THE UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA

UNIQUELY UVA
The University of Virginia is an institution rich with history and tradition. Here is some of the terminology that contributes to UVA's culture.

Grounds: The term used by students, faculty and alumni to refer to the University dating as far back as Thomas Jefferson. "Campus" is never used.

First Year, Second Year, Third Year, Fourth Year: Instead of freshman, sophomore, junior, senior. Why you may ask? To be a "senior" implies that a person has reached the final phase of learning, a feat that Thomas Jefferson believed to be impossible, arguing instead that education is a life-long process.

Commonwealth: Virginia is one of four constituent states of the United States of America that officially uses the name "Commonwealth" instead of the word state in all references. The other three commonwealths are Kentucky, Massachusetts and Pennsylvania.

UNIVERSITY NICKNAMES
Virginia's athletics teams have been accompanied by a somewhat confusing array of nicknames. The most prominent and widely accepted of these monikers are "Cavaliers," "Wahoos" and "Hoos."

Although the terms "Cavaliers," "Wahoos" and "Hoos" are used almost interchangeably to refer to University teams and players, "Cavaliers" is more often used by the media, while "Wahoos" and "Hoos" are frequently used by Virginia students and fans.

Legend has it that Washington & Lee baseball fans dubbed the Virginia players "Wahoos" during the fiercely contested rivalry that existed between the two in-state schools in the 1890s. By 1940, "Wahoos" was in general use around Grounds to denote University students or events relating to them. The abbreviated "Hoos" sprang up later in student newspapers and has gained growing popularity in recent years.

THE CAVALIER MASCOT
The costumed Cavalier with a large character head debuted during Virginia's 1984 football season and has remained the official mascot of the University.

UNIVERSITY COLORS
Orange and blue were adopted as the University of Virginia's official athletic colors at a mass student meeting in 1888. UVA athletic teams had previously worn silver gray and cardinal red, but those colors did not stand out on muddy football fields, prompting a student movement to change them.

One of the students attending the mass meeting was Allen Potts, a star athlete who played on Virginia's first football team in 1888. Potts showed up at the meeting wearing a navy blue-and-orange scarf that he had acquired during a summer boating expedition at Oxford University. Orange and blue were chosen as the official athletic colors after one of Potts' fellow students pulled the scarf off Potts' neck and, waving it to the crowd, yelled, "How will this do?" UVA later served as the inspiration for schools like Auburn and Florida when they selected school colors.

WAH-HOO-WA
The origin of "Wah-hoo-wa" is uncertain. The cheer was used to root on Virginia teams as early as 1890 and may have been borrowed from Dartmouth College, whose athletics teams were once known as the Indians.

Legend attributes the yell to Natalie Floyd Otey, who sang the ballad "Where'er You Are, There Shall My Love Be" at Charlottesville's Levy Opera House in 1893. The predominantly student audience noticed that Otey warbled the first three words of the song between each of the stanzas and decided to join in the refrain. By evening's end, goes the legend, the crowd had corrupted "Where'er You Are" into "Wah-hoo-wah."

The Levy Opera House stands at the corner of High Street and Park Street and has since been renovated into an office building.

SERIES HISTORY

- Virginia leads the all-time series with Utah, 3-0.
- The previous three meetings occurred during the 2019, 2021 and 2025 regular seasons.
- In last year's meeting, the Cavaliers scored the first three goals and never looked back in a 14-9 victory over the Utes at Klöckner Stadium.
- Three Wahoos recorded hat tricks in the win, including Truitt Sunderland (3g, 3a) and Ryan Colsey (3g, 1a). It was also one of six games in 2025 in which UVA held its opponent to single-digit goals.
- Sunderland's six points in last year's victory are the most by a Cavalier in the Utah series.

LAST TIME THEY MET

- Virginia scored the first three goals of the game and never looked back as the Cavaliers took down Utah 14-9, at Klöckner Stadium on March 22, 2026.
- Truitt Sunderland (3g, 3a), Ryan Colsey (3g, 1a) and Griffin Schutz (3g, 1a) all notched hat tricks in the Cavaliers' second consecutive victory. With two goals and three assists, McCabe Millon also stood out offensively for the Hoos.
- Schutz scored the game's first goal 61 seconds in and UVA led the rest of the way, which marked the second straight game the Hoos never trailed.
- For the fifth time of the 2025 season and second consecutive game, the Cavaliers held their opponent to single-digit goals. Virginia's defense also held the Utes scoreless for the entirety of the third quarter and ultimately a span of 19:35. Griffin Kology, John Schroter and Ben Wayer recorded three caused turnovers each.
- In his fourth consecutive start, goalie Matthew Nunes finished with 12 saves in 57:28 of action. With 603 career saves, Nunes moved to No. 2 on UVA's all-time saves list, surpassing former Cavalier netminder Alex Rode (598).
- Nunes also tallied his 38th career win in net, which ties Tillman Johnson's career total of 38 wins, good for No. 4 all-time.

