THE MATCHUP: VIRGINIA VS. NC STATE

INSIDE SATURDAY'S MATCHUP

- Saturday's season opener against NC State marks the beginning of the 137th season of football at Virginia and the 96th year of football at Scott Stadium.
- Dating back to 2017, UVA has won eight of its last nine season openers and owns an 88-39-9 (.680) record in season-opening games.
- The Cavaliers are 75-18-7 (.785) all-time in season openers at home and have won their last seven season openers at Scott Stadium.
- Virginia is seeking its first win at Scott Stadium over NC State since 2006, a 14-7 victory thanks to a pair rushing touchdowns by Jason Snelling. His 17-yarder with 1:31 remaining sealed the win.
- UVA is seeking its 700th win in program history. Its all-time all-time record currently stands at 699-652-48. Only 37 other FBS programs have reached the 700-win plateau.
- Saturday will also be the 1,400th game played in Virginia football history.
- The Week 0 matchup will only be the second time UVA has opened the season against NC State and the first time since 1977.
- Dating back to 1999, Virginia has won four-straight season openers against ACC foes. The Cavaliers last opened the season against an ACC school in 2020, defeating Duke 38-20 at Scott Stadium.
- Saturday's Week 0 contest marks the fourth-earliest start to a season in program history. A win would be UVA's earliest (by calendar year). The last time UVA opened the season on or before the 29th of August was against Colorado State on Aug. 22, 2002.

TOP STORYLINES

- Virginia–NC State is the first conference matchup of the 2026 college football season. A total of five ACC teams (Florida State, NC State, North Carolina, Stanford & Virginia) are scheduled to play in Week 0. The Wolfpack and Cavaliers were originally scheduled to play the first-ever college football game in Brazil, but the contest was moved by game officials to Charlottesville in early June.
- Last year's designated non-conference matchup against NC State was the first of eight one-possession games Virginia played in 2025. The Cavaliers were 5-3 in those contests and 3-1 in overtime games last season.
- According to ESPN Insights, Virginia boasts the most experienced roster in college football, returning 48,313 snaps from last season. The Cavaliers return five players who earned All-ACC honors from a year ago and added 10 players from the transfer portal that garnered all-conference accolades in their careers.
- Led by McKale Boley, Noah Josey and Drake Metcalf, the Cavalier offensive line is the most experienced in the ACC, with a combined 165 starts. Monroe Mills (2024 All-ACC selection) and Makilan Thomas (2023 All-Sun Belt) return to action after sitting out the entire 2025 season with injuries.
- Prior to a stint in the NFL, current Virginia offensive coordinator Des Kitchings was on staff for eight seasons at NC State under Dave Doeren and held the title of co-offensive coordinator in 2019, his final year in Raleigh. On the other sideline is NC State offensive line coach Garett Tujague, spent seven seasons in Charlottesville in the same role, helping UVA to a 2019 ACC Coastal Division Championship.

VIRGINIA BY THE NUMBERS

4 Number of preseason All-ACC selections for UVA, the most in school history and second most in the league.

10 The Cavaliers return 10 starters from last season (three on offense, five on defense, plus its placekicker and punter).

THE UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA

UNIQUELY UVA

The University of Virginia is an institution rich with history and tradition. Here is some of the terminology that contributes to UVA's culture.

Grounds: The term used by students, faculty and alumni to refer to the University dating as far back as Thomas Jefferson. "Campus" is never used.

First Year, Second Year, Third Year, Fourth Year: Instead of freshman, sophomore, junior, senior. Why you may ask? To be a "senior" implies that a person has reached the final phase of learning, a feat that Thomas Jefferson believed to be impossible, arguing instead that education is a life-long process.

Commonwealth: Virginia is one of four constituent states of the United States of America that officially uses the name "Commonwealth" instead of the word state in all references. The other three commonwealths are Kentucky, Massachusetts and Pennsylvania.

UNIVERSITY NICKNAMES

Virginia's athletics teams have been accompanied by a somewhat confusing array of nicknames. The most prominent and widely accepted of these monikers are "Cavaliers," "Wahoos" and "Hoos."

Although the terms "Cavaliers," "Wahoos" and "Hoos" are used almost interchangeably to refer to University teams and players, "Cavaliers" is more often used by the media, while "Wahoos" and "Hoos" are frequently used by Virginia students and fans.

