- Directly behind Miller is Gashi who has logged 902 total minutes
- Miller recorded the first goal of his collegiate career against No. 10 Pitt (9/30/22) - it stood as the game-winner

THE ACC - COLLEGE SOCCER'S PREMIER CONFERENCE

- The ACC has proved a dominant force in men's college soccer
- In 2021 ACC teams made up two of the four College Cup spots (Clemson, Notre Dame)
- The conference has had at least one member make the College Cup in 20 of the last 21 seasons
- A current ACC school has made it to the NCAA Championship game in 10 out of the last 15 seasons
- Over that same stretch, current ACC member programs have won national titles six times
- Virginia has won a pair of NCAA titles and reached another championship game in that span
- Last season, the ACC picked up the most NCAA Tournament berths (8) of any conference, and claimed four of the top eight national seeds Notre Dame (4), Pitt (5), Duke (7), Clemson (8).
- Clemson is the reigning national champion in men's soccer after a 2-0 victory over Washington in 2021 final
- ACC Teams have won 18 NCAA men's soccer championships, including nine since 2001
- Eight ACC teams earned bids to the NCAA Championships in 2022, the most of any conference

CHANCE CREATOR

- Thanks to his high work-rate and pressing style up front, Leo Afonso is among the nation's elite chance creators so far this season
- Across NCAA Division I, Afonso's shots per game total ranks sixth (3.72) while he checks in at No. 16 in SOG per game (1.56)
- The striker leads the team in goals this season with seven
- Virginia is 9-0-1 when Afonso scores or assists this season and 6-0-1 when he scores
- He leads the team in points with 18 this season

UBOGU THE SUPER SUB

- Kome Ubogu has yet to crack the Virginia starting XI this season but is currently second for the team lead in goals (6)
- Not only does Ubogu have a large tally of goals, but his goals have come in crucial moments for the Cavaliers on multiple occasions this season
- A diving effort from Ubogu against Virginia Tech in the 75th minute gave UVA the lead in a comeback effort against the Hokies
- A heroic effort in the 89th minute against Notre Dame drew Virginia level, though the Cavaliers would go on to lose with just three seconds remaining in the match
- A late goal against American sealed another victory for the Cavaliers

- Ubogu turned the tide in Virginia's match with Clemson scoring a goal against the run of play to shift the momentum in a game Virginia won by a score of 2-1
- Ubogu averages 72 minutes of play per goal scored

HORTON'S RETURN FROM INJURY

- As an understudy of Daryl Dike during Virginia's run to the NCAA Final in 2019, Phil Horton has long seemed the natural heir to the striker position at Virginia
- Injuries put a halt to Horton's progression over a pair of seasons, but has found his way back into the starting XI in the 2022 season opener
- Horton is one of five Virginia players to make the starting eleven in every match this season
- Horton scored his first NCAA Division I goal in 692 days with a solo effort against James Madison (Sept. 1)
- Against Virginia Tech, Horton drew and converted a penalty for his second goal of the year

- The ACC named Horton the offensive player of the week for the first time in his career
- His total of five goals is the third-highest total among Cavaliers

- UVA ranks eighth nationally in terms of average attendance as Klöckner has seen 1,828 fans in the stands per game
- In terms of accumulated attendance, Klöckner Stadium has seen a total of 21,930 fans attend Virginia's home matches, a total that ranks seventh in the nation

SIMILAR DEFEATS

- Of Virginia's four losses this season, three have followed a remarkably similar script
- Excluding a 6-1 loss to No. 9 Maryland, Virginia has outshot its opponents by a combined margin of 52-17 - Virginia was outshot by just one in its loss to Maryland
- The Cavaliers have held possession for at least 59 percent of the game in three of its four losses
- The winning goal in three of UVA's four losses has come in with less than five minutes to play on two occasions (Xavier, Notre Dame) and was scored as a result of a penalty kick in the other (Denver)

- Excluding the 6-1 loss to Maryland this season, Virginia has conceded just three goals in open play this season
- Three of the four opponents Virginia has lost to this season are currently ranked in the nation's top-25

HOOS BACK FOR VIRGINIA

- The Cavaliers return a strong contingent of last season's impact players including their leading goal scorer from the 2021 campaign, Leo Afonso, as well as defensive anchor Andreas Ueland.
- The Hoos will also look to sophomore goalkeeper Holden Brown following a campaign in which he played every minute in goal for the Cavaliers posting a save percentage of .761.
- Virginia returns all of its top-five scorers from 2021 including Afonso, Kome Ubogu, Michael Tsicoulias, Ueland, and Will Citron

UNIQUELY UVA

The University of Virginia is an institution rich with history and tradition. Here is some of the terminoligy that contriutes to that tradition and culture:

- Grounds: The term used by students, faculty and alumni to refer to the university dating as far back as Thomas Jefferson. "Campus" is never used.
- First Year, Second Year, Third Year, Fourth Year: Instead of freshman, sophomore, junior, senior. Why? To be a "senior" implies that a person has reched the final phase of learning, a feat that Thomas Jefferson believed to be impossible, arguing instead that education is a life-long process. This tends to be used less in athletic eligibility references.
- Commonwealth: Virginia is one of four constituent states of the United States of America that officially uses the name "Commonwealth" instead of the word state in all references. The other three commonwealths are Kentucky, Massachusetts, and Pennsylvania.

