GAME OVERVIEW

- No. 13 Virginia (2-1) hosts No. 16 Johns Hopkins (3-1) at Klöckner Stadium for the 100th edition of one of the sport's most historic rivalries.
- The centennial matchup serves as the second contest of Saturday's doubleheader at Klöckner Stadium. The Virginia women's team hosts Stanford at noon.
- Saturday's doubleheader is also the men's and women's annual One Love game, an event created in 2010 to honor former Virginia women's lacrosse player Yeardeley Love and support the One Love Foundation, a national nonprofit dedicated to educating, empowering, and activating young people to end relationship violence and promote healthy relationships.
- Additionally, Saturday's contest marks the 20th anniversary of the Doyle Smith Cup, honoring the life and legacy of Edward "Doyle" Smith and his lasting contributions to both programs and the game at the national level.
- This will be the Cavaliers' first game at Klöckner Stadium this year, after their season opener, a 19-14 win over Colgate (Feb. 8), was moved to the George Welsh Indoor Football Practice Facility due to frigid temperatures.

THE UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA

UNIQUELY UVA

The University of Virginia is an institution rich with history and tradition. Here is some of the terminology that contributes to UVA's culture.

Grounds: The term used by students, faculty and alumni to refer to the University dating as far back as Thomas Jefferson. "Campus" is never used.

First Year, Second Year, Third Year, Fourth Year: Instead of freshman, sophomore, junior, senior. Why you may ask? To be a "senior" implies that a person has reached the final phase of learning, a feat that Thomas Jefferson believed to be impossible, arguing instead that education is a life-long process.

Commonwealth: Virginia is one of four constituent states of the United States of America that officially uses the name "Commonwealth" instead of the word state in all references. The other three commonwealths are Kentucky, Massachusetts and Pennsylvania.

UNIVERSITY NICKNAMES

Virginia's athletics teams have been accompanied by a somewhat confusing array of nicknames. The most prominent and widely accepted of these monikers are "Cavaliers," "Wahoos" and "Hoos."

Although the terms "Cavaliers," "Wahoos" and "Hoos" are used almost interchangeably to refer to University teams and players, "Cavaliers" is more often used by the media, while "Wahoos" and "Hoos" are frequently used by Virginia students and fans.

Legend has it that Washington & Lee baseball fans dubbed the Virginia players "Wahoos" during the fiercely contested rivalry that existed between the two in-state schools in the 1890s. By 1940, "Wahoos" was in general use around Grounds to denote University students or events relating to them. The abbreviated "Hoos" sprang up later in student newspapers and has gained growing popularity in recent years.

THE CAVALIER MASCOT

The costumed Cavalier with a large character head debuted during Virginia's 1984 football season and has remained the official mascot of the University.

UNIVERSITY COLORS

Orange and blue were adopted as the University of Virginia's official athletic colors at a mass student meeting in 1888. UVA athletic teams had previously worn silver gray and cardinal red, but those colors did not stand out on muddy football fields, prompting a student movement to change them.

One of the students attending the mass meeting was Allen Potts, a star athlete who played on Virginia's first football team in 1888. Potts showed up at the meeting wearing a navy blue-and-orange scarf that he had acquired during a summer boating expedition at Oxford University. Orange and blue were chosen as the official athletic colors after one of Potts' fellow students pulled the scarf off Potts' neck and, waving it to the crowd, yelled, "How will this do?" UVA later served as the inspiration for schools like Auburn and Florida when they selected school colors.

WAH-HOO-WAH

The origin of "Wah-hoo-wah" is uncertain. The cheer was used to root on Virginia teams as early as 1890 and may have been borrowed from Dartmouth College, whose athletics teams were once known as the Indians.

Legend attributes the yell to Natalie Floyd Otey, who sang the ballad "Where'er You Are, There Shall My Love Be" at Charlottesville's Levy Opera House in 1893. The predominantly student audience noticed that Otey warbled the first three words of the song between each of the stanzas and decided to join in the refrain. By evening's end, goes the legend, the crowd had corrupted "Where'er You Are" into "Wah-hoo-wah."

The Levy Opera House stands at the corner of High Street and Park Street and has since been renovated into an office building.

