STORYLINES: VIRGINIA VS. WEST VIRGINIA

INSIDE SATURDAY'S MATCHUP

- Virginia and West Virginia meet for the first time Saturday (Sept. 19) since the 2002 Continental Tire Bowl, a 48-22 Cavalier victory, also in Charlotte. The two schools have not met in the regular season in 41 years.
- Virginia will play an active member of the Big 12 for only the fourth time since the conference formed in 1996. The Cavaliers are 1-2 against the active members of the league. The lone win against a Big 12 school came against Texas in 1996 (37-13) at Scott Stadium.
- Saturday marks only the third time UVA has been ranked in its 24 games played against WVU. Including 2026, the Cavaliers have been ranked in three of the last four meetings.
- Virginia and West Virginia will be one of 11 games on the Saturday FBS slate that features a matchup of unbeaten teams.
- Saturday will mark UVA's sixth time playing at Bank of America Stadium. It will also be the first regular-season game at the home of the Carolina Panthers after being the site of two ACC Championship games and three bowl games featuring Virginia. UVA is 3-2 all-time at the facility, which includes the 2002 Continental Tire Bowl win over West Virginia.
- The Cavaliers have played in an NFL stadium either in the regular season or postseason in eight of the last nine years.
- UVA went 1-1 in neutral-site contests last season and matched a program record with four road wins. The five wins away from Scott Stadium were the most in a season since 1995.
- Virginia enters the game with four interceptions, the second most in college football. Through two games and 26 pass attempts, West Virginia is one of 47 FBS teams that has not thrown an interception.
- The Virginia defense has forced a turnover in 12 of its last 13 games dating back to last season. The Cavaliers have forced a total of 23 turnovers (17 INT, 6 FR) in their last 12 games, including a pair in their season opener against NC State (1 INT, 1 FR).
- Virginia does not have a player on its current team from state of West Virginia or Delaware, home of its next two opponents. West Virginia is the only one of the five bordering states of Virginia that is not represented on UVA's roster.

TOP STORYLINES

- Virginia returns to Charlotte for the first time since suffering a 27-20 overtime loss to Duke in the 2025 ACC Championship game. At 7-1 in the ACC, Virginia matched its best record in league play, and that marked the first time ever UVA finished alone atop the league standings. The Cavaliers defeated Duke on the road in the regular season, 34-17, just three weeks prior.
- West Virginia head coach Rich Rodriguez served as an assistant on Clemson's staff during the 1999 and 2000 seasons before landing his first stint as head coach in Morgantown. Rodriguez was the offensive coordinator and associate head coach at Clemson, where Tony Elliott was a wide receiver from 1999-2003.
- Elliott also overlapped with WVU coaches Zac Alley (Assistant Head Coach/Defensive Coordinator) and Andrew Warwick (linebackers) while on staff at Clemson.
- Virginia trailed 10-7 after the first quarter of the 2002 Continental Tire Bowl before outscoring the West Virginia 41-12 over the final three quarters. Freshman running back Wali Lundy was responsible for four touchdowns, two rushing and two receiving. He gained 127 yards on the ground and accumulated 76 yards receiving to earn MVP honors.
- UVA starting cornerback Jacobie Henderson is one of four Charlotte natives on this year's team, along with Jaylen Jones, Dane Steele and Dallas Brannon. Henderson attended Catawba Ridge High School. He recorded a career-high nine tackles last week in UVA's 59-3 rout of Norfolk State (/11). Henderson comes from an athletic family, highlighted by his cousin, former NFL cornerback and fellow Charlotte native Jaire Alexander.

VIRGINIA BY THE NUMBERS

0 Opponents are 0-6 on fourth down against UVA dating back to last year's TaxSlayer Gator Bowl.

THE UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA

UNIQUELY UVA

The University of Virginia is an institution rich with history and tradition. Here is some of the terminology that contributes to UVA's culture.

