday's game was 55,568, which marks the first time since 2007 in which UVA has drawn a crowd of at least 50,000 in three consecutive games.

Virginia Individual Player Notes

- Kam Robinson blocked a punt on Wake Forest's opening drive. It marked the first blocked punt by a UVA player since Caleb Hardy's in UVA's 2025 season opener against Coastal Carolina (8/30).
- In Robinson's last five games, he has two interceptions returned for touchdowns, a tackle for loss that resulted in a game-winning safety and a blocked punt.
- Robinson had a game-high 10 tackles in the contest, the fourth double-digit tackle effort of the season.
- J'Mari Taylor was two yards shy of 100 yards rushing and hauled in a career-high six passes for 30 yards. It marked the fifth time this season with 85 or more rushing yards and his fifth game with 100 or more all-purpose yards.
- Daniel Kaelin's 54-yard rush in the second quarter was the 12th run of 50 or more yards by a Cavalier quarterback in program history. It was the longest since Brennan Armstrong's 64-yard touchdown rush against Richmond in the 2022 season opener.
- In the third quarter, sophomore wideout Kam Courtney had a career-long 34-yard reception.
- Receiver Cam Ross played in his 50th collegiate game on Saturday.

Game 9 • Virginia 31, Cal 21
Saturday, Nov. 1 • Berkeley, Calif./California Memorial Stadium

Virginia Team Notes

- Virginia is 8-1 to start the season for only the second time in program history and first time since 1990. UVA's eight wins are its most since the 2019 season (9-5).
- The Cavaliers have won seven straight games, a first under head coach Tony Elliott and UVA's first seven-game win streak since 2007, when it also won seven in a row.
- For the first time in program history, UVA is 5-0 in ACC play.
- The five-game, in-season win streak in ACC play is a program first. The Cavaliers' five wins in conference play assures them of a winning record in ACC action for the first time since 2019, when the Cavaliers finished 6-2. UVA went on to face Clemson and Elliott, who served as the Tigers' offense coordinator, in the ACC Championship game.
- Saturday was the first-ever meeting between Virginia and Cal. The Cavaliers are now 3-0 against each of its first-time opponents on their 2025 schedule (Stanford, Washington State & Cal) and have won nine of the last 10 against first-time foes dating back to 2018.
- The victory was the program's first-ever in the Pacific Time Zone. UVA entered the contest winless in its previous four attempts.
- The win is the first while ranked as high as No. 15 in the AP top-25 and since Nov. 6, 2004, when the 12th-ranked Cavaliers shut out Maryland, 12-0.
- Virginia has won three consecutive ACC road games for the first time since 2011. It has now also won three road games overall in back-to-back seasons, a first since 1998-99.
- UVA scored on its opening drive touchdown, a first since the Stanford game on Sept. 20. Virginia improved to 3-1 when scoring on its opening drive.
- Virginia forced two turnovers (two INTs) in the contest. The Cavaliers have forced a turnover in six-straight games and are 6-0 in those contests. Corey Costner's interception in the third quarter was the first turnover by Cal in 10 quarters and first since playing Duke on Oct. 4.
- The Cavaliers did not turn the ball over for the fifth time this season and have yet to lose a fumble through nine games. UVA entered the contest as one of three FBS yet to lose a fumble this season.
- UVA finished with 10 third-down conversions on offense. The Cavaliers have now recorded seven games with at least seven third-down conversions, the most of any FBS team this season.

Virginia Individual Player Notes

- Running back J'Mari Taylor rushed 21 times for 105 yards and two touchdowns. It marked his second, 100-yard rushing performance of the season and sixth of his career. Three Cavaliers (Taylor, Waylee and Vaughn) have rushed for over 100 yards in a game this season.
- Taylor has 11 rushing touchdowns this season and 34 for his career. It marks the third multi-score game of the season for Taylor and eighth of his career (3 at UVA, 5 at NCCU).
- The 11 rushing touchdowns are the most in a single season by a UVA running back since the 11 scored by Wayne Taulapapa in 2019.
- Kam Robinson returned an interception 35 yards for a touchdown with 34 seconds remaining in the game to seal the victory. It was his second pick-six of the season and third of his career. Robinson is the second player in program history with two interception returns for a touchdown in a single season, joining Randy Neal who did so twice in 1992 and 1994.
- True freshman Corey Costner was credited with his first career interception, wrestling for a 50-50 ball out of the hands of Cal wideout Jacob De Jesus at the 13-yard line on the final play of the third quarter.
- Devin Neal finished with five tackles (1 solo) to go over the 200-tackle mark for his career. He has 201 career tackles, 30 of which have come at UVA.
- With seven points, placekicker Will Bettridge (56-69 FG, 106-108 PAT) moved into sole possession of No. 4 on UVA's all-time points list with 274 career points. He passed former UVA placekicker Rafael Garcia (1993-96).
- Eli Wood had a career-high 46 yards receiving on two catches. He was credited with a rushing touchdown on a swing pass in the backfield, his first career rushing touchdown and second score of his career.

