THE KICKOFF

FOR STARTERS

- Virginia currently sits atop the ACC overall standings tied on 16 points with Syracuse
- A head-to-head victory over the Orange puts Virginia ahead of Syracuse in the race for ACC Tournament's top seed
- The Cavaliers can clinch the ACC Coastal division with a win, or a Duke loss to Virginia Tech
- Virginia was picked to finish last in the ACC Coastal Division this season after finishing at the bottom in 2021
- Virginia is looking for its sixth ACC win of the season - the program has reached that total five times (1984, 1985, 2001, 2005, 2019)

THE CENTURY MARK

- Virginia's win over Wake Forest marked head coach George Gelnovatch's 99th ACC victory in his 27 years at the helm
- A win over North Carolina would make Gelnovatch the second coach in conference history to record 100 ACC wins and the first to accomplish the feat at one school
- Pitt's Jay Vidovich accomplished the feat this season with a combined win total across his time at Wake Forest and Pitt
- Vidovich reached 100 wins in 201 ACC games - A win for Gelnovatch over UNC would see him hit the mark in 205 games
- Gelnovatch currently holds a mark of 99-72-33 in ACC play

HISTORY WITH THE HEELS

- Friday's match will be the 89th meeting between the two programs - North Carolina leads the series 36-42-10
- Though the Cavaliers have a winning record in the series at home, the Hoos are 15-23-4 in Chapel Hill
- Virginia's last win in Chapel Hill came in 2016 when the Cavaliers won by a margin of 2-1
- The last goal Virginia scored against the Tar Heels came at Klöckner Stadium in 2019, an overtime winner in the 100th minute from then-freshman Andreas Ueland - his first career goal
- The 2019 victory secured Virginia's first coastal division title - The Cavaliers have the chance to clinch their second coastal title, once again at the hands of UNC with a win Friday

DEFENSIVE CLASS

- Virginia has played each of the ACC's top-three scoring offenses this season (Wake Forest, Pitt, Syracuse) and allowed just one goal over the course of those three matches
- Virginia has held five of the ACC's premier scorers, Nathan Opoku (Syracuse), Levonte Johnson (Syracuse), Bertin Jacquesson (Pitt), Mohammed Shakur (Duke) and Ousmane Sylla (Clemson) without a single point in matches against their respective teams

ROAD WARRIORS

- Virginia is 3-0 in away games this season
- The team's most-recent road trip featured a victory over formerly 18th-ranked Clemson by a score of 2-1
- Virginia's first true road trip of the season featured a pair of statement victories for the Cavaliers over top-10 teams
- The trip began with a visit to No. 3 Syracuse where the Cavaliers took down the Orange posting a score of 1-0
- After a physical, scoreless battle through the majority of the game, Virginia was able to break down the Syracuse squad that was down to 10 men following a red card after just 20 minutes
- Virginia then traveled to Pittsburgh to take on No. 10 Pitt where they earned a 3-1 victory over the Panthers
- Phil Horton turned in an incredible performance with a career-high five points and was involved in each of UVA's goals
- Reese Miller tallied his first collegiate goal which stood as the game winner against Pitt
- Virginia is the only ACC school to win each of its road games so far this season
- Virginia's 3-0 record is the first time UVA has been 3-0 on the road in ACC play since the 2018 season

UNANIMOUS NATIONAL HONORS

- Following an impressive performance on the road at No. 10 Pitt, Phil Horton was recognized unanimously by Top Drawer Soccer, College Soccer News and the United Soccer Coaches as the nation's Player of the Week (Oct. 3)
- Horton tallied a career-high five points against Pitt to propell UVA to its second consecutive victory over a top 10 opponent.
- Horton's five points are the most in a single-game by a Cavalier this season and the third-highest single game total amongst ACC players in 2022

- Virginia has welcomed a recruiting class of 16 freshmen and transfers that ranks in the nation's top-five.
- Included among Virginia's newcomers is a trio of transfers, Daniel Mangarov, Axel Ahlander and Moritz Kappelsberger who have each found themselves a spot in the Cavaliers' starting XI
- All three of those transfers have scored and assisted this season (Ahlander and Mangarov are two of just three Cavaliers to score and assist in a single game this season)
- Mangarov scored and assisted on his debut against Rider, while Ahlander recorded his first UVA goal and assist against La Salle
- Kappelsberger is one of just five Cavaliers to start every game this season, he is the only newcomer to do so
- Mangarov and Ahlander have started every game for the Cavaliers since their debuts against Rider (9/29/22)

UELAND NAMED ACC DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK

- Senior captain Andreas Ueland was named the ACC Defensive Player of the Week on Tuesday, Sept. 29 after a pair of clean sheets against American and No. 3 Syracuse. It was Ueland that made a game-saving challenge inside the Virginia penalty area to save the game before Leo Afonso netted the winner in the 85th minute.