UNIVERSITY NICKNAMES

- Virginia's athletics teams have been accompanied by a somewhat confusing array of nicknames. The most prominent and widely accepted of these monikers are "Cavaliers," "Wahoos" and "Hoos."
- Although the terms "Cavaliers," "Wahoos" and "Hoos" are used almost interchangeably to refer to University teams and players, "Cavaliers" is more often used by the media, while "Wahoos" and "Hoos" are frequently used by Virginia students and fans.
- Legend has it that Washington & Lee baseball fans dubbed the Virginia players "Wahoos"during the fiercely contested rivalry that existed between the two in-state schools in the 1890s. By 1940, "Wahoos" was in general used around Grounds to denote University students or events relating to them. The abbreviated "Hoos" sprang up later in student newspapers and has gained growing popularity in recent years.

UNIVERSITY COLORS: ORANGE AND BLUE

- Orange and blue were adopted as the University of Virginia's official athletic colors at a mass student meeting in 1888. UVA athletic teams had previously worn silver gray and cardinal red, but those colors did not stand out on muddy football fields, prompting a student movement to change them.
- One of the students attending the mass meeting was Allen Potts, a star athlete who played on Virginia's first football team in 1888. Potts showed up at the meeting wearing a navy blue-and-orange scarf that he had acquired during a summer boating expedition at Oxford University. Orange and blue were chosen as the official athletic colors after one of Potts' fellow students pulled the scarf off Potts' neck and, waving it to the crowd, yelled, "How will this do?" UVA later served as the inspiration for schools like Auburn and Florida when they selected school colors.

George Gelnovatch enters his 27th season as the head coach of the Virginia men's soccer program. The longest tenured head coach in program history, Gelnovatch has led the Cavaliers to a pair of national championships in 2009 and 2014 as well as six NCAA College Cup appearances and 24-consecutive berths in the NCAA tournament.

Gelnovatch became the program's all-time leader in wins on August 25, 2017 with a 3-2 double-overtime victory over Villanova, surpassing his UVA mentor Bruce Arena for the program record in wins with 296. He reached the 300-win plateau on Sept. 15, 2017 with a 2-1 triumph at Virginia Tech, becoming just the fourth coach in Atlantic Coast Conference history to win 300 career matches.

A former Cavalier soccer All-American and assistant coach, Gelnovatch has guided Virginia to five ACC tournament titles, three regular-season ACC championships and a record of 361-152-65(.680) during his tenure as UVA head coach. Over the course of his tenure as an assistant and head coach at Virginia, he has been a part of all seven of the Cavaliers' national championships.

Gelnovatch is the first coach in NCAA Division I men's soccer history to lead 20-straight teams to the NCAA tournament. He is one of just eight coaches in the Division I men's soccer annals to take 20 teams to the tournament and one of only four active coaches to do so.

Going into 2022, Gelnovatch ranked as the 12th-winningest active head coach in Division I college soccer, with a .681 career winning percentage. He stood 10th in career wins among current head coaches. Among Division I coaches all-time, he ranked 40th in career wins and 43rd in career winning percentage. These figures are even more striking when considering Gelnovatch's teams play one of the nation's toughest schedules on a yearly basis.

Virginia has won at least 15 games in a season 10 times under Gelnovatch, including 2019 when it won 21 games the second most in the history of the program en route to an ACC Coastal Division Championship, an ACC Tournament crown and a Runner-Up finish in the NCAA College Cup.

Gelnovatch has developed a number of Major League Soccer players during his UVA tenure, with 30 players going in MLS drafts and 12 in the MLS Supplemental Draft, while eight signed Project-40/Generation Adidas contracts and Jordan Allen (2014), Derrick Etienne (2015), Scott Thomsen (2015) and Aboubacar Keita (2018) each signed MLS Homegrown contracts. Jason Moore (1999) and Alecko Eskandarian (2003) were selected No. 1 in the MLS Draft, as 13 Cavaliers have been picked in the first round of the various MLS drafts.

Gelnovatch was named the 10th coach of the Virginia program on Jan. 3, 1996, after Bruce Arena announced he would end his 18-year career at the helm of UVA soccer to become head coach and assistant general manager of Major League Soccer's D.C. United.