Game 8 • Virginia 17, North Carolina 16 (OT)
Saturday, Oct. 25 • Chapel Hill, N.C./Kenan Stadium

Virginia Team Notes

- Virginia improved to 7-1 overall and 4-0 in ACC play, its best start in either category since the 2007 season.
- UVA won its sixth consecutive game, a first under head coach Tony Elliott, and the program's first six-game win streak since 2007 (when it won seven in a row).
- The Cavaliers played their third overtime game of the season and have won all three. Only eight other teams in college football history have won three overtime games in the same season. Overtime in college football was first instituted in 1996. In 2022, Texas Tech was the last team with three OT wins in the same season.
- Not since 1935 has UVA had more than three tied scores at the end of regulation.
- For the third consecutive year, UVA's ACC win total (4) has improved under Elliott.
- It was also the Cavaliers' fourth consecutive win in ACC play – also its first such streak since 2007. UVA is assured at least a .500 record in ACC play for the first time since 2021.
- With SMU's loss 13-12 loss at Wake Forest, UVA and Georgia Tech (5-0) are the only two remaining unbeaten teams in ACC play.
- Today marked the 130th meeting between North Carolina and Virginia, the "South's Oldest Rivalry." The Cavaliers improved to 60-66-4 all-time in the series that was first contested in 1892.
- The 130 meetings between the two teams are tied for second-most by two FBS rivals all-time. Georgia and Auburn, which already played in 2025, have also gone head-to-head 130 times, while Wisconsin and Minnesota have met 134 times heading into this year's matchup.
- UVA's 60th win of the series is also its most against any other opponent in program history.
- Virginia has won four of the last five games played at Kenan Stadium, including the previous meeting against then-No. 10 Tar Heels in 2023, the first-ever road win over a top-10 opponent in Cavalier football history.
- Saturday's contest marked UVA's first win while ranked as high as No. 16 in the AP top 25 since Nov. 20, 2004, when the 16th-ranked Cavaliers defeated Georgia Tech, 30-10. It's also the first time a ranked UVA team defeated North Carolina since 2005.
- The Cavaliers recorded their second consecutive ACC road win, a first since 2021. UVA defeated Louisville (Oct. 4), 30-27, in overtime at L&N Stadium.
- UVA posted its fourth first-quarter shutout of the season (CCU, W&M, FSU, UNC). The Tar Heels punted twice and lost a fumble at the goal line that bounced out of bounds for a touchback.
- UVA has not allowed a TD in its last three fourth quarters and is outscoring its opponents 38-19 in fourth quarters this season and 62-31 when factoring overtime periods.
- UVA has come up with a turnover in its last five games, all of which UVA has emerged victorious.
- The Cavaliers have only surrendered one touchdown in the last 96:36 of regulation, dating back to last week's 22-20 win over Washington State (Oct. 18).
- The Cavaliers stopped the Tar Heels at the goal line on their two-point conversion attempt to seal the OT victory. UVA's opponents are yet to convert a two-point conversion this season (0-3).
- Virginia forced into six Tar Heel three-and-outs, the most by a UVA FBS opponent 2021 (Miami-6).
- The Cavaliers and UNC combined for 15 punts, the most in a UVA game since the 2022 Georgia Tech game (16).
- For the first time since 2019 (vs. Liberty & Virginia Tech), UVA's defense has recorded two interceptions in back-to-back games. The Cavaliers also had two in last week's win over Wazoo. The Cavaliers have eight interceptions on the season.
- For the first time this year, UVA was held scoreless in the third quarter.

Virginia Individual Player Notes

- Mitchell Melton recorded his first career interception to halt a UNC red-zone attempt late in the third quarter. He also recorded a pass breakup on the play, after his deflection bounced off a Tar Heel helmet and fell into his hands. He finished the game with two PBUs and two QB hurries.
- Filling in for Cam Ross on punt returns, Jayden Thomas fielded the first four punts of his career. On his second career punt return, Thomas scampered for a 31-yard return, the second-longest by a Cavalier this season.
- Junior Kam Robinson was credited with a career-high 13 tackles, including five solo efforts and a half sack. His solo tackle in overtime was the 100th unassisted tackle of his career. Robinson was the game's only player with double-digit tackles.
- Chandler Morris finished with 200 yards passing, eclipsing the 8,000-yard mark for his career. His lone touchdown pass of the game was the 59th of his career.
- Trell Harris' 30-yard TD reception in the second quarter marked the eighth of his career and fourth of the season. His 30-yard reception is the second-longest receiving TD of the year for the Cavaliers. He also had a 75-yard TD reception against Stanford. His four receiving TDs leads the team.
- Antonio Clary finished with a season-high four tackles and intercepted the final pass of regulation to help force overtime. It was the third interception of his career.
- Daniel Sparks punted eight times for a season-high 391 punting yards. He downed two inside the 20 and had three punts over 50 yards, including a 56-yarder early in the fourth quarter.
- J'Mari Taylor punched in what proved to be the game-winning touchdown on a one-yard rush in overtime. It was his fifth game this season with a rushing touchdown and his ninth overall. His nine rushing TDs are the most by a UVA player in a season since Brennan Armstrong (9) in 2021, and most by a Cavalier running back since Wayne Taulapapa (11) in 2019.
- Taylor's touchdown is his second in overtime this season. He also scored the game-winning TD in UVA's 30-27 overtime win at Louisville (Oct. 4).
- Defensive tackle Jason Hammond tied his career high of five tackles and tied for a game-high two QB hurries.

