HEAD COACH ANDRES PEDROSO

On May 24, 2017, Andres Pedroso was named the Cavaliers' director of tennis and head men's tennis coach, overseeing both the men's and women's tennis programs while also serving as the head coach of Virginia men's tennis. As the director of tennis, Pedroso is charged with oversight of both programs while serving as the head coach of the men's tennis program. This model enables the UVA men's and women's programs to collaborate and make the best use of all available resources while sharing a joint vision for success that meets the goals set by the Virginia athletics department.

He was named the Wilson ITA Men's Tennis National Coach of the year in both 2022 and 2023, the only coach since the award began in 1973 to earn the honor in back-to-back seasons. He is a three-time ACC Coach of the Year and Wilson ITA Atlantic Region Head Coach of the Year three with his players earning three ACC Player of the Year awards, 12 All-America designations, 26 All-ACC honors and voted to six Academic All-America teams.

Pedroso has also made a splash on the recruiting trail, signing the top-ranked incoming class for 2024-25.

In 2022, Pedroso won his first NCAA title as a head coach, leading the seventh-seeded Cavaliers to a 4-0 victory against Kentucky in the final. The championship match was the 100th career victory in his head coaching career. Pedroso originally served as Virginia's associate head coach from 2010-14, helping to lead the team to winning its first NCAA Men's Tennis Championship in 2013.

In 2023, he led the 5-seed Cavaliers to their second-straight NCAA title, downing No. 3 Ohio State 4-0 in the final. It was the team's sixth NCAA title in a 10-championship span, and second for Pedroso as head coach. His squad also posted its third-straight perfect 12-0 run through the ACC schedule and won its third-straight ACC tournament championship.

The foundation was set in his first season at the helm of the Cavaliers when the team made its 15th-consecutive NCAA Championship appearance and had two players selected to compete in the NCAA Singles tournament. Before the season even began, Pedroso made an impact in building the future of the program, signing three top-ranked recruits including Gianni Ross, who joined the program in January of 2018. Ross, ranked the No. 2 recruit in the 2017 class, went on to be named the 2018 ITA Atlantic Region Rookie of the Year, and as a fifth year, would be named the 2022 NCAA Championship Most Outstanding Player after going 3-0 at the finals site and clinching the championship match against Kentucky. Under Pedroso's guidance that first season, junior Aswin Lizen won the ITA Atlantic Regional singles title in the fall and went from unranked to a top-10 ranking in the Oracle/ITA singles rankings.

In just his second season as head coach, Pedroso was named the 2019 ACC Men's Tennis Coach of the Year, with Cavaliers sweeping the conference's annual honors as junior Carl Söderlund was named the ACC Player of the Year and Brandon Nakashima the ACC Freshman of the Year. He helped lead the Cavaliers back to the NCAA finals site as the team made a run to the NCAA Quarterfinals, finishing the year as the No. 5 team in the Oracle/ITA Rankings. Nakashima, one of Pedroso's first recruits, was the No. 5 junior player in the world at the time of his signing and was coming off an upset win over No. 1 junior Chun Hsin Tseng to win the 2018 ITF Junior Masters Boys' Singles Championship in Chengdu, China.

Pedroso navigated his team through the difficulties of the 2020 season that was cut short by the COVID-19 crisis. In that shortened season, his squad still managed to garner numerous accolades with Söderlund rising to a No. 1 ITA preseason singles ranking while also earning the ACC's prestigious Weaver-James-Corrigan Postgraduate Scholarship Award. Sophomore Ryan Goetz improved on his runner-up finish at the 2018 ITA Atlantic Regional by winning the singles title on the home court in 2019, becoming the 10th player in program history to win the tournament.

In 2021, Pedroso's Cavaliers were hoisting trophies. The team began the season ranked outside of the top-20, but moved up to a No. 3 ranking within the season, posted a perfect 12-0 record in ACC play and won the 13th ACC Championship in program history. Pedroso was named both the ACC Coach of the Year, repeating the honor from 2019, and the ITA Wilson Regional Coach of the Year. UVA was the No. 3 seed at their ITA Kickoff Weekend four-team regional in Columbus, but downed host Ohio State (handing the Buckeyes just their second home loss since April 2003) to make its way back to the ITA National Team Indoor Championships. The Cavaliers swept through the ACC regular season, including picking up a win against No. 1 North Carolina (previously undefeated) before topping the Tar Heels again in the championship match of the ACC tournament. The Cavaliers won their 13th ACC Championship in program history, but the first for Andres Pedroso since taking over as head coach in 2017-18. The Cavaliers earned the No. 5 seed in the NCAA Tournament, advancing to the Round of 16 where they were eliminated by preseason No. 1 USC. The Cavaliers were buoyed by a trio of freshmen playing in the middle of the lineup: Jeffrey von der Schulenburg, Iñaki Montes, and Chris Rodesch, each of whom was named the ACC Singles Player of the Week and the ACC Doubles Player of the Week at least once during the season. Söderlund closed out his playing career by repeating as the ACC Player of the Year and was also voted the Virginia Athletic Department's top male athlete.

The Cavaliers played one of the toughest non-conference schedules in the country in 2022, starting the season with a 5-5 record after suffering five losses against teams that were ranked No. 1 at some point during the season. The Cavaliers rebounded by winning 17-straight matches, including going 12-0 in the ACC and powering through three matches in the ACC Championship to win the title for the 14th time in program history, earning a No. 7 seed in the NCAA Tournament and a chance to host Regionals and Super Regionals in Charlottesville. The Cavaliers outscored their opponents 25-1 in the six matches of the championship, with only 2021 NCAA Champion Florida managing to win one singles court against the Hoos in the quarterfinals. The championship was the fifth title for the program in a 10-year span and its second time winning in Champaign, Ill.

The Cavaliers 2023 championship run almost perfectly mirrored their 2022 title. After suffering four early season losses, the team powered through 22 straight wins to defend their crown. Unlike the 2022 season, the road to the 2023 title included having to face the tournament's top-seeded team. The Cavaliers dispatched No. 1 Texas 4-1 before taking down Ohio State, a team they had lost to twice in the regular season, 4-0 in the final. Chris Rodesch, the MVP of both the NCAA and ACC tournaments, rode a 17-match win streak in singles into the semifinals of the NCAA Singles Championship, earning singles All-America honors for the second-straight year. Ryan Goetz and Iñaki Montes garnered doubles All-America status. Montes was also voted UVA's Male Athlete of the Year, the sixth men's tennis player to earn the department's top honor, as well as being voted an Academic All-American.