SCOUTING THE UTES

- Prior to Iona's inaugural season this year, Utah and St. Bonaventure were the most recent Division I schools to add men's lacrosse, both beginning competition in 2019.
- Utah is in its eighth year as a Division I program and holds an all-time record of 57-45.
- Head coach Andrew McMinn is in his fifth season with the Utes and is the all-time wins leader at Utah with a record of 44-25. Prior to his tenure with the Utes, McMinn spent 10 seasons as the head coach at Robert Morris.
- The Utes are in their fifth season in the ASUN Conference and are coming off four consecutive regular-season conference titles (2022-25). Utah has also captured two ASUN Championships in the last three seasons (2023-24).
- The Utes earned the top spot in the preseason ASUN Coaches Poll, the fifth straight year that Utah has been voted at least tied for first in the league's preseason predicted order of finish.
- Utah is led by defenseman Nikko DiPoniol, who in 2025 was named the ASUN's Defensive Player of the Year and an All-American honorable mention by Inside Lacrosse and USA Lacrosse.
- Per LacrosseReference, Utah returned 98% of its production in goal, 96% at the faceoff X, 81% on defense and 78% on offense.

LAST TIME OUT
- After trailing for most of the game, Virginia scored four straight goals to take the lead in the fourth quarter, but No. 10 Maryland tied the game with 39 seconds remaining to force overtime and ultimately prevailed in triple overtime, 13-12.
- The contest was officially the 99th of the series and resulted in the fourth one-score game – including third in overtime – in the last nine meetings between the rivals.
- It also marked the first UVA game that required at least three overtime periods since the Cavaliers defeated Maryland 10-9 in seven overtimes on March 28, 2008, at Klöckner Stadium.

SCOTT STADIUM LACROSSE HISTORY
- Saturday's contest against the Utes marks the first lacrosse game at Scott Stadium since the Cavaliers hosted Maryland on April 2, 2011.
- In the midst of a hail storm, UVA fell 12-7 to the Terrapins in the regular-season matchup. However, the Cavaliers got the last laugh when they defeated UMD 9-7 in the NCAA championship game, capturing the program's fifth NCAA title and seventh national championship overall.
- Prior to the 2011 regular-season meeting with the Terps, UVA had not played a men's lacrosse game at Scott Stadium since 1995.
- The Wahoos moved into Klöckner Stadium in 1993, but periodically played early-season games at Scott Stadium, which then had artificial turf, until 1995.
- Prior to the opening of Klöckner Stadium for the 1992-93 academic year, Scott Stadium served as the primary venue for home UVA men's lacrosse games.

CHAMPIONSHIP WEEKEND AT SCOTT STADIUM
- On May 24, 2025, the University of Virginia was named the host of the 2026 NCAA Men's Lacrosse Championships, also commonly referred to as "Championship Weekend."
- In keeping with longstanding tradition, Championship Weekend will unfold over Memorial Day Weekend (May 23-25) with three days of action at Scott Stadium.
- The venue accommodates more than 60,000 spectators, and in addition to serving as the home of UVA football has hosted concerts for some of the world's most iconic touring artists, including The Rolling Stones, U2, and Charlottesville's own Dave Matthews Band.

McCABE MILLON'S IMPRESSIVE START
- McCabe Millon's junior campaign is off to a hot start.
- Millon currently leads all Division I players in assists (3.57) per game and is one of two DI players averaging at least 5.86 points per game.
- He has notched at least five points in all but one game this season.
- Millon achieved career highs in both points (9) and assists (5) in UVA's season opener, a 19-14 win over Colgate (Feb. 8).

HOOS IN THE NATIONAL STATISTICAL RANKINGS
- For games played through March 17, Virginia is second nationally in assists (9.86), third in ground balls (38.29) and points (23.86/gm), fourth in caused turnovers (12.14) and ninth in scoring offense (14.00/gm).
- McCabe Millon leads all Division I players in assists with 3.57 per game and is one of only two players nationally averaging at least 5.86 points per game.