FANTASTIC FRESHMAN

- The Virginia freshman midfield pairing of Albin Gashi (center midfield) and Reese Miller (left wing back) have slotted directly into the Gelnovatch's team and seem to improve as the season goes on
- Albin Gashi has seen the most time of any Virginia freshman this season logging 834 minutes
- Directly behind Gashi is Miller who has logged 750 total minutes
- Miller recorded the first goal of his collegiate career against No. 10 Pitt (9/30/22) - it stood as the game-winner
- Miller and Gashi were both named in the Top Drawer Soccer Midseason Top-100 Freshmen list
- Andy Sullins logged his first career goal which served as a game winner against American in a 2-0 Cavalier victory
- Triton Beauvois logged his second career goal in Virginia's last outing to clinch a victory for Virginia over Clemson
- Beauvois leads all UVA freshmen in points with five (two goals, one assist)

THE ACC - COLLEGE SOCCER'S PREMIER CONFERENCE

- The ACC has proved a dominant force in men's college soccer
- In 2021 ACC teams made up two of the four College Cup spots (Clemson, Notre Dame)
- The conference has had at least one member make the College Cup in 20 of the last 21 seasons
- A current ACC school has made it to the NCAA Championship game in 10 out of the last 15 seasons
- Over that same stretch, current ACC member programs have won national titles six times
- Virginia has won a pair of NCAA titles and reached another championship game in that span
- Last season, the ACC picked up the most NCAA Tournament berths (8) of any conference, and claimed four of the top eight national seeds Notre Dame (4), Pitt (5), Duke (7), Clemson (8).
- Clemson is the reigning national champion in men's soccer after a 2-0 victory over Washington in 2021 final
- ACC Teams have won 18 NCAA men's soccer championships, including nine since 2001
- Five ACC schools are ranked in the latest United Soccer Coaches Poll (Oct. 25)

CHANCE CREATOR

- Thanks to his high work-rate and pressing style up front, Leo Afonso is among the nation's elite chance creators so far this season
- Afonso currently leads the ACC in total shots (58)
- He leads the ACC in shots per game (3.87) and shots on goal per game (1.60)
- Across NCAA Division I, Afonso's shots per game total ranks fourth while he checks in at No. 15 in SOG per game
- The striker is tied for the team lead in goals (6) with Kome Ubogu
- In 2021, Afonso's total of seven goals was topped by just two other players who return to ACC rosters this fall in Aboubacar Camara of Louisville (13 goals) and Isaiah Reid of Clemson (9 goals)
- Virginia is 8-0 when Afonso scores or assists this season and 6-0 when he scores
- He leads the team in points with 15 this season

UBOGU THE SUPER SUB

- Kome Ubogu has yet to crack the Virginia starting XI this season but is currently tied for the team lead in goals (6)
- Not only does Ubogu have a large tally of goals, but his goals have come in crucial moments for the Cavaliers on multiple occasions this season
- A diving effort from Ubogu against Virginia Tech in the 75th minute gave UVA the lead in a comeback effort against the Hokies
- A heroic effort in the 89th minute against Notre Dame drew Virginia level, though the Cavaliers would go on to lose with just three seconds remaining in the match
- A late goal against American sealed another victory for the Cavaliers
- Ubogu turned the tide in Virginia's match with Clemson scoring a goal against the run of play to shift the momentum in a game Virginia won by a score of 2-1
- Three of Ubogu's six goals have been scored in ACC play

HORTON'S RETURN FROM INJURY

- As an understudy of Daryl Dike during Virginia's run to the NCAA Final in 2019, Phil Horton has long seemed the natural heir to the striker position at Virginia
- Injuries put a halt to Horton's progression over a pair of seasons, but has found his way back into the starting XI in the 2022 season opener
- Horton is one of five Virginia players to make the starting eleven in every match this season
- Horton scored his first NCAA Division I goal in 692 days with a solo effort against James Madison (Sept. 1)
- Against Virginia Tech, Horton drew and converted a penalty for his second goal of the year
- Horton's goal against the Hokies counted as the game-winner and was scored in the 82nd minute of play
- After failing to score in four consecutive games, Horton exploded against Pitt for a brace and a career-high five points
- Horton was named the national player of the week unanimously by the United Soccer Coaches, College Soccer News and Top Drawer Soccer following the stunning performance against Pitt
- The ACC named Horton the offensive player of the week for the first time in his career
- His total of five goals is the second-highest total among Cavaliers

NOTES CONTINUED

UNIQUELY UVA

The University of Virginia is an institution rich with history and tradition. Here is some of the terminology that contributes to that tradition and culture:

- Grounds: The term used by students, faculty and alumni to refer to the university dating as far back as Thomas Jefferson. "Campus" is never used.
- First Year, Second Year, Third Year, Fourth Year: Instead of freshman, sophomore, junior, senior. Why? To be a "senior" implies that a person has reached the final phase of learning, a feat that Thomas Jefferson believed to be impossible, arguing instead that education is a life-long process. This tends to be used less in athletic eligibility references.
- Commonwealth: Virginia is one of four constituent states of the United States of America that officially uses the name "Commonwealth" instead of the word state in all references. The other three commonwealths are Kentucky, Massachusetts, and Pennsylvania.