The Cavaliers, hampered by illness, came up short of the NCAA three-peat in 2024, falling in the quarterfinals, but that senior class leaves UVA with an impressive collective resume, including a 48-0 record in ACC regular-season matches, both on the court and in the classroom. Chris Rodesch repeated as the ACC Scholar-Athlete of the Year. Jeffrey von der Schulenburg was the first player in program history to earn the Elite 90 Award for having the highest GPA at the NCAA Championships, as well as the Gus Tebell Memorial Award as UVA's fourth-year male student-athlete with the highest scholastic average through his four years. Alex Kiefer became the program's first recipient of the the ITA's most-prestigious honor, the Arthur Ashe Jr. Leadership & Sportsmanship Award. The future also looks bright with Dylan Dietrich being named the ACC Freshman of the Year.

Pedroso originally served as Virginia's associate head coach from 2010-14. During that four-year span, the Cavaliers won four ACC championships, the program's first NCAA championship (2013) and two ITA National Team Indoor titles (2011 and 2013). Pedroso coached six All-Americans during this time, including 2013 ITA National Player of the Year Jarmere Jenkins, the 2013 NCAA Doubles Champion team of Jenkins and Mac Styslinger and ITA All-American champions Alex Domijan and Mitchell Frank. Pedroso was named the 2014 ITA National Assistant Coach of the Year and he was twice honored as the ITA Atlantic Region Assistant Coach of the Year (2012 and 2014). After leaving Charlottesville in 2014, Pedroso coached privately in South Florida.

As a student-athlete at Duke, Pedroso helped lead the Blue Devils to four ACC titles, he was a two-time All-American and he was named to the ACC 50th Anniversary Team. Over eight seasons, as a player at Duke and an associate head coach at Virginia, Pedroso did not lose a team match against a conference opponent.

Following his college career at Duke, Pedroso played professionally for four years, reaching career-high rankings of No. 271 in singles and No. 255 in doubles. During his pro career, he won four singles titles and two doubles titles on the Futures Tour and a doubles title on the Challenger Tour.

Pedroso first came to Virginia after serving as a national coach for USTA Player Development. During his time with the USTA, he was responsible for the development of the top male American junior players born in 1995. He also worked periodically with several top American professional players, including Sam Querrey, Mardy Fish, Jesse Levine and Ryan Harrison.

Pedroso and his wife, Erika, have three sons, Felix, Christian and Matias.

BRIAN
RASMUSSEN*Assistant Coach
Second Year

Brian Rasmussen joined Andres Pedroso's coaching staff as a full-time assistant in June 2023.

Rasmussen first came to the Cavaliers as a volunteer assistant coach in 2019, working alongside Pedroso and associate head coach Scott Brown. In those three seasons, he helped Virginia win the 2021 ACC Championship before taking a position as the senior high-performance coach at the Boars Head Sports Club. He returned to help mentor the men's squad during the 2022 NCAA title run.

At the Boar's Head, Rasmussen coached and mentored up-and-coming tennis players at the national level and also directed their 10- and-Under Tennis program.

Prior to coming to Charlottesville, Rasmussen spent four seasons as an assistant coach at Valdosta State, helping to lead the men's tennis team to regular-season and conference tournament titles as well as earning a top-five DII national ranking every year he was there. Under his guidance, eight Blazers earned First Team All-American accolades, and three were named GSC Conference Player of the Year.

In 2015, he spent 18 months on Matija Pecotic's ATP team which saw the former Princeton All-American rise from 846 to 201 in the world rankings.

Rasmussen played collegiately at NCAA Division III Wartburg College, where he earned his bachelor's degree. He graduated with an M.A. in Criminal Justice/Law Enforcement Administration from Valdosta State University in 2015.

He and his wife, Becca, have two children, Madison and Emmet.

TREAT
HUEY*Assistant Coach
Second Year

Treat Huey joined Andres Pedroso's coaching staff as a volunteer assistant coach in March 2022, working with the team through the ACC Championship, and returned as a volunteer assistant in February of 2023, helping to lead the team to its second-straight NCAA Championship. He was named a full-time assistant on July 1, 2023.

Huey is one of the Cavaliers' most successful professional players. The doubles specialist has won eight career ATP doubles titles, including three 500-level tournaments, and made the 2013 1000-level ATP Masters Indian Wells final. Ranked as high as No. 18 in the world, he has appeared in 28 Grand Slams, including advancing to the Wimbledon semifinals in 2016.

Huey has also represented the Philippines nine times in the Davis Cup and is a three-time gold medalist at the Southeast Asian Games. He was also a member of World Team Tennis' Washington Kastles in 2012.

Huey was a two-time All-American, a four-time All-ACC honoree and the 2008 ACC Championship MVP. He also helped lead the Cavaliers to their first ITA National Team Indoor Championship in 2008. He spent 17 weeks ranked with a No. 1 ITA doubles ranking and holds the program record for career doubles victories with 134 and is ranked second in combined doubles and singles wins with 263.

Huey graduated from Virginia in 2008. He lives in Charlottesville with his wife, Charlotte, and their two children, Lily and Felix.

2013 TEAM CHAMPIONS

The Virginia men's tennis team won the first NCAA Championship in program history as it defeated UCLA 4-3 in the 2013 NCAA Tournament final Tuesday at the Khan Outdoor Tennis Complex on the campus of the University of Illinois. The second-seeded Cavaliers (30-0) capped an undefeated season with the victory over the top-seeded Bruins (29-2) and became the first ACC school to win a men's tennis NCAA title.

Mitchell Frank clinched the championship with a come-from-behind 0-6, 6-4, 7-5 victory at No. 3 singles over Adrien Puget in the decisive match. Frank, who was down a break in the third set, saved a team match point before rallying for victory.

The Cavaliers took a 1-0 lead by winning the doubles point, which proved crucial. At No. 1, Jarmere Jenkins and Mac Styslinger rolled to an 8-2 win over Marcus Giron and Dennis Novikov to give the Cavaliers the edge. Julien Uriguen and Justin Shane rallied from down an early break to top Alex Brigham and Clay Thompson 8-5 at No. 3 doubles to clinch the point.

