GAME OVERVIEW

- Virginia (0-0) hosts Colgate (0-1) Sunday (Feb. 8), marking the sixth consecutive year UVA plays its season opener at home.
- Due to forecasted frigid temperatures at game time, Virginia's season opener against Colgate has been relocated to the George Welsh Indoor Football Practice Facility (IPF).
- Sunday's contest marks the first-ever lacrosse game held at the IPF.
- UVA was ranked No. 14 in the both the USILA coaches' and Inside Lacrosse preseason media polls.

A WIN FOR THE CAVALIERS WOULD...

- Improve UVA's record in the all-time series with Colgate to 6-0.
- Be their seventh consecutive in season openers.
- Give Lars Tiffany a 9-1 record in season openers as UVA head coach.
- The 99th of Tiffany's head coaching tenure at UVA.

SEASON OVERVIEW

- The Cavaliers will face eight teams that participated in the 2025 NCAA Tournament, including non-conference foes Colgate, Richmond, Towson and Maryland.
- UVA hosts eight home contests, highlighted by its non-conference matchup against Johns Hopkins, and ACC contests against Notre Dame and North Carolina.
- Theahoos return five starters from their 2025 roster, including preseason All-Americans McCabe Millon (attack) and John Schroter (defense). With their entire 2025 starting attack back, including Millon, UVA also returns nearly 70% of its total point production.
- The Hoos look to fill the void left by 2025 All-Americans Ben Wayer (LSM) and Griffin Schutz Nunes, who concluded his career No. 2 in career saves in program history.
- Lars Tiffany is entering his 10th year as Virginia head coach. He's also only two wins from the 100th of his UVA tenure.

- In the summer of 2025, Tiffany announced the addition of UVA legend Connor Shellenberger as assistant coach. Shellenberger is the program's only four-time first-team All-American, a two-time Tewaaraton Award finalist and guided the Hoos to a national championship in 2021.
- The University of Virginia was named the host of this year's NCAA Men's Lacrosse Championships (Championship Weekend). The event, which encompasses all three Divisional championships and the Division I semifinals, will commence at Scott Stadium May 23-25.

SERIES HISTORY

- Virginia opens its season for the second consecutive year by hosting Colgate. The two teams rekindled the series in 2025 after a 66-year hiatus (since 1959).
- The Cavaliers lead the series, 5-0. All five games were held in Charlottesville.
- After missing the last seven games of the 2024 season due to an injury, attackman Truitt Sunderland had a career day in last year's 19-9 rout of the Raiders. His six goals and three assists are both career bests.
- The Cavaliers fired a season-high 69 shots compared to Colgate's 46, while also controlling the ground ball battle, 56–32. UVA's man-down unit held the Raiders scoreless on all four extra-man opportunities, offering an early glimpse of how the Cavaliers emerged as the nation's top man-down defense.

SCOUTING THE RAIDERS

- Colgate finished its 2025 campaign with a overall 10-8 record. The Raiders captured the 2025 Patriot League Championship, their first conference title in 10 years, in a 17-10 victory over Boston University.
- In the program's fourth NCAA Tournament appearance, Colgate fell 13-11 to Penn State in the first round of the tournament.
- Coincidentally, the Nittany Lions defeated the Raiders 18-14 in the two teams' 2026 season opener last week.

THE UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA

UNIQUELY UVA

The University of Virginia is an institution rich with history and tradition. Here is some of the terminology that contributes to UVA's culture.

Grounds: The term used by students, faculty and alumni to refer to the University dating as far back as Thomas Jefferson. "Campus" is never used.

First Year, Second Year, Third Year, Fourth Year: Instead of freshman, sophomore, junior, senior. Why you may ask? To be a "senior" implies that a person has reached the final phase of learning, a feat that Thomas Jefferson believed to be impossible, arguing instead that education is a life-long process.

Commonwealth: Virginia is one of four constituent states of the United States of America that officially uses the name "Commonwealth" instead of the word state in all references. The other three commonwealths are Kentucky, Massachusetts and Pennsylvania.