MAY 23-25, 2026

CHAMPIONSHIP WEEKEND AT SCOTT STADIUM

- Last May, the University of Virginia was named the host of the 2026 NCAA Men's Lacrosse Championships, commonly referred to as "Championship Weekend."
- The three-day event will commence over Memorial Day weekend at Scott Stadium, which is home to the UVA football team and has hosted concerts for some of the world's most iconic touring artists, including The Rolling Stones, U2, and Charlottesville's own Dave Matthews Band.
- The men's Division I semifinals will take place on Saturday, May 23, while the Division II and III finals will be contested on Sunday, May 24.
- For the 40th consecutive edition, Championship Weekend culminates with the Division I title game as a stand-alone finale on Memorial Day – Monday, May 25.
- Virginia was awarded hosting duties after the NCAA announced a venue change in the fall of 2023, following a scheduling conflict with Gillette Stadium (Foxborough, Mass), which was selected as one of the host sites for the 2026 FIFA Men's World Cup.
- This year's Championship Weekend marks the first time since 1982 that UVA will host the Division I Men's Lacrosse Championship, having previously staged the event at Scott Stadium in both 1977 and 1982.
- Aside from the 1977 and 1982 games, UVA has hosted only two other NCAA Championships, the Division I men's and women's cross country championship races in 1987 and 2023.
- This year's Championships marks the first time postseason lacrosse will be played at the venue since it served as a host site for the 2004 NCAA Tournament quarterfinals.
- Scott Stadium is also the first campus stadium to be the final site of the Division I Men's Lacrosse Championship since 2002, when Rutgers hosted the event.
- Not since April 2, 2011 – when the Cavaliers hosted Maryland in a nationally televised regular-season matchup – has a lacrosse game been played at Scott Stadium.
- In a fitting end to the season, Virginia went on to defeat the Terrapins, 9-7, in the national championship game, capturing the program's fifth NCAA title in the process.
- Prior to Klöckner Stadium's inaugural season in 1993, Scott Stadium served as UVA's primary home for lacrosse – particularly for matchups against marquee opponents.
- Scott Stadium was also the host site of the 1976 North-South All-Star game, a prestigious annual event that showcases the nation's top senior college lacrosse players.
- In 2003, the NCAA unified the Division II and Division III national championship games with the Division I semifinals and final, creating a single, championship-filled weekend.
- The inaugural all-division format took place at M&T Bank Stadium in Baltimore, where the Wahoos defeated Johns Hopkins, 9-7, in the championship game in dramatic fashion amid soaking wet conditions.

GAME 7	Virginia	12
	#10 Maryland (3OT)	13

March 14, 2026 • College Park, Md. • SECU Stadium

COLLEGE PARK, Md. — In their first game that required at least three overtime periods since the 2009 seven-overtime thriller against Maryland, the Cavaliers were on the wrong end of this year's meeting with the 10th-ranked Terrapins. As UMD midfielder Zach Whittier flashed behind the cage, he reeled in a pass from attackman Leo Johnson, wrapped around the far side of the crease and buried his second goal of the afternoon to solidify a 13-12 win for the Terrapins 2:35 into the third overtime at SECU Stadium Saturday afternoon (March 14).

The Cavaliers trailed for most of the contest after falling behind in the first quarter, but rallied to retake the lead with 3:47 left in the fourth. Nearly three minutes later, Johnson spun to split two UVA defenders and notched his third goal of the afternoon, a blow that ultimately sent the 99th meeting between two of college lacrosse's most storied programs to overtime. Saturday's contest marked the fourth one-score game – including third in overtime – in the last nine meetings between the rivals.

Balanced scoring from eight Cavaliers was on full display Saturday afternoon. UVA was led by Truitt Sunderland (2g, 1a) and Brendan Millon (2g, 2a), both of whom notched three points each. In his first game back since UVA's contest at Richmond (Feb. 14) earlier this season, Joey Terenzi (1g, 1a, 2g) also provided a spark for the Hoos, particularly on the faceoff wings. Defensively, John Schroter stood out among the pack as he finished with a season-high four caused turnovers. UVA goaltender Jake Marek (2-3) finished with nine saves.