Game 7 • Virginia 22, Washington State 20
Saturday, Oct. 18• Charlottesville, Va./Scott Stadium

Virginia Team Notes

- Saturday was the first-ever meeting between UVA and Washington State. With the win, UVA improved to 17-11 and 12-7 at Scott Stadium in first-time matchups dating back to 2000. UVA also faced Stanford for the first time earlier this season, a 48-20 win for the Hoos.
- Saturday was Virginia's first-ever win against a Pac-12 school. The Cavaliers came into the game 0-7 against Pac-12 foes. The last Pac-12 opponent at Scott Stadium was UCLA in 2014.
- The victory made Virginia bowl-eligible for the first time since the 2021 season. The Cavaliers are bowl-eligible after the first seven games of the season for the first time since 2007.
- The Cavaliers went ahead for the first time in the contest with a safety with 2:41 remaining in the game. It was the first UVA safety since 2021 at Miami. It was the first safety to win an FBS game since Iowa recorded back-to-back safeties to South Dakota State, 7-3 on Sept. 4, 2022.
- UVA is 52-46-2 all-time in Homecomings games. Tonight was the 100th Homecomings game in program history. UVA has held a Homecomings game every year since 1923 except for 1942, 1944 and 2020.
- Virginia is 6-1 to start the season, its best start since going 6-1 to begin the 2007 season.
- The Cavaliers have won five straight games, the program's longest win streak since 2007.
- Virginia captured its fifth-straight win at home. UVA had only won five straight home games once in the previous 17 seasons (2019), dating back to 2008.
- UVA improved to 5-0 at home this season, its most wins at home since 2020 and the best start at home since 2019 (7-0).
- Tony Elliott improved to 5-0 coming off a bye week.
- It marked the fourth night game of the season at Scott Stadium, tied for the most in Scott Stadium history). Virginia is now 4-0 in night games this season.
- The Cavaliers improved to 3-1 in non-conference games this season. The last time UVA won three non-conference matchups in a season was in 2019.
- Virginia erased a 10-point fourth-quarter deficit and outscored Washington State 12-0 in the fourth quarter. UVA outgained WSU, 126-8 in the fourth quarter and had the ball for 10:36 in the final stanza.
- It was Virginia's first fourth-quarter comeback of 10 or more points since coming back to knock off Wake Forest on the road last season.
- UVA has outscored its opponents 38-19 in fourth quarters this season and 55-25 when including overtime periods.
- Saturday's attendance was 56,048, the largest crowd of the season and the largest since the home opener against James Madison in 2023 (56,508).
- UVA pulled within three points with a nine play, 97-yard drive over the course of 3:41 in the fourth quarter. The drive matched UVA's longest by distance this season and marked the second scoring drive of at least 90 yards this year. Both 90+ yard scoring drives resulted in rushing TDs by Harrison Waylee, who also had a school-record, 97-yard rushing TD against William & Mary (Sept. 13) earlier this season.
- For the fourth game so far this season, the Cavaliers did not allow a sack. The last time UVA did not allow a sack in four games in a season was in 2014, when it tallied five games without giving up a sack.
- Virginia has yet to lose a fumble in 2025 and came into the contest as one of eight FBS teams without a fumble lost.
- For the first time this season, UVA's opponent scored first. Also, for the first time this year, UVA trailed at the half.

Virginia Individual Player Notes

- Devin Neal led the team with 10 tackles, including a game-high, six solo efforts. It marked his second double-digit effort of the season.
- Wide receiver Jahmal Edrine had a season-high 102 receiving yards on five catches, seven yards shy of his career-high (109 vs. MSU in 2022 while at FAU). It marked his third career 100-yard game and first as a Cavalier. Three Cavalier receivers have recorded a 100-yard game this season (Cam Ross & Trell Harris).
- Donavan Platt nabbed his first interception as a Cavalier on Wazzou's third drive of the game. Platt's last was on Chandler Morris in the Army-North Texas game in 2024.
- Ja'Son Prevcard came up with his third interception of the season in seven games. The last time a Cavalier had three interceptions in a season was Joey Blount (3) and Anthony Johnson (3) in 2021.
- Wide receiver Cam Ross opened the UVA scoring with his first career rushing touchdown on a 19-yard end around.
- Daniel Sparks punted six times for 318 yards for an average of 53 yards per punt. He downed three balls inside the 20-yard line and his 65-yard punt in the second quarter was season long and the fourth-longest of his career. It was also his 16th career punt of 60 yards or more.
- Noah Josey (LG) made his 35th consecutive start, dating back to 2022, while Chandler Morris (QB) tallied his 20th consecutive start.