UNIVERSITY NICKNAMES

Virginia's athletics teams have been accompanied by a somewhat confusing array of nicknames. The most prominent and widely accepted of these monikers are "Cavaliers," "Wahoos" and "Hoos."

Although the terms "Cavaliers," "Wahoos" and "Hoos" are used almost interchangeably to refer to University teams and players, "Cavaliers" is more often used by the media, while "Wahoos" and "Hoos" are frequently used by Virginia students and fans.

Legend has it that Washington & Lee baseball fans dubbed the Virginia players "Wahoos" during the fiercely contested rivalry that existed between the two in-state schools in the 1890s. By 1940, "Wahoos" was in general use around Grounds to denote University students or events relating to them. The abbreviated "Hoos" sprang up later in student newspapers and has gained growing popularity in recent years.

THE CAVALIER MASCOT

The costumed Cavalier with a large character head debuted during Virginia's 1984 football season and has remained the official mascot of the University.

UNIVERSITY COLORS

Orange and blue were adopted as the University of Virginia's official athletic colors at a mass student meeting in 1888. UVA athletic teams had previously worn silver gray and cardinal red, but those colors did not stand out on muddy football fields, prompting a student movement to change them.

One of the students attending the mass meeting was Allen Potts, a star athlete who played on Virginia's first football team in 1888. Potts showed up at the meeting wearing a navy blue-and-orange scarf that he had acquired during a summer boating expedition at Oxford University. Orange and blue were chosen as the official athletic colors after one of Potts' fellow students pulled the scarf off Potts' neck and, waving it to the crowd, yelled, "How will this do?" UVA later served as the inspiration for schools like Auburn and Florida when they selected school colors.

WAH-HOO-WAH

The origin of "Wah-hoo-wah" is uncertain. The cheer was used to root on Virginia teams as early as 1890 and may have been borrowed from Dartmouth College, whose athletics teams were once known as the Indians.

Legend attributes the yell to Natalie Floyd Otey, who sang the ballad "Where'er You Are, There Shall My Love Be" at Charlottesville's Levy Opera House in 1893. The predominantly student audience noticed that Otey warbled the first three words of the song between each of the stanzas and decided to join in the refrain. By evening's end, goes the legend, the crowd had corrupted "Where'er You Are" into "Wah-hoo-wah."

The Levy Opera House stands at the corner of High Street and Park Street and has since been renovated into an office building.

ORANGE & BLUE: IT RUNS IN THE FAMILY

- The Cavalier lacrosse program has a long history of sibling connections and this year is no different.
- Attackmen McCabe Millon ('27) and Brendan Millon ('29) are the program's first brother tandem over the last 15 years.
- Both Millon brothers were the No. 1 prospects in their respective signing classes. Their parents, Mark and Erin, are both U.S. Lacrosse Hall of Fame inductees. Mark starred at UMass (1990-93) before an accomplished professional career. Erin played at Maryland, helping the Terrapins reach the 1990 national championship game, and spent 11 years with the U.S. Women's National Team, winning World Cup titles in 1997 and 2001.
- Other notable UVA lacrosse sibling connections include: Shamel and Rhamel Bratton, Brian and Kevin Carroll, Brendan, Conor and Gavin Gill, Billy, Danny and Pat Glading.

SHELLENBERGER RETURNS TO (HIS FORMER STOMPING) GROUNDS

- Former UVA standout attackman Connor Shellenberger returned to his alma mater as an assistant coach, head coach Lars Tiffany announced July 14, 2025.
- Shellenberger works closely with associate head coach Kevin Cassese on developing the program's attackmen and offensive midfielders.
- Both Shellenberger (2022-24) and Cassese (2001-02) were named Tewaaraton Award finalists multiple times, which is presented annually to the nation's most outstanding college lacrosse player. They also both earned USILA player-of-the-year honors at their respective positions.
- Shellenberger is the program's record holder in both points and assists.
- He was named the NCAA Tournament Most Outstanding Player after guiding the Cavaliers to the program's ninth national championship in 2021.
- Shellenberger is the program's only four-time USILA First Team All-American and three-time Tewaaraton Award finalist. He was named the ACC's men's lacrosse Scholar-Athlete of the Year in 2023.
- In the summer of 2025, Shellenberger guided the New York Atlas to a PLL championship and became the youngest MVP in PLL history.

