GAME OVERVIEW

- No. 13 Virginia (1-0) travels to No. 8 Richmond (1-0) Saturday (Feb. 14) for its first road contest and ranked matchup of the year.
- Opening faceoff from Robins Stadium is set for noon on ESPN+ and will be broadcast on WINA (98.9 FM/1070 AM).

A WIN FOR THE CAVALIERS WOULD...

- Improve UVA's record to 11-2 in the all-time series with Richmond.
- Be the 100th of Lars Tiffany's head coaching tenure at UVA (since 2017).
- Give UVA its first victory over a ranked opponents since the Hoos' 11-10 double-overtime thriller over then-No. 3 Johns Hopkins in the 2024 NCAA quarterfinals.

SERIES HISTORY

- Virginia leads the all-time series over the Spiders, 10-2, including a 4-1 mark at Robins Stadium.
- The series began in 2014, when the Cavaliers played at Richmond in its inaugural game.
- In wet and cold conditions, the Spiders won their second-ever contest of the series, 13-10, in last year's meeting at Klöckner Stadium on Feb. 15.
- UR opened the game with four straight goals, while UVA struggled with seven failed clears. Late in the fourth quarter, the Cavaliers committed two offsides violations – resulting in turnovers – that further diminished their chances of mounting a comeback.
- Last year, Richmond attackman Lucas Littlejohn led all players with six points on four goals and two assists. UVA netminder Kyle Morris tied the series record by a UVA player with 13 saves, also his career high.
- The last time the two teams met at Robins Stadium was Feb. 17, 2024, when former UVA attackman Payton Cormier shattered the program's previous all-time goals record as then-No. 3 Virginia topped then-No. 16 Richmond, 14-10.
- In 2023, the two teams squared off twice at Klöckner Stadium, once in the regular season and once in the first round of the NCAA Tournament. The Hoos won 25-8 in the regular season, the largest margin of victory by either team in the series, and 17-8 in the postseason meeting after a lightning delay and heavy rain halted play between the first and second quarters.
- Virginia won the first seven games of the series before Richmond defeated the Cavaliers, 17-13, at Robins Stadium in 2022. UVA led by as many as four goals in the second quarter before the Spiders scored seven straight to lead the rest of the way after Matt Moore and Petey LaSalla exited the game due to injury.

SCOUTING THE SPIDERS

- Richmond enters Saturday's matchup having won 10 of its last 11 games, dating back to last season.
- The Spiders' only loss in that span was to a 13-12 heartbreaker to then-No. 1 Cornell, which went on to win the NCAA championship.
- Last year, Richmond captured its first-ever NCAA Tournament win in a 13-10 defeat of North Carolina in Chapel Hill.
- The Spiders were predicted to repeat as Atlantic-10 champions in this year's preseason A10 poll.
- Led by head coach Dan Chemotti, Richmond returned six starters from its 2025 squad in attackmen Aidan O'Neil, Lucas Littlejohn and Jack Ricciardi, as well as midfielder Joe Sheridan and close defensemen Michael Farrell and Hunter Smith. O'Neil, Smith and Pilling were all named to this year's Tewaaraton Award Watch List.

THE UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA

UNIQUELY UVA

The University of Virginia is an institution rich with history and tradition. Here is some of the terminology that contributes to UVA's culture.

Grounds: The term used by students, faculty and alumni to refer to the University dating as far back as Thomas Jefferson. "Campus" is never used.

First Year, Second Year, Third Year, Fourth Year: Instead of freshman, sophomore, junior, senior. Why you may ask? To be a "senior" implies that a person has reached the final phase of learning, a feat that Thomas Jefferson believed to be impossible, arguing instead that education is a life-long process.

Commonwealth: Virginia is one of four constituent states of the United States of America that officially uses the name "Commonwealth" instead of the word state in all references. The other three commonwealths are Kentucky, Massachusetts and Pennsylvania.

UNIVERSITY NICKNAMES

Virginia's athletics teams have been accompanied by a somewhat confusing array of nicknames. The most prominent and widely accepted of these monikers are "Cavaliers," "Wahoos" and "Hoos."