Game 6 • Virginia 30, Louisville 27 (OT)
Saturday, Oct. 4 • Louisville, Ky./L&N Stadium

Virginia Team Notes

- Virginia knocked off a top-10 opponent at Scott Stadium for the first time since defeating then-No. 4 Florida State 26-21 in 2005.
- For the first time in school history, No. 24 Virginia recorded back-to-back wins in overtime. The only other time UVA played consecutive games in OT was in 2018 (lost both to Georgia Tech & Virginia Tech).
- With the win, Virginia improved to 6-8 in the all-time series and snapped a three-game losing skid against the Cardinals. The win also marked the Cavaliers' at UoU since their 34-33 win at L&N Stadium in 2021. Virginia is 2-5 in road games against the Cardinals.
- UVA tallied its fourth straight win, its first four-game win streak under head coach Tony Elliott and since 2021.The Cavaliers also earned their third consecutive ACC win, also a first since 2021.
- The last time UVA started 3-0 in conference play was in 2007.
- Virginia is 5-1 through its first six games for the first time since 2017.
- UVA's three ACC wins match that of last year and tie a season high under Elliott. Elliott's ACC win totals have improved in each year of Elliott's tenure.
- The Cavaliers have won back-to-back ACC road openers for the first time since 2016 and 2017.
- Saturday was UVA's first road win as a ranked team since defeating Miami 48-0 on Nov. 10, 2007, the last game ever played at the Orange Bowl.
- UVA has scored at least 30 points in all six games played so far this year.
- For the first time this season, Virginia was outscored in the fourth quarter. The Cavaliers still lead their opponents this season in fourth-quarter scoring, 26-19.
- UVA improved to 4-0 this season when forcing a turnover.The Cavaliers returned both a fumble and an interception for touchdowns in today's win.
- UVA recorded two defensive touchdowns in a game for the first time since 2003 against Western Michigan (two interception returns).
- UVA recorded a its first win while ranked in the AP top 25 for the first time since Sept. 21, 2019, when it defeated Old Dominion at Scott Stadium, 28-17.
- The Cavaliers have yet to lose a fumble this season.The last time UVA had not lost a fumble in six consecutive games were in its final six of 2019.
- With Donovan Platt's 61-yard fumble return on fourth down, UVA has scored at least one touchdown in the first quarter in each of its first six games this season.
- For the second consecutive game, Virginia was tied with its opponent at the half and won.
- Former Cavalier running back Perris Jones served as an honorary captain in the contest. He suffered a neck injury playing at Louisville in 2023 that ended his football career and is now pursuing his doctorate at the University of Louisville.

Virginia Individual Player Notes

- Donovan Platt's 61-yard fumble recovery for a touchdown was his first score and first fumble recovery of his career. It's UVA's longest fumble recovery for a touchdown since Art Thomas' 92-yard return against Penn State in 2001. UVA has won its last five games when recovering a fumble for a touchdown.
- Reigning ACC Defensive Lineman of the Week, Mitchell Melton, had a career-high, two sacks to go along with five total tackles (3 solo) and a pass breakup.
- J'Mari Taylor scored the game-winning touchdown in the first overtime and now has at least one rushing TD in 16 of his last 17 games, dating back to his time at North Carolina Central. He upped his season total to eight in six games this year. Taylor is the first Cavalier running back with eight touchdowns in a season since Wayne Taulapapa in 2019 (11).
- Kam Robinson made a team-high 10 tackles (6 solo), one tackle for loss and one QB hurry. He recorded his second interception return for a touchdown of his career and the first by a Cavalier since his pick-six against Louisville in 2023.
- Will Bettridge made all four of his kicks, including a season-long 46-yard field goal in the third quarter. Bettridge stands at No. 5 on UVA's all-time scoring list with 254 career points (98-100 PAT, 52-64 FG).
- UVA punter Elijah Silbeck had a 71-yard punt, the longest by a UVA punter since Nash Griffin booted a 78-yarder in 2019, also at Louisville. Silbeck is one of only 11 punters in UVA history to record punt of at least 71 yards.
- John Rogers had a career-long 26-yard reception in the second quarter. His previous long was 25 yards against William & Mary (Sept. 13). He had two receptions for a career-high 40 yards.
- Cam Ross' 19-yard TD reception in the second quarter was the 10th of his career.
- Lexington, Kentucky natives Devin Neal and Xavier Brown played only 75 miles from their hometown.
- Nose tackle Jahmeer Carter made his 50th career start. Carter has also started in UVA's last 41 games.
- Receiver Jahmal Edrine tallied his 25th career start.