Legend has it that Washington & Lee baseball fans dubbed the Virginia players "Wahoos" during the fiercely contested rivalry that existed between the two in-state schools in the 1890s. By 1940, "Wahoos" was in general use around Grounds to denote University students or events relating to them. The abbreviated "Hoos" sprang up later in student newspapers and has gained growing popularity in recent years.

THE CAVALIER MASCOT

The costumed Cavalier with a large character head debuted during Virginia's 1984 football season and has remained the official mascot of the University.

The first documented Cavalier on horseback was Francis Bell, a Virginia student from Dublin, Va., in 1947. Bell rode onto the field dressed as Cavaliers for Virginia's home football game with Harvard on the afternoon of October 11.

The Cavalier on horseback returned as the University's mascot in 1963. The UVA Polo Club provided both the horse and rider. However, the mounted Cavalier and his horse parted company in 1974 with the inception of AstroTurf at Scott Stadium.

The mounted Cavalier made its return in the Florida Citrus Bowl at the end of the 1989 football season. Due to its instant popularity, the Cavalier on horseback returned the following season on a regular basis and continues to lead the Virginia football team onto the field at the beginning of all home games.

Since 2000, Kim Kirschnick led the Cavaliers out of the tunnel on horseback and retired after the 2021 season finale against Virginia Tech. 2022 marked Julie Caruccio first season as the mounted Cavalier. A former interim dean of students at UVA, Caruccio is the first female in school history to have the mounted Cavalier job on a full-time basis. When the tradition rotated among members of the club polo team until Kirschnick took over in 2000, at least two women – Bess Worrall and Kerry McDaniel – were on horseback for a few games in the early '90s.

UNIVERSITY COLORS

Orange and blue were adopted as the University of Virginia's official athletic colors at a mass student meeting in 1888. UVA athletic teams had previously worn silver gray and cardinal red, but those colors did not stand out on muddy football fields, prompting a student movement to change them.

One of the students attending the mass meeting was Allen Potts, a star athlete who played on Virginia's first football team in 1888. Potts showed up at the meeting wearing a navy blue-and-orange scarf that he had acquired during a summer boating expedition at Oxford University. Orange and blue were chosen as the official athletic colors after one of Potts' fellow students pulled the scarf off Potts' neck and, waving it to the crowd, yelled, "How will this do?" UVA later served as the inspiration for schools like Auburn and Florida when they selected school colors.

WAH-HOO-WA

The origin of "Wah-hoo-wa" is uncertain. The cheer was used to root on Virginia teams as early as 1890 and may have been borrowed from Dartmouth College, whose athletics teams were once known as the Indians.

Legend attributes the yell to Natalie Floyd Otey, who sang the ballad "Where'er You Are, There Shall My Love Be" at Charlottesville's Levy Opera House in 1893. The predominantly student audience noticed that Otey warbled the first three words of the song between each of the stanzas and decided to join in the refrain. By evening's end, goes the legend, the crowd had corrupted "Where'er You Are" into "Wah-hoo-wah."

The Levy Opera House stands at the corner of High Street and Park Street and has since been renovated into an office building.

LAST YEAR'S MEETING AGAINST THE WOLFPACK

- During her time in Charlottesville, UVA teams have captured 12 national titles across numerous sports, including the 2019 men's basketball title, 2019 and 2021 men's lacrosse titles, six consecutive women's swimming and diving championships from 2021-26, and men's tennis titles in 2022, 2023 and 2026.

ACC SCHEDULE FORMAT

- Beginning in 2026, the ACC introduced a new schedule structure through a transitional season designed to balance competitive equity, honor existing non-conference game contracts and account for the league's unique 17-team footprint. Twelve teams (including UVA) will play a 9+1 schedule (nine ACC games plus at least one Power Four non-conference opponent) while five teams will play an 8+2 schedule (eight ACC games paired with at least two Power Four non-conference matchups).
- Starting in 2027, 16 teams will play a nine-game ACC schedule, with one team playing eight league games while scheduling two Power Four non-conference opponents to fulfill the league's required minimum of 10 P4 games.