DOYLE SMITH CUP (EST. 2006)

- The Doyle Smith Cup was established in 2006, when Virginia and Johns Hopkins joined together to honor Edward "Doyle" Smith Jr. and his lifelong contributions to the lacrosse programs at both institutions, as well as to the sport on the national stage.
- Each year, the winner of the regular-season matchup between the Cavaliers and Blue Jays lays claim to the Cup.
- Virginia is 11-7 all-time in Smith Cup matchups.
- Smith served as team manager and statistician for Johns Hopkins under coach Bob Scott from 1963-68.
- He enrolled at UVA to pursue a doctoral degree in the fall of 1968, and became the University's first full-time assistant sports information director, a position he held for 31 years until his retirement in 1999.
- Smith is credited with writing the original manuscript that later became the framework for the current NCAA men's lacrosse statisticians' manual.
- As the United States Intercollegiate Lacrosse Association (USILA) information director from 1973-95, he compiled the weekly rankings and statistics for the organization.
- In 2000, Smith was elected to the US Lacrosse Hall of Fame and is believed to be the only inductee who never played or coached the game at any level.
- He passed away in June 2004, not long after the national championship game.
- Following the conclusion of Saturday's game, there will be a brief presentation of the cup to the winning team.

SCOUTING THE BLUE JAYS

- After winning its first three games, Johns Hopkins dropped its first contest of the season at North Carolina, 17-9, last Friday (Feb. 20). In their first road game of the season, the Blue Jays trailed by only two goals [10-8] with under 1:00 remaining in the third, but the Tar Heels scored seven of the last eight to run away with the win.
- Hopkins is led by Peter Milliman, who is in his sixth season as Blue Jays' head coach.
- Like UVA, Hopkins returns more than 70 percent of its point production from last season, including Tewaaron Award watch list selection and three-time All-American midfielder Matt Collison and attackman Hunter Chauvette. Chauvette had five goals in last year's meeting in Baltimore, Md.

CHAMPIONSHIP WEEKEND AT SCOTT STADIUM

- Last May, the University of Virginia was named the host of the 2026 NCAA Men's Lacrosse Championships, commonly referred to as "Championship Weekend."
- The three-day event will commence over Memorial Day weekend at Scott Stadium, which is home to the UVA football team and has hosted concerts for some of the world's most iconic touring artists, including The Rolling Stones, U2, and Charlottesville's own Dave Matthews Band.
- The men's Division I semifinals will take place on Saturday, May 23, while the Division II and III finals will be contested on Sunday, May 24.
- For the 40th consecutive edition, Championship Weekend culminates with the Division I title game as a stand-alone finale on Memorial Day – Monday, May 25.
- Virginia was awarded hosting duties after the NCAA announced a venue change in the fall of 2023, following a scheduling conflict with Gillette Stadium (Foxborough, Mass), which was selected as one of the host sites for the 2026 FIFA Men's World Cup.
- This year's Championship Weekend marks the first time since 1982 that UVA will host the Division I Men's Lacrosse Championship, having previously staged the event at Scott Stadium in both 1977 and 1982.
- Aside from the 1977 and 1982 games, UVA has hosted only two other NCAA Championships, the Division I men's and women's cross country championship races in 1987 and 2023.
- This year's Championships marks the first time postseason lacrosse will be played at the venue since it served as a host site for the 2004 NCAA Tournament quarterfinals.
- Scott Stadium is also the first campus stadium to be the final site of the Division I Men's Lacrosse Championship since 2002, when Rutgers hosted the event.
- Not since April 2, 2011 – when the Cavaliers hosted Maryland in a nationally televised regular-season matchup – has a lacrosse game been played at Scott Stadium.
- In a fitting end to the season, Virginia went on to defeat the Terrapins, 9-7, in the national championship game, capturing the program's fifth NCAA title in the process.
- Prior to Klöckner Stadium's inaugural season in 1993, Scott Stadium served as UVA's primary home for lacrosse – particularly for matchups against marquee opponents.
- Scott Stadium was also the host site of the 1976 North-South All-Star game, a prestigious annual event that showcases the nation's top senior college lacrosse players.
- In 2003, the NCAA unified the Division II and Division III national championship games with the Division I semifinals and final, creating a single, championship-filled weekend.
- The inaugural all-division format took place at M&T Bank Stadium in Baltimore, where the Wahoos defeated Johns Hopkins, 9-7, in the championship game in dramatic fashion amid soaking wet conditions.