In singles, each team won three first sets as the match remained close throughout. The Cavaliers extended their lead to 2-0 as Shane cruised to a 6-2, 6-2 win at No. 5 over Thompson, snapping the Bruin's 14-match win streak. UCLA answered with a pair of victories to draw even in the match, 2-2. Giron got the Bruins on the board with a 6-4, 6-4 victory over Alex Domijan at No. 2, and Dennis Mkrtchian followed with a 6-4, 6-3 victory at No. 4 over Styslinger.

Virginia retook the lead, 3-2, as Jenkins he completed a 7-6(3), 6-3 victory at No. 1 over Novikov. Jenkins, who was named the ITA National Senior Player of the Year earlier in the day, was named the NCAA Tournament Most Outstanding Player.

The final two matches on the courts went to a third set with the Cavaliers needing to win one to claim the national title. At No. 6, Karue Sell rallied for a three-set victory over Uriguen, 4-6, 6-3, 6-2 to bring UCLA even, 3-3, and set up the dramatic ending on court No. 3.

After losing the first set to Puget 6-0, Frank responded by winning the second set 6-4 to force a decisive final set. Frank went up a break 2-1 only to see Puget break back in the ensuing game. Puget broke Frank again to take a 5-3 lead and served for the match for the Bruins. On championship point, 40-30, Puget approached the net to put away a shot that would clinch the title for UCLA, but his foot stepped on the net and the point was awarded to Frank to bring the game to deuce. Frank won the two points that followed to get back on serve, 4-5.

After Frank held his serve to draw even at 5-all, he broke Puget's serve again to allow him to serve for the match at 6-5. He won the first three points to take a 40-0 lead, but Puget saved the first two championship points for Virginia. On the third championship point, Puget sailed a shot wide that sparked the Cavaliers' celebration of their first NCAA Championship.

Virginia became the 14th school in the 67-year history of the NCAA Men's Tennis Championship to win the title.

2015 TEAM CHAMPIONS

The third-ranked Virginia men's tennis team captured its second NCAA Championship in the past three years with a 4-1 victory over top-seeded Oklahoma in Tuesday's final at the Hurd Tennis Center. The Cavaliers (29-3), who also won the title in 2013, become the sixth program in NCAA history to win multiple men's tennis championships.

The Cavaliers opened the match strong, winning the doubles point to take a 1-0 lead. Luca Corinteli and Ryan Shane gave Virginia the edge with an 8-4 win at No. 1 over Andrew Harris and Alex Ghilea. The other two matches finished simultaneously, giving Virginia a doubles sweep. Collin Altamirano and J.C. Aragone finished an 8-5 win at No. 3 over Axel Alvarez and Jose Salazar just seconds before Thai-Son Kwiatkowski and Mac Styslinger closed out their 8-5 win at No. 2 over Dane Webb and Spencer Papa.

The teams split the six first sets, each winning three. The Sooners drew even in the match, 1-1, as Papa defeated Alexander Ritschard 6-3, 6-2 at No. 5 singles. Virginia retook the lead, 2-1, when Altamirano closed out a 6-3, 6-3 victory at No. 3 over Webb. Minutes later Kwiatkowski made the score 3-1 with his 6-3, 6-4 win at No. 4 over Ghilea.

The final point was secured by senior Mitchell Frank, who also clinched the Cavaliers first national title in 2013. Frank had won the first set over Andrew Harris 7-5 at No. 2 singles and the second set was on serve at 5-5. After Frank held for 6-5, he had three match points by taking a 0-40 lead in Harris' service game. Harris saved those three chances, but Frank gained a fourth match point at ad-out. On that point, Harris hit a forehand into the net to give Frank the 7-5, 7-5 victory and the Cavaliers the national title.

Frank was named the 2015 NCAA Men's Championship Most Outstanding Player and was selected to the NCAA All-Tournament Team at No. 2 singles. He was joined on the all-tournament team by Shane (No. 1 singles), Altamirano (No. 3 singles), Kwiatkowski and Styslinger (No. 2 doubles) and Altamirano and Aragone (No. 3 doubles).

With the victory, the Cavaliers avenged all three of their regular season losses during the semifinals and finals of the NCAA Tournament. Virginia had lost to Oklahoma 4-3 on March 10 in Norman and had lost twice during the regular season to No. 2 Baylor, who the Cavaliers downed in the semifinals.

The championship was the 22nd NCAA Championship in Virginia Athletics history. Combined with men's soccer's title in the fall, 2014-15 becomes the third school year that the Cavaliers have won multiple titles. Virginia also won two titles in 1992-93 (men's soccer and women's lacrosse) and 2009-10 (men's soccer and women's rowing).

Virginia joins USC, Stanford, UCLA, Georgia and William & Mary as the only schools to have won multiple titles in the 70-year history of the NCAA Men's Tennis Championship.

2016 TEAM CHAMPIONS

Top-seeded Virginia became just the fourth school in the modern era to win consecutive national championships when they downed Oklahoma, 4-1, on the indoor courts at the Michael D. Case Tennis Center in Tulsa, Okla.

The Cavaliers defeated Oklahoma State [4-2], Florida [4-0] and California [4-0] in Tulsa to set up a rematch of the 2015 championship.

The evening began with both teams trying to wait out a wave of strong thunderstorms. With the relentless downpours soaking the outside courts, the championship match started an hour later and was moved to the indoor courts.

The Cavaliers started off strong with J.C. Aragone and Collin Altamirano cruising to a 6-1 victory at No. 3 doubles. Thai-Son Kwiatkowski and Mac Styslinger played a tight match at No. 2, but were finally broken when serving at 5-5. Oklahoma's Alex Ghilea and Spencer Papa then held serve to take the point and tie doubles at 1-1. On court one, Ryan Shane and Luca Corinteli held serve to take a 6-5 lead and then broke the Sooners' Axel Alvarez Llamas and Andrew Harris to win 7-5 and take the doubles point.

In singles, Aragone put the Cavaliers up 2-0 with a 6-3, 6-4 victory over Florin Bragusi on court five.

Kwiatkowski, trailed 4-1 in the first set, but rallied to win it 6-4 over Spencer Papa. Kwiatkowski took the second set 6-4 to give the Cavaliers a 3-0 lead. The win was also the 100th singles victory in Kwiatkowski's Cavalier career.