Grounds: The term used by students, faculty and alumni to refer to the University dating as far back as Thomas Jefferson. "Campus" is never used.

First Year, Second Year, Third Year, Fourth Year: Instead of freshman, sophomore, junior, senior. Why you may ask? To be a "senior" implies that a person has reached the final phase of learning, a feat that Thomas Jefferson believed to be impossible, arguing instead that education is a life-long process.

Commonwealth: Virginia is one of four constituent states of the United States of America that officially uses the name "Commonwealth" instead of the word state in all references. The other three commonwealths are Kentucky, Massachusetts and Pennsylvania.

UNIVERSITY NICKNAMES

Virginia's athletics teams have been accompanied by a somewhat confusing array of nicknames. The most prominent and widely accepted of these monikers are "Cavaliers," "Wahoos" and "Hoos."

Although the terms "Cavaliers," "Wahoos" and "Hoos" are used almost interchangeably to refer to University teams and players, "Cavaliers" is more often used by the media, while "Wahoos" and "Hoos" are frequently used by Virginia students and fans.

Legend has it that Washington & Lee baseball fans dubbed the Virginia players "Wahoos" during the fiercely contested rivalry that existed between the two in-state schools in the 1890s. By 1940, "Wahoos" was in general use around Grounds to denote University students or events relating to them. The abbreviated "Hoos" sprang up later in student newspapers and has gained growing popularity in recent years.

THE CAVALIER MASCOT

The costumed Cavalier with a large character head debuted during Virginia's 1984 football season and has remained the official mascot of the University.

The first documented Cavalier on horseback was Francis Bell, a Virginia student from Dublin, Va., in 1947. Bell rode onto the field dressed as Cavaliers for Virginia's home football game with Harvard on the afternoon of October 11.

The Cavalier on horseback returned as the University's mascot in 1963. The UVA Polo Club provided both the horse and rider. However, the mounted Cavalier and his horse parted company in 1974 with the inception of AstroTurf at Scott Stadium.

The mounted Cavalier made its return in the Florida Citrus Bowl at the end of the 1989 football season. Due to its instant popularity, the Cavalier on horseback returned the following season on a regular basis and continues to lead the Virginia football team onto the field at the beginning of all home games.

Since 2000, Kim Kirschnick led the Cavaliers out of the tunnel on horseback and retired after the 2021 season finale against Virginia Tech. 2022 marked Julie Caruccio first season as the mounted Cavalier. A former interim dean of students at UVA, Caruccio is the first female in school history to have the mounted Cavalier job on a full-time basis. When the tradition rotated among members of the club polo team until Kirschnick took over in 2000, at least two women – Bess Worrall and Kerry McDaniel – were on horseback for a few games in the early '90s.

UNIVERSITY COLORS

Orange and blue were adopted as the University of Virginia's official athletic colors at a mass student meeting in 1888. UVA athletic teams had previously worn silver gray and cardinal red, but those colors did not stand out on muddy football fields, prompting a student movement to change them.

One of the students attending the mass meeting was Allen Potts, a star athlete who played on Virginia's first football team in 1888. Potts showed up at the meeting wearing a navy blue-and-orange scarf that he had acquired during a summer boating expedition at Oxford University. Orange and blue were chosen as the official athletic colors after one of Potts' fellow students pulled the scarf off Potts' neck and, waving it to the crowd, yelled, "How will this do?" UVA later served as the inspiration for schools like Auburn and Florida when they selected school colors.

WAH-HOO-WA

The origin of "Wah-hoo-wa" is uncertain. The cheer was used to root on Virginia teams as early as 1890 and may have been borrowed from Dartmouth College, whose athletics teams were once known as the Indians.

Legend attributes the yell to Natalie Floyd Otey, who sang the ballad "Where'er You Are, There Shall My Love Be" at Charlottesville's Levy Opera House in 1893. The predominantly student audience noticed that Otey warbled the first three words of the song between each of the stanzas and decided to join in the refrain. By evening's end, goes the legend, the crowd had corrupted "Where'er You Are" into "Wah-hoo-wah."