LEGACY PATCHES

To honor Lavel Davis Jr., Devin Chandler and D'Sean Perry the No. 1 (worn by Montino Williams), No. 15 (worn by Dillon Newton-Short and Lukas Sanker) and No. 41 (worn by Will Bettridge) jerseys will each feature a legacy patch. Bettridge, who wore No. 17 as a first-year, switched to No. 41 in 2023 to honor his former high school teammate, Perry. Each year the staff will seek input from the families of Davis, Chandler and Perry about who will wear Nos. 1, 15 and 41.

Virginia Team Notes

- Virginia set a school record for wins in a season with its 11th of the year. Only one other team (1989) in program history has won 10 or more games.
- With the win, UVA is now one of 14 FBS teams with at least 11 wins this season.
- Virginia's six-win improvement from 2024 (5-7) to 2025 (11-3) is the largest overall win improvement from year-to-year in its 136-year history.
- The program earned its 699th all-time win. UVA's first season of football was 1888.
- UVA's 13 points scored are its fewest in a win since Sept. 9, 2006, in a 13-12 overtime win over Wyoming. The Cavaliers had lost their last 41 games only scoring 13 points or less.
- Virginia won its seventh game of the season while ranked in the AP poll. The last time UVA had six or more wins while ranked in the AP Top-25 was in 2004, when it was ranked in every game that year.
- The victory is the second over an AP Top-25 opponent this season. The last time UVA had two Top-25 wins was in 2011.
- The win was also UVA's first-ever in the Gator Bowl, this year sponsored by TaxSlayer. UVA improved to 1-2 at EverBank Stadium after previously falling 48-14 to Oklahoma on Dec. 29, 1991, and 31-28 to Texas Tech on Jan. 1, 2008.

- Virginia held Duke to three first-downs in the opening half. Duke is the third UVA opponent to be held to less than five first-downs this season.
- Virginia held the Blue Devils to 50 yards of total offense in the first half. Duke is the fifth opponent that UVA has held to under 100 yards in a half this season.
- For the sixth time this season, UVA held its opponent to without a touchdown in the first half.
- UVA doubled its opponent's total yardage (540 to 255) for the second time this season (W&M; 700 to 263).

Virginia Individual Player Notes

- Trell Harris (8 rec, 161 yards, 1 TD) is the first Cavalier wide receiver with at least 150 yards receiving since Malik Washington against Louisville in 2023. Harris' eight receptions and 161 yards are career bests.
- Harris' third reception of the game, a 29-yard catch in the second quarter, marked the 100th of his career.
- J'Mari Taylor (18 rushes, 133 yards 2 TD) has scored at least one rushing TD in 19 of last 22 games dating back to his time at NC Central. Taylor now has 13 touchdowns this season, the most by a Cavalier in a season since Keith Payne had 14 in 2010. Taylor also now has 36 career rushing touchdowns.
- Taylor broke a 78-yard TD rush in the third quarter, which is tied for the 11th-longest rush in school history (Alvin Pearman vs. Virginia Tech in 2004).
- For the fourth time this season, Taylor rushed for multiple touchdowns. The last UVA player to record four multi-rushing TD games was Brennan Armstrong in 2021.
- With Taylor and Harris' performances, UVA had a 100-yard pass catcher and 100-yard rusher in the same game for the first time since 2023 against William & Mary. Perris Jones (134 yards rushing) and Malik Washington (112 yards receiving) were the last duo to accomplish that feat.
- Taylor and Harris combined for a total of 319 all-purpose yards, the most by a Cavalier duo since Keytaon Thompson (151) and Ra'Shaun Henry's (179) 330 all-purpose yards at Louisville (Oct. 9, 2021).
- Chandler Morris (23-35, 316 yards, 2 TD) went over the 300-yard mark for the second time this season (the other was against Stanford, when he had 380) and the 11th time of his career.
- Morris' touchdown pass in the second quarter to Sage Ennis was the 60th touchdown pass of his career. Morris now has 61 career passing TDs.
- Fisher Camac (6 tackles, 3 solo, 2 sacks, 2.5 TFL, 1 QBH) is the third Cavalier to record a multi-sack game this season, joining Mitchell Melton (2 vs. Louisville) and Daniel Rickert (2 vs. Stanford). Camac upped his season total to 4.5 and now has 13 career sacks.
- On fourth down in the third quarter, defensive end Mitchell Melton recorded a strip sack and recovered his own forced fumble. It was Melton's third forced fumble this season, which leads the team. Melton is one three Cavaliers in the last 10 years with at least three forced fumbles in a season. Jonas Sanker had three in 2023, and Micah Kiser had five in 2016.
- Defensive tackle Jacob Holmes matched his career high of six tackles. Holmes also had one sack and 1.5 tackles for loss.
- Cornerback Emmanuel Karnley finished with a career-high three pass break-ups. Karnley also started in Saturday's game at Durham, his seventh of the season and fifth consecutive start.
- With two catches, receiver Jahmal Edrine reached 100 receptions for his career.
- Linebacker and team captain James Jackson appeared in his 50th career game.
- With 10 points, Will Bettridge (2-2 FG, 4-4 PAT) is now tied for third on UVA's career scoring list with Gene Mayer (1912-15). Bettridge has 293 career points.