On court one, Shane fell 7-6, 6-0 to Andrew Harris to give Oklahoma its point.

As court one finished, both courts four and six were headed to their deciding moments. Alexander Ritschard was facing Ghilea on four. Ritschard had dominated the first set, 6-1, but Ghilea took the second, 6-1, to send it to a third set. Ritschard rallied in the deciding set, taking a 5-2 lead and was serving for the match, but play was suspended before he could close it out.

On court six, after winning his first set 6-2, Wiersholm battled back from down two breaks in his second set to tie it up 5-5, only to go back down a break. Wiersholm again battled back and tied it back up, 6-6, to force a tiebreaker.

Wiersholm was serving with a 6-2 lead in the tiebreaker with Andre Biro's return on Wiersholm's second serve going into the net to give the Cavaliers their third championship in four seasons.

Kwiatkowski was named the Outstanding Player of the Tournament. Aragone and Altamirano were named to the All-Tournament Team at No. 3 doubles with Corinteli and Shane also earning honors at No. 1. In singles, Wiersholm, Aragone, Ritschard and Kwiatkowski all were named to the All-Tournament team. Wiersholm was 4-0 in singles in Tulsa while Aragone and Ritschard were a combined 4-1. Kwiatkowski went 5-0 in singles in the six matches of the NCAA Team Championship.

2017 TEAM CHAMPIONS

The Cavaliers won their third-straight NCAA Championship and fourth in five years when they topped North Carolina, 4-2, becoming one of only four schools to have won three (or more) consecutive NCAA titles in men's tennis, along with UCLA (1952-54), Southern California (1962-64, 1966-69, 2009-12), and Stanford (1988-90, 1995-98).

For the second-straight day, the match was hampered by weather. Originally slated to be played at 1 p.m., the match was pushed back to a 4 p.m. start time and moved to the indoor courts of the Dan Magill Tennis Complex in Athens, Ga. With only four courts in the facility, court five and six singles were played after the first two singles matches were completed.

The Cavaliers took a hard-fought doubles point, clinching the early lead with a tiebreak victory, 7-6 (5), on the second court by seniors Thai-Son Kwiatkowski and Alexander Ritschard. Virginia also cashed in on a convincing 6-1 win on court three from junior Collin Altamirano and J.C. Aragone in the day's first result. In doubles, the Cavaliers needed only 23 minutes to win at No. 3, and four minutes later the Heels won at No. 1. The match at No. 2 took nearly an hour, but with the crucial doubles point at stake, Kwiatkowski and Ritschard rallied to win a tiebreaker and put Virginia ahead 1-0.

Virginia pushed its lead to 2-0 with a quick win on the top court, with Ritschard, ranked No. 91, picking up a 6-1, 6-3 win over #22 Ronnie Schneider. The Tar Heels countered with a win on the second court as No. 16 William Blumberg topped No. 14 Kwiatkowski to draw within striking distance, 2-1.

The Cavaliers built a cushion with a straight-set win by Altamirano on the fourth court, 6-3, 6-1, to push UVA to the precipice of its third-straight title, but that was delayed by Robert Kelly's two-set win on the third court to make the match score 3-2.

With the first four singles matches in the books, Aragone and junior Henrik Wiersholm finally took the court at five and six.

Aragone finished off the Tar Heels with a 7-6, 6-2 win in his delayed match on the fifth court, sealing the championship for the Cavaliers, with Wiersholm leading in his match as well when it was abandoned.

Altamirano and Aragone earned All-Tournament Team honors in both singles and doubles. Kwiatkowski and Ritschard were named all-tournament at No. 2 doubles.

The title capped off a 34-1 season for the Cavaliers in which they also won the ITA National Team Indoors title and the ACC Championship.

The victory was the last for Virginia head coach Brian Boland, who accepted the job as the USTA Player Development Head of Men's Tennis. Boland is a two-time ITA National Coach of the Year who has, in his 16 seasons with Virginia, amassed a 453-58 record, won four NCAA Championships, six ITA National Team Indoor titles, 12 ACC Championships and led his team to a No. 1 ranking in 10 seasons.

2022 TEAM CHAMPIONS

The Cavaliers held a 5-5 record in mid-February. They rebounded by winning 23-straight matches and hoisting the ACC regular-season, ACC tournament and NCAA Championship trophies during the win-streak.

The Cavaliers were the No. 7 seed in the championship, breezing through their home regional and super regional with 4-0 victories against Faileigh Dickinson, VCU, and South Carolina, to set up a showdown with the reigning NCAA Champions, No. 2 seed Florida, in their opener in Champaign. The Cavaliers won the doubles point to take a 1-0 lead and then went into a 2:24 minute rain delay midway through the first singles sets. Florida tied the match with a straight-set victory on court four. Inaki Montes put UVA back ahead with a 7-5, 6-4 victory against reigning NCAA Singles Champion Sam Riffice. Gianni Ross battled to a 7-5, 7-5 victory on court five to make it a 3-1 score. Jeffrey von der Schulenburg won the clincher in a three-set victory on court three to send UVA to the semifinals.

The Cavaliers faced No. 6 Tennessee in the semis, this time posting a 5-0 victory as Bar Botzer on court six and Montes on court two closed out victories within moments of one another.

The Cavaliers faced No. 8 Kentucky in the championship match, a team they had defeated during the regular season.

Ross and von der Schulenburg gave the Cavaliers an early edge with a 6-1 victory on doubles court three. Ryan Goetz and Montes clinched the point with a 6-3 victory on court two.

Kentucky took the first two first sets in singles, with No. 4 Liam Draxl winning 6-2 against sophomore Chris Rodesch on the top court and von der Schulenburg dropping his opener 6-2 against No. 33 Millen Hurrian, but the Cavaliers took the other four first sets including a 6-0 win on court four by Goetz and a 6-1 win by grad student Bar Botzer on court six.

Botzer was the first to close out his victory, downing JJ Mercer 6-1, 6-1 to put UVA ahead 2-0.

Von der Schulenburg took his second set against Hurrian to force a decider. Rodesch broke Draxl to win his second set 7-5, keeping Kentucky off the scoreboard.