Game 5 • Virginia 46, #8 Florida State 38 (2OT)
Friday, Sept. 26 • Charlottesville, Va./Scott Stadium

Virginia Team Notes

- Virginia knocked off a top-10 opponent at Scott Stadium for the first time since defeating then-No. 4 Florida State 26-21 in 2005.
- The win was the third over a ranked opponent under head coach Tony Elliott (No. 8 FSU-2025, No. 23 Pitt-2024, No. 10 UNC-2023).
- The FSU and UNC wins were also over top-10 foes, making Elliott one of two head coaches in program history with multiple top-10 wins (George Welsh – 4).
- The win also marked the second by an unranked FBS team over a top-10 team this season. The other was then-unranked FSU over then-No. 8 Alabama in week 1.
- UVA's last overtime game was against Miami in 2022. UVA snapped a three-game skid in overtime games, earning its first OT win since defeating Syracuse in triple overtime in 2015. UVA is 5-8 all-time in overtime games.
- Friday was Virginia's first win at home over a ranked opponent since defeating then-No. 15 North Carolina in 2020.
- The 46 points were the most by Virginia against Florida State in 20 all-time meetings. The previous high was 33 in the 1995 upset win over then-No. 2 FSU.
- The Cavaliers' 46 points are more than FSU's first three opponents combined (Alabama-17, East Texas A&M-3, Kent State-10).
- Virginia improves to 4-1 to start the year for the second-straight season. The last time UVA posted back-to-back 4-1 starts was in 2003-04.
- Announced attendance was 50,107, the largest crowd at Scott Stadium this season and the largest since 2023 against James Madison.
- Virginia held Florida State, the nation's top scoring offense, scoreless in the first quarter for the first time this season. It also marked the first time FSU hasn't scored on an opening drive this year.
- UVA is outscoring its opponents in the fourth quarter 26-9. FSU's game-tying touchdown with 36 seconds remaining was the first touchdown scored by a UVA opponent in the fourth quarter this season.
- The Cavaliers forced two turnovers (1 INT, 1 FUM) in the first quarter. The last time UVA forced two opposing turnovers was against Boston College in 2024, when current FSU quarterback Thomas Castellanos threw two interceptions in the fourth quarter while playing for BC.
- Virginia improves to 4-0 at Scott Stadium, matching the most home wins since sine 2021 (4-3).
- Friday's win was the first at home by the Cavaliers on a weekday since 2019 (Virginia Tech).
- UVA improves to 3-0 on the season when forcing a turnover.
- UVA had held its opponents scoreless for 42:26 before Florida State scored its first touchdown in the second quarter.
- Nine different Cavaliers caught a pass in the contest. Nine or more UVA receivers have caught a pass in all five games this season.
- For the first time since 2004, Virginia has rushed for over 200 yards in four consecutive games (Clemson-239, Syracuse-225, Akron-326, North Carolina-299, Temple-286).

Virginia Individual Player Notes

- For the second-straight game QB Chandler Morris matched his career-high of five touchdowns, including a career-high three rushing. Morris is the first UVA signal-caller to rush for three TDs in a game since Bryce Perkins also had three against Duke in 2019.
- Tallahassee native Sage Ennis caught his third touchdown of the season, his fifth reception of the year and 12th of his career to open the Cavalier scoring in the first quarter. Ennis has one TD reception in each of his last three games.
- Kevin Wigenton II started at right guard for UVA, his first start since the 2023 season finale while at Michigan State. Drake Metcalf slid over to center, his first start at center since playing for UCF in 2023.
- J'Mari Taylor scored his seventh rushing TD of the season on a 26-yard scamper with 48 seconds left in the first half. Taylor entered Friday's contest as one of 13 FBS players with at least six rushing TDs.
- Ja'Son Prevard finished with a career-high two interceptions, including one on the final play of the game in double overtime. Prevard is the first Cavalier to record two INTs in a game since Brenton Nelson against Duke in 2020.
- Devin Neal finished with a game-high 12 tackles, also his career high.
- Mitchell Melton and Anthony Britton were credited with forced fumbles in the first half.
- Will Bettridge (1-1 FG, 5-5 PAT) gained sole possession of No. 5 on UVA's all-time scoring list and now has 248 career points. Bettridge entered the game tied for fifth with former UVA running back Thomas Jones.
- Taylor finished with 27 carries for 99 yards and one touchdown. His 27 carries are a career high and he's the first UVA running back to rush for over 25 carriers since Jordan Ellis vs. South Carolina in 2018.
- Dakota Twitty finished with a career-high five receptions for 29 yards.
- Anthony Britton recorded his first career forced fumble, which was recovered by Fisher Camac, on FSU's second drive of the game.
- Mitchell Melton finished with a career-high 7 tackles, including one for loss, and one forced fumble
- Kam Robinson finished with 10 tackles, including one sack, which marks his fourth career double-digit tackle performance. The last time Robinson had at least 10 tackles was against Duke in 2023, when he had 11.

Game 4 • Virginia 48, Stanford 20
Saturday, Sept. 20 • Charlottesville, Va./Scott Stadium