The Cavaliers could not capitalize on a two-man-down situation in the first after a UVA shot rang off the post and UMD netminder Brian Ruppel (14 saves) turned away back-to-back Cavalier shots. After UVA received goals from Terenzi, who was in his first game back since Feb. 14, and long-stick midfielder Robby Hopper, the score was tied 5-5. Maryland scored the next two to lead it 7-5 at the intermission. The Terps grasped their largest lead of the game, 11-8, after posting four goals in the third, the last of which was Johnson's second of the day. After UMD was flagged for an illegal hit to the head on Ryan Duenkel, UVA missed out being man-up for two full minutes after McCabe Millon reltaliated. The Cavaliers' offense came alive in the fourth, when they began dodging Terrapin short-stick defenders from behind the cage, which fueled a four-goal run and gave the Hoos their first lead [12-11] since the first quarter

The Cavaliers committed three of their 12 total turnovers in the first overtime period. After UMD All-American defenseman Will Schaller exited the game with an apparent lower-body injury in the second overtime, UVA attackman McCabe Millon (1g, 2a) tried to provide a spark for the Hoos in the second overtime, but to no avail. In the third overtime, Ruppel denied attempts from Band, Duenkel, and Colsey – the last of which clanged off the post and deflected out of bounds. After clearing the ball, Whittier eluded his defender on an off-ball cut behind the cage before hammering home perhaps Maryland's most consequential goal of the season to date..

NOTES
- The game was UVA's first that required at least three overtime periods since the Cavaliers defeated Maryland 10-9 in seven overtimes on March 28, 2008, at Klöckner Stadium.
- Four of the last nine games of the series have been determined by one goal, including three in overtime.
- UVA outscored Maryland 4-1 in the fourth quarter.
- UVA's man-down unit held the Terrapins scoreless on all four of their extra-man chances.
- Senior attackman Ryan Colsey extended his goal streak to 21 games dating back to last year's season opener, a span in which he's totaled 43 goals.
- Defenseman John Schroter finished with a season-high four caused turnovers.
- In his first game back since Richmond (Feb. 14) of this year, midfielder Joey Terenzi finished with one goal and one assist, the most points he's had in a game since he also had two at Richmond on Feb. 17, 2024.
- UVA long-stick midfielder Robby Hopper scored his first career goal in the second quarter.
- The Cavaliers only committed 12 turnovers, their fewest in a game since recording 11 at Notre Dame on April 12, 2025.
- Faceoff specialist Andrew Greenspan was 4 for 8 at the faceoff X, which included a win in the first overtime period against Maryland's Henry Dodge. Dodge leads the nation in faceoff win percentage this year.
- With the win, Maryland improved to 53-46 in the all-time series, which began in 1926. Saturday's game was officially the 99th of the series between the Cavaliers and Terrapins.

GAME 6

Towson	13
#17 Virginia	9

March 7, 2026 • Charlottesville, Va. • Klöckner Stadium

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. — A six-goal run bridging the first and second quarters propelled Towson (3-3) past No. 17 Virginia (3-3) in its 13-9 win Saturday evening (March 7) at Klöckner Stadium. The loss snapped Virginia's 15-game winning streak in the series, which had stood unbroken since 2001. Prior to Saturday's game, the Tigers had not defeated the Cavaliers since the first round of the 1991 NCAA Tournament.

Towson attackman Alex Roussel posted a game-high nine points on five goals and four assists, and goaltender Matt Nilan (3-3) tallied 15 saves to earn the win in net. Roussel's nine points are the most by a UVA opposing player since Duke's Brennan O'Neill also had nine points on March 31, 2023.

Virginia was led Truitt Sunderland, who finished with three goals – to notch his 10th career hat trick – and an assist. For the sixth consecutive game, McCabe Millon (1g, 4a) finished with at least five points. UVA netminder Jake Marek (2-2) finished with 10 saves, including seven in the second half.

Two teams traded man-up goals to start the contest. Sunderland's first goal of the afternoon gave the Cavaliers their second lead of the day, but it only lasted for seven seconds. Roussel scored three straight to ignite the Tigers' six-goal spree, which it carried into the second quarter. By the end of the first half, UVA narrowly trimmed its deficit to four [9-5].

Roussel's fifth strike of the evening opened the scoring in the second half, after which UVA claimed four of the next five goals to cut its deficit to two [11-9]. Despite outshooting the Tigers 14-5 in the fourth quarter, UVA was shutout for the final 16:07.

GAME 4	#16 Johns Hopkins	14
	#13 Virginia	13

Feb. 28, 2026 • Charlottesville, Va. • Klöckner Stadium

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va — No. 13 Virginia jumped out to a 5-1 lead but surrendered a late surge in a 14-13 loss to No. 16 Johns Hopkins at Klöckner Stadium. The Blue Jays scored 10 of the game's final 12 goals to secure their first lead late and held on, marking the third straight one-goal game between the programs. The matchup was the 100th in a series that began in 1904.