Just like the previous day against Tennessee, the Cavaliers had three courts poised to pick up the final two points. Goetz and Montes were both serving for the win. Goetz was broken by Francois Musitelli, sending his match into a tiebreaker to decide the set. Montes was up 5-0, but was also broken, but closed out a 6-2, 6-2 win against No. 21 Gabriel Diallo on his next service to put UVA ahead 3-0.

Goetz battled in his tiebreaker on three while Ross began serving up 5-4 in the second set against Joshua Lapadat on five. Goetz won a point to go up 6-5 in his tiebreaker as a shot from Lapadat landed outside the baseline to give Ross the victory and the clinch for the Cavaliers.

Ross was named NCAA Championship Most Outstanding Player after going 6-0 in singles in the tournament.

This was the first title for Andres Pedroso as head coach. He was an assistant coach on the 2013 team when the Cavaliers won their first title in Champaign,

UVA outscored their opponents 25-1 during their tournament run.

2023 TEAM CHAMPIONS

Coming off their 2022 NCAA Championship, the Cavaliers started the season ranked No. 1 in the ITA team rankings, but would fall to No. 21 after suffering early-season losses to Kentucky, Michigan and Ohio State.

The Cavaliers rebounded after ITA Indoors, heading into the NAAs riding a 16-match win streak, bolstering their ranking back up to No. 5, and earning that same seeding for the tournament.

UVA won 4-0 against Navy and Ole Miss in its home regional before facing Duke in the Super Regional in a rematch of the 2023 ACC Championship final. The Cavaliers downed the Blue Devils 4-0 to punch their ticket to the quarterfinals.

Virginia got off to a rocky start in Orlando when the squad found themselves down 1-0 in their quarterfinal match against Kentucky. After a torrential downpour halted play 20 minutes into the singles matches and abruptly ended the first night of competition, the Cavaliers returned to the courts the next morning to resume play with a new energy, taking down the Wildcats 4-2. The Cavaliers won the first three singles matches to go up 3-1. Mans Dahlberg won the clincher. The freshman had lost his first set 6-3 against Charlie Cosnet, but rebounded by winning 6-4 in the second set to force a third. He came back from down a break against Cosnet to have the final set locked at 6-6 to force a tiebreaker. Dahlberg won the breaker 7-3 to clinch the victory.

The win set up a showdown against No. 1 Texas in the semifinals. It took just 28 minutes for the Cavaliers to secure the doubles point, winning 6-1 on courts two and three to take a 1-0 lead against the stunned Longhorns. Singles turned into more of a battle with four courts going to third sets. Ryan Goetz put the Cavaliers up 3-1 before Alex Kiefer clinched the win on court five. Kiefer was edged 6-4 in his first set against Cleeve Harper, but took the second set 6-1 to force the third set. Kiefer was up a break and serving 5-4, but Harper broke back to tie it 5-5. The match was still tied at 6-6, forcing a tiebreaker. Kiefer pulled out a 7-5 victory in the tiebreaker to clinch the match.

The final between the Buckeyes and the Cavaliers would be their third meeting of the year. Ohio State won 4-1 on the indoor courts in Charlottesville in February and 4-0 a week later when the two teams met in a consolation match at ITA Indoors.

The Buckeyes struck first in the final, taking doubles court three, but Chris Rodesch and Jeffrey von der Schulenburg evened it up with a 6-2 win on court two. Von der Schulenburg, serving up 5-2, won a deuce point to take that match. On court one, Inaki Montes and William Woodall were up 5-3 with Woodall serving. They also won a deuce point to secure the win and tally the point for the Cavaliers.

Von der Schulenburg raced through a 6-2, 6-1 win against JJ Tracy on court three to put the Cavaliers up 2-0 before court six had finished its first set.

Rodesch battled through his first set on court one against Justin Boulais, edging him 6-4, and then took the second set 6-2 to put the Cavaliers ahead 3-0.

Montes also had a close first set against Cannon Kingsley on court two, taking it 6-4. Montes led 5-2 in the second set, serving for the victory. He fired off an ace to seal the championship.

Chris Rodesch was named the tournament MVP

CHAMPIONSHIP HONORS

Our 2015 NCAA Championship helped UVA win the Capital One Cup for men's sports that year. The award was presented at the ESPY Awards held at the Microsoft Theatre in downtown Los Angeles. Attending the ceremony and awards show to represent UVA were men's tennis coach Brian Boland and senior captain Mitchell Frank, men's soccer coach George Gelnovatch and baseball player Thomas Woodruff. Former Virginia football standout Chris Long was the presenter of the award during the nationally televised show. A school-record three NCAA men's championships and a top-10 ranking in men's basketball led the University of Virginia to its first Capital One Cup all-sports competition championship for men's sports during the 2014-15 season. The Capital One Cup competition is based on top-10 finishes in a combination of NCAA brackets and final polls and recognizes the top-achieving programs in college athletics. In addition to the trophy presentation, Capital One presented a check for $200,000 for student-athlete scholarships to the University of Virginia.

The team has also been lauded in celebrations at the Virginia governor's mansion.

SOMDEV DEVVARMAN 2007 NCAA SINGLES CHAMPION

Somdev Devvarman became the first men's tennis player in ACC history to win an NCAA Singles Championship, downing Georgia's John Isner in the 2007 final at the Dan Magill Tennis Complex in Athens, Ga. In one of the most dramatic finals in the 123-year history of the tournament, Devvarman scored a 7-6 (7), 4-6, 7-6 (2) win over the tournament's No. 1 seed.

The first set was indicative of how close the match would be. Both second-seeded Devvarman and top-seeded Isner held in each of their six service games, with neither losing any more than two points in any game. With the first set on the line, Devvarman opened up an early 3-1 lead in the tiebreaker. Isner rallied to draw even, tying the breaker at 4-4. Devvarman won the next two points, to earn two set points. However, Isner would win the next three points to take a 7-6 lead and earn his own set point. Devvarman won the next two points on his serve to take an 8-7 lead for his third set point. Up 8-7, Devvarman took advantage of a second serve from Isner and hit a return winner past the Bulldog to take the opening set.

The second set began much like the first, with neither player in danger of losing his serve in the first six games. Serving at 3-3, Devvarman was broken by Isner, who took advantage of the first break point of the match to go up 4-3. The players held serve for the remainder of the set, as Isner forced a third and deciding set by taking the second, 6-4.

