THE KICKOFF

AGAINST THE HOKIES

- Friday's match will be the 53rd meeting between Virginia and Virginia Tech as a part of a rivalry that dates back to the 1960 season
- The Cavaliers have dominated the series as they hold a record of 42-5-6 against the Hokies all-time
- In their last meeting, Virginia fell to Virginia Tech by a score of 2-1 in a double-overtime affair
- Virginia has not lost back to back games to Virginia Tech since the 2005 season
- Under head coach George Gelnovatch The Cavaliers hold a record of 15-3-6 over Virginia Tech
- Virginia has lost to the Hokies just twice on its home turf, holding a record of 21-2-3 against Virginia Tech at home

THE SMITHFIELD COMMONWEALTH CLASH

The Commonwealth Clash, originally called the Commonwealth Challenge (2005-2007), has been a part of the UVA-Virginia Tech rivalry since 2014. It is an all-sports points-based program with the Commonwealth Clash trophy presented to the winning school each year for its dominance in head-to-head competitions. Tonight's match will be the first contest of the 2022 season between Virginia and Virginia Tech.

LAST TIME OUT

- Virginia fell to Maryland by a score of 6-1 at Audi Field in Washington D.C. in the fourth edition of the "Battle for the DMV"
- Virginia conceded six goals in a single contest for the first time since the 2016 season when the Cavaliers fell to Louisville by an identical scoreline in the ACC Tournament
- Under head coach George Gelnovatch, the Cavaliers have rebounded remarkably well following a loss as Virginia holds a record of 87-32-7 in games following a loss within the same season.

NOTES CONTINUED

CHANCE CREATOR

- Thanks to his high work rate and pressing style up front, Leo Afonso is among the nation's elite chance creators in the early season
- Leo Afonso currently leads the ACC in total shots (17) as well as shots per game (4.25)
- Across NCAA Division I, Afonso's shots per game average ranks No. 13
- The striker is tied for the team lead in goals this season with four
- In 2021, Afonso's total of seven goals was topped by just two other players who return to ACC rosters this fall in Aboubacar Camara of Louisville (13 goals) and Isaiah Reid of Clemson (9 goals)

EXCITING TRANSFERS

- Virginia has welcomed a recruiting class of 16 freshmen and transfers that ranks in the nation's top-five.
- Included among Virginia's newcomers is a trio of transfers, Daniel Mangarov, Axel Ahlander and Moritz Kappelsberger who have each found themselves a spot in the Cavaliers' starting XI
- Mangarov scored a goal and assist in his debut and has started in each of UVA's last two games
- Kappelsberger has tallied a goal and an assist in three games at left center back for the Hoos

FRESHMAN DUO

- The Virginia freshman pairing of Albin Gashi (center midfield) and Reese Miller (left wing back) have slotted directly into the Gelnovatch's team and seem to improve as the season goes on
- Reese Miller has seen the most time of any Virginia freshman starting each game he has participated in and logging a total of 175 minutes
- Gashi has started one of three games in which he has seen action, but has made the most of his minutes. The freshman logged his first career goal against James Madison, and contributed an assist against Maryland at Audi Field.
- Gashi has pitched in a goal contribution in each of his last two appearances

NEWCOMERS ON THE SCORESHEET

- In their first seasons as Cavaliers, Gashi, Mangarov and Kappelsberger account for four of Virginia's eight goals this season.
- That same trio accounts for 10 of Virginia's 22 total points this season

UELAND NAMED TO 2022 ACC PRESEASON WATCH LIST

- On August 16 the ACC released its preseason watch list for the 2022 season and among those on the list is Virginia captain, Andreas Ueland.
- Ueland was a mainstay for the Cavaliers in 2021 as he led Virginia field players in total minutes played with 1,638 and started all 17 of the games he participated in.
- Ueland has played all 90+ minutes in all but three games throughout his entire career at Virginia

HOOS BACK FOR VIRGINIA

- The Cavaliers return a strong contingent of last season's impact players including their leading goal scorer from the 2021 campaign, Leo Afonso, as well as defensive anchor Andreas Ueland.
- The Hoos will also look to sophomore goalkeeper Holden Brown following a campaign in which he played every minute in goal for the Cavaliers posting a save percentage of .761.
- Virginia returns all of its top-five scorers from 2021 including Afonso, Kome Ubogu, Michael Tsicoulias, Ueland, and Will Citron.

HORTON'S RETURN

- As an understudy of Daryl Dike's during Virginia's run to the NCAA Final in 2019, Phil Horton has long seemed the natural heir to the striker position at Virginia
- Injuries put a halt to Horton's progression over a pair of seasons, but has found his way back into the starting XI in the 2022 season opener.
- Horton scored his first goal NCAA Division I goal in 692 days with a solo effort against James Madison.

NOTING VIRGINIA TECH

- The Hokies enter the match with a record of 0-3-1
- All three of Virginia Tech's losses to start the season have come at the hands of 2021 NCAA Tournament teams

HEAD COACH GEORGE GELNOVATCH

George Gelnovatch enters his 27th season as the head coach of the Virginia men's soccer program. The longest tenured head coach in program history, Gelnovatch has led the Cavaliers to a pair of national championships in 2009 and 2014 as well as six NCAA College Cup appearances and 24-consecutive berths in the NCAA tournament.

Gelnovatch became the program's all-time leader in wins on August 25, 2017 with a 3-2 double-overtime victory over Villanova, surpassing his UVA mentor Bruce Arena for the program record in wins with 296. He reached the 300-win plateau on Sept. 15, 2017 with a 2-1 triumph at Virginia Tech, becoming just the fourth coach in Atlantic Coast Conference history to win 300 career matches.

A former Cavalier soccer All-American and assistant coach,

Gelnovatch has guided Virginia to five ACC tournament titles, three regular-season ACC championships and a record of 353-1150-62 (.681) during his tenure as UVA head coach. Over the course of his tenure as an assistant and head coach at Virginia, he has been a part of all seven of the Cavaliers' national championships.

Gelnovatch is the first coach in NCAA Division I men's soccer history to lead 20-straight teams to the NCAA tournament. He is one of just eight coaches in the Division I men's soccer annals to take 20 teams to the tournament and one of only four active coaches to do so.

Going into 2022, Gelnovatch ranked as the 12th-winningest active head coach in Division I college soccer, with a .681 career winning percentage. He stood 10th in career wins among current head coaches. Among Division I coaches all-time, he ranked 40th in career wins and 43rd in career winning percentage. These figures are even more striking when considering Gelnovatch's teams play one of the nation's toughest schedules on a yearly basis.

Virginia has won at least 15 games in a season 10 times under Gelnovatch, including 2019 when it won 21 games the second most in the history of the program en route to an ACC Coastal Division Championship, an ACC Tournament crown and a Runner-Up finish in the NCAA College Cup.

Gelnovatch has developed a number of Major League Soccer players during his UVA tenure, with 30 players going in MLS drafts and 12 in the MLS Supplemental Draft, while eight signed Project-40/Generation Adidas contracts and Jordan Allen (2014), Derrick Etienne (2015), Scott Thomsen (2015) and Aboubacar Keita (2018) each signed MLS Homegrown contracts. Jason Moore (1999) and Alecko Eskandarian (2003) were selected No. 1 in the MLS Draft, as 13 Cavaliers have been picked in the first round of the various MLS drafts.

Gelnovatch was named the 10th coach of the Virginia program on Jan. 3, 1996, after Bruce Arena announced he would end his 18-year career at the helm of UVA soccer to become head coach and assistant general manager of Major League Soccer's D.C. United.