The Levy Opera House stands at the corner of High Street and Park Street and has since been renovated into an office building.

YEAR FIVE UNDER TONY ELLIOTT

- Tony Elliott is in his fifth year at the helm of the Virginia football program.
- In 2025, Elliott steered UVA to the program's most successful season ever as the Cavaliers won a program-record 11 games, and made their second-ever appearance in the ACC Championship game.
- The Wahoos also defeated No. 25 Missouri in the TaxSlayer Gator Bowl, 13-7, which marked UVA's first bowl win in seven years.
- For his efforts, Elliott was named the ACC Coach of the Year by his peers and the Associated Press. He also was named the Bear Bryant ACC Coach of the Year and took home the Bobby Ross Coach of the Year Award from the Touchdown Club of Richmond.
- He was also named a finalist for the Eddie Robinson, Paul "Bear" Bryant and George Munger national Coach of the Year awards.
- Additionally, Elliott returned all but one of his assistant coaches from 2025. The only departure was offensive line coach Terry Heffernan, who accepted the offensive coordinator position at Stanford following the 2025 season. Joey Orck, who previously held the title of assistant offensive line coach, was promoted to offensive line coach.
- Elliott brought a wealth of championship experience to Charlottesville following an 11-year tenure at Clemson University, his alma mater. Elliott helped the Tigers win national championships in 2016 and 2018 and seven ACC championships (2011, 2015, 2016, 2017, 2018, 2019, 2020).
- In his 16 years as a full-time college coach prior to his arrival in Charlottesville, Elliott has been a part of 15 winning seasons including 10-win seasons at Clemson from 2011-20.
- With Elliott as offensive coordinator, Clemson went 89-10 and made four CFP National Championship game appearances.

ACC SCHEDULE FORMAT

- Beginning in 2026, the ACC introduced a new schedule structure through a transitional season designed to balance competitive equity, honor existing non-conference game contracts and account for the league's unique 17-team footprint. Twelve teams (including UVA) will play a 9+1 schedule (nine ACC games plus at least one Power Four non-conference opponent) while five teams will play an 8+2 schedule (eight ACC games paired with at least two Power Four non-conference matchups).
- Starting in 2027, 16 teams will play a nine-game ACC schedule, with one team playing eight league games while scheduling two Power Four non-conference opponents to fulfill the league's required minimum of 10 P4 games.

LEGACY PATCHES

To honor Lavel Davis Jr., Devin Chandler and D'Sean Perry the No. 1 (worn by Montino Williams and Rico Flores Jr.), No. 15 (worn by Dillon Newton-Short and Lukas Sanker) and No. 41 (worn by Will Bettridge) jerseys will each feature a legacy patch. Bettridge, who wore No. 17 as a first-year, switched to No. 41 in 2023 to honor his former high school teammate, Perry. Each year the staff will seek input from the families of Davis, Chandler and Perry about who will wear Nos. 1, 15 and 41.

Game 2 • Virginia 59, Norfolk State 3
Friday, Sept. 11 • Charlottesville, Va./Scott Stadium

Virginia Team Notes

- Virginia's 59 points are the most in a game since also posting 59 against Western Michigan in 2003.
- UVA's 56-point margin of victory is its largest since 1990 in a 59-0 win over Duke. The Cavaliers have won only three games since 1946 by more than 56 points.
- Friday's result marked the second time under head coach Tony Elliott that Virginia has scored at least 50 points in a game, having done so against William & Mary in 2025.
- UVA improved to 7-0 under head coach Elliott in games immediately after a bye week.
- UVA is 2-0 for the second time under Elliott (2024 & 2026).
- For the second-straight game, Virginia rushed for more than 200 yards, accumulating 237 on 38 attempts. UVA has rushed for 200 or more yards seven times in its last 15 games.
- Virginia forced three turnovers in the contest and improved to 11-1 when forcing a turnover since the beginning of the 2025 season.
- The Virginia defense has forced a turnover in 12 of its last 13 games. In that span, the Cavaliers have forced a total of 23 turnovers (17 INT, 6 FR).
- Virginia tallied its 10th straight victory over an FCS opponent.
- UVA earned its third straight win over a non-conference opponent and third straight win at home.
- The Cavaliers are also now winners of eight of their last nine home games since the beginning of the 2025 season.
- UVA earned its second-straight victory on a Friday night. The Wahoos triumphed over then-No. 8 Florida State 46-38 in double overtime at Scott Stadium last season on Friday, Sept. 26.