The final set featured more of the same from both players, as neither player could even force a deuce on the other's serve. With the final set tied at 6-6, the national championship came down to a tiebreaker. At 1-1 in the tiebreaker, Devvarman made a difficult return of a big Isner serve that caught the Georgia player off guard as he returned it into the net. Devvarman used that momentum to win the next three points, to take a 5-1 lead at the changeover. After an Isner ace brought him to 5-2, Devvarman won the following point to give him four championship points at 6-2. On the first of those points, as he hit an ace up the middle to close out the 7-6 (7), 4-6, 7-6 (2) win.

SOMDEV DEVVARMAN 2008 NCAA SINGLES CHAMPION

Somdev Devvarman concluded his collegiate career by winning his second consecutive NCAA Singles Championship with a 6-3, 6-2 win over John-Patrick Smith of Tennessee in the 2008 final at the Michael D. Case Tennis Center in Tulsa, Okla. Devvarman needed barely an hour to win the match and complete a resume that ranks among the greatest in collegiate tennis history.

With the victory, Devvarman became the 13th player in the 124-year history of the tournament to win consecutive titles, and just the fourth to do so in the past 50 years. He joined Georgia's Mikael Pernfors (1984 and 1985) and Matias Boeker (2001 and 2002) to win consecutive NCAA Singles Championships since the current 64-player tournament format was adopted in 1977. Devvarman became the first player since USC's Dennis Ralston (1963 and 1964) to win consecutive titles without winning at least one of them on his home courts. He also joined Arizona State's Sargis Sargsian (1995) and UCLA's Benjamin Kohlloeffel (2006) as the only players to win the ITA National Indoor Singles Championship and NCAA Singles Championship in the same season. The win was also his 18th career NCAA Singles Tournament victory, extending his record for most in the current tournament format.

The match against Smith, the first unseeded player to reach the final since Virginia's Brian Vahaly in 2001, was close early in the first set. Neither player had a chance to break until Devvarman took advantage of the match's first break point opportunity to take a 5-3 lead. He held serve in the ensuing game to win the first set 6-3.

In the second set, Devvarman's momentum continued as he won a five-deuce game to break Smith's serve in the first game of the set. After holding in his first service game, he broke Smith's serve again to lead 3-0. He held that two-break advantage the remainder of the set and closed out the 6-3, 6-2 win.

Devvarman ended the season with a 44-1 singles record, tying the school record for wins in a season he set a year before. He was the first NCAA Singles Champion to finish the season with one or fewer losses since UCLA's Jimmy Connors went undefeated in 1971. Since then, NCAA Champions have included Georgia's Pernfors, Stanford's John McEnroe, Stanford's Tim Mayotte, and Texas's Kevin Curren, all of whom went on to be ranked in the world top 20, but lost multiple times in college during their championship season.

NCAA INDIVIDUAL CHAMPIONS

DOMINIC INGLOT & MICHAEL SHABAZ 2009 NCAA DOUBLES CHAMPIONS

Dominic Inglot and Michael Shabaz became the first doubles team from the ACC to win the NCAA Doubles Championship, defeating No. 2 seed John-Patrick Smith and Davey Sandgren of Tennessee 3-6, 7-6(4), 6-4 in the 2009 final at the Mitchell Tennis Center in College Station, Texas.

Inglot and Shabaz were the first unseeded team to win the title since Rajeev Ram and Brian Wilson of Illinois in 2003. Ranked No. 12 entering the tournament, the Cavalier duo was the lowest ranked team to take the title since Auburn's Andrew Colombo and Mark Kovacs, ranked No. 27, won the championship in 2002, also in College Station.

In the first set, the Tennessee team jumped out to an early lead. After Sandgren held in the first game, the Volunteers rallied from a 40-0 hole to break Inglot's serve to take a 2-0 lead. That proved to be the only time the Cavalier team was broken all day. The Virginia team had three break points on Sandgren's serve when the Vol was serving for the first set at 5-3, but couldn't take advantage and Tennessee held to win the opening set.

Just like in their first round match against the top seeded team from Ole Miss and their semifinal win over UNC, Inglot and Shabaz looked to rally after losing the first set. The second set featured strong serving from both sides as neither team faced a break point and just one game went to deuce. The set went to a tiebreaker with the Volunteers looking for a title and the Cavaliers looking for a decisive third set. The UVa team went up a mini-break a 2-1 when Smith's volley went into the net. That was all the Cavalier duo needed as they won all the points on their serve and won set point off of Sandgren's to take the tiebreaker 7-4.

Inglot and Shabaz took the momentum of the tiebreaker to take an early lead in the third set. With Sandgren serving at 1-1, the Cavalier team got three break points at 0-40. The Volunteers rebounded to win the next three points to get back to deuce, but the Cavaliers followed by winning the next two for their only break of the match and a 2-1 lead. The teams held serve over the next eight games to put the match on Shabaz's racquet at 5-4. In the final game, he hit two aces and two service winners to hold at love and clinch the championship.

The title was the first doubles championship for the ACC. Inglot and Shabaz were the first ACC team to reach the final since the start of the modern NCAA Individual Championships in 1977.

Michael Shabaz and Dominic Inglot became the first ACC doubles team to win a NCAA title in 2009

Drew Courtney and Michael Shabaz won UVa's second consecutive doubles title in 2010

DREW COURTNEY & MICHAEL SHABAZ 2010 NCAA DOUBLES CHAMPIONS

Michael Shabaz and Drew Courtney won the 2010 NCAA Doubles Championship, the fourth NCAA Individual championship in Virginia program history.

The unseeded Cavalier duo, ranked No. 14 nationally entering the tournament, topped second-seeded John-Patrick Smith and Davey Sandgren of Tennessee in the final, 6-7(4), 6-2, 6-3.

It was the second consecutive doubles title for Shabaz, who won the 2009 championship with Dominic Inglot, also defeating the Volunteer team of Smith and Sandgren in the final.

In the 2010 final, the Cavalier team jumped out to a quick start, breaking Sandgren's serve in the opening game. They held that advantage until Shabaz was broken at 5-4 when he was serving for the opening set. The set went to a tiebreaker, which the Tennessee duo won 7-4 to take the first set.