Virginia built an 8-3 halftime advantage and extended it to 11-4 early in the third quarter behind strong ball movement and timely defense. Ryan Duenkel scored twice during the opening run, and the Cavaliers appeared in control after defenseman Tommy Snyder scored his first career goal in transition. However, a late third-quarter push by Hopkins trimmed the deficit to 12-8 entering the fourth.

Hopkins attackman Hunter Chauvette scored a game-high six goals, including the go-ahead strike in the final minutes. Goaltender Oran Gelinas earned the win in relief after starter Dash Lamitie exited in the first quarter. The Blue Jays closed the game with six consecutive goals to take a 14-12 lead before holding off a last-minute Virginia push.

Ryan Colsey led Virginia with three goals, two assists and five ground balls, while McCabe Millon (2g, 3a) also tallied five points. Freshman Brendan Millon contributed two goals and two assists in his first start at attack. Despite a late goal by Truitt Sunderland to pull within one, UVA's final attempts were denied as Hopkins retained the Doyle Smith Cup for the third straight year.

· Senior attackman Ryan Colsey extended his goal streak to 18 games dating back to last year's season opener, a span in which he's totaled 39 goals.
· The game was UVA's first at Klöckner Stadium this season after its season opener, a 19-14 win over Colgate (Feb. 8), was moved to the George Welsh Indoor Football Practice Facility due to frigid temperatures.
· Saturday's contest also marked the latest in a season that UVA has played its first game at Klöckner Stadium since 2004, when the Cavaliers didn't open at home until March 6 against Syracuse.
· This year marked the 20th anniversary of the establishment of the Doyle Smith Cup. Beginning with the 2006 meeting, UVA and Hopkins came together to honor the life and legacy of Edward "Doyle" Smith and his lasting contributions to both programs and the game at the national level.
· The game was part of a doubleheader with the UVA women's lacrosse team, which fell 16-8 to No. 2 Stanford.

STONY BROOK, N.Y. — No. 17 Virginia (2-1) scored 11 seconds in, and the rest was never in doubt as UVA cruised to a decisive 19-7 victory over Stony Brook (0-3) at LaValle Stadium Saturday afternoon (Feb. 21). In his return to his former post, Lars Tiffany became only the third UVA head coach in program history to tally 100 wins, joining legends Jim "Ace" Adams and Dom Starsia.

Eleven Cavaliers found the back of the net, including Brendan Millon (5g, 2a), who led all players with seven points. His brother, McCabe Millon (2g, 4a) added six points and true freshman faceoff specialist Griff Meyer scored two goals and logged his first career assist. Meyer was 11 for 17 at the faceoff X, his second straight game finishing above .500 on faceoffs.

In his first start of the season, Kyle Morris (1-0) earned the win in net and stopped eight Seawolve shots. He averaged only 7.57 goals-against in 47:32 of action. Virginia's man-down unit shut out SBU on all its five extra-man opportunities.

UVA kept rolling in the second with three more early goals and Brendan Millon's first career hat trick, heading into halftime up 11-3 while Morris piled up saves. The Hoos added three unassisted goals in the third – including Meyer's highlight-reel spin move through multiple checks followed by a backhanded finish to notch his second score of the day. #14 Virginia	19

Feb. 8, 2026 • Charlottesville, Va. • George Welsh IPF

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. — Truitt Sunderland (6g, 2a), McCabe Millon (4g, 5a) and Ryan Colsey (4g, 1a) combined for 14 goals as the Cavaliers (1-0) pulled away in the second half of their season opener, defeating Colgate (0-2) 19-14 on Sunday afternoon (Feb. 8). The contest was the first-ever lacrosse game held at the George Welsh Indoor Football Practice Facility, which does not accommodate spectators.

The trio of Colsey, Sunderland and McCabe Millon also made up the Cavaliers' starting attack in 2025. Sunderland's six goals matched his career high, which he also achieved in last year's season-opening win over Colgate. McCabe Millon's five assists and nine points are also career highs. McCabe's younger brother, freshman Brendan Millon, dished out five assists in his collegiate debut as a starting offensive midfielder. Fittingly, the first assist of his career came on a feed to his older brother in the first quarter, a goal that gave Virginia the lead.

After trailing 13-5 on faceoffs in the first half, UVA was able to out-maneuver the Raiders in the second half, 10-7. Griff Meyer (10-23 FO) and Henry Metz (5-9 FO) spearheaded the second-half effort for the Cavaliers.

UVA's starting goalie Jake Marek (1-0), a transfer from Air Force, earned the win in net after stopping nine Raider shots and only allowed two goals in the fourth quarter. Colgate starting goaltender Andrew Lehrman (0-2) made 13 saves in his second start of the season.