Virginia Individual Player Notes

- Kicker Will Bettridge became Virginia's all-time scoring leader after a 10-point night (1-1 FG, 7-7 XP). He surpassed Connor Hughes' (2002-05) mark of 332 points and Bettridge bumped his career total to 337. His seven extra points matched a career best.
- Friday was offensive lineman Noah Josey's 50th game of his career and his 45th consecutive start.
- Quarterback Beau Pribula passed for three touchdowns, all in the first quarter. The three TDs matched his career high previously reached against Kansas last season while playing for Missouri.
- Prior to a batted ball that led to an interception in the second quarter, Pribula completed 19 of his first 22 passes of his UVA career (9-11 vs. NC State & 10 of his first 11 passes vs. Norfolk State). Through his first two games of the season, Pribula has completed 84 percent of his passes (21-25) and thrown for five touchdowns.
- Safety Brandyn Hillman intercepted passes on Norfolk State's first two drives, both of which led to UVA touchdowns. The two-interception performance was the first by a Cavalier since Ja'son Prevard against Florida State in 2025. Hillman was responsible for UVA's first four turnovers of the season (1 FF, 1 INT vs. NC State & 2 INT vs. Norfolk State).
- Linebacker Justin Rowe recorded his first career interception and took it 50 yards for a touchdown, the first pick-six since Kam Robinson at Cal in 2025.
- Both Rowe and Hillman recorded 50-yard interception returns, the longest by a Cavalier since Fentrell Cypress' 66-yarder against North Carolina in 2021.
- Tailback Xay Davis led the Cavaliers in rushing with 107 yards on 11 carries, eclipsing the 100-yard mark for the first time in his career. He is one of five UVA running backs with a 100-yard rushing effort in their collegiate career.
- Linebacker Kam Robinson, who tore his ACL in UVA's 11th game of the 2025 season at Duke (Nov. 15), reached the 200-tackle mark for his career with his first tackle of the game in the first quarter. He finished the game with five (two solo) and now has 204 tackles for his career.
- Defensive end Fisher Camac, who finished with three tackles, including 0.5 sacks, eclipsed the 100-career tackle mark. Camac now has 102 career tackles.
- Wide receiver Jacquon Gibson scored his first touchdown as a Cavalier and second of his collegiate career. He caught a 6-yard pass from Beau Pribula to open the UVA scoring. It was his first touchdown since the 2024 season while at UMass.
- Gibson established a career-high with his second touchdown reception late in the first quarter. He's the first Cavalier with multiple touchdown receptions in a game since Trell Harris had three against Stanford in 2025.
- Da'Shawn Martin's caught his second touchdown as a Cavalier and sixth of his collegiate career to make the score 14-0. His first two catches as a UVA wideout were touchdowns (47-yarder vs. NC State & 27-yarder vs. Norfolk State).

- Ty'Lyric Coleman and Isaiah Robinson caught their first career touchdown receptions in the third quarter on passes from Eli Holstein.
- Holstein recorded his first touchdown as a Cavalier on a 1-yard completion to Coleman, which capped a nine-play, 59-yard drive.

- With a 61-yard punt in the third quarter, which was downed at the NSU 1-yard line, Daniel Sparks notched his 17th career punt of at least 60 yards. His 17 punts of 60 yards or more are the most by any player in UVA history.