Courtney and Shabaz regrouped in the second set and went up a break when they broke Sandgren's serve for a 3-1 lead. They held that advantage until they broke Sandgren's serve again to close out the second set 6-2.

The Cavalier team took a break lead early in the final set when they broke Sandgren's serve for the third consecutive time for a 3-1 lead. Each side held serve in the next four games to set up Courtney serving for the match at 5-3. He hit two service winners and two aces, including one on match point, to seal the victory.

Shabaz became the first player since Matt Lucena of California to win consecutive doubles titles. Lucena won the 1990 and 1991 titles, also accomplishing the feat by playing with different partners.

It was the fourth consecutive year that Virginia has won a NCAA individual championship. Somdev Devavrmn won the singles title in 2007 and 2008 before Shabaz/Inglot and Shabaz/Courtney have won the doubles title the next two years. Virginia was the first school to win individual titles in four consecutive years since USC did so in 1961-64.

JARMERE JENKINS & MAC STYSLINGER 2013 NCAA DOUBLES CHAMPIONS

The Virginia duo of Jarmere Jenkins and Mac Styslinger won the fifth NCAA Individual title in school history, capturing the NCAA Doubles Championship over Chris Camillone and David Holiner of Texas 3-6, 6-2, 6-4 at the Atkins Tennis Center. Earlier in the day, Jenkins' bid for the NCAA Tennis Triple Crown came up short as he suffered a 7-6(8), 6-4 loss to Blaz Rola of Ohio State in the NCAA Singles Final.

Jenkins and Styslinger become the third NCAA Doubles Champions in Virginia history. Michael Shabaz and Dominic Inglot won the title in 2009 and Shabaz defended his title the following year, teaming with Drew Courtney.

The Cavalier pair, seeded No. 4, faced a Texas pair that were alternates that gained entry into the draw and then defeated three top-five teams to reach the final.

In the final, the Texas duo took an early 4-1 lead as the match started outdoors. As it has numerous times during the individual tournaments, thunderstorms came in and the rest of the match was played indoors. Each team held serve over the next four games as the Longhorn pair closed out the first set.

The Cavalier pair took a lead in the second set as they broke Holiner's serve to go up 3-1. They later broke Holiner's serve again four games later to close out the 6-2 set and force a third set.

In the final set, the Texas team took a 3-2 lead by breaking Styslinger's serve. The Cavalier pair answered by breaking Camillone in the next game to get back on serve at 3-3. Jenkins and Styslinger had two break points on Holiner's serve two games later, but couldn't take advantage and the final set was tied at 4-4. After Styslinger held at love for a 5-4 lead, the Cavalier pair broke Camillone in the next game to clinch the 3-6, 6-2, 6-4 victory.

Jenkins was the first player in 12 years to play in both the singles and doubles final in same season. With the victory, Styslinger became the first freshman in 10 years to win a NCAA Doubles Championship.

Jarmere Jenkins and Mac Styslinger celebrate winning the 2013 NCAA Doubles Championship

Ryan Shane became the 14th player of the modern era to win the NCAA Singles Title in the same season as a team title.

RYAN SHANE 2015 NCAA SINGLES CHAMPION

Ryan Shane won Virginia's third NCAA singles title and sixth individual title by capturing the 2015 NCAA Men's Singles Championship. Shane, the No. 8 seed, rallied from down a set and a break to defeat seventh-seeded Noah Rubin of Wake Forest 3-6, 7-6(4), 6-1 at the Hawkins Indoor Tennis Center on the campus of Baylor University.

Rubin started the match strong, jumping out to a 5-0 lead in the first set. After Shane held for 5-1, he took advantage of his first break-point opportunity of the match to close to 5-2. During the changeover, rain caused the match to be moved indoors. In the first game indoors, Shane held for 5-3 before Rubin held in a four-deuce game to close out the opening set.

The second set was on serve until Rubin broke to take a 3-2 lead. He held that advantage until he served for the championship at 5-4 in the second, but Shane broke him to stay in the match. After both players held, it went to a tiebreaker. Shane was up a mini-break at 4-2 at the changeover and won the breaker 7-4 to draw even in the match.

The final set began with Shane breaking Rubin at love in the first game to take an early lead. He took a two-break lead later in the set as he broke for a 4-1 advantage. After holding for a 5-1 lead, Shane broke Rubin again to close out the three-set victory.

Shane became the 14th player in the modern era (since 1977) to win the NCAA Singles Championship after helping his school win the team title. He joins the group of Matt Mitchell (Stanford, 1977), John McEnroe (Stanford, 1978), Tim Mayotte (Stanford, 1981), Mikael Pernfors (Georgia, 1985), Dan Goldie (Stanford, 1986), Alex O'Brien (Stanford, 1992), Bob Bryan (Stanford, 1998), Alex Kim (Stanford, 2000), Matias Boeker (Georgia, 2001), Amer Delic (Illinois, 2003), Benjamin Becker (Baylor, 2004), and Steve Johnson (USC, 2011 and 2012).

THAI-SON KWIATKOWSKI 2017 NCAA SINGLES CHAMPIONS

Virginia men's tennis senior Thai-Son Kwiatkowski was crowned the 2017 NCAA Men's Singles Champion after defeating North Carolina's William Blumberg 6-4, 7-6 (5) in the final at the Dan Magill Tennis Complex in Athens, Ga.

This is the fourth time a Cavalier has won the title with Kwiatkowski joining Somdev Dewvarman (2007 and 2008) and Ryan Shane (2015) as an NCAA Singles champion. It also comes less than one week since Kwiatkowski helped lead the Cavaliers to the 2017 NCAA Team Championship.

The two players traded breaks in the first set, putting the scoring back on serve until Kwiatkowski broke Blumberg to go up 5-4 and then held serve to win the first set, 6-4. In the second set, both players again traded breaks in the middle of the set, but it finished in a 6-6 deadlock, forcing a tiebreaker. The two players battled back-and-forth to a 5-5 tie with Kwiatkowski winning the final two points to take the tiebreaker and win the match 6-4, 7-6 (5).

This was the third time this season Blumberg, the ACC Freshman of the Year, Most Outstanding Player of the NCAA team tournament and the ITA National Rookie of the Year, and Kwiatkowski had faced one another. The two played one another last week in the final of the NCAA team championship with Blumberg winning 6-3, 6-2 as well as prevailing in the ACC Championship semifinals, while their meeting at ITA National Team Indoors was abandoned in the third set before completion.