Virginia Team Notes

- Saturday's contest was the first-ever meeting between Virginia and Stanford. With the win, UVA improved to 6-1 in its last seven meetings with first-time opponents.
- For the second consecutive year, Virginia has three wins in its first four games.
- For the first time since 2020, UVA has won its ACC opener in back-to-back seasons.
- The Cavaliers also improved to 3-13 all-time when playing ACC opponent for the very first time, dating back to 1954, its first season in the league. UVA has won three of its last four such contests.
- UVA is 43-22-1 all-time in night games under the Scott Stadium lights, and dating back to 2018, and has won 12 of its last 16 games at night in Charlottesville. The last home win over an ACC opponent at night came against Georgia Tech in 2021 (48-40).
- Virginia scored on the opening drive for the third-straight game. UVA went 65 yards on seven plays in 2:26.
- Virginia scored touchdowns on its first four drives. The Cavaliers' first of two punts in the contest was the first in 23-straight drives dating back to their game at NC State (9/6).
- The Cavalier offense produced its second, one-play drive of the season with a 75-yard strike from Chandler Morris to Trell Harris in the first quarter. It marked the 13th one-play drive over 75 yards in program history.
- Saturday's contest marked the third game of the season in which UVA had at least 28 points at halftime (28 vs. Coastal Carolina, 42 vs. William & Mary, 28 vs. Stanford).
- UVA had 401 yards of total offense at the half (279 passing, 122 rushing).
- For the first time since 2004, UVA has rushed for 200 yards in three straight games. The Cavaliers finished with 206 yards against Stanford.
- Virginia's offense finished with 590 yards of total offense, including 384 yards through the air. It marks the second time this season UVA's offense recorded at least 590 yards, having set the program's single-game record of 700 in last week's win over William & Mary.
- Under Tony Elliott (since 2022), the Cavaliers have now recorded at least 500 yards of total offense in six games, including all four in 2025.
- UVA, which entered Saturday's contest as the nation's leader in total touchdowns, finished with six to bring its total on the season to 23.
- Virginia's offense was sacked for the first time this season with 1:14 remaining in the third quarter. The last time UVA did not allow a sack in three consecutive games was in 2011.
- With receptions by Jayden Thomas and Harrison Waylee, sixteen different UVA receivers have caught a pass this year.

Virginia Individual Player Notes

- Trell Harris finished with career highs in receiving yards (145) and touchdown receptions (3). His 75-yard reception in the first quarter was the longest of his career and the longest pass play by the Cavaliers since 2023 (Colandrea to Pace vs. JMU).
- Harris is the first Virginia wide receiver with three touchdowns in a game since Olamide Zaccheaus hauled in three scores in the 2018 Belk Bowl against South Carolina. Since 1995, only four Cavaliers have had three receiving touchdowns in a game – Harris, Zaccheaus, Canaan Severin (2015 at Louisville) and Wali Lundy (2003 at NC State).
- On the 75-yard completion to Harris, quarterback Chandler Morris went over 7,000 yards for his career. Entering the week, he was one of 17 active FBS QBs with 6,800+ yards passing.
- Morris tied his career high of five total touchdowns. While at North Texas, Morris also had five TDs against Tulsa and South Alabama in 2024.
- Kicker Will Bettridge converted on two of his three field goal attempts (28, 26) and was a perfect 6-for-6 on extra points. His 12 points moved him into the tie for fifth place with Thomas Jones (240 points) on UVA's all-time scoring list.
- J'Mari Taylor led the Cavaliers with 85 yards rushing on 15 carries. His 14-game streak of scoring a rushing touchdown came to an end.
- Linebacker Kam Robinson, safety Antonio Clary and defensive end Mekhi Buchanan made their season debuts Saturday. All three missed -UVA's first three games of the 2025 season due to injury. Robinson led the team in tackles with seven and recovered a fumble in the fourth quarter.
- Cam Ross led the Cavaliers with seven receptions, his second seven-reception game of the season. In the process, he eclipsed the 2,000-yard receiving mark for his career after catching the first two passes of the game. He entered week four at No. 11 on the NCAA's active career leaders in receiving yards behind former Cavalier and current Notre Dame wideout, Malachi Fields.
- Sophomore Daniel Kaelin threw his first collegiate touchdown pass, a four-yard pass to Eli Wood. The touchdown reception for Wood was also the first of his career.

Game 3 • Virginia 55, William & Mary 16
Saturday, Sept. 13 • Charlottesville, Va./Scott Stadium

Virginia Team Notes

- UVA improved to 33-6-1 in the all-time series with William & Mary, dating back to 1908. Saturday's contest was the 40th all-time meeting of the series.
- The game was UVA Strong Day at Scott Stadium, dedicated to the memories of Lavel Davis Jr., Devin and Chandler and D'Sean Perry, who were killed in an on-Grounds shooting on Nov. 13, 2022, upon returning from a class field trip. Their families along with Mike Hollins and Marlee Morgan served as honorary captains.
- The Cavaliers finished with a program-record 700 yards of total offense (379 rushing, 321 passing).
- Virginia's 55 points are its most in a single game under head coach Tony Elliott and most since 2020, when the Cavaliers also tallied 55 against Abilene Christian. In the game against Abilene Christian both Lavel Davis and D'Sean Perry scored touchdowns.
- UVA has now won the last seven meetings of the series and 13 of the last 14.
- UVA scored 42 points in the first half, which tied for its most in a half since the BYU game in 2021.
- Last time UVA had six rushing touchdowns in a game was vs. Temple in 2005. UVA's six rushing TDs are tied for third all-time in school single-game history.
- Eleven different Cavaliers combined for 379 yards rushing. UVA hit the 200-yard mark on the ground with 12 minutes remaining in the second quarter. It marked the most rushers in a single UVA game in at least 25 seasons.
- It also marked first time UVA had consecutive games with 200 rushing yards since 2023 and first time having 150 or more yards in three-straight games since 2021.
- Through its first three games, UVA has yet to allow a single sack this season. It marks the first time since 2011 that the Cavaliers have not surrendered a sack in three consecutive games.
- The Cavaliers entered the contest as the nation's leader in 3rd down defense and held William & Mary to 2-for-13 on third downs Saturday. Opposing offenses are now 4-for-34 (12%) on third down against UVA's defense.
- UVA did not punt for the first time in a game since the Cavaliers defeated 52-17 William & Mary in 2019.
- Former UVA head coach Mike London – who was also a UVA assistant – is the current head coach of the Tribe. London is now 0-5 all-time against UVA as opposing head coach.