Although the terms "Cavaliers," "Wahoos" and "Hoos" are used almost interchangeably to refer to University teams and players, "Cavaliers" is more often used by the media, while "Wahoos" and "Hoos" are frequently used by Virginia students and fans.

Legend has it that Washington & Lee baseball fans dubbed the Virginia players "Wahoos" during the fiercely contested rivalry that existed between the two in-state schools in the 1890s. By 1940, "Wahoos" was in general use around Grounds to denote University students or events relating to them. The abbreviated "Hoos" sprang up later in student newspapers and has gained growing popularity in recent years.

THE CAVALIER MASCOT

The costumed Cavalier with a large character head debuted during Virginia's 1984 football season and has remained the official mascot of the University.

UNIVERSITY COLORS

Orange and blue were adopted as the University of Virginia's official athletic colors at a mass student meeting in 1888. UVA athletic teams had previously worn silver gray and cardinal red, but those colors did not stand out on muddy football fields, prompting a student movement to change them.

One of the students attending the mass meeting was Allen Potts, a star athlete who played on Virginia's first football team in 1888. Potts showed up at the meeting wearing a navy blue-and-orange scarf that he had acquired during a summer boating expedition at Oxford University. Orange and blue were chosen as the official athletic colors after one of Potts' fellow students pulled the scarf off Potts' neck and, waving it to the crowd, yelled, "How will this do?" UVA later served as the inspiration for schools like Auburn and Florida when they selected school colors.

WAH-HOO-WAH

The origin of "Wah-hoo-wah" is uncertain. The cheer was used to root on Virginia teams as early as 1890 and may have been borrowed from Dartmouth College, whose athletics teams were once known as the Indians.

Legend attributes the yell to Natalie Floyd Otey, who sang the ballad "Where'er You Are, There Shall My Love Be" at Charlottesville's Levy Opera House in 1893. The predominantly student audience noticed that Otey warbled the first three words of the song between each of the stanzas and decided to join in the refrain. By evening's end, goes the legend, the crowd had corrupted "Where'er You Are" into "Wah-hoo-wah."

The Levy Opera House stands at the corner of High Street and Park Street and has since been renovated into an office building.

- Schroter, a 2025 second-team All-American and All-ACC selection, started all 14 games last season while routinely matching up against opponents' top attackmen. He totaled 22 ground balls and 17 caused turnovers.
- Millon, ranked No. 22 on Inside Lacrosse's preseason Top 50 list, also started all 14 games in 2025. CHAMPIONSHIP WEEKEND AT SCOTT STADIUM

- Last May, the University of Virginia was named the host of the 2026 NCAA Men's Lacrosse Championships, commonly referred to as "Championship Weekend."
- The three-day event will commence over Memorial Day weekend at Scott Stadium, which is home to the UVA football team and has hosted concerts for some of the world's most iconic touring artists, including The Rolling Stones, U2, and Charlottesville's own Dave Matthews Band.
- The men's Division I semifinals will take place on Saturday, May 23, while the Division II and III finals will be contested on Sunday, May 24.
- For the 40th consecutive edition, Championship Weekend culminates with the Division I title game as a stand-alone finale on Memorial Day – Monday, May 25.
- Virginia was awarded hosting duties after the NCAA announced a venue change in the fall of 2023, following a scheduling conflict with Gillette Stadium (Foxborough, Mass), which was selected as one of the host sites for the 2026 FIFA Men's World Cup.
- This year's Championship Weekend marks the first time since 1982 that UVA will host the Division I Men's Lacrosse Championship, having previously staged the event at Scott Stadium in both 1977 and 1982.
- Aside from the 1977 and 1982 games, UVA has hosted only two other NCAA Championships, the Division I men's and women's cross country championship races in 1987 and 2023.
- This year's Championships marks the first time postseason lacrosse will be played at the venue since it served as a host site for the 2004 NCAA Tournament quarterfinals.
- Scott Stadium is also the first campus stadium to be the final site of the Division I Men's Lacrosse Championship since 2002, when Rutgers hosted the event.
- Not since April 2, 2011 – when the Cavaliers hosted Maryland in a nationally televised regular-season matchup – has a lacrosse game been played at Scott Stadium.
- In a fitting end to the season, Virginia went on to defeat the Terrapins, 9-7, in the national championship game, capturing the program's fifth NCAA title in the process.
- Prior to Klöckner Stadium's inaugural season in 1993, Scott Stadium served as UVA's primary home for lacrosse – particularly for matchups against marquee opponents.
- Scott Stadium was also the host site of the 1976 North-South All-Star game, a prestigious annual event that showcases the nation's top senior college lacrosse players.
- In 2003, the NCAA unified the Division II and Division III national championship games with the Division I semifinals and final, creating a single, championship-filled weekend.
- The inaugural all-division format took place at M&T Bank Stadium in Baltimore, where the Wahoos defeated Johns Hopkins, 9-7, in the championship game in dramatic fashion amid soaking wet conditions.