Game 10 • Wake Forest 16, Virginia 9
Saturday, Nov. 8 • Charlottesville, Va./Scott Stadium

Virginia Team Notes

- Virginia's seven-game win streak came to a close. The win streak tied for the program record. UVA also recorded seven-game streaks in 1914, 1945, 1949, 1990 and 2007.
- UVA's five-game win streak in ACC play – a program record – also ended.
- With an overall record of 8-2, UVA is still off to its best start since 2007.
- The Cavaliers are now one of five ACC teams with only one loss in conference play (Duke, Georgia Tech, Pitt, SMU and Virginia).
- The result was UVA's first home loss of the season and first since the SMU game in 2024.
- The night game was UVA's fifth at Scott Stadium this season. UVA is now 4-1 in home night games this season.
- UVA dipped to 35-18 in the all-time series with Wake Forest, which began in 1889. The Demon Deacons have won three straight games at Scott Stadium (2012, 2021, 2025).
- Five of the Cavaliers' last six games have been decided by one score. UVA is now 4-1 in such contests. The Cavaliers had also won their previous four games decided by one score.
- For the first time this season, UVA lost a fumble after losing three fumbles to the Demon Deacons. Miami and UVA were the only two FBS teams to have not lost a fumble entering Saturday's contest. UVA had 10 fumbles entering the game, none of them were recovered by a UVA opponent.
- Despite the loss, Virginia outgained Wake Forest 327-203. Virginia has outgained its opponent in both losses this season (NC State & Wake Forest)
- The 203 yards of total offense by Wake Forest are the fewest allowed by UVA since 2022 against Georgia Tech (56 rush, 146 pass).
- UVA's stop on fourth down at the five-yard line in the second quarter was the second goal-to-go stop of the season. The other came against Florida State on the first of two interceptions by Ja'son Prevard.
- Virginia held the Demon Deacons to only 64 yards passing, the fewest by a UVA opponent since Nov. 17, 2018, against Georgia Tech, when the Yellow Jackets had 37 yards through the air.
- Wake Forest completed only nine passes, the fewest by a UVA opponent since 2021 (Virginia Tech). The Cavaliers' defense surrendered no passing yards in the third quarter.
- Virginia recorded its second blocked punt of the season. It marks the first time UVA has blocked two punts in a season since 2013. Coming into the week, only 17 teams in the country had multiple blocked punts.
- UVA surrendered a punt return for a touchdown for the first time since 2017, when Pitt's Quadre Henderson returned a 75-yarder at Heinz Field.
- The last time Virginia gave up only 16 points or less in a loss was in a 14-12 overtime decision against Miami on Oct. 9, 2022.
- The announced crowd of Saturday's game was 55,568, which marks the first time since 2007 in which UVA has drawn a crowd of at least 50,000 in three consecutive games.

Virginia Individual Player Notes

- Kam Robinson blocked a punt on Wake Forest's opening drive. It marked the first blocked punt by a UVA player since Caleb Hardy's in UVA's 2025 season opener against Coastal Carolina (8/30).
- In Robinson's last five games, he has two interceptions returned for touchdowns, a tackle for loss that resulted in a game-winning safety and a blocked punt.
- Robinson had a game-high 10 tackles in the contest, the fourth double-digit tackle effort of the season.
- J'Mari Taylor was two yards shy of 100 yards rushing and hauled in a career-high six passes for 30 yards. It marked the fifth time this season with 85 or more rushing yards and his fifth game with 100 or more all-purpose yards.
- Daniel Kaelin's 54-yard rush in the second quarter was the 12th run of 50 or more yards by a Cavalier quarterback in program history. It was the longest since Brennan Armstrong's 64-yard touchdown rush against Richmond in the 2022 season opener.