UNIVERSITY NICKNAMES

- Virginia's athletics teams have been accompanied by a somewhat confusing array of nicknames. The most prominent and widely accepted of these monikers are "Cavaliers," "Wahoos" and "Hoos."
- Although the terms "Cavaliers," "Wahoos" and "Hoos" are used almost interchangeably to refer to University teams and players, "Cavaliers" is more often used by the media, while "Wahoos" and "Hoos" are frequently used by Virginia students and fans.
- Legend has it that Washington & Lee baseball fans dubbed the Virginia players "Wahoos" during the fiercely contested rivalry that existed between the two in-state schools in the 1890s. By 1940, "Wahoos" was in general used around Grounds to denote University students or events relating to them. The abbreviated "Hoos" sprang up later in student newspapers and has gained growing popularity in recent years.

UNIVERSITY COLORS: ORANGE AND BLUE

- Orange and blue were adopted as the University of Virginia's official athletic colors at a mass student meeting in 1888. UVA athletic teams had previously worn silver gray and cardinal red, but those colors did not stand out on muddy football fields, prompting a student movement to change them.
- One of the students attending the mass meeting was Allen Potts, a star athlete who played on Virginia's first football team in 1888. Potts showed up at the meeting wearing a navy blue-and-orange scarf that he had acquired during a summer boating expedition at Oxford University. Orange and blue were chosen as the official athletic colors after one of Potts' fellow students pulled the scarf off Potts' neck and, waving it to the crowd, yelled, "How will this do?" UVA later served as the inspiration for schools like Auburn and Florida when they selected school colors.

HEAD COACH GEORGE GELNOVATCH

George Gelnovatch enters his 27th season as the head coach of the Virginia men's soccer program. The longest tenured head coach in program history, Gelnovatch has led the Cavaliers to a pair of national championships in 2009 and 2014 as well as six NCAA College Cup appearances and 24-consecutive berths in the NCAA tournament.

Gelnovatch became the program's all-time leader in wins on August 25, 2017 with a 3-2 double-overtime victory over Villanova, surpassing his UVA mentor Bruce Arena for the program record in wins with 296. He reached the 300-win plateau on Sept. 15, 2017 with a 2-1 triumph at Virginia Tech, becoming just the fourth coach in Atlantic Coast Conference history to win 300 career matches.

A former Cavalier soccer All-American and assistant coach,

Gelnovatch has guided Virginia to five ACC tournament titles, three regular-season ACC championships and a record of 360-152-64 (.680) during his tenure as UVA head coach. Over the course of his tenure as an assistant and head coach at Virginia, he has been a part of all seven of the Cavaliers' national championships.

Gelnovatch is the first coach in NCAA Division I men's soccer history to lead 20-straight teams to the NCAA tournament. He is one of just eight coaches in the Division I men's soccer annals to take 20 teams to the tournament and one of only four active coaches to do so.

Going into 2022, Gelnovatch ranked as the 12th-winningest active head coach in Division I college soccer, with a .681 career winning percentage. He stood 10th in career wins among current head coaches. Among Division I coaches all-time, he ranked 40th in career wins and 43rd in career winning percentage. These figures are even more striking when considering Gelnovatch's teams play one of the nation's toughest schedules on a yearly basis.

Virginia has won at least 15 games in a season 10 times under Gelnovatch, including 2019 when it won 21 games the second most in the history of the program en route to an ACC Coastal Division Championship, an ACC Tournament crown and a Runner-Up finish in the NCAA College Cup.

Gelnovatch has developed a number of Major League Soccer players during his UVA tenure, with 30 players going in MLS drafts and 12 in the MLS Supplemental Draft, while eight signed Project-40/Generation Adidas contracts and Jordan Allen (2014), Derrick Etienne (2015), Scott Thomsen (2015) and Aboubacar Keita (2018) each signed MLS Homegrown contracts. Jason Moore (1999) and Alecko Eskandarian (2003) were selected No. 1 in the MLS Draft, as 13 Cavaliers have been picked in the first round of the various MLS drafts.

Gelnovatch was named the 10th coach of the Virginia program on Jan. 3, 1996, after Bruce Arena announced he would end his 18-year career at the helm of UVA soccer to become head coach and assistant general manager of Major League Soccer's D.C. United.