This was the third time Kwiatkowski played in the NCAA Singles tournament, but it was his first trip to the finals. Kwiatkowski ends his career having won an NCAA singles championship, three-straight NCAA team championships, including being named the MVP of the 2016 tournament, an ITA National Team Indoors title, three ACC Championships as well as winning the singles and doubles titles last season at the ITA All-American. He finished his collegiate career with a 136-24 record in singles and a 95-21 mark in doubles.

ITA NATIONAL TEAM INDOORS

ITA Division I National Men's Team Indoor Championship has been annually since 1974. Since 2009, 60 teams battle in a single-elimination regional event, known as Kickoff Weekend, for the right to play in the annual 16-team National Team Indoor Championships. Virginia has won the title six times, including in 2017 when they did so at the Boar's Head Sports Club. Only Stanford (12) and UCLA (7) have won more team indoor titles.

RETIRED JERSEYS

SOMDEV DEVVARMAN

Class of 2008

The most accomplished player in ACC history, Somdev Devvarman capped his historic Cavalier career in 2008. A school record five-time All-American, Devvarman was also a two-time NCAA Singles Champion and a two-time ITA National Player of the Year.

As a senior in 2007-08, Devvarman dominated collegiate tennis. He posted a 44-1 singles record, won his second consecutive NCAA Singles title, was ranked No. 1 in the ITA Singles Rankings every week of the season and earned All-American honors in singles for the third time. In doubles, Devvarman and Treat Huey were ranked No. 1 in the ITA Doubles Rankings for the entire regular season and earned All-American honors for the second time. The ITA honored Devvarman as the National Player of the Year and the National Senior Player of the Year.

In 2006-07, Devvarman became the first player from the ACC to win the NCAA Singles Championship and ended the year ranked No. 1 in the ITA Rankings. He was named the ITA National Player of the Year while also winning the organization's Rafael Osuna Sportsmanship Award. Devvarman finished the year with a school record 44 singles wins and earned All-American honors for the second time in singles and for the first time in doubles as he teamed with Huey to reach the semifinals of the NCAA Tournament and ended the year ranked No. 2 by the ITA. In 2005-06 Devvarman earned

All-American status for the first time as he reached the final of the NCAA Singles Tournament, falling to UCLA's Benjamin Kohlloeffel.

Devvarman ended his career with a school record 158 singles wins. He also holds the NCAA record with 18 career wins in the NCAA Singles tournament.

Devvarman turned pro in June of 2008 and has had a meteoric rise up the world rankings. He began his career by winning his first four professional tournaments (two futures, one challenger, and one exhibition tournament). In 2009, he reached the final of the ATP Chennai Open, the second round of the US Open and helped India advance to the World Group of the Davis Cup. In 2010, he cracked the world top 100 for the first time in his career. In 2011 year, he reached a final of an ATP Tour event for the second time in his career at the SA Open in Johannesburg. He competed in all four grand slams that year and reached a career-high No. 62 world ranking.

He was the first Cavalier player to have his jersey retired with a ceremony on Jan. 23, 2009. He was the first Virginia player to be inducted into the ITA Collegiate Tennis Hall of Fame on May 19, 2019.

BRIAN VAHALY

Class of 2001

Virginia's first All-American, Brian Vahaly was the dominant player in the ACC during his career as a Cavalier.

The first three-time singles All-American in school history, Vahaly capped his career in 2001 by reaching the NCAA Singles Tournament final, falling to Matias Boeker of Georgia. The ACC Player of the Year in 2000 and 2001, Vahaly is the only Cavalier to earn the honor twice. He is also the one of two Virginia players to participate in four NCAA Singles Tournaments.

Ranked as high as No. 2 in the ITA Singles Rankings in his career, Vahaly finished his time at Virginia with almost every school record, including 40 singles wins in a season and 125 singles wins in his career.

In doubles, Vahaly teamed with Huntley Montgomery to earn a No. 1 doubles ranking in 2001, Virginia's first ever No. 1 national ranking. The duo were the No. 1 seed in the 2001 NCAA Doubles Tournament and reached the semifinals. They ended the year ranked No. 1 nationally by the ITA.

Following his graduation, Vahaly had the most successful professional career of any Cavalier. He reached a high of a No. 64 world singles ranking in 2003, a time when he was the only player ranked in the top 100 of the ATP tour with a college degree. He played in all four grand slam tournaments, including reaching the second round of Wimbledon in 2003. That year, he also reached the semifinals of the Kroger St. Jude Tournament in Memphis (falling to Andy Roddick) and he defeated third ranked Juan Carlos Ferrero en route to the quarterfinals of his first Tennis Masters Series event, the Pacific Life Open in Indian Wells, Calif.

Off the court, Vahaly was active during his professional career. In 2003, he started the Brian Vahaly Brighter Future Foundation to support youth and collegiate tennis along with the St. Vincent de Paul Society. That year he was featured in People magazine's "25 Hottest Bachelors" issue.

He was the second Cavalier player to have his jersey retired with a ceremony on Jan. 21, 2011.

2013 ANTHONY J. MCKEVLIN AWARD ACC TOP MALE ATHLETE

Aside from Maryland's John Lucas, who played both tennis and basketball, Jarmere Jenkins was the first tennis player to be named the top male athlete in the Atlantic Coast Conference. The title has a past honoree list that includes four Naismith Basketball Hall of Famers (including Michael Jordan), seven number one NBA draft picks and a Heisman Trophy winner.

Jenkins was the fifth Cavalier to receive the McKevlin Award. He joins football star Frank Quayle (1969), basketball legends Barry Parkhill (1972) and Ralph Sampson (1983) and lacrosse standout Chris Rotelli (2003).

THE STREAK

On April 23, 2006, the Cavaliers fell 4-3 against Duke in the final of the ACC Championship. It would be the last loss that UVA would have against an ACC opponent in a dual match for almost a full decade.

The Cavaliers won 140 consecutive dual matches against ACC foes, the longest winning streak in conference history in any sport. The run started with a victory over Wake Forest on May 14, 2006 and ended with a 4-2 loss to North Carolina on February 15, 2016 in the final of the 2016 ITA National Team Indoor Championship.