Game 9 • Virginia 31, Cal 21
Saturday, Nov. 1 • Berkeley, Calif./California Memorial Stadium

Virginia Team Notes

- Virginia is 8-1 to start the season for only the second time in program history and first time since 1990. UVA's eight wins are its most since the 2019 season (9-5).
- The Cavaliers have won seven straight games, a first under head coach Tony Elliott and UVA's first seven-game win streak since 2007, when it also won seven in a row.
- For the first time in program history, UVA is 5-0 in ACC play.
- The five-game, in-season win streak in ACC play is a program first. The Cavaliers' five wins in conference play assures them of a winning record in ACC action for the first time since 2019, when the Cavaliers finished 6-2. UVA went on to face Clemson and Elliott, who served as the Tigers' offense coordinator, in the ACC Championship game.
- Saturday was the first-ever meeting between Virginia and Cal. The Cavaliers are now 3-0 against each of its first-time opponents on their 2025 schedule (Stanford, Washington State & Cal) and have won nine of the last 10 against first-time foes dating back to 2018.
- The victory was the program's first-ever in the Pacific Time Zone. UVA entered the contest winless in its previous four attempts.
- The win is the first while ranked as high as No. 15 in the AP top-25 and since Nov. 6, 2004, when the 12th-ranked Cavaliers shut out Maryland, 12-0.
- Virginia has won three consecutive ACC road games for the first time since 2011. It has now also won three road games overall in back-to-back seasons, a first since 1998-99.
- UVA scored on its opening drive touchdown, a first since the Stanford game on Sept. 20. Virginia improved to 3-1 when scoring on its opening drive.
- Virginia forced two turnovers (two INTs) in the contest. The Cavaliers have forced a turnover in six-straight games and are 6-0 in those contests. Corey Costner's interception in the third quarter was the first turnover by Cal in 10 quarters and first since playing Duke on Oct. 4.
- The Cavaliers did not turn the ball over for the fifth time this season and have yet to lose a fumble through nine games. UVA entered the contest as one of three FBS yet to lose a fumble this season.

- Taylor has 11 rushing touchdowns this season and 34 for his career. It marks the third multi-score game of the season for Taylor and eighth of his career (3 at UVA, 5 at NCCU).

- Kam Robinson returned an interception 35 yards for a touchdown with 34 seconds remaining in the game to seal the victory. It was his second pick-six of the season and third of his career. Robinson is the second player in program history with two interception returns for a touchdown in a single season, joining Randy Neal who did so twice in 1992 and 1994.
- True freshman Corey Costner was credited with his first career interception, wrestling for a 50-50 ball out of the hands of Cal wideout Jacob De Jesus at the 13-yard line on the final play of the third quarter.

Game 8 • Virginia 17, North Carolina 16 (OT)
Saturday, Oct. 25 • Chapel Hill, N.C./Kenan Stadium