GAME 1	Colgate	14
	#13 Virginia	19

Feb. 8, 2026 • Charlottesville, Va. • George Welsh IPF

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. — Truitt Sunderland (6g, 2a), McCabe Millon (4g, 5a) and Ryan Colsey (4g, 1a) combined for 14 goals as the Cavaliers (1-0) pulled away in the second half of their season opener, defeating Colgate (0-2) 19-14 on Sunday afternoon (Feb. 8). The contest was the first-ever lacrosse game held at the George Welsh Indoor Football Practice Facility, which does not accommodate spectators.

The trio of Colsey, Sunderland and McCabe Millon also made up the Cavaliers' starting attack in 2025. Sunderland's six goals matched his career high, which he also achieved in last year's season-opening win over Colgate. McCabe Millon's five assists and nine points are also career highs. McCabe's younger brother, freshman Brendan Millon, dished out five assists in his collegiate debut as a starting offensive midfielder. Fittingly, the first assist of his career came on a feed to his older brother in the first quarter, a goal that gave Virginia the lead.

After trailing 13-5 on faceoffs in the first half, UVA was able to out-maneuver the Raiders in the second half, 10-7. Griff Meyer (10-23 FO) and Henry Metz (5-9 FO) spearheaded the second-half effort for the Cavaliers.

UVA's starting goalie Jake Marek (1-0), a transfer from Air Force, earned the win in net after stopping nine Raider shots and only allowed two goals in the fourth quarter. Colgate starting goaltender Andrew Lehrman (0-2) made 13 saves in his second start of the season.

NOTES

- The Cavaliers improved to 6-0 in the all-time series with Colgate.
- UVA won its seventh consecutive season opener.
- Lars Tiffany improved to 9-1 in season openers as UVA head coach.
- Tiffany, whose first season in Charlottesville was in 2017, earned his 99th win as UVA head coach.
- UVA finished with 17 assists, the most in a game by any NCAA Division I team (as of Feb. 13).
- Eleven Cavaliers in Ben Boyer, Owen Crann, Ryan Duenkel, Robby Hopper, Luke Jamin, Jake Marek, Michael Meredith, Griff Meyer, Brendan Millon, Aidan Murnane and Lindan Verville made their UVA debuts.
- The contest was the first-ever lacrosse game played inside the George Welsh Indoor Football Practice facility and UVA's first home game away from Klöckner Stadium since the 2021 Army game, which was held at the Lower Turf practice field.
- Excluding the JMA Wireless Dome (Syracuse, N.Y.), it was also UVA's first indoor game since facing Notre Dame at the Loftus Sports Center in 2014.
- Colsey extended his scoring streak to 15 games, dating back to last year's season opener, a span in which he's totaled 33 goals.
- McCabe Millon set career highs in both assists (5) and points (9).
- Sunderland tied his career high of six goals.
- Against his former team, defenseman Murnane made 40th career start in his first game back since suffering a season-ending injury in the Raiders' 2025 opener against Penn State.
- Former UVA standout attackman Connor Shellenberger made his coaching debut as an assistant coach. Shellenberger primarily assists with the development of the program's attackmen and offensive midfielders.