GAME 3	#13 Virginia	19
	Stony Brook	7

Feb. 21, 2026 • Stony Brook, N.Y. • LaValle Stadium

STONY BROOK, N.Y. — No. 17 Virginia (2-1) scored 11 seconds in, and the rest was never in doubt as UVA cruised to a decisive 19-7 victory over Stony Brook (0-3) at LaValle Stadium Saturday afternoon (Feb. 21). In his return to his former post, Lars Tiffany became only the third UVA head coach in program history to tally 100 wins, joining legends Jim "Ace" Adams and Dom Starsia.

Eleven Cavaliers found the back of the net, including Brendan Millon (5g, 2a), who led all players with seven points. His brother, McCabe Millon (2g, 4a) added six points and true freshman faceoff specialist Griff Meyer scored two goals and logged his first career assist. Meyer was 11 for 17 at the faceoff X, his second straight game finishing above .500 on faceoffs.

In his first start of the season, Kyle Morris (1-0) earned the win in net and stopped eight Seawolve shots. He averaged only 7.57 goals-against in 47:32 of action. Virginia's man-down unit shut out SBU on all its five extra-man opportunities.

The Cavaliers scored the first seven goals after McCabe Millon opened the barrage on an assist from Meyer on the first play of the game. UVA led 7-1 by the end of the first quarter. UVA kept rolling in the second with three more early goals and Brendan Millon's first career hat trick, heading into halftime up 11-3 while Morris piled up saves. The Hoos added three unassisted goals in the third – including Meyer's highlight-reel spin move through multiple checks followed by a backhanded finish to notch his second score of the day. UVA's surged continued into the fourth quarter with four more scores, highlighted by Sean Browne's first career goal, as reserves saw action to cap the rout.

NOTES

- UVA improved to 13-0 in the all-time series with Stony Brook.
- Lars Tiffany became only the third coach in UVA history to tally 100 wins as UVA head coach. In his 10th season Virginia, Tiffany is now 100-45 as Cavalier head coach.
- Tiffany also improved 3-0 all-time against his former team. Tiffany was named the Seawolves' fourth head coach on Aug. 10, 2004, and spent two seasons (2005-06) in that position.
- UVA's man-down unit held the Seawolves off the scoreboard on all five of their extra-man opportunities.
- Stony Brook's seven goals are the fewest by a Cavalier opponent in a true road game since their 8-5 win over Manhattan in Riverdale, N.Y.
- In his third career game, true freshman Brendan Millon tallied five goals – his first career hat trick – and two assists.
- Senior attackman Ryan Colsey extended his scoring streak to 17 games dating back to last year's season opener, a span in which he's totaled 36 goals.
- Faceoff specialist Griff Meyer finished with two goals and one assist. The last time a UVA faceoff specialist scored two goals in a game was April 7, 2023, when Petey LaSalla notched two in a 19-12 victory at No. 10 North Carolina.
- Sean Browne notched his first career goal with 12:28 in the fourth quarter. Browne missed the 2025 season due to injury.
- In his homecoming, Manhasset, New York, native Charles Balsamo scored his third goal of the season in the third quarter.
- With two goals, Chase Band logged his first career multi-goal effort.
- Kyle Morris earned his first win in net since UVA's 17-8 win over High Point on Feb. 18, 2025.
- After missing UVA's first two games of the season, senior defenseman John Schroter made his season debut.

Feb. 14, 2026 • Richmond, Va. • Robins Stadium

RICHMOND, Va. — No. 8 Richmond (2-0) scored 11 of the final 16 goals on the way to its 18-12 victory over No. 13 Virginia (1-1) at Robins Stadium on Saturday afternoon (Feb. 14). Less than a week after UVA was forced to play its season opener indoors due to frigid temperatures, a lively crowd of 3,896 was in attendance under seasonally warm, sunny skies.

Goalkeeper Connor Knight (2-0) dazzled in net for the Spiders, finishing with a career-high 18 saves to earn his second win of the year.