Virginia Team Notes

- Virginia improved to 7-1 overall and 4-0 in ACC play, its best start in either category since the 2007 season.
- UVA won its sixth consecutive game, a first under head coach Tony Elliott, and the program's first six-game win streak since 2007 (when it won seven in a row).
- The Cavaliers played their third overtime game of the season and have won all three. Only eight other teams in college football history have won three overtime games in the same season. Overtime in college football was first instituted in 1996. In 2022, Texas Tech was the last team with three OT wins in the same season.
- Not since 1935 has UVA had more than three tied scores at the end of regulation.
- For the third consecutive year, UVA's ACC win total (4) has improved under Elliott.
- It was also the Cavaliers' fourth consecutive win in ACC play – also its first such streak since 2007. UVA is assured at least a .500 record in ACC play for the first time since 2021.
- With SMU's loss 13-12 loss at Wake Forest, UVA and Georgia Tech (5-0) are the only two remaining unbeaten teams in ACC play.
- Today marked the 130th meeting between North Carolina and Virginia, the "South's Oldest Rivalry." The Cavaliers improved to 60-66-4 all-time in the series that was first contested in 1892.
- The 130 meetings between the two teams are tied for second-most by two FBS rivals all-time. Georgia and Auburn, which already played in 2025, have also gone head-to-head 130 times, while Wisconsin and Minnesota have met 134 times heading into this year's matchup.
- UVA's 60th win of the series is also its most against any other opponent in program history.
- Virginia has won four of the last five games played at Kenan Stadium, including the previous meeting against then-No. 10 Tar Heels in 2023, the first-ever road win over a top-10 opponent in Cavalier football history.
- Saturday's contest marked UVA's first win while ranked as high as No. 16 in the AP top 25 since Nov. 20, 2004, when the 16th-ranked Cavaliers defeated Georgia Tech, 30-10. It's also the first time a ranked UVA team defeated North Carolina since 2005.
- The Cavaliers recorded their second consecutive ACC road win, a first since 2021. UVA defeated Louisville (Oct. 4), 30-27, in overtime at L&N Stadium.
- UVA posted its fourth first-quarter shutout of the season (CCU, W&M, FSU, UNC). The Tar Heels punted twice and lost a fumble at the goal line that bounced out of bounds for a touchback.
- UVA has not allowed a TD in its last three fourth quarters and is outscoring its opponents 38-19 in fourth quarters this season and 62-31 when factoring overtime periods.
- UVA has come up with a turnover in its last five games, all of which UVA has emerged victorious.
- The Cavaliers have only surrendered one touchdown in the last 96:36 of regulation, dating back to last week's 22-20 win over Washington State (Oct. 18).
- The Cavaliers stopped the Tar Heels at the goal line on their two-point conversion attempt to seal the OT victory. UVA's opponents are yet to convert a two-point conversion this season (0-3).
- Virginia forced into six Tar Heel three-and-outs, the most by a UVA FBS opponent 2021 (Miami-6).
- The Cavaliers and UNC combined for 15 punts, the most in a UVA game since the 2022 Georgia Tech game (16).
- For the first time since 2019 (vs. Liberty & Virginia Tech), UVA's defense has recorded two interceptions in back-to-back games. The Cavaliers also had two in last week's win over Wazzu. The Cavaliers have eight interceptions on the season.
- For the first time this year, UVA was held scoreless in the third quarter.

Virginia Individual Player Notes

- Mitchell Melton recorded his first career interception to halt a UNC red-zone attempt late in the third quarter. He also recorded a pass breakup on the play, after his deflection bounced off a Tar Heel helmet and fell into his hands. He finished the game with two PBUs and two QB hurries.
- Filling in for Cam Ross on punt returns, Jayden Thomas fielded the first four punts of his career. On his second career punt return, Thomas scampered for a 31-yard return, the second-longest by a Cavalier this season.
- Junior Kam Robinson was credited with a career-high 13 tackles, including five solo efforts and a half sack. His solo tackle in overtime was the 100th unassisted tackle of his career. Robinson was the game's only player with double-digit tackles.
- Chandler Morris finished with 200 yards passing, eclipsing the 8,000-yard mark for his career. His lone touchdown pass of the game was the 59th of his career.
- Trell Harris' 30-yard TD reception in the second quarter marked the eighth of his career and fourth of the season. His 30-yard reception is the second-longest receiving TD of the year for the Cavaliers. He also had a 75-yard TD reception against Stanford. His four receiving TDs leads the team.
- Antonio Clary finished with a season-high four tackles and intercepted the final pass of regulation to help force overtime. It was the third interception of his career.
- Daniel Sparks punted eight times for a season-high 391 punting yards. He downed two inside the 20 and had three punts over 50 yards, including a 56-yarder early in the fourth quarter.
- J'Mari Taylor punched in what proved to be the game-winning touchdown on a one-yard rush in overtime. It was his fifth game this season with a rushing touchdown and his ninth overall. His nine rushing TDs are the most by a UVA player in a season since Brennan Armstrong (9) in 2021, and most by a Cavalier running back since Wayne Taulapapa (11) in 2019.
- Taylor's touchdown is his second in overtime this season. He also scored the game-winning TD in UVA's 30-27 overtime win at Louisville (Oct. 4).
- Defensive tackle Jason Hammond tied his career high of five tackles and tied for a game-high two QB hurries.