Virginia Individual Player Notes

- Harrison Waylee's 97-yard rushing touchdown in the third quarter is the longest in UVA history. It eclipsed Mikell Simpson's 96-yarder in the 2008 Gator Bowl against Texas Tech. Coming into week three, the longest rush in FBS was 94 yards (Hahsaun Wilson, UTEP).
- Waylee finished with three rushing TDs, which tied his career high. It was his third multi-TD game of his career and first since he had three against Ball State in 2022 when he played for Northern Illinois.
- Saturday marked the first time since 2004 in which UVA had a player scored three rushing touchdowns in consecutive games (J.Taylor at NC State & Waylee vs. William & Mary). Wali Lundy scored three rushing TDs in three straight games against Akron, North Carolina and Temple in 2004.
- Waylee went over the 100-yard mark for the first time as a Cavalier and the 14th time for his career.
- Waylee (151) and Vaughn (101) are UVA's first running back tandem to rush for 100 yards each in a single game since Daniel Hamm and Kevin Parks did so in 2013 against VMI. It's also the first that two Cavaliers rushed for 100 yards each in the same since the 2022 season opener against Richmond (QB Brennan Armstrong and RB Perris Jones).
- Receiver Kam Courtney scored his first career touchdown on a 23-yard end-around pitch, his first rushing attempt of the season and third of his career.
- J'Mari Taylor scored the game's second touchdown. He now has six rushing TDs on the season. Dating back to his time at NC Central, he has scored a rushing touchdown in 14-consecutive games.
- Noah Vaughn left the game in the second quarter with an injury but compiled a career-high 101 rushing yards on eight carries, including the longest rush of his career (54 yards).
- John Rogers caught his first pass and first touchdown of his collegiate career. He finished the day with three receptions and 30 yards. His three receptions are the first three of his career.
- Placekicker Will Bettridge finished with 13 points (2-2 FG, 7-7 PAT) to move into sole possession of seventh on UVA's all-time scoring list. He now has 228 points in 34 career games.

Game 2 • NC State 35, Virginia 31
Saturday, Sept. 6 • Raleigh, NC/Carter-Finley Stadium

Virginia Team Notes

- Virginia dropped to 22-38-1 all-time against NC State. The Wolfpack have won four-straight against UVA and six of the last seven. The Cavaliers are 9-18 against NC State in Raleigh, NC Saturday marked the first non-conference game between the two schools since 1948.
- The Cavaliers' 31 points are the most in the series since the 2012 contest in Raleigh, which is also the Hoos' most recent win (33-6) of the series.
- Virginia amassed 514 yards of total offense, the most in a game since compiling 525 at Coastal Carolina last season. Today's performance marks the third time under head coach Tony Elliott in which the UVA offense produced at least 500 yards (at NC State - 2025; at Coastal Carolina - 2024; vs. Richmond - 2022).
- The last time UVA had 500 yards of total offense and lost was at Pittsburgh in 2021, when the Cavaliers recorded 514 yards of total offense and fell 48-38.
- Virginia rushed for 257 yards, the third time under Elliott that UVA has accumulated 250 or more rushing yards (at NC State - 2025; at Coastal Carolina - 2024; vs. Richmond - 2022;). It was the first 250+ yard rushing performance against an ACC school under Elliott and since recording 262 against Boston College in 2020.
- The Virginia offensive line did not allow a sack for the second-straight game. It marks the first time UVA has had two games in the same season without allowing a sack since 2018. The last time UVA did not allow a sack in back-to-back games was in 2014.
- UVA converted 13 of its 19 third down attempts (68%) while NC State was 1-for-7. The only Wolfpack third down conversion came on their penultimate possession of the game.
- UVA committed its first turnover of the season with an interception in the end zone with 1:07 to play.
- Virginia started the game with back-to-back 75-yard touchdown drives. The Cavaliers had the ball for 20:04 in the first half compared to 9:56 by the Wolfpack.
- With a 9-yard TD rush by Taylor and a 3-yard TD reception by Sage Ennis, UVA now has six touchdowns in goal-to-go situations in as many opportunities this season
- NC State has now won 28 of its last 29 non-conference games at home and improved to 32-2 in non-ACC home games in 13 seasons under its current head coach Dave Doren.