THREE TRANSFERS BOLSTER UVA'S 2026 ROSTER

- The Cavaliers added three transfers to this year's roster in goalie Jake Marek (Air Force), and defensemen Michael Meredith (Jacksonville) and Aidan Murnane (Colgate).
- Marek guided Air Force to an ASUN championship and NCAA Tournament appearance in 2025. He finished with 170 saves, good for No. 3 in Air Force single-season history.
- Meredith was First Team All-ASUN as true freshman at Jacksonville in 2025. He started in 12 of his 13 appearances at close defense. Meredith is the first former Boys' Latin player to sign with Virginia in more than 25 years.
- Murnane suffered a season-ending injury during Colgate's season opener last year against Penn State. In 2024, he was Second Team All-Patriot League and tallied 20 caused turnovers and 38 ground balls, both career highs. With 39 career starts as a Raider, Murnane has more starting experience than any other player on this year's Cavalier squad.

CHAMPIONSHIP WEEKEND IS HEADED TO CHARLOTTESVILLE

- Last May, the University of Virginia was named the host of the 2026 NCAA Men's Lacrosse Championships, commonly referred to as "Championship Weekend."
- The three-day event will commence over Memorial Day weekend at Scott Stadium, which is home to the UVA football team and has hosted concerts for some of the world's most iconic touring artists, including The Rolling Stones, U2, and Charlottesville's own Dave Matthews Band.
- The men's Division I semifinals will take place on Saturday, May 23, while the Division II and III finals will be contested on Sunday, May 24.
- For the 40th consecutive edition, Championship Weekend culminates with the Division I title game as a stand-alone finale on Memorial Day – Monday, May 25.
- Virginia was awarded hosting duties after the NCAA announced a venue change in the fall of 2023, following a scheduling conflict with Gillette Stadium (Foxborough, Mass), which was selected as one of the host sites for the 2026 FIFA Men's World Cup.
- This year's Championship Weekend marks the first time since 1982 that UVA will host the Division I Men's Lacrosse Championship, having previously staged the event at Scott Stadium in both 1977 and 1982.
- Aside from the 1977 and 1982 games, UVA has hosted only two other NCAA Championships, the Division I men's and women's cross country championship races in 1987 and 2023.
- This year's Championships marks the first time postseason lacrosse will be played at the venue since it served as a host site for the 2004 NCAA Tournament quarterfinals.
- Scott Stadium is also the first campus stadium to be the final site of the Division I Men's Lacrosse Championship since 2002, when Rutgers hosted the event.
- Not since April 2, 2011 – when the Cavaliers hosted Maryland in a nationally televised regular-season matchup – has a lacrosse game been played at Scott Stadium.
- In a fitting end to the season, Virginia went on to defeat the Terrapins, 9-7, in the national championship game, capturing the program's fifth NCAA title in the process.
- Prior to Klöckner Stadium's inaugural season in 1993, Scott Stadium served as UVA's primary home for lacrosse – particularly for matchups against marquee opponents.
- Scott Stadium was also the host site of the 1976 North-South All-Star game, a prestigious annual event that showcases the nation's top senior college lacrosse players.
- In 2003, the NCAA unified the Division II and Division III national championship games with the Division I semifinals and final, creating a single, championship-filled weekend.
- The inaugural all-division format took place at M&T Bank Stadium in Baltimore, where the Wahoos defeated Johns Hopkins, 9-7, in the championship game in dramatic fashion amid soaking wet conditions.