Game 3 • Virginia 55, William & Mary 16
Saturday, Sept. 13 • Charlottesville, Va./Scott Stadium

Virginia Team Notes

- UVA improved to 33-6-1 in the all-time series with William & Mary, dating back to 1908. Saturday's contest was the 40th all-time meeting of the series.
- The game was UVA Strong Day at Scott Stadium, dedicated to the memories of Lavel Davis Jr., Devin and Chandler and D'Sean Perry, who were killed in an on-Grounds shooting on Nov. 13, 2022, upon returning from a class field trip. Their families along with Mike Hollins and Marlee Morgan served as honorary captains.
- The Cavaliers finished with a program-record 700 yards of total offense (379 rushing, 321 passing).
- Virginia's 55 points are its most in a single game under head coach Tony Elliott and most since 2020, when the Cavaliers also tallied 55 against Abilene Christian. In the game against Abilene Christian both Lavel Davis and D'Sean Perry scored touchdowns.
- UVA has now won the last seven meetings of the series and 13 of the last 14.
- UVA scored 42 points in the first half, which tied for its most in a half since the BYU game in 2021.
- Last time UVA had six rushing touchdowns in a game was vs. Temple in 2005. UVA's six rushing TDs are tied for third all-time in school single-game history.
- Eleven different Cavaliers combined for 379 yards rushing. UVA hit the 200-yard mark on the ground with 12 minutes remaining in the second quarter. It marked the most rushers in a single UVA game in at least 25 seasons.
- It also marked first time UVA had consecutive games with 200 rushing yards since 2023 and first time having 150 or more yards in three-straight games since 2021.
- Through its first three games, UVA has yet to allow a single sack this season. It marks the first time since 2011 that the Cavaliers have not surrendered a sack in three consecutive games.
- The Cavaliers entered the contest as the nation's leader in 3rd down defense and held William & Mary to 2-for-13 on third downs Saturday. Opposing offenses are now 4-for-34 (12%) on third down against UVA's defense.
- UVA did not punt for the first time in a game since the Cavaliers defeated 52-17 William & Mary in 2019.
- Former UVA head coach Mike London – who was also a UVA assistant – is the current head coach of the Tribe. London is now 0-5 all-time against UVA as opposing head coach.

Virginia Individual Player Notes

- Harrison Waylee's 97-yard rushing touchdown in the third quarter is the longest in UVA history. It eclipsed Mikell Simpson's 96-yarder in the 2008 Gator Bowl against Texas Tech. Coming into week three, the longest rush in FBS was 94 yards (Hahsaun Wilson, UTEP).
- Waylee finished with three rushing TDs, which tied his career high. It was his third multi-TD game of his career and first since he had three against Ball State in 2022 when he played for Northern Illinois.
- Saturday marked the first time since 2004 in which UVA had a player scored three rushing touchdowns in consecutive games (J.Taylor at NC State & Waylee vs. William & Mary). Wali Lundy scored three rushing TDs in three straight games against Akron, North Carolina and Temple in 2004.
- Waylee went over the 100-yard mark for the first time as a Cavalier and the 14th time for his career.
- Waylee (151) and Vaughn (101) are UVA's first running back tandem to rush for 100 yards each in a single game since Daniel Hamm and Kevin Parks did so in 2013 against VMI. It's also the first that two Cavaliers rushed for 100 yards each in the same since the 2022 season opener against Richmond (QB Brennan Armstrong and RB Perris Jones).
- Receiver Kam Courtney scored his first career touchdown on a 23-yard end-around pitch, his first rushing attempt of the season and third of his career.
- J'Mari Taylor scored the game's second touchdown. He now has six rushing TDs on the season. Dating back to his time at NC Central, he has scored a rushing touchdown in 14-consecutive games.
- Noah Vaughn left the game in the second quarter with an injury but compiled a career-high 101 rushing yards on eight carries, including the longest rush of his career (54 yards).
- John Rogers caught his first pass and first touchdown of his collegiate career. He finished the day with three receptions and 30 yards. His three receptions are the first three of his career.

- Drake Metcalf started at right guard for UVA, his first start since the 2023 season while playing at UCF. Metcalf missed the entire 2024 season due to an Achillies injury.
- Harrison Waylee's 1-yard plunge to put UVA up 14-0 early in the second quarter was his 17th of his career and first as a Cavalier.
- Jahmal Edrine hauled in his first TD reception since Nov. 11, 2024 (vs. Northwestern), when he was at Purdue. The TD reception was also the ninth of his career.
- Wide receiver Eli Wood and linebacker Landon Danley made their first career starts. Danley led all UVA tacklers with seven.