For the second consecutive game, McCabe Millon stood out among the Hoos. He finished with a game-high seven points on four goals and three assists. Millon now has eight goals and eight assists in two games so far this season.

Virginia's Jake Marek (0-2), who made his second straight start Saturday, and Kyle Morris split goaltending duties, but the duo combined for only 11 saves after facing 40 Spider shots.

The teams were tied 4-4 after one, as Richmond scored with four seconds left to wipe out UVA's lead. Ryan Colsey had two goals and two assists – extending his scoring streak to 16 games – while McCabe Millon handed out two first-quarter assists and later scored three goals in 65 seconds to erase a 7-4 deficit. The Spiders closed the half on top, 9-7, behind four first-half goals from Aidan O'Neil. O'Neil finished with five goals and one assist.

Richmond pushed its run to seven straight goals spanning the second and third quarters to seize control. UVA answered with four of the next five, including two from Brendan Millon, to pull within three [15-12], but the Spiders scored the final three goals to seal their second straight win in the series.

GAME 1	Colgate	14
	#14 Virginia	19

Feb. 8, 2026 • Charlottesville, Va. • George Welsh IPF

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. — Truitt Sunderland (6g, 2a), McCabe Millon (4g, 5a) and Ryan Colsey (4g, 1a) combined for 14 goals as the Cavaliers (1-0) pulled away in the second half of their season opener, defeating Colgate (0-2) 19-14 on Sunday afternoon (Feb. 8). The contest was the first-ever lacrosse game held at the George Welsh Indoor Football Practice Facility, which does not accommodate spectators.

The trio of Colsey, Sunderland and McCabe Millon also made up the Cavaliers' starting attack in 2025. Sunderland's six goals matched his career high, which he also achieved in last year's season-opening win over Colgate. McCabe Millon's five assists and nine points are also career highs. McCabe's younger brother, freshman Brendan Millon, dished out five assists in his collegiate debut as a starting offensive midfielder. Fittingly, the first assist of his career came on a feed to his older brother in the first quarter, a goal that gave Virginia the lead.

After trailing 13-5 on faceoffs in the first half, UVA was able to out-manuever the Raiders in the second half, 10-7. Griff Meyer (10-23 FO) and Henry Metz (5-9 FO) spearheaded the second-half effort for the Cavaliers.

UVA's starting goalie Jake Marek (1-0), a transfer from Air Force, earned the win in net after stopping nine Raider shots and only allowed two goals in the fourth quarter. Colgate starting goaltender Andrew Lehman (0-2) made 13 saves in his second start of the season.

NOTES

- The Cavaliers improved to 6-0 in the all-time series with Colgate.
- UVA won its seventh consecutive season opener.
- Lars Tiffany improved to 9-1 in season openers as UVA head coach.
- Tiffany, whose first season in Charlottesville was in 2017, earned his 99th win as UVA head coach.
- UVA finished with 17 assists, the most in a game by any NCAA Division I team (as of Feb. 13).
- Eleven Cavaliers in Ben Boyer, Owen Crann, Ryan Duenkel, Robby Hopper, Luke Jamin, Jake Marek, Michael Meredith, Griff Meyer, Brendan Millon, Aidan Murnane and Lindan Verville made their UVA debuts.
- The contest was the first-ever lacrosse game played inside the George Welsh Indoor Football Practice facility and UVA's first home game away from Klöckner Stadium since the 2021 Army game, which was held at the Lower Turf practice field.
- Excluding the JMA Wireless Dome (Syracuse, N.Y.), it was also UVA's first indoor game since facing Notre Dame at the Loftus Sports Center in 2014.
- Colsey extended his scoring streak to 15 games, dating back to last year's season opener, a span in which he's totaled 33 goals.
- McCabe Millon set career highs in both assists (5) and points (9).
- Sunderland tied his career high of six goals.
- Against his former team, defenseman Murnane made 40th career start in his first game back since suffering a season-ending injury in the Raiders' 2025 opener against Penn State.
- Former UVA standout attackman Connor Shellenberger made his coaching debut as an assistant coach. Shellenberger primarily assists with the development of the program's attackmen and offensive midfielders.