Virginia Individual Player Notes

- J'Mari Taylor broke for a 39-yard rushing touchdown on the very first drive of the game. It marked his 13th straight game with a rushing touchdown, dating back to his tenure at NC Central. He now has 28 career touchdowns, five of which have been while at UVA.
- Taylor now has seven career multi-rushing TD performances. He had two rushing TDs in his Cavalier debut against Coastal Carolina (8/30). Taylor is the first Cavalier with multiple rushing touchdowns in back-to-back games since Mike Hollins did so in 2023.
- Taylor's five rushing TDs on the season are more than any UVA rusher finished with last season, and the most since Hollins finished with seven in 2023.
- Taylor is also the first Cavalier tailback with three rushing touchdowns in a game since 2023 when Mike Hollins had three against then-No. 10 North Carolina.
- Taylor is the first UVA player with five rushing TDs in the first two games of the season since Kevin Parks (5) in 2011.
- For the second consecutive game, Cam Ross had at least 140 all-purpose yards. Against NC State, he had 40 yards receiving, 19 on kick returns, and 81 on punt returns, including a 48-yard punt return at Carter-Finley Stadium.
- Noah Vaughn's 20-yard rush in the first quarter was the longest of his career.
- Sage Ennis' 3-yard touchdown reception with 17 seconds left in the first half was the first of his career. Prior to the TD, Ennis briefly exited the game due to an apparent injury.

Game 1 • Virginia 48, Coastal Carolina 7
Saturday, Aug. 30 • Charlottesville, Va./Scott Stadium

Virginia Team Notes

- With the win, Virginia improved to 2-0 all-time against Coastal Carolina. The first meeting was played in Conway, S.C., in 2024, while Saturday marked the teams' first matchup at Scott Stadium.
- UVA improved to 87-40-9 (.673) all-time in season openers.
- The Cavaliers improved to 3-1 in both season openers and home openers under head coach Tony Elliott. Elliott is also 3-0 when opening the season at Scott Stadium.
- Virginia shut out Coastal Carolina in the first half, which marked the first time UVA held an opponent scoreless before halftime since Oct. 16, 2021 (vs. Duke).
- Virginia's 41-point margin of victory is its largest in a game since defeating Duke 48-0 on Oct. 16, 2021.
- The Cavaliers' 48 points are the most in a game under Elliott, surpassing UVA's previous best of 43 points in last year's win at Coastal Carolina. It's also the most points in a game since 2021 (49 at No. 25 BYU, Oct. 30).
- UVA's 21 points in the second quarter tied for eighth most all-time.
- The Cavaliers scored the first five touchdowns of the game, their longest stretch without surrendering a touchdown since Oct. 16, 2021, against Duke (48-0).
- Coastal Carolina was 1-for-14 on third down in the contest.

Virginia Individual Player Notes

- Chandler Morris started in his fourth consecutive season opener (2 at TCU, 1 at North Texas, 1 at UVA).
- Morris entered Saturday's contest as one of 15 FBS quarterbacks expected to open the season as his team's starting QB for the fourth consecutive year.
- Morris threw for 264 yards and two touchdowns on 17-of-24 passing. It marked the 14th time in his career he's thrown for more than 250 yards in a game.
- In his Cavalier debut, Cam Ross accounted for 224 all-purpose yards (124 receiving, 100 KOR), which included a 100-yard kickoff return for a touchdown.
- Ross' kickoff return TD matched that of the longest in school history and is the first kickoff return for a touchdown by a Cavalier since Joe Reed did so against Duke in 2019. The 100-yard return is one of five in program history with the last by Reed against William & Mary in 2019.
- Ross collected his fourth 100-yard receiving performance of his career. His four career 100-yard receiving performances lead all players on UVA's 2025 roster.
- J'Mari Taylor's rushed for a pair of touchdowns in the contest, his 24th and 25th running scores of his career. Dating back to his time at NC Central, he has now rushed for a touchdown in 12-straight games. He now has six multi-rushing-touchdown games in his career.
- Taylor is the first UVA running back to record multiple rushing TDs in a game since Mike Hollins had two against Miami on Oct. 28, 2023.
- Trell Harris hauled in a career-long 48-yard reception with a one-handed grab late in the second quarter that set up the Hoos' third TD of the period.
- Caleb Hardy blocked a punt in the second quarter; it marked the first time UVA has blocked a punt since 2019 (Noah Taylor, at Pitt).
- With 12 points, placekicker Will Bettridge (2-3 FG, 6-6 PAT) moved to No. 11 on UVA's all-time scoring list. He now has 208 points in 32 career games.
- Linebacker James Jackson nabbed his first career fumble recovery while CCU was in the red zone in the first quarter.
- Drake Metcalf started at right guard for UVA, his first start since the 2023 season while playing at UCF. Metcalf missed the entire 2024 season due to an Achilles injury.
- Harrison Waylee's 1-yard plunge to put UVA up 14-0 early in the second quarter was his 17th of his career and first as a Cavalier.
- Jahmal Edrine hauled in his first TD reception since Nov. 11, 2024 (vs. Northwestern), when he was at Purdue. The TD reception was also the ninth of his career.
- Wide receiver Eli Wood and linebacker Landon Danley made their first career starts. Danley led all UVA tacklers with seven.
